

BLUE and GRAY HONORS W. E. EVANS

It has been an honor and a privilege to be associated with Mr. Evans for the past four years.

Ethel Capps

Mr. Evans is the best school executive I've ever been associated with. He has the interest of the student at heart at all times. He is truly a great man.

B. A. Bible

His wonderful leadership and guidance will be sorely missed by all of us—but most of all, we'll just miss him.

C. Kelley

A leader that can delegate authority and initiative to others but can take command when the need arises—that is W. E. Evans.

Virginia Parker

Mr. Evans is a fine gentleman and a wonderful person to work with. His personality and ideals are on an enviously high plane.

Clayton Hancock

This great educator has placed his mark on the great populace of Knoxville. He will long be remembered for his belief in and adherence to truth, beauty, and goodness.

C. Moffett

In my estimation W. E. Evans is the best school administrator in the South. He is a very good organizer and uses good judgment in giving out responsibilities to the best qualified people.

Jim Reasonover

Mr. Evans, above all, is a Christian gentleman, an excellent principal, whose life exemplifies those qualities he desires for his pupils and expects of his teachers.

Colleen Bennett

Mr. Evans, the foremost high-school principal in the South, leaves us with a rich memory of matchless leadership.

W. M. Campbell

The teaching profession is losing a sincere and capable leader, an understanding counselor, a truly great man.

It has been a privilege and a happy experience teaching for him.

Jesse McSpadden

One of Mr. Evans' most admirable qualities is his even temper. He deals with students and teachers in the same calm manner.

I. Gillenwater

Mr. Evans never fails to offer constructive criticism when he sees that there is some chance to make conditions better.

Jessie L. Neubert

First of all, as a result of his truly good christian character, Mr. Evans is a real gentleman, showing integrity and fairness in all his contacts with both teachers and students. Very loyal has he been to his school, his family, and his city. His proper conception of respect to authority, and his ever-present sympathetic understanding are very significant.

Emily McLaurin

Mr. Evans has given inspiration to students and teachers who will not forget his words and ideals.

Jean Naberhuis

Mr. Evans impresses me as an honest, courageous, professional administrator. He is a music-loving, tolerant, incorruptible Christian gentleman of the highest order.

Paul Brewer

Mr. and Mrs. EVANS at a banquet given by the teachers in his honor on April 22, 1935

With great admiration we, the Blue and Gray Staff, dedicate this edition of the paper to Mr. William Ernest Evans, our devoted principal, and we present to him the story of his life.

On April 4, 1885, in Ashland, Ohio, Rev. and Mrs. Amos Evans became the proud parents of a newborn baby boy whom they proudly named William Ernest. Since his father was a Methodist minister, Mr. Evans' early life was spent in several Ohio towns.

His high school days were spent in Canton, Ohio. Basketball was his main interest there.

Then he went to Ohio State University for one year; after which, he went to Oberlin College for three years, and he graduated there in 1908. He continued his basketball and took an interest in music and drama. He started his post graduate work at the University of Chicago.

While in Woodstock, Illinois, he met a very charming lady by the name of Helen Stuart, who was from Lincoln, Nebraska. They met in the First Presbyterian Church, where they both sang in the choir.

Helen Stuart came to Knoxville in 1911 when her father was sent here with the Southern Coal and Coke Company. Then in 1912, Helen Stuart and William Ernest Evans were married at the Fourth Presbyterian Church of Knoxville, with Dr. Calhoun performing the ceremony.

During the summer of 1913, Mr. and Mrs. Evans moved to Knoxville, making it their permanent home. Mr. Evans taught science and math at Knoxville High School for four years before becoming its principal. While in Knoxville, Mr. Evans received his Master's degree from the University of Tennessee. When Knoxville High was abandoned, he came to East.

Mr. and Mrs. Evans have four children, all of whom are boys. Stuart, the oldest, is Chief of Public Information for Far Eastern Air Force. He has been in Tokyo, Japan, for two years and will return to the States late this summer. His territory covers from Korea down to Thailand. His work has led him to meet many interesting people, two of whom are Syngman Rhee, President of Southern Korea, and Chiang Kai-shek, leader of the Chinese Nationalists.

The next son is Dick Evans, who is a colonel in the Air Force and is stationed in Theele, our most northern base at the top of Greenland. His official title is Chief of Requirements for Strategic Air Command.

Tom Evans lives here in Knoxville and is part owner and manager of the Safety Park.

John Evans, the youngest, is a television audio-technician with the National Broadcasting Company. He works in New York City in Rockefeller Plaza.

