HOLSTON HIGH SCHOOL — KNOXVILLE, TENNESSEE — SEPTEMBER, 1963

Number 1

FOUR RECEIVE TROPHIES

HOOTENANNY HITS HOLSTON

"Everybody's comin' to the hootenanny", and nearly everybody did!

On the evening of Tuesday, September 3, a near capacity crowd gathered in the Holston auditorium for the "Hootenanny" sponsored by the National Honor Society.

Holston has the distinction of being the first school in this area to sponsor such an event. We predict there will be others because this one was so popular.

The Highlanders from Asheville, N. C. provided the music. The trio is composed of Bob Hinkle and Nelson Watts from the University of North Carolina and Bill Horton from Wake Forest. Back in their home town, they have held weekly "Hoots" this summer. This fall, they will go nationwide on CBS television. They are to be the host group with other groups as guest stars. The series, filmed in August, was set in Asheville, Jacksonville, Miami, and British Columbia.

Their program at Holston included folk songs and ballads from all over the world. On many selections, the audience was requested to join in and did so with great vigor. All in all, it made for an evening of thoroughly enjoyable musical entertainment.

The Honor Society plans to use the profits from the Hootenanny for their projects this year which will include helping sponsor our American Field Service Exchange Student.

Exchange Student

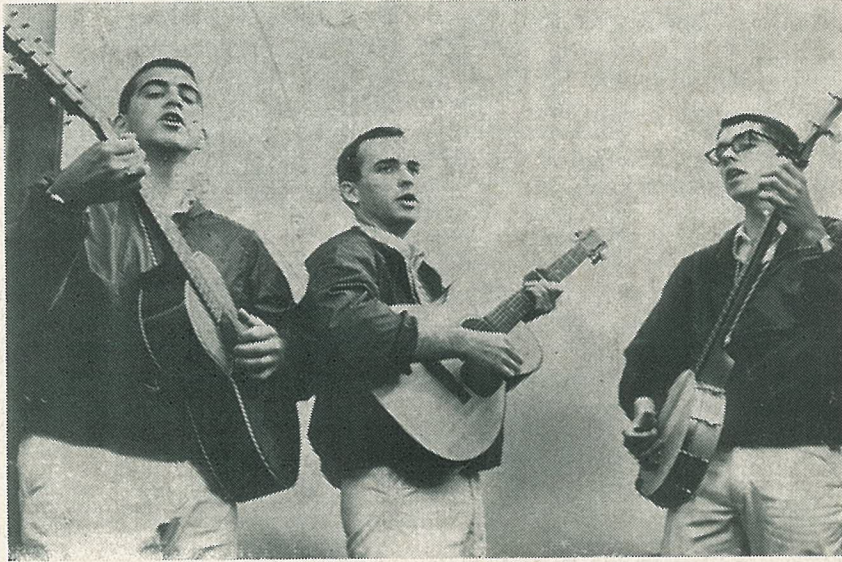

Meet Kerstin Frygner, Kim for short, from Gathenborg, Sweden. Kim is Holston's exchange student for this school year. Kim's American family are the J. D. Clements, 5815 E. Sunset Road. Her American sister, Judy, is a junior at Holston and her brothers, Stuart and Steven, are freshmen.

In Sweden, Kim lives with her mother, father, sister and brother. Her father is a retired director of an importing office who occupies himself with reading and gardening. Her sister attends the University of Lund in Lund, Sweden and her brother attends the University of Gathenborg in Gathenborg.

Kim attends the Marjorna School in Gathenborg where she takes Latin, English, French, German, Geography, religion, biology, history (World and Swedish), physics, art, physical education, and Swedish. She goes to school from 8:15 to 3:10. She will finish in two years and then tentatively plans to attend college at the University of Lund in Lund, Sweden.

Kim has traveled widely having made visits to Denmark, Norway, Germany, Austria, Switzerland, Bel-

Welcome To 16 New Teachers

Mr. Harold Burkhardt

Holston High School welcomes to its faculty Mr. Harold Burkhardt, who is teaching mathematics. Mr. Burkhardt graduated from the College of Agriculture at U-T with a Bachelor of Science degree and a major in Agriculture Education.

He began teaching in 1933. He has taught vocational agriculture at Halls and with Mr. Hendrix at Carter. As to his first impressions of Holston, Mr. Burkhardt says, "It is a good school. The student body, as a whole, is very mannerly and courteous, with an above average sense of values."

