Miss June Hurst was crowned Miss East High at the March Hare March, March 8, 1957, at the East gym.

The informal dance, sponsored by the Physical Education Department of East, had as its main event the presentation of the 1957 Miss East High. Two nominees, who must be seniors, were selected by the home groups and were judged on personality, character, and leadership. Listed below with their escorts were June Hurst, Miss East High, escorted by Mike Oliver; Elizabeth Bell and David Lovell; Shirley Meadows and Clayton Cate; Patsy Dunsmore and Freddy Rice; Karolee Gallop and Pat Wright; Patsy Carroll and Punchy Vaughn; Dayle Moore and Don Jolley; Katherine Mahon escorted by Elvin Henry.

Mickey Wayland was her usual sweet self with her song of "Don't You Love Me Just a Little Bit? Huh?"

Another form of entertainment was the "Jitterbug" and "Slow Dance" contest. Winners of the jitterbug contest, which was a tie, were Beverly Stump and Tommy Lawson; Arrow Massey and Richard Foster.

Patsy Carroll and Punchy Vaughn were winners of the Slow Dance Contest.

Student Council News

East High's Student Council is sponsoring a "Scrub Down-Shine Up" week from April 8-12. The council plans to have several projects during the week. As a climax, a Backward Western Mixer will be held on Friday 12.

The council plans to have all homegroups wash and wax all the desks in the school. This week is for the whole school and not just for the council.

The Council's art committee is going to paint room numbers over all the doors and on the typewriters in the typing room. Since Mrs. Kelly has requested numbers on her desks, they will paint these also.

Have any of you noticed the pencil marks on the large yellow posts just outside the doors and on the bulletin boards? Well, the council members have too, and they plan to do something about it! But the job can't be completed without your cooperation. They can clean them, but only you can keep them clean by not marking on them. Please help!

On Tuesday, April 9, a special skit will be presented in chapel in connection with the dance Friday night. The theme of the skit will be "What Kind of Boys Do Girls Like?" It is written by Tommy Minnis.

The dance Friday will have a western theme. The backdrop, drawn by the art committee, will be a desert scene, with a real horse to have your picture made on. Refreshments consisting of home-made candy and cold drinks wil be sold.

The "Mystery Singer" will provide entertainment and canned music and lots of fun for all will mark the occasion.

East Students To Attend Library Conference

The following East High School library assistants will attend: Billie Ray Cannon, Libby Collins, Shirley Williams, Charlotte Martin, Judy Edmonds, Bob Daniel, and Bobby Simerly.

Get Well Card

The students and faculty of East High School are happy to learn that Mr. Gardner is recovering from his recent operation and will return to school soon.

Impressions of East

Miss Carol Jones, who is doing graduate work at Peabody, recently did field work for a week under the guidance of Miss Colleen Bennett in the East High Library.

Knoxville is Miss Jones's home town, where she attended the University of Tennessee for four years.

Mr. Gardner was the principal of Moses School, where Miss Jones received her elementary education.

Asked her opinion of East, she proudly replied, "I think it's wonderful!"

D. E. Contests

East Tennessee District Convention of Distributive Education Education Clubs met at the Student Center Building, University of Tennessee campus, Tuesday, March 19.

All eight Knoxville City and Knox County Schools sent their D. E. club members. Dobyns-Bennett, Kingsport, and Kirkham Vocational School, Chattanooga, were also represented. Over 177 students and 12 teacher-coordinators registered.

Vice-President Carolyn Owens, Fulton High, presided at the business meeting. Aretta Brooks, West High, was elected as delegate to the National D. E. Convention in Oklahoma City in April. Joyce Sane, East High, was elected Reporter of the convention and has to arrange all local and state publicity.

Shirley Brooks, East High, won second place in the Spelling contest. Robbie Williams, South, broke a tie to place first. The words were selected from retail textbooks.

Glenn Gregg and Jean Black, of East, placed second in the sales demonstration contest. Glenn wore his Esso Service Station Uniform and gave his customer, Jean, efficient and courteous service. Jean drove a red and white kiddy car furnished by Firestone. Carol Fritts held the Esso gas pump sign.

Central won first place in a selling skit. Other contests held were Parliamentary procedure, merchandise manual, club scrapbook, display, and public speaking. Connie Biggers gave a speech on "How I Satisfy My Customers on the Job."

Sport Scoop with Hoop

By Richie Hooper

Now we've completed our season, football and basketball, let's get in full swing with the spring events.