Mr. Evans has one sister, Mrs. Karl Groetzienger, who lives in Chicago, Illinois.

I have appreciated Mr. Evans' efforts to be fair in every situation and his unfailing loyalty to faculty and students.

Martha E. Thompson

Mr. W. E. Evans has always been a builder of character. He uses the positive approach to all situations in which youth is involved rather than the negative.

C. A. Browning

Mr. Evans is:
Gentle of speech, beneficent of mind.

Wise to resolve and patient to perform.

The heart to conceive, the understanding to direct, the hand to execute.

Ready to pardon the errors of mankind, cautious of committing a fault himself.

Eve Seale

Among the many fine qualities that stand out in Mr. Evans' life are integrity and loyalty. His many friends can attest to this fact. He will be sorely missed.

Gale Gardner

It has been my great pleasure and privilege not only to have served as a teacher under Mr. Evans but also as a student in his chemistry class and home group at old K.H.S.

G. McDougall

Mr. Evans is a gentleman under all circumstances. By his fine Christian life he has set a good example for both teachers and students of Knoxville.

Ruby Bird

I am truly happy at having the privilege of having worked under Mr. Evans, even though it has been for a single year.

Mary Scarbrough

It has been a pleasure to work with Mr. Evans, a progressive, understanding principal, who has the welfare of both students and teachers at heart.

Ora Dowell

Mr. Evans is one of the most efficient executives I have ever known, exacting, but fair, to all with whom he worked.

E. M. Horton

The most effective way to train young people is the one Mr. Evans has always used. This has been "By example."

G. Tatem

Mr. Evans cannot be surpassed by any principal in the many qualities that have made him superior in leadership, and in making fair adjustments in any situation.

G. Million

By his own personal example Mr. Evans has shown the youth of this city how to live a good life.

Jessie Kelley

We honor and love W. E. Evans for all the splendid traits mentioned by his co-workers. We sum up these traits—with only the variation of tense—as Shakespeare's Marc Antony did for Brutus:

His life is gentle, and the elements
So mixed in him that Nature might stand up
And say to all the world "This is a man!"

A GOOD EXAMPLE

Of all the many new high schools that have been built in recent years, East High was the most fortunate of all. We were honored by having Professor W. E. Evans serve as our principal for the first four years of the "new life" of East High.

Professor Evans has led the East High student body with a firm hand and a kind heart all of his four years. Like any person who has a "heart of gold," he has always been as patient as anyone could possibly be.

He has always been the best example anyone could possibly be to all of his faculty and students. Even at Knoxville High School, everyone loved him just as we do. We know this because so many of them came to East and told us.

He certainly deserves all of the love, honor, and respect given him.

THE PRIVATE EYE

By Sandy Ford

Spring is here and a young man's fancy turns to girls . . . doesn't it, Bill Gillette? ? ?

Quite a few people are going steady at East. A few of them are: Roy Griffin and Janet Center, Gerald Swann and Betty Jennings, Wanda Cochran and Doug Haun, Anne Baird and Jerry Graham.

A word of advice to the boys: SALLIE CORRELL IS NO LONGER ENGAGED. Why is Sherra Dudley so anxious to get to Mr. Campbell's room after fourth period? Could it be Pat Wright ?????

I overheard in the hall that Gail Jessee is still carrying the torch for Bradley Pinkston. Other torchbearers are Nancy Clark for Don Holt, Marsha Montgomery for John Payne, and Perry Byars for Anne Haynes.

Phyllis Bales and Patsy Dunsmore are after Charlie Tarter . . . May the best girl win . . .

There are still a few eligible boys at East. Among them are Max Young, Steve Lockett, Richie Hooper, and Laurel Kellogg. However, Max Young has no intention of removing his name from this list. Too bad girls. . .

Overheard by one of my spies:

Beverly Stump: "I wish Bobby Simerly would ask me for a date."

Terry Smullian: "Well, Beverly, you can't have everything."

Mildred Mann and David Walls are still going steady. They're a darling couple. Cute, little Mildred and . . . David.

Why doesn't Phyllis Doane want Mickey Ellenburg to go to the Church Retreat? ? ? Could it be because of a certain sophomore?

Lots of girls at East have secret loves, but I have learned about them through the secret agency. Linda Wolfenbarger's heart jumps at the sight of Johnny Hawkins. It's no secret that Agnes Nicely is crazy about Jimmy Ball.

Kay Coleman can be seen writing a letter to Brevard, N. C. I wonder why she can't wait to go to Ridgecrest, N. C. this summer.

