L. GALE GARDNER

Mr. Gardner Greets East

It is a pleasure to welcome our students back to school—both the new ones and the old ones. This school is maintained for the sole purpose of providing the youth of this community the very finest educational opportunity possible during these high school years.

Important as it is to carry out your day by day assignments to the utmost of your ability, perhaps you may realize that even greater benefits will come to you as you practice and learn to live more cooperatively with others, as you deevlop attitudes of tolerance of their views, and as you become more inclined to respect their rights. This school community may well become a laboratory for you in which you strive for finesse in the art of getting along with people. Those who learn this important technique well may find their opportunity for success and usefulness greatly enhanced in the bigger community of which you will ultimately be a part.

As in any other school, your development here will be in proportion to your effort.

Coming Events

- Booster Club Soc Hop, October 25.

East Gives 333% of Quota to United-Red Cross Drive

East High has reached 333% of its quota in the United Fund-Red Cross drive. This year's campaign was the most successful drive in East's history.

For the first time, every group was at least 100%, and few groups were below 200%. Miss Bird's group had the highest percentage, 1006%, and Miss Tatem's group raised the most money — over $47.00. It is interesting to note that these same group teachers finished in the same order last year.

The UF-RC drive got its kick-off in chapel Thursday, September 20, with Katherine Mahon, Phyllis Bales, and Richard Ray telling how their groups raised money last year.

A poster was kept in the showcase to show how the groups were doing. There was little interest shown in the first few days, but as the percentages grew, so did interest in the chart. It looked as if Miss Bird's group was going to leave the pack behind, but Mr. Brewer's, Miss Tatem's and Miss McDougall's groups took up the chase.

"The last few days the money came in so fast I couldn't keep the chart up," said Mike Oliver, who was in charge of recording the progress. With such enthusiasm there were soon several groups whose percentage was greater than was possible to show on the chart.

Many groups raised their money by observing "soup days" at lunch hour—giving the rest of the money usually spent on desserts and other luxuries to the UF. While many a student lost weight, the UF gained momentum.

The UF had a twofold meaning for the students. It furnished friendly competition between home groups, but the outstanding phase of the drive was the knowledge that in our friendly contest we were helping those less fortunate than we.

Horace Greeley, who always insisted that the word "news" was plural, once wired a reporter: "Are there any news?"

The reply came back by wire: "Not a new."

—Cheer.

National Honor Society Begins New Year

The National Honor Society held its first meeting early in September to discuss work on the Beacon, which the Society publishes every year.

Meetings of the Honor Society are held each Friday during group period. These meetings are closed, in order to make the Beacon a surprise to everyone.

The National Honor Society held its first meeting early in September to discuss work on the BEACON, which the Society publishes every year.

Members of the Honor Society are chosen for excellency in these points: Leadership, Scholarship, Service, and Character. Each prospective member must be passed on by the faculty council, who study their qualifications and elect those to fill the quota, which is 15 per cent of the Senior Class.

At present there are 13 members of the East High Honor Society. New members will be selected and inducted later this fall.

The present members, chosen last spring, are Elizabeth Bell, Frances Brown, Carol Clem, Margie Clotfelter, Ara Dillard, Karolee Gallop, Katherine Mahon, Helen Mason, Bobby Sherwood, Elvin Henry, Bobby Simerly, Tim Warner, and Veda Webb.

The Honor Society has two projects that they work on during the year, the publishing of the Beacon and study of parliamentary procedure.

Any member who wishes can help take and develop the pictures. The staff makes all pictures. All photographic equipment belongs to Mr. Campbell, and the printing equipment belongs to the Honor Society.

East P-TA Promotes Membership Drive

East's P-TA membership drive is now in progress. The faculty has 100% membership, according to Mrs. Raymond Lewis, membership chairman. The committee is striving to reach an equal percentage in parent membership by urging each student to make a special effort to help them put this drive over the top.

In order to spur enthusiasm, P-TA is offering a $5.00 cash award to the first home group in each grade that has 100% parent membership during October, which has been designated as enrollment month. However, P-TA doors are always open, and the invitation to join is a standing one.

The football squad plans to give its rendition of the "Can Can" in the "Moms and Pops 1957 Review" sponsored by East P-TA. The Review is to be emceed by Eddie Parker.