Mrs. Judith S. Busse

Mrs. Busse is a sophomore English teacher at Holston. This is her first year as a teacher, and she is very enthusiastic about. She has lived in Knoxville for all but the first six months of her life. She graduated from Maryville College with a Bachelor of Arts degree. Mrs. Busse has given lectures on music, and as a singer, she played one of the leading roles in the Maryville College production of Bye, Bye, Birdie. She has also played in the Carousel Theater, and has been to Europe twice. A qualified life-guard, she has taught swimming. Mrs. Busse was married to a chemist last August, shortly before school started.

Mrs. Alice Hamilton

Mrs. Alice Hamilton is another new member of Holston's faculty. She was born in Louisville, Kentucky, but moved to Knoxville in time to attend high school at Holston. She edited "The Warrior" for two years and was also an active member of the Beta Club. Mrs. Hamilton attended Maryville College for two years and graduated from the University of Tennessee with majors in history and math. Besides teaching school, Mrs. Hamilton also enjoys cooking very much.

guim, England and France.

Here at Holston, Kim is taking Speech, American History, sociology, English and typing. Besides her school subjects, her interests include Dramatics, reading, horse-back riding and sailing.

We welcome Kim and heartily wish that her year at Holston will be a happy one.

Mr. Bert Gronseth

Our new assistant guidance counselor, who also teaches sociology, is Mr. Bert Gronseth. He graduated from the college of Liberal Arts at U-T in 1958 with a major in psychology and a minor in speech. In 1960, he received his M.S. in guidance, and in 1962, he graduated from Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary.

Mr. Gronseth, who has lived here for about twenty-two years is married and has one daughter. He states that he has worked at a variety of jobs, including cooking, construction work, and supply pastoring. While in Louisville, he worked at a delinquent home, a community center, and a mental hospital. He was also chaplain at a Jewish hospital and at a state manor hospital. He taught at Bearden High School last year.

Mr. Gronseth comments that he finds Holston delightful. "The students here are refreshing children, surprisingly mature."

Mrs. Sara Harvey

Another new addition to Holston's English department is Mrs. Sara Harvey. Mrs. Harvey is a native of Somerset, Kentucky, but moved to Nashville, Tennessee at an early age. She attended West End High School in Nashville, where she was an active member of the National Honor Society and the choir. Mrs. Harvey attended Austin Peay College, Memphis State University and was graduated from the University of Tennessee. She majored in English and was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi honorary sorority. Mrs. Harvey is married and has two sons. She enjoys painting and art very much.

Mrs. Jean S. Higgins

Mrs. Jean Higgins is a new freshman English teacher at Holston. Although born in Birmingham, Alabama, she has lived most of her life in Knoxville. She obtained a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Tennessee. Before coming to Holston, she taught English and Latin at Fulton High School. She has two children, both of whom attend Chilhowee Elementary School. Mrs. Higgins thinks Holston is "a wonderful school".

P-TA Awards

68 Students

Holston's Second Annual Honors Day Program, sponsored by the P-TA September 5, awarded trophies, letters, pins, and certificates to sixty-eight students for achieving high scholastic averages. This number is a new record for Holston, topping last year's fifty-seven awards. Almost half of the honors, thirty-three were earned by sophomores, eighteen by juniors, and seventeen by seniors.

Highest awards went to seniors Linda Dalton, Terry King, Sheila McCollister and Jim Byrd. Engraved trophies were presented to them for maintaining a 3.6 or better average for three years.

Students who have earned a 3.6 or better average for two years received a Holston letter of Scholarship. They are seniors Sue Domby, Karen Shell, Sally Thompson, and Gail Vickers; and juniors Sara Anderson, Mary Foster, Susan Love, and Helen Murray.

Pins, given for achieving a 3.6 average or better last year were received by senior Susie Ellis; juniors Sally Lesesne and Laurel Moore; and sophomores Erby Dickerson, Patty Fillers, Robert Nagel, John Medley, Nancy Parker, Charles Morris and Cheryl King.