Talking about swinging, the baseballers have a busy schedule ahead for them. They will play 15 league games along with other outside contests. The squad will journey to Norris for their first game. The boys expect to have a top-notch team.

The Mountaineer fly boys begin their season with the News-Sentinel relays on March 30. Track hopefuls are Bud Lobetti, Mike Oliver, Dick Long, Herman Wayland, Tom King and Neal Henderson, along with many more.

Lawson, Finley, and Murphy have been leading the '57 footballers through their spring drills. The captains, along with such boys as Bob Smallman, Gene Lane, Jim Pettiford, Lee Bailey, and David Manley, have shown great form on the field.

It hasn't been announced yet, but Gene Morrell, Richie Hooper, Ronnie Brown, and Fred Rice will represent East in the City-County football tilt.

Ronnie Brown Receives U. W. Scholarship

Ronnie Brown, 185-pound Senior tackle of the 1957 Mountaineer football squad, has received and accepted a full scholarship to the University of Wyoming.

Ronnie possessed great desire and a will to win, and this has surely paid off for him in the matter of his future education.

He was named to the All-AA and All-City League teams, along with an All-ET honorable mention.

We're all proud of Ronnie, and congratulate him on his accomplishments and honors. He will play for the city all-star team in the annual city-county game.

Math Department Sponsors 'Rabbit-Wig-Hop'

By Catsy Barroll

The Math Department of East High sponsored its annual "Rabbitt-Wig-Hop" last Friday evening at the C'est Bon Restaurant.

As a special feature of the hop, Miss Gladys Million was elected "Miss Bunny of 1957." She wore purple and green bermuda shorts, a blue satin cummerbund, an orange and red checked halter; Completing her outfit, were gold majorette boots. She was presented a bunch of carrots by Mr. B. A. Bible, master of ceremonies.

Acting like true mountaineers, Miss Dowell, Miss Ellis, Miss Tatem, Mrs. (Mother) Kelly, Miss Capps, Mrs. Seahorn, and Mrs. Souther (losing candidates) congratulated the winner.

The candidates were chosen by the Student Council and then closely screened by the student body.

Music for the hop was furnished by "Grandpappy and his famous ensemble."

Plans are already being made for next year's hop, to be held out of town. All teachers will be judged for a year by the students before they are given the privilege of running for "Miss Bunny."

The Good Old Days

By Reggy Peed

The Junior Class is about to go nuts, for in about twelve weeks they will be seniors. It's hard to believe. Only a few years ago many of them were still wearing rompers. A year from now, they will be leaving the portals of East High School for good.

Yes, the juniors remember the good old days—the days when the girl who sat in front of you had such pretty pigtails, and you used to have such fun dipping them in your ink well. And you remember how much fun you had playing "drop the hanky" and always putting it behind your favorite girl; the days you used to write love notes to your sweetheart. Yes, those were the days. They are gone now and will not be forgotten.

World News

Miss Esther Ellis and Miss Jean Naberhuis have just opened an exclusive dress shop in Paris, France, at the request of Christian Dior.

All the girls have been whistling at Mr. Clayton Hancock since he returned with a terrific sunburn which he received while on his Caribbean cruise.

An exciting new movie, starring Miss Ethel Capps and Mr. John Esposito, has just been released by Miss Ruby Bird. This is Miss Bird's first great movie since she became a director for MGM.

Miss Jean Naberhuis won the Women's World Open Golf Tournament. The finals were played off in Rome, Italy, where Miss Emily McLaurin was making plans for the Latin-Spanish Banquet. Miss McLaurin was seen sharing a pizza pie with Lorito.

Miss Mary K. Scarbrough opened a modeling school in New York. She said that her pupils, especially Miss Guerrant Tatem and Miss Grace McDougall, are doing very well.

Wonder why everybody looks at Mr. I. E. Gillenwater twice. Is it that sporty MG he brought back from England or those walking shorts and long socks he wears?

This is your foreign correspondent leaving you with this thought: What a small world!

Miss Ellis Elected Queen Of Milk Breaks

MISS ESTHER ELLIS, newly elected "Queen of the Milk Breaks," is pictured at the age of 10 months. Note the eyes, the mouth, the curly hair; such unreal (?) beauty has not been seen at East High before.

by Catsy Barroll

A wonderful thing has happened at East; Miss Eather Ellis has been elected "Queen of the Milk Breaks." For years Miss Ellis has run for this honor, always getting beaten by one or two votes.

This year she had such people as Mr. B. A. Eddie Parker, and Grandpappy Campbell campaigning for her so she would be sure to win this honor. She even went so far as to give away free pictures of herself wearing her leopard skin bathing suit.