Supper, served from 6 to 8 P.M. at East, will precede the feature, which begins at 8 P.M., Thursday, November 29, 1956. Tickets go on sale soon.

This will be an ultra special evening of fun, entertainment, and fellowship, according to Mr. and Mrs. John Watts, chairmen.

East P-TA officers are Mrs. Ben Zwick, president; Mrs. Joe Higdon, First vice-president; Miss Mary K. Scarbrough, second vice-president; Mrs. Wilbur Blair, third vice-president; Mrs. Faine Shipe, treasurer; Mrs. Harvey Austin, recording secretary; Mrs. Clyde Buhl, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Richard Filler, junior P-TA adviser; Mrs. Herman Wayland, historian; Mrs. E. J. Sherwood, parliamentarian.

Mr. Isham Gurley Elected President

The patrons of East High recently formed a Boosters' Club for the purpose of building the morale of the school and of helping individual students.

East's newly formed Boosters' Club has elected the following officers: Mr. Isham Gurley, president; Mr. Bob Hutsell, vice-president; Mr. Ernie Hooper, secretary; Mr. John Watts, treasurer.

One of the main objectives of the Boosters' Club is to create more interest in the school sports program through the help of the students, as well as of the parents. The Boosters' Club has been sponsoring pep-rallies at the school. They have also sponsored sock-hops to create more school interest and support.

The Boosters' Club is trying to arrange a way in which to start a sports program in all the junior high schools around Knoxville. In this way the club is trying to curb delinquency, which starts when boys have nothing to keep them busy. With more boys in junior high school spending time participating in some sport, they will have an activity to occupy their time. In this program, the boys participating can have some good clean fun which will help build their minds and bodies. The senior high schools around this area will also profit from the program because the boys will be more experienced in their respective sports when they entered high school.

The members of the Booster's Club want to express their appreciation to Mr. DeRobertis, the band, the cheerleaders, the coaches, Mr. Gardner, and the students for their cooperation and help in making the pep-rallies a success.

'Beacon' Wins First Place

The 1956 East High School Beacon has just been awarded a first place rating in the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, the largest yearbook rating association in the world.

Mr. Campbell, sponsor; Martha Walker and Evelyn Jones, co-editors, along with their fine staff, worked unceasingly in order to bring East High the best annual ever.

Mr. Campbell and his staff took and developed all the pictures that were used in this Beacon.

Evelyn Jones, in recognition for her efforts, is now working with the American Yearbook Company, helping others compile their annuals.

The publishing of the Beacon is the yearly project of the East High chapter of the National Honor Society.

Ara Dillard and Karolee Gallup, co-editors for this year, together with their staff, are working to top all previous honors won by the East High Beacon.

Initiative is a combination of brains and energy, but blah blah and bustle can sometimes fool people.

We Need Your Help!

This year, the BLUE and GRAY is beginning anew. We hope that by working for you and with you we will be able to make it the best paper we've ever had here at East High. However, we can do only so much; without your backing, the paper will not have a chance to succeed.

Do you have any suggestions about how to make this paper a little better? We don't always know your preferences or what you would like. Your criticisms or suggestions would be valuable. We know we will make mistakes, but with your help, we can make this year one to remember and our BLUE and GRAY the best ever.

Free Education is a Priceless Gift

One of the priceless gifts that have been handed down to us through the years, is that of free education for all.

As youngsters, we await our first day in school with eagerness. What will it be like? What shall we do? How shall we act? These questions are soon answered.

During our first few years in school, we are taught how to read, spell, add, subtract, draw, and how to cooperate with others. Our teachers gently coax us to apply ourselves. We learn by repetition.

Now that we are in high school, however, we have crossed into the adult world. We must conduct ourselves accordingly. School is no longer something to occupy us for the day. It is now a privilege. This privilege must not be abused. We must learn to look at school as a means to better our standard of living, our character, and our personality. No one can do this for us; we are the pilots; school is the training base.

When life's disappointments, sorrows, and fears come, only those who have had a thorough training, only those who have learned to think for themselves, will be able to weather the storm.

Each day contains twenty-four hours. No hour can be re-lived. Once it has been used, it is gone forever. With each passing hour, opportunities come and go. Whether or not we take advantage of them is up to us.

Remember, school is the training base, we are the pilots. What course we decide to follow will determine our future.