For those students who earned a 3.25 to 3.599 average last year, certificates were awarded. They are seniors Walter Fain, Paulette Farmer, Mary Harrell, Connie Lyke, Sara Madden, Carl Maples, Cynthia Moore, and Daphne Trowbridge; juniors Judy Clements, Douglas Coleman, Nancy Elliott, Coleen Emert, Mary Lou Greene, Francine Lemarr, Don Mills, Dianne Rudder, Emerson Shipe, Jane Ellen Sonneland, Bill Stockton, and Mike Weaver; and sophomores Janie Barnawell, Brenda Beeler, Evelyn Bell, Sally Blanchard, Deborah Bliss, Jerry Flynn, Janet Graham, Freddie Gale James, Amelia Jesse, Carson King, Carole Lyle, Kathy Mahood, Marcia Montgomery, David Moss, Jane Moulton, Wesley Robinson, Cordelia Satterfield, Bud Sherrod, Charlotte Shipe, Joe Smith, Nancy Smith, Dick Stansberry, Karen Thompson, Douglass Walthall, Bob Wright, and Steve Wyatt.

Mrs. C. E. Lyke was in charge of the program and the honored guests were Rev. T. J. Mattingly, pastor of First Christian Church; Mayor John Duncan; and Superintendent of Schools, T. N. Johnson. Each spoke briefly to the students congratulating them on their achievements.

'63 AFS Student Presented

After introducing the special guests, Mr. Hendrix presented Holston's 1963 American Field Service student, Kerstin Frygner. Amid thunderous applause, Kim thanked the students for their warm welcome. Her home is in Gothenberg, Sweden.

NETD Winners Announced

Mr. Hendrix then presented thirty-nine students NETD Certificates. The certificates were given to each person ranking in the upper twenty-five percent of students across the nation who took the National Educational Development Test. These students are Erby Dickerson, Jannean Elliott, Patty Fillers, Janet Graham, Kathy Mahood, John Medley, Richard Miles, Marcia Montgomery, Charles Morris, Jane Moulton, Diana Murray, Robert Nagel, Wesley

The Spirit Of Holston

by Sara Anderson

"We've got the spirit that a great team needs! It's GR-R-R-REAT!!!" It was very encouraging to note the big burnout and great spirit at these first three games. Let's keep up the good work and cheer even harder at the rest of the games.

Team spirit is cheering your loudest whether we are winning or losing, and cheering the defensive team just as much as the offensive team. Not everyone can be out there on the field but we sure can support those who are. The cheerleaders work hard and the very least we can do is learn the cheers and cheer with them all through the games. Cheering when the team makes a touchdown is not enough. We should shout our encouragement even when the outlook isn't so bright.

The excitement over sports activities tends to overshadow the many other fields of competition Holston enters. Real SCHOOL spirit is supporting Holston in everything. Holston competes in many academic contests such as the T.V. Classroom Quiz. Our choir and band compete every year in festivals and clinics with other schools.

Don't just plod through the halls of Holston Monday through Friday—Do Something! Whether it is making the touchdown that wins the game, cheering the team enthusiastically, or representing Holston in an academic, music, art, or club competition; you have an obligation to this school to do your very best. Since we have one of the finest schools in Tennessee, we, as students, ought to be able to claim with pride that we are Warriors!

Dear Freshman,

Welcome to Holston's hallowed halls! We hope you are looking forward to spending the next four years here. We don't guarantee that you will graduate (that's your job), but we do promise that our capable faculty will provide excellent instruction. We urge you to participate in whatever extra-curricular activities interest you; however, we warn you that overindulgence in certain pastimes may lead to detention hall sentences!

Please don't get lost in the crowd (nearly 1100 of us this year). We need to know you and your abilities so that you may help us keep Holston one of the finest schools in this area. If you have any questions or problems, just ask any upperclassman or member of the faculty. Once again—welcome to Holston, we are glad to have you!

Sincerely,
The Upperclassmen

P-TA AWARDS 68 STUDENTS

At the P.T.A. Honors Assembly Program on September 5, the Beta Club President, Carl Maples, named the winners of the Outstanding Sophomore Award for the years 1961-62 and 1962-63. The winner of the award for the years 1961-62 was Paulette Farmer; the winner for the years 1962-63 was Sidney Hankins. This award is presented on the basis of good scholarship, good leadership, and services rendered during the preceding year. Paulette and Sidney will have their names engraved on the Outstanding Sophomore Plaque which hangs over the trophy case.

Mrs. Leila De Forrest Rogers

Mrs. Rogers, a new librarian, names Knoxville as her hometown. She majored in English at Maryville College and has taught at Central, Powell, and Maryville High Schools for ten years.

Her hobbies are cooking, gardening, sewing, and taking care of her three children. Mrs. Rogers has two boys, ages eleven and twelve, and a three-year-old girl. She enjoys reading and likes all sports.