The way in which the queen was chosen was very democratic. Each day during the milk breaks each student was given an extra straw on which to write the name of his choice for queen. So many people went to the lunchroom for milk (just so they could vote for Miss Ellis) that the whole third period was set aside for milk breaks.

The ballots were counted by a select group of the National Failers Society.

The grand prize is a trip to Hollywood on a ZWA transport plane. During her stay in Hollywood Miss Ellis will be taken on a tour of the city by Rock Hudson and Robert Wagner and will be staying in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Fisher.

Miss Ellis will receive a complete wardrobe from a prominent New York store. She also will receive a new home in Holston Hills, and because she will now be living in the suburbs, she will be given a new 1957 Dodge to get around in. To keep her company in the new home, she will be given a pink poodle dog named "Twinkles."

All of this for being "Queen of the Milk Breaks." Congratulations Miss Esther Ellis!

Beautiful Princess Saved By Sir Lancelot

By Catsy Barroll

During the rush of the normal day in the Bird Kingdom, no one seemed to notice until late in the afternoon that the beautiful young princess was missing from her suite. Investigations led the sheriff's men to the deep woods, but the trail stopped, and there were no further clues to work upon.

While taking his hound on a run through the woods, Sir Lancelot noticed tracks in the dust that seemed unusual. With caution he followed the tracks that led into a clearing. Looking twice to be sure that his eyes did not deceive him, he saw the Princess of Bird, Miss Ruby, being held captive by Sir John of Murphyville.

Sneeking nearer, he listened closely to the conversation going on between the two. He discovered that Sir John was holding Miss Ruby captive because she took the credit for the direction of the "Royal Follies," when actually all the work was done by him.

Taking matters into his own hands, Sir Lancelot appeared before Sir John and challenged him to a duel. They fought fiercely, using deadly play books for weapons. In the third act, second scene, Sir Lancelot spoke the fatal word which caused Sir John to bleed with anger.

After defeating Sir John, Lancelot returned Princess Ruby Bird in safety to the Bird Kingdom.

WONDER:

How many queens have been selected at East this year?

Why girls are forever talking to Mr. Bible?

If E.H.S. students will ever settle down to work?

How many girls Dickie Winstead has dated this year?

What became of all the married people at East last year?

Where the Seniors will go on their class trip—Paris or Hawaii?

Why Terry goes around saying "Kyle"?

Who will be next year's Homecoming Queen?

How many games the baseball team will win this year?

If Freddie McBride will ever settle down to one girl?

Ten Little Indians

Ten little Indians sneaked into the lunch line;
Mr. Bible nabbed one and then there were nine.
Nine little Indians came to school late; one had no excuse and then there were eight.
Eight little Indians turned to Channel Eleven;
The Mickey Mouse Club caught one, and then there were seven.
Seven little Indians cheated on an English test;
One ran into the principal, and then there were six.
Six little Indians listened to some jive,
A cool trumpet note "sent" one, and then there were five.
Five little Indians saw a nickel on the floor;
One got stomped in the rush, and then there were four.
Four little Indians got into the senior play free;
One got caught at the exits, and then there were three.
Three little Indians had nothing to do;
One suggested Russian Roulette, and then there were two.
Two little Indians smoked cigarettes by the ton,
One died of lung cancer and then there was one.
One little Indian seeing there was nothing to be done,
Shot himself in the head and then there was none.

'Ira' Wins Best Actor Award

By Jeneva Pitzer

Cats! So you're wondering why you seldom hear of the once well-known Elvis Presley any more. Well, here is why! A rising new rock and roll star, Ira Gillenwater, is receiving all the attention. It was announced last night that the teen-agers' idol had won the best actor award for 1957.

Ira recently appeared in the movie, "Party Doll," co-starring Jane Mansfield's successor, that charming "Jessica Neubert." The applause was simply marvelous when Ira sang "Butterfly" but when he appeared singing Elvis Presley's "Let Me" and then went into a hula, the teen-agers really—well you know how great that rock and roll feeling is.

We are proud to live in Ira's hometown. We feel that no actor can compare with our hero.

Ira is the son of Mr. and Mrs. "Gale" Gillenwater, 3201 Horton Boulevard, Bird Hills, Dowell, Tennessee. Ira is the nephew of the well-known opera star, Esther Ellis.

ISN'T VACATION JUST WONDERFUL!—These are the sentiments expressed by Rebecca Weaver, Margaret Keith, Richie Hooper, and LaVerne Weaver. They found time to pose for our camera between exhausting games of cowboys and Indians.