Which will you choose?

Eventually, Why Not Now?

This year, we the staff of the Blue and Gray, have worked hard in order to bring you a paper that you will find interesting, informative, and one that you will want to keep.

Just as we ask for your suggestions, we ask for your support. If we are to make this the best paper ever, we need your backing.

A subscription to the Blue and Gray is two dollars for the entire year. These payments may be made in fifty-cent installments, or in full.

Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding. Proverbs 4:7

Pledge Of Honor For Leaders

As a leader in or representative of my school, elected or appointed, in athletics or in any other extra-curricular or scholastic capacity, I realize that such honors impose certain responsibilities upon me. I, therefore, pledge my loyalty to my school. At no time will I support or be in sympathy with any strike against or boycott of any department of my school, or any official thereof. I shall not follow or sympathize with any radical or irresponsible leadership in my school whose purposes, if accomplished, may prove detrimental to my school. In all matters pertaining to my school, I will throw my influence solidly behind constructive measures, at the cost even of personal popularity. I shall abide by all regulations and actively urge all other students to do likewise. Furthermore, I commit myself to good conduct and honesty in the classrooms, throughout the building, and on the campus, and to scholastic attainment commensurate with my ability.

(Passed by the faculty of East High School.)

ALUMNI NEWS

Congratulations to the following couples: Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Vaughan (the former Nina Loy) on their recent marriage. Renfro Sproul and "Ceggie" Brichetto, who will be married November 24 at Magnolia Church.

Some of the alumni attending the University of Tennessee this year as freshmen are Steve Lockett, Gail Duggan, Don Everence, Charlie Tarter, Jody Sobolewski, Joe Kelley, Roy Griffin, Gay Valentine, Aubrey Needham, Frank Flynn, George Cradic, and Emerson Mounger. John Cain, Barry Griffen, Hal Harrison and Dale Grovenstein are attending Carson-Newman College.

Hillis McKamey and Mary McEver have returned to Maryville College.

Beverly Ogan, Gerald Wayne Smith, and Bill Gillett are attending East Tennessee State College.

John Laughlin has entered ministerial study at Hiawassee College.

Patsy Kirby has returned to Belmont College.

As a new resident of Kentucky, Carol Bowden is attending the University of Kentucky.

Shirley McKinsey has finished her training as hostess for American Airlines. At the Delta Airlines office in New Orleans, we see Dale Dillard serving as a reservationist.

Jimmy Shetterly is now serving in the Army.

The hospitals have some mighty pretty student nurses. Among them are Mildred Wagner at St. Mary's, Wilma Breeden at U-T Hospital, and Sherra Dudley at Fort Sanders.

Berea College boasts two East graduates, Halburn Kitts and Rebecca Smith.

X-Change

Here we are again to give you a peek into what is going on in other schools across the nation.

At Treadwell High School, Memphis, Tennessee, boys and girls who are going steady fasten the buckles on their ivy league skirts and trousers. Those who are not, leave them unbuckled.

Students at Sparta High School, Huntington Park, California, have made their own school standards. In this code they promise to cultivate a spirit of honesty and fairness, respect and pride toward fellow students and school, and to strive to be better citizens in school and community.

A student political rally is to be held at Rock Island High School, Rock Island, Illinois. The rally, whose theme will be "Ike or Adlai, which one will it be?" is backed by teachers. It is to be held November 2. Sounds like an interesting and easy way to get an education.

Elvis Presley is in the spotlight again in Charleston, West Virginia, where girls and boys are wearing Presley fashions. Everything from blue jeans with green stitching to pajamas has either Elvis's picture or name on it. So far this fad hasn't reached East.

Several schools in Illinois are having matches in archery, a new competitive sport. Our boys are going to have to get out their bows and arrows and get to work.

Daffynitions from South High:

Colon: Two periods going steady.

Psychiatrist: Man you see when you are going crazy and he helps you.

Mountain Ears

Howdy friends! I jest now come a hankerin' into town on top of my old mule, Clementine. I'm so glad that that thar East High has started up. I've been plumb lonesome for the sight of my old hog-callin' buddies.