Mr. A. C. Rule

Holston's new Choir director is Mr. A. C. Rule, who is a native of Knoxville and a graduate of Knoxville High School. He attended Maryville College where his major was music. Mr. Rule was organist and choir director at Cumberland Chapel in Ft. Knox, Kentucky. He then moved back to Knoxville and taught at Christenberry and Whittles Junior High Schools.

At present, Mr. Rule is a board member of the American Guild of Organists and Choir director at Trinity Methodist Church.

Smoke Signals Salutes Susan

Susan Hoover, senior, was elected president of the Tennessee Branch of the International Order of King's Daughters and Sons at the annual convention at Camp No-Co-Me this summer. Susan is an active member of the Alpha Junior Circle and is the president-elect of that circle. She was the treasurer of the Knoxville City Union last year.

However, King's Daughters is not Susan's only interest. She is a member of the annual business staff and is business manager of Smoke Signals. She is treasurer of the Beta Club and a member of the Y-Teens.

Susan is recording secretary of Teen Board, Inc. and was president of the F.H.A. at Holston and is an active member in Young Life.

Not only is Susan active, she is also pretty and friendly. She is the kind of student Holston needs to become an even better school, and we should all be proud of her.

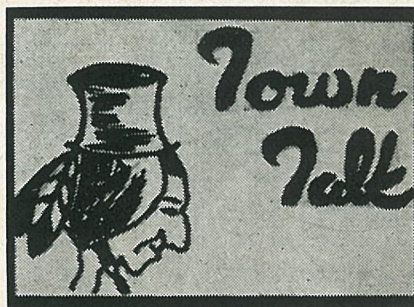

SMOKE SIGNALS FOLLOWS ALUMNI

This year we again proudly follow the lives of our alumni in the many directions they have taken. Joining our group of U. T. students are Sandy Bittle, Jim Boswell, Don Bosson, Bill Busse, Jan Colligon, David Dodson, George Garner, David Greene, Peggy Hankins, Rosalind Perrin, Judy Pinkston, Harriet Ruble, Harry Sherrod, Allen Shirley, V. E. Smith, Jim Stansberry, Harold Terry, Judy Turner, Danny Whittle, Suzanne Wood, and Paul Wyatt. Mary Lou Childress is attending U.T. in Memphis. Carson-Newman has a claim on Danny Baker, Cathern Bell, Kenny Bounds, Peggy Dickerson, Barbara English, Ronnie Farris, Suzanne Johnson, Joe Thompson, and Ben Wolcott. Vaughn Bernard and Gerry Brown have chosen East Tennessee State University and Dick Boswell, Emery University. Sandra Boyd is studying at Sam Houston University in Texas and Karen Cochran at Howard University in Birmingham, Ala. Furmen University has accepted Karen Hayes, and Virginia Nagel will attend Cornell University. Eleanor Parrott has chosen St. Andrews Presbyterian College in North Carolina, and James Rhodes will attend Garner-Webb College in N. C. Kathy Copeland has chosen Radford. Margaret Schaefer will study at Birmingham Southern, Lola Shaver at T. P. I., and Marilyn Sheeley at Emery and Henry. Charles McDaniels has chosen the Air Force Academy, and Bob Murrian is at Annapolis.

The Wheeler-Marimba Merrymakers

At the Tennessee Valley Agricultural and Industrial Fair, in The Jacob Tent Theatre, playing to above capacity crowds were three people known as "The Wheelers". Emma, Baylers, and Frank Wheeler was a big attraction at the Fair.

The trio, composed of two, good size, healthy, women; and one little sk'ny man, played to 6000 people each day for seven days and enjoyed each day and each performance.

Talking backstage Frank said, "We have played to people across the country and in Canada, I believe the audiences in Knoxville have been one of the most responsive and wonderful people we've ever played for."

Living in California, when they are there, which isn't too often, "The Wheelers" have traveled across the country playing with top orchestras, bands, and stage personalities for over fifteen years. They have appeared on "The Lawrence Welk Show" and have filed for Walt Disney on many occasions.

Their act at the Fair ran for thirty minutes. With two marimbas (A South American instrument) and a set of three various sized bango drums, the trio performed an assortment of songs and medleys ranging from "Viva South American" and "Old Favorites" to an energetic "Tiger Rag".

All in all The Wheelers combined their superb ability at the marimba, along with a continuous smile and cheerful attitude, to come up with a fantastic act which is tops across the country.