Miss Dowell is starting an advanced study in literature this six weeks. She says she wants to widen our views on the better things of life. Here's a list of the selected books: "Tarzan" (Gene Morrell); "Who's Afraid of the Big Bad Wolf" (Herman Wayland); "Kon Tiki" (Raymond Edmonds); "The Last of the Mohicans" (Varsity Basketball Team); "Les Miserables" (The French Class); and "The Power of Positive Thinking" (Miss Million).

Tom King is looking for New Prospects for his new barber shop which wil be opening in June (if he graduates). Why don't you boys support it? After all, he might end up another Perry Como. "Hot Diggety!"

Do you know why Pat Asquith and LaVerne Moreland enjoy physics class so much? Well, I can't think of any reason unless it is that they are the only two girls in the class. Good luck, girls.

Miss McLaurin's little pet bird, Lorito, has been very sick lately. It seems he is losing his eyesight and also his feathers. Miss McLaurin called a doctor, but he does not treat birds. Now, if you should happen to know a bird doctor, you get in touch with Miss McLaurin right away! P. S. This is an unusual bird since he speaks Latin, French, English, and Spanish. If he gets better, we are going to send him to the United Nations as a translator.

Clubs In Review

The Spanish clubs are planning to have a calypso party. The main attraction on the program will be Lorito, Miss McLaurin's pet parakeet. Harry Belafonte will be portrayed by Dick Burnette.

The Athletic Club will have a special meeting in which pointers will be given on ballet and modern dance. This will be the first rehearsal in the effort to present a chapel program on how to be a graceful athlete.

The main speaker for the Latin clubs' next meeting will be Gina Lolobrigida. Because the program will not be of interest to the boys, they will be dismissed from class that day.

East High's Swimming team was very fortunate to have been invited to compete in a nation wide swimming meet in California. Miss Capps wanted to accept the invitation, but she declined because she was afraid her girls would take all the awards.

Some of the East High boys are planning to form fan clubs because of their many admirers. Those thinking of this plan are Ronnie Brown, Jimmy Large, and Lee Bailey.

Mountain Ears

My kids always say this little rhyme: Howdy do! How are you? Got any 'baccer? Gimme a chew?

Cute hain't it?

Have you'nses seen these hyar new boy and gal combinations at East High? Just as cute as they can be! I swear! I think Judy Breeden and "Moose" Burchfield, Ruthie Rutledge and Verlin Webb, Bobby Simerly and Arey Belle Dillard are madly (must be madly) in love.

Went to one of them thar drive-in movie houses to see "Francis the Talking Mule." My old mule, Clementine, just eats him up! I say!

While there, I seed in the next motor car, that handsome young man, Mike Donnell, with his passion flower, Veda Webb. I couldn't tell which was which till they turned the lights on, but I didn't have on my glasses anyhow! I kept thanking Elvis wuz in the pitchur cause Veda kept a screaming. She must have been enthused about the picture.

Well, I commenct to be mighty hongry, so I mosied up the road, and low and behold, up at the eatin' hole I seed Helen Mason and Walter Wells. They wuz munchin' on hot dogs and sippin' coke (one coke mind you, and two straws). Cindy and Mike wuz down there, too, sittin' way off in the corner. They waren't even a-watchin' the movie.

Oh well, back to dear ole' East. You know! These hyar city schools shore air funny. They teach the kids to spell tater with a p. But seems like times have changed since I wuz a youngun.

Scrounge Day Requested

At the request of Mr. Gale Gardner, East High students will participate in Scrounge Day next Thursday. The day of Thursday was picked by Mr. Gardner because of the impression it would make on the chapel speaker.

Rumors have been going around that Terry Smullian is planning to wear a feed sack trimmed with chartreuse ribbons.

Jayne Jenkins, a darling freshman, plans to wear worn-out levis and a jeweled V-neck sweater.

Richie Hooper, an ignorant senior, is going to wear a brown and green pin-striped suit with orange and pink suede shoes.

Elvin Henry, who has nothing but scroungey clothes, plans to wear a faded tee shirt and his worn out nickers. To add a touch of beauty to the day, Katherine Mahon will wear similar clothes, but of course a size larger.

When asked what he was going to wear, Mr. Gardner replied, "I'm not quite sure, but I'll probably wear my best bibbed overalls and my red flannel shirt."

Students are asked to cooperate fully with this request. Any student or teacher appearing in decent clothes will promptly be sent home.