Wal, here I are in this hyar school building. Mighty purty place, I must admit. Hit's purtier than a sow at hog-killin' time. I say, thar sure is some mighty fanciful lookin' gals down here. Purty too! That Sue Elle Hankins, Cynthia Van Mol, Carol Day, Linda McMinn, Jeanne Dunsmore, Joan Layman, and Judy Mills are all sprightly lookin' fillies. I bet those young fellers down here thank so too. Those pritty lookin' little ol' boys hain't so bad or at least my ball-and-chain says so. When you look at Gordie Brown, Benny Bounds, Richie Hooper, Bobby Sherwood, Gene Morrell, David Gurley, and Tommy Lawson you've got to admit my old woman can sure pick 'em.

Around this hyar high school these days, somebody might think it were spring—with all the lovey-doveyin' that's goin' on. Girls like the boys, and boys like the girls, and so far I ain't heard no complaints about the arrangement. Beverly Stump likes football, but I think people are suspicious of her. She don't look at the game—just sits and stares at one little boy that runs 'round with a little rubber egg!! Jest cain't figure her out!

Ever' time that Richie Hooper moves an elbow, some little girl up in the stands just keeps a bobbin' up and down a' hollerin'. She sit in front of me one time, and you would a thunk she were sittin' on a pin!

She sure is cute, though; little, with purty black hair. I believe her name were Joanne Layden-Layfew! Ah! I ain't sure what it 'twas!

All these little gals like the pigskin parade! Those boys that play with that thar rubber egg. They must be hansome, but I don't know. They just hain't my type!

Well, it's time to mosey along.

Giddap, Clementine!

Club News

Clubs at East High School are busy planning for the new school year. Most of these clubs have started the year by electing new officers.

The Library Club's officers for the coming year are Charlotte Martin, president; Mary Alice Money, vice-president; Veda Webb, secretary; Patty Collins, treasurer; Charles Wagner, social chairman.

Officers for the D. E. Club for the year are Connie Biggers, president; Helen Winstead, vice-president; Dortha Warren, secretary; Vivian Chamber, treasurer; Joyce Sane, reporter; Shirley Brooks, Jean Black, social committee; Helen Manning, Joyce Lawson, book committee.

The first-year Latin classes had a meeting during class October 10. They sang songs in Latin and discussed buying a Latin pin. Officers for the first-period Latin class are June Hurst, president; Janice Doyal, vice-president; Sue Ella Hankins, secretary; Steve Wall, treasurer.

The second-year Latin class had its first meeting October 10. After a short business meeting they played a Latin game and sang several songs in Latin. The newly elected officers are Eddie Beeler, president; Wayne Hunter, vice-president; Ann O'Dell, secretary; John Murphy, treasurer; Barbara Zwick, program chairman.

Second-year Spanish Club chose a new name for this year. Their name is Los Arece Suretes, which translated means "The Lucky Thirteen." Officers elected were Jimmy Hicks, president; Jim Davis, vice-president; Judy Edwards, secretary; Raymond Edmonds, treasurer; Verlin Webb, mascot.

New officers for the seventh-period Spanish 1 class are Sandra Smith, president; Virginia Finley, vice-president; Gloria McKissick, secretary; Dallas Dycus, treasurer.

The Key Club officers for the coming year are Richie Hopper, president; David Lovell, vice-president; Tim Warner, secretary; Elvin Henry, treasurer.

Thespians plan to present the "FOLLIES" November 19-20. New officers for the Thespians are Patsy Dunsmore, president; Pat Wright, vice-president; Phyllis Bales, secretary; Beverly Stump, treasurer.

New members for the Future Teachers of America are Diana Austin, Anette Brobeck, Nancy Clayton, Judy Edmonds, and Linda and Sally Phillips.

Officers for the Student Council this year are Bobby Simerly, president; Ara Dillard, vice-president; Sarah Roach, secretary; Veda Webb, treasurer; Barbara Parkhurst, sergeant-at-arms.

This year the council has made and sold shakers for the football games.

See you next issue!

Fashions

East High School is keeping up with the new fall fashions. Just look around the halls.

Ann Cochran, a junior, follows the fall fashion trend in her chocolate brown outfit. She looks very trim in her straight wool skirt and matching sweater with angora trim collar to make it a striking outfit.

Sandra Swann looks darling in her beige skirt and sweater to match. The skirt is soft wool and the sweater is the new style of heavy ribbed net with a stand-up collar.