Mutt and Jeff: Wesley Baird and Margaret Kelley. They're a darling couple.

With the help of my private eyes, I'll see you in the Senior Issue.

THE LIFE OF MR. EVANS

Many new features were added to the public schools by Mr. Evans. Bible was placed in the curriculum; and orchestra and bands were developed.

Mr. Evans has three loves outside his home—church, school, and Kiwanis. He is an active member of the First Presbyterian Church. Charter member, past President, and past District Lieutenant Governor are some of his titles in Kiwanis.

"Pop" or "Prof" are some of Mr. Evans' nicknames, and you will usually hear his close friends call him by these names. If you should pass his lovely home on Holston Drive, you might see him working in the yard, as this is the way he spends his leisure time. The other part of his leisure time is spent at good movies and at concerts.

To Mr. Evans we, the staff, wish the best of luck and happiness. He has meant a great deal to us, and we are sure that he meant a great deal to those who came before us. We want to thank him for the honest and undivided work that he has given our school and our city. May he prove to be the inspiration to all who meet him that he has been to us.

MR. EVANS

Mr. Evans holds a high positions in th hearts of the many students he has been associated with.

Rich and poor have been received into his understanding friendship.

In return he has won the respect of all.

Exampled life he has set before us. He has taught us to be loyal to our country and to have respect for God.

Vigilantly he has guided students and teachers.

Always we will remember his friendly smile and pleasant personality.

Now I speak for everyone who has had the pleasure of knowing him:

"We have grown to love him and appreciate his firmness and ability to deal with all fairly."

So years have passed by quickly, and the time has come for Mr. Evans to retire as principal of East High. When he leaves, he will take With him the joy of knowing that thrugh his words of inspiration he has helped us to find success.

LENNOX AIR CONDITIONING FOR YEAR ROUND COMFORT

MICK on the STICK

by Mickey Ellenburg

Question of the Year—Do you think that courting during the season affects the play of an athlete or his team?

Mr. Bible—"I think it does for three reasons: (1) It affects his mind because he will think about the girl during the games. (2) He won't get the proper amount of rest. (3) The boys who don't have a girl will be jealous and cause dissention."

Mr. Reasonover—"One could probably eat too much cake—It depends upon the extremity that it is carried to. Athletes have to make sacrifices, and it depends upon the individual athlete and his desire to excel as to how far he intends to go in a particular sport. If the managers of major league baseball teams, football coaches, and coaches of all sports were to disregard their basic relationships toward their particular sport, I doubt if a very good team would be fielded. By the same token if enough athletes do not follow the generally recognized training patterns, I doubt if a very good team would be fielded."

Rosa DeRobertis — "If you care enough for a certain person, it will inspire you to outstanding deeds. But if you give that person too much time, it would affect your play and practice."

Bradley Pinkston — "It does because the boys that don't date don't like it. It would keep them out too late."

Bill Gillett—"The girl wants to socialize, and to keep up with her the boy must break training."

Bill Vaughn—"It takes a lot of his time, and if he has trouble he worries about it."

Miss Neubert—"I don't think it does if he confines his dates to weekends. I think he'll make a better ball player if he has a balanced schedule during the season. The weekend dates could be settled by an agreement before the season."

Joy Atchley—"It could hurt him if he broke training and got out of shape, but I'm for it as long as he keeps it a moderate form."

Bob Rice—"If he lets the girl dominate him, it would have a bad effect; but if he just had an occasional date, it wouldn't hurt him."

Coach Hancock—"In moderate doses it's fine and wholesome, but if you "go crazy," you should give up one or the other. Dating on the weekend it all right if you get in on time, but if you don't stick to the schedule, it would bother you."

Coach Moffett—"It is my personal and professional opinion that athletics demand a great deal from a boy both physically and mentally. Probably 75% of a boy's success in athletics is due to a good mental attitude. A full program of studies and competitive athletics requires considerable time and effort. At the high school age I have found it very difficult, if not impossible, for an athlete to give 100% effort to a "romance" and still do well in his studies and his sports. Girl friends, with occasional dates, are a necessity. In fact, for athletes, the more girl friends the better. It's that "dog-eat-dog love affair" that I object to in athletics."

East Cops Victories Over South, Rule, and Karns

Mountaineers Gain Third Place With a 5-1

League Record

By Buren Hall

The East High baseball team zoomed into third place in the Knox Prep League with a record of five wins against one loss.

Coach Clayton Hancock's baseball nine knocked off South 7-5 in a thriller at Municipal Stadium. Dowell Wolfenbarger pitched East to victory, with Ralph Bean leading the hitting.