Butch Alder, President Of Key Club Interclub Council

Butch Alder, a Holston High senior, has been elected president of the Key Club Interclub Council, which handles projects too large for the high school clubs. Butch is president of the Key Club at Holston. He is also a member of the Letter Club, J. C. L., P. A. L., and he is on the baseball team.

by Joy Warren

As school gets underway, the fashion parade begins for girls and boys. Holston has been noted for the sharp clothes seen on campus. Fall and winter dances and other dress up occasions around Holston should bring a collection of boys camel-hair coats and sweaters, burgundy blazers and a host of suits in new and exciting colors with either matching or contrasting ties and socks. The madras-craze has slowly faded away but weejuns are still "in". For girls this fall and winter, the sophisticated and little girl looks are back. Scarves and jewelry, which accent the neckline, are considered high fashion this season. Houndstooth checks in wool and bright and contrasting mates are popular alongside wide wale corduroy. Jumpers with feminine blouses, vests, knee and above the knee socks are good examples of style this year. Our Millers Teen Board Representatives, Marilyn Hodges and Pam Young, will wear their "Crazy Horse" outfits of bright yellow mohair vests, white flat-knit turtle necked sweaters, black and white houndstooth A skirts, and black above the knee socks. IVY LEAGUE will keep in contact with Millers' Fashion Office and with the well-dressed people at Holston and keep everyone informed of the latest fashions.

Coke Party

On September 4, a coke party was held in the cafeteria for all members of the Freshman class. This was sponsored by the Student Council in order that they might have an opportunity to become better acquainted with other members of their class. Attendance was good, and it was felt that the party was quite successful.

Mrs. Juanita McMahan

Holston has added a new Home Economics teacher to the faculty this year. Mrs. McMahan has taught at Young and Farragut. She majored in Home Economics at Tennessee Wesleyan and the University of Tennessee, where she also earned her Bachelor's Degree. Mrs. McMahan is married and has two daughters, six and nine. Her hobby is sewing.

Mrs. Maureen Joy Waller

Mrs. Maureen Waller is Holston's new French and Latin I teacher. She comes to teach in Tennessee after teaching French in Canada. Most of her previous teaching was done in Winnipeg, Manitoba, with some elementary teaching in the States. She graduated from the University of Manitoba as a French major. Some of her favorite hobbies are music and gardening. She also enjoys being with her two children—Terry 6, and Jody, 4. Mrs. Waller enjoys traveling as witnessed by two trips to France, the most recent in 1955. When asked to compare American and Canadian schools, she said that our schools are a little more informal, have more extra-curricular activities, and have more electives from which to choose. She is always looking for new things which will benefit her students in the quest for learning.

CLUB NEWS

Key Club

The Key Club members had a very busy summer working on their many projects. They painted the cheerleading ramp, cut weeds from around the football field and built the bonfire for the pep rally, to name a few.

Presently the Key Club is sponsoring a beauty contest at the school. They chose twenty girls from all the classes to sell candy for the Key Club. The ten girls who sell the most candy will compete in a regular beauty contest, the first of its kind here at Holston. The girls will model clothes from Nancy Lynn Fashions and will be judged on beauty and poise. Immediately following the contest, which begins at 7:00 p.m., September 28, there will be a back-to-school dance held in the cafeteria. The dance will feature "The Cascades" from Chattanooga, Tennessee. Everyone is urged to attend.

The Key Club has planned many other worthwhile projects for the coming year. Among many are placing benches around the campus, helping buy fiberglass backboards for the gym, building and placing a Sportsman's Creed sign in the gym, building steel racks in the restrooms for pocketbooks, making Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets and sponsoring several car washes.

Student Council

Holston High School has grown tremendously since it's first year. It would seem logically that the student council should have grown along with it, but unfortunately it hasn't. This year's student council members have realized this, and have drawn up a plan enabling the council to grow. They would be submitted to the student body this proposed amendment to Article 5, Section 1, Membership:

"The Holston High Student Council shall consist of two students elected annually from each of the Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes with each student retaining his or her membership until graduation unless he fails to meet requirements. Alternate members shall not be retained but can run for membership the following year. In four years the membership of the council will be increased from the present thirteen to twenty-five."

This amendment was voted on by the student body September 25, the same day the freshmen voted on their representatives.