Willie Willifor Is East High's Greatest Athlete

Competitor In 35 Sports

Of course, Willie Willifor is known internationally for his athletic ability; here at East, however, we regard him as the greatest athlete ever to set foot inside the "green doors" of East High School.

He represented the United States of Burlington in the World Wide Olympics. At the Olympics, quite a few sports were represented by him, as he participated in them all. They are football, basketball, baseball, hockey, tennis, golf, ping-pong, track, wrestling, boxing, lacrosse, jai lai, dodgeball, cricket, crockett, skiing, roller skating, ice skating, bob sledding, jude, yoyoing, yogo, polo, hunting and fishing, trap shooting, rope jumping, volleyball, soccer, badminton, swimming, diving, dart throwing, archery, and also skin diving.

We at East hold him in highest esteem and would not trade him for Jim Thorpe. Besides his athletic ability, he enters in other school activities such as president of the National Honor Society, president of the Key Club, president of the Student Council, president of the Athletic Club, president of the Senior Class, president of the Student Body, editor of the Blue and Gray, editor and adviser of The Beacon, president of the Spanish, Latin, and French Clubs, president of the choir, president of the L.C.N.A.A.V.G.A.C.I.C. Ltd. (Local Chapter of the National Association of African Violet Growers Association, Incorporated, Consolidated, Limited) captain of all athletic events.

After four years of participating in these athletic events, when letters were awarded, Willie was overwhelmed because he received his only letter in dramatics.

Warner Signs With Trotters

Tim Warner, famed Mountaineer basketball star, has accepted a $100,000 contract with the world famous Trotters.

Dr. Y. U. Knucklehead presented this award to the star at a banquet held at Joe's Bar and Grill on Broadway.

Tim, ever since he was a little boy, wanted to play with these famous roundballers. He will start practice the first of September.

Their first game will be played at East High against Potgut University.

This game will last only fifteen minutes because Tim gets tired easily, and he can't be overworked.

Tim plans to show the boys some of the tricks that his beloved Coach Bible taught him while he played at East.

Jack Williams Is Yankee Batboy

Jack Williams, famous batboy for the great East High Mountaineers, has accepted a position with the New York Yankees.

He will start handing out the bats on the first of May 5,791.

This great honor was presented to Mr. Williams last Saturday night at a party which was held in his honor at Yankee Stadium.

Joe DiMaggio was the M.C. on this occasion.

Jack will be given a $20,000-a-year contract, and also a bottle of furniture polish to keep the bats shiny.

Jack's favorite pastime is wood. He eats, sleeps, and talks wood. But of course, all this wood is bat wood.

When asked, Jack said, "I hate baseball."

Sports Are Crazy

By Benson Leaps

Tha other day I went into this great huge barn. There was a whole lot of people a-setting around and looking in the same direction. I didn't know what they was a-looking at till I saw where somebody had cut the side out of barn and there was a whole lot of men out in the pasture.

The pasture was all marked up with white lines, and hit had a fence around hit. There was a flour sack at the end of all these white lines.

There was nine men on this pasture, and each of them had something in his hand, and there was a man with a club in his hand standing beside of a white thing buried in the ground.

There was a man standing on top of a little hill. This man would stand there for a second, then he'd wiggle a little and throw somethin'. Tha man with the club in his hand would swing and try and hit that white thing. If he missed, a man standing behind him would throw up his hand. When he did this, these people would make a turrible commotion. I had to leave about that time, so I'll tell what hoppened last year.

City Appropriates Drag Strip

By Penny Browns

At the last City Council meeting, Cas Walker brought up a plan for the construction of a drag strip behind dear old East. All the members attending this meeting thought it was a splendid idea. They voted and passed the plan unanimously. Soon after this action was passed, contractors started the construction. By the time you read this paper, they will have finished the strip.

The strip is for the students of East only. Anyone caught on this drag strip who is not a student at East will have his driver's license taken away for six months.

Anyone from East who has study hall first, second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, or seventh periods can use this drag strip. Mayor Jack Dance is the official time keeper, and Mr. Bible is the official starter. Mr. Browning will check all cars to make sure they're safe.

By Jerry Fane Jorgan

Students at East have decided to elect all boy cheerleaders because the girls attract too much attention.

Those elected were Jack Williams, head cheerleader; Gene Lane, Kyle Finley, Tommy Lawson, Lee Bailey, Frank Murphy, Bob Smallman, and Buddy Lobetti. These boys were so excited about this honor that they gave up football.

They tried out before the student body and won ovations applause.

Their new uniforms are blue jamacas and white, long-sleeved tie shirts and saddle oxfords.