Two of our cute sophomores look very chic in their new outfits: Linda Borruff in her orange sweater and skirt set, and Carol Bishop in her black skirt and sweater.

Tuck Fortenberry in his black sweater, black pants, and black shoes is eye-appealing, isn't he Judy?

David Grahm really looks good in his baby blue corduroy shirt that matches his blue eyes.

Co-Captain Gene Morrell looks real m-m-m-m in his black striped shirt with black denim pants.

But a real heartbreaker in anything is Freddy McBride, especially in his new pink and gray shirt.

That's all for now, gang; see you next month.

Miss Neubert: "As we have learned, the former ruler of Russia was called a Czar and his wife, a Czarina. Can anyone tell me what the Czar's children were called?"

Vernon Walker: "Czardines."

Sport Scoop with Hoop

By Richie Hooper

When I began to write this column, the first thing that came to my mind was the fine school spirit being displayed at East this year. Everyone seems to be behind all school activities 100 per cent. This spirit is shown by how well the team is being backed at the games this year. The cheerleaders should really be commended on the fine job they are doing, too.

Not only are the students in fine spirit, but the people of East Knoxville have organized a "Boosters' Club" to support school functions. For the first time in many years, East has had bonfire pep rallies before all the games. A car pool has been organized to help students get to the games that don't have rides. All credit is due to the "Boosters' Club" for these helpful additions to the school program.

Congratulations to our coaches, who began fall practice with a very dismal outlook. Graduation, Armed Services, marriage, and transfers had made heavy inroads, leaving a small and inexperienced squad. With great determination, Coaches Reasonover and Hancock worked harder than any team member possibly could have in trying to field a winning team.

This determination and hard work of both players and coaches has paid off thus far this season, because East has yet to be outplayed in league competition. They may have been beaten but not outplayed.

The boys of the football team are proud to have such fine coaches, and they couldn't possibly hope for better ones.

All this and more add up to prove East Knoxville is the best place to live and East High is the best school to attend.

9th Grade Team Has Clean Record

By PHIL BETTIS

The newly organized Ninth Grade football team is doing exceptionally well this year. They have a 5-0-1 record, with only three more games to play.

This team has been led by the running of Forrest Needham, Doug Wise and Jim Scott. The line is composed of Bo Minnis, Tommy Greene, Andy Raider, Dick Eason, Ronnie Rhodes, Alvin Edwards and David Lawson.

Coach Bible is well pleased with the ninth grade team. He said that the results of this team have proved that more young boys are taking an interest in sports.

These young Mountaineers have won the following games: Rule, 13-7; South, 26-0; Rule, 7-0; South, 13-0, and Central, 13-0. Fulton was the only team that came close to defeating the Mountaineers by tying them, 7-7.

East Drops Thriller To Young

Roundballers Start Early

By DICK BURNETTE

Several 9th graders are going out for basketball this year. Doug Wise, Bo Minnis, Dick Eason, Tommy Green, Robert Mitchell, and Roger Henry have started practice.

We are fortunate to have many boys who have already had some experience out for the team. They are Elvin Henry, Bobby Sherwood, Harold Warner, George Bible, Jimmy Large, Glen Worley, James Vititoe, Gordon Brown, Mike Oliver, Phil Haun, Dickie Long, Noel Cramer, David Dycus, Edward Cooper, and Sammy Furrow.

Lee Bailey, Bud Lobetti, and Tommy Lawson, three of our junior football players, are planning to go out for basketball also.

Two new boys who are working out in the gym are Lafe Thomson and Jerry Beets. Both moved here during the summer.

CO-CAPTAINS: Richie Hooper and Eugene Morrell.

Title Hopes Fall In 13-7 Setback

BENNY BOUNDS

East's Mountaineers were ahead of Young High Yellowjackets, 7-6, until the last of the third quarter last Friday night at Duff Field. The game ended with the score 13-7, with Young ahead.

The Mountaineers took the opening kickoff on their 40-yard line, and marched to the Yellow Jackets' seven, only to have their offense halted by a fumble.

On the next play from scrimmage, Fred Rice scored on a quarterback sneak for the Mountaineers' only touchdown. The Mountaineers faked a kick, and Fred Rice passed to Lee Bailey for the extra point.