Ben Dillard, after allowing Rule three runs on four hits in the first inning, settled down to pitch nine no-hit innings and gain a 4-3 victory. It took ten innings to down Sid Hatfield's Bears. Leon Kirby and Mickey Ellenburg led the East batsmen. Charles Buckner pitched for Rule.

Bob Smallman relieved Charles Tarter in the first inning and gained credit for a 13-8 victory over Karns. Buren Hall, Ralph Bean, and Benny Dillard led the hitting for East. Smallman and Hall tripled in the slugfest. McReynolds was the losing pitcher for Karns.

East High is enjoying its best baseball season in the history of the school. Be sure to support the Mountaineers in their remaining games at Municipal Stadium and Chilhowee Park.

Spring Practice Has Begun

By Johnny Deck

Spring football began May 2 for the East High Mountaineers. After it was postponed from February to May. Now the players have less time to get out of shape between May and August. They will also get some sun.

Coach Moffett said the squad did rather well for the first day of practice. He hopes to scrimmage Rule and Fulton within the next twenty days. If the inter-squad games are successful, spring practice will last only fifteen days instead of the scheduled twenty days.

Most of the players have new equipment, which is being tried and used for the first time. If the uniforms last through spring practice, it is possible that the whole team will have new uniforms to wear this fall.

All the lettermen returning from last year agree that this could be East's big season, a big opportunity to put East above the other city schools in athletics, and not just equal. Someone once said, "Equality is the final insult to character." That can also apply to football, supporters and players alike.

City-County Meet Taken By Fulton

West Is Second — East Comes In Third

East finished third in the annual City-County track meet at Evans-Collins Field before a crowd of nearly 500 spectators.

The Mountaineers were unable to capture a first place in any event. The balance and depth of the Fulton team provided the difference in points. Fulton finished with 58, and close behind was the West High team with 46 points. East compiled a total of 21 points.

Oak Ridge downed West and East in the three-way meet at Oak Ridge. The Wildcats took first place in 8 out of a possible 15 events.

Bruce Teasley was the only double winner for Coach Moffett's Mountaineers, placing first in the 100-yard and 220-yard dashes. One of the most impressive victories was turned in by Carey McWilliams, who jumped 5 feet, 11 inches to beat West High's ace, David Johnston.

East won a one-sided track meet over the Central High Bobcats, 89-33. The Eastsiders took 11 out of a possible 15 events. All of Central's first were on the track; while East won five events and six on the track.

The summary:

CLUB NEWS

by Jerry Sue Campbell

and Ann Malcomb

Well, Spring is here, and after a restful week's vacation for Easter, all students returned to school with new vim, vigor, and vitality! (Didn't we?)

In the midst of all our studying let's stop for a moment and look in on the activities of East students.

Those four singing boys, known as the East High Quartet, have recently journeyed to Nashville to sing for the State Teacher's Convention. In case you don't know who they are, here are their names: Ted Roberts, first tenor; Jimmy (Crooner) Pressley, second tenor; Gordon Ballou, baritone; and Wayne McCarty, bass.

Congratulations are in order to Evelyn Jones on being East High's nominee for the Knox Beautiful Contest. This contest is to promote a cleaner and more beautiful Knoxville. Let's help our candidate win by doing our share to clean up, paint up, and fix up. Good luck, Evelyn!

The Latin and Spanish Banquet was held on Friday, April 15, at the S & W Cafeteria. Mrs. Catherine Moore, a Fulbright Exchange teacher in Scotland, was guest of honor. She spoke to the clubs on her recent travels in Italy and Spain.

Mr. Evans always looks nice and neat, but he looks stunning in his dark blue suit.

Several girls from the Journalism class went to Memphis, Tennessee, for a weekend Journalism Convention. As girls will, they brought back some new clothes.

Maureen Holt bought a yellow figured dress and yellow shoes and pocketbook to match. The dress has a square cut, low neckline.

Margie Humphrey brought back a very pretty brown linen princess style skirt. She wears this with a red blouse.

Sylvia Moulton purchased a navy blue skirt with very cute side pleats trimmed in white. She wears with it a white blouse.

Kay Coleman bought an aqua figured dress and aqua shoes. The dress has a high neck with a bow in the back, and is sleeveless. Kay looks very nice in it.

It is about time I put some boys' names in this column! Burt Elliott looks very nice in his Italian style pink shirt.

Len Belew can't go by unnoticed in his red and white striped shirt with a boat neck and short sleeves.