Rex Cox set up the first Yellow Jacket tally by recovering a fumble on the Mountaineers' 15. It took half-dozen plays for the Jackets to score.

Kenneth Johnson, trapped in the flat, saw right end Don Robinson loose and threw him a pass for the first Jacket touchdown. The conversion attempted by Bill Hughes was no good.

Early in the second half, a Rice pass was intercepted by Cox for Young. This Jacket drive was halted after making 20 yards to the Mountaineers' 24. Buddy Lobetti gave East another chance when he intercepted a Young pass and ran it back to their 44-yard line. The Mountaineers were stopped nine plays later on the 26.

Bob Smallman punted to his own five, where Johnson took the ball and raced the distance to score. Hughes' conversion was good.

Club Formed For All Athletes

By DAVID LOVELL

East High School has organized the "Mountaineer Athletes Club" for the benefit and enjoyment of boys participating in athletics.

The requirements for membership in this club are that the boy must be engaged in some form of athletics. If he quits that sport, he is automatically dropped from the club.

Officers for the club are Richie Hooper, president; Gene Morrell, vice-president; Bobby Sherwood, secretary; Arthur Marler, treasurer; Fred Rice, chaplain; Tom King and Elvin Henry, sergeants-at-arms. Officers must be seniors and have above average grades.

This club is under the supervision of the coaches of East High. When the club meets, there will always be one or more of the coaches at the meeting. Coaches assisting are Jim Reasonover, Clayton Hancock, Buford Bible and John Esposito.

Following a party, they plan to charter a bus Saturday morning and go to Nashville, where a friend has invited the club to see the game between Vanderbilt University and Middle Tennessee State College.

Mr. Gardner says this about the club athletes and coaches: "I think it is one of the finest things which could happen in high school. I appreciate the thought, work, and interest which the coaches have put into it. Never have I seen a bunch of athletes work harder in their respective sports, which include football and basketball to date. With this type of determination, it looks as if East is in for a good year in all sports."

Young And Central Vie For Prep Lead

By DICK BURNETTE

Young High crashed with Central on October 19 to determine which would be the champion of the "Knox Prep Football League."

Young, winner over East High, has had five straight wins. Central has lost only one—to Erwin October 12.

Mountaineers Now Have 3-2-1 Record

By MARK HAMMER

The East High Mountaineers opened the season against Central. From the opening kickoff, East played a sparkling game. In the second half, Gene Morrell went over for the touchdown to make the score 6 to 6.

East High's second game was with the powerful Oak Ridge team which has never lost to an East High team. At the end of the half, the score was 14 to 6.

In the second half Oak Ridge turned on the steam, and the final score was 34 to 6.

East High's third game was with a much improved Bearden eleven. These two teams battled on even terms for the first half, with East ahead, 7 to 6.

In the second half, with Fred Rice leading with a pass to Tommy Lawson, and good defensive work by Richie Hooper and Ronnie Brown, the Mountaineers won, 21 to 6, for their first victory.

East's second win came against Powell. Improved by competition and running for the title, East defeated Powell, 20 to 0.

East High's third victory came over West, and put East right into the thick of the title fight. The final score was 30 to 7.

The Mountaineers' sixth game with Young High was by far the most important game of the season. East took the lead early in the first quarter. East, unable to hold the lead, lost the game, 13 to 7.

The One I Admire Most

Everyone has someone that he thinks more of than any one else outside his own family. This person is usually someone who has come to his rescue when he was in need. This person is often a teacher, a preacher, or just a kind neighbor. This person is someone that he models himself after and wants to be like.

The person I know is a school teacher. He teaches metals and is liked by all his students for his calm, cool way of doing things. He is always ready to do anything possible to help anyone, without any complaint of any kind.

This teacher, Mr. Paul Brewer, has always been exceptionallly kind and thoughtful to me. Last year I had him for three classes. In metals, he tries not only to teach the art of working on metals but also to make better boys out of his students so they can face life with good thoughts in mind.

If I had my choice of being just like anyone, I think I would select him.

PTA Publication Report

"The Publication Committee of East High's P-TA is grateful to the homegroup representatives who have sold their quota of the National Parent Teacher Magazine," said Mrs. Barney Ray, Chairman of the committee.

The homegroups of Mr. Brewer, Miss Capps, Miss Ellis, Mr. Esposito, Mrs. Kelly, Miss McLaurin, Miss Million, Miss Parker, Miss Neubert, and Mrs. Seale are the ones to date who have met their quota.

The chart near the office will record the progress weekly until the contest closes November 1.

Special recognition in the Blue and Gray will be given the group securing the most subscriptions.

Students Entertain Mrs. Frawley With Party

Mrs. Hazel Frawley was honored at a farewell party given in the school cafeteria October 1.

The student body and members of the faculty presented Mrs. Frawley with a silver bracelet and a corsage of white carnations.

Entertainment was furnished by Phyllis Bales and Mickey Wayland.

The decorations were carried out in a theme of green and white, and refreshments were served by Terry Smullian, Ann Rose, Beverly Stump, Joanne Riggins, Nita Slovis, Rena Ferrell, Helen Mason and Rebecca Ford.

Thanks should go to Mrs. McSpadden, who took care of collecting money and purchasing the gift, and who did the over-all planning for the party.

Before coming to East, Mrs. Frawley was the secretary at Fulton High School. She is now the secretary for Mr. T. N. Johnston, Superintendent of City Schools.

New Teachers Come to East

New arrivals to East High faculty this year are Miss Elaine Dillow and Mrs. Robert Neyland.

Miss Dillow comes to us from Jonesboro, Tennessee. She is the typing and shorthand teacher. Before coming to East, Miss Dillow taught typing and bookkeeping in Georgia. She has worked at Colgate-Palmolive Company in New Jersey for four years and at Carbide and Carbon in Oak Ridge for three years. When asked how she likes East, Miss Dillow replied, "I like it fine."

This is Mrs. Neyland's first experience in working with freshmen. Before coming to East to teach general science, she taught in Oak Ridge. Mrs. Neyland had a full-time job as mother to her fourteen-month-old son, Reese, before taking on her job as teacher. She thinks East is a wonderful school.

Another new addition is Miss Seehorn, our office clerk. Miss Seehorn worked at Park City Lowery School before coming to East. Her job is to keep records of attendance and to look after school business.

Senior Class Elects Officers

The East High School Senior Class has elected its officers for the year. They are:

President, Elvin Henry.
Vice-president, Harold Warner.
Secretary, Phyllis Bales.
Treasurer, Patsy Carroll.
Social chairman, Richie Hooper.
Adviser, Miss Neubert.

Each person wishing to run for any office must first file a qualifying petition with the Student Council Adviser, Miss Horton. After investigation of grades and qualifications by Miss Horton, the Senior Class is given the opportunity to choose, by popular vote, those they want as their leaders.

The duties of these officers are to plan all Senior Class activities, such as Homecoming and the Senior Banquet and Dance.

WHO'S WHO

BOBBY SHERWOOD

Among our seniors this year we have a very nice looking boy who calls himself Bobby Sherwood. Bobby lives with his parents and older brother, Don, at 5417 Holston Hills Road. He attends Fifth Avenue Baptist Church.

Bobby has quite a few activities to keep him busy. He is President of the National Honor Society, Project Committee Chairman of the Key Club, and Secretary of the Mountaineer Athletes Club.

Playing guard on the varsity basketball team, Bobby has a big job. He also likes to play golf and will be on the golf team this spring. He is seen quite often on the golf course.

The students think very highly of Bobby. They like him because he is always very friendly and courteous to them.

He plans to enter the University of Tennessee and major in business. After he graduates from the University of Tennessee, he plans to work with his dad and brother in the furniture business.

ARA DILLARD

Ara is a tall brunette senior who lives with her parents at 2520 East Fifth Avenue. This is the fourth year she has been at East High. She attends church at Fifth Avenue Baptist Church, where she is very active.

Most of Ara's time goes to working on The Beacon, for she is co-editor. But beside this, she has time for other extra activities. One of her favorite activities is debating. She was on the debating team last year and won high honors.

Some of her hobbies are horseback riding, swimming, and singing. She also takes an active part in dramatics and speech. She would like to spend some time in dramatics after she graduates.

She plans to go to college and major in psychology. She particularly would like to go to Agnes Scott College in Atlanta.

Her high hopes are to get married and have a family. She wants to have a Christian home, for she feels that a good home is the most important thing she could ever do with her life.

Don't be afraid to use your brain, it's the little things that count.