Our annual Sadie Hawkins Dance will be held on October 5 this year. This is the costume dance sponsored annually by the Student Council in which everything is in typical "Dog-patch" fashion. The girls invite the boys, and everyone dresses in the styles of Daisy Mae and Lil' Abner. This year's decorations and entertainment are expected to be better than ever before. Tickets are $1.25 per couple. Buy yours now from any Student Council member and get a chance at the big door prize!

Mrs. E. C. Long

Mr. E. C. Long, Holston's new Biology teacher, was born in Alexandria, Virginia. He moved to Tennessee at an early age and attended high school in Oak Ridge. He was an active member of the band, orchestra and chorus there. Mr. Long was graduated from the University of Georgia, where he majored in geography. While attending college, Mr. Long received five letters for sports and was a member of several honorary fraternities. Besides teaching school. Mr. Long is also quite interested in astronomy.

National Honor Society

The National Honor Society is considering a new amendment to its constitution. The amendment provides that all juniors and seniors who obtained the 3.5 average by the end of the last school year will become probationary members at the first of this school year and will be inducted as members at the assembly at the middle of the year. The amendment has passed the N.H.S. members and will soon be presented before the N.H.S. Board of Advisors for approval.

The National Honor Society held the first soc-hop of the school year after the Young-Holston football game. The Student Council provided the records which were played on the Student Council juke-box. The soc-hop, being the first one of the season, was a grand success. There were many Holstonites there as well as a few people from other schools.

KING'S DAUGHTERS

Knoxville King's Daughters sent 27 delegates to State Convention at Camp Na-Co-Me near Pleasantville, Tennessee. Leaving at 7 A.M. August 19, the group arrived late in the afternoon with a break at Nashville for lunch. The four-day convention was filled with meetings, circle reports and state elections. Susan Hoover was elected State President and Nancy Parker, State Third Vice-President.

Alpha—The Alpha Junior Circle of King's Daughters consists of juniors and seniors from Holston. This circle sponsors the annual Charity Ball, and this year's ball should be the best ever. Officers for the coming year are: Susan Hoover, president; 1st vice-president, Sara Brown; 2nd vice-president, Kathy Chesney; 3rd vice-president, Joy Warren; treasurer, Susan Love; secretary, Gail Day; and sergeant at arms, Sherry Yarbrough.

Omega—The Omega Junior Circle, made up of sophomores, has also elected new officers. The new president is Marcia Montgomery and Charlotte Whittaker is vice-president. Sharon Hammock and Jane Moulton are secretary and treasurer respectively, and Janet Graham is devotional chairman. The circle will install the officers at the October meeting.

Silver Chain—The Silver Chain Circle of King's Daughters, which consists of freshmen girls, has elected officers for the coming year. They are as follows: president, Karen Bales; vice-president, Nancy Gill; treasurer, Debby Moore; secretary, Judy Arnold; and devotional chairman, Susan Winn.

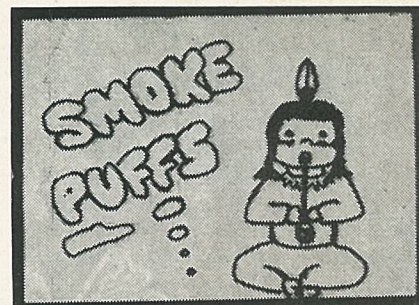

F.H.A. News

The general officers of F. H. A. Chapters I and II gave a tea for the freshman and the teachers on September 12, at 2:00. The officers told the freshman about F. H. A. There were about 140 girls who attended the tea.

What did you do this summer? We know that some of the students at Holston have had a lot of fun.

Gail Day, Joy Warren, and Sandy Stevens went to Young Life Ranch in Colorado. Don't ask them any questions about it unless you plan on listening for a long time. Their friends know that once they get started, they'll never shut up.

Nancy Parker, Delaney Boebel, Janie Bryant, Susan Hoover, Sara Brown, Karen Dempsey, Karen Bales, Rachael Drake, Terry Wilson, Sara Anderson, Kathy Chesney, Jeani Mynatt, Sally Lesesne, Betty Hamilton all attended King's Daughters Convention.

Our mighty Warrior football team made a good showing at football camp, and our cheerleaders made an equally good showing at cheerleading clinic in Cookeville.

Many of our freshmen went to Savannah Beach with their Girl Scout troop. Sue Tuttle and Susan Hoover helped chaperone. What all did you for for enjoyment, girls?

Walter Fain has really traveled this summer. He began his summer along with Larry Rhodes, Frank Hall, Rusty Waddell and Dick Stansberry representing the Warrior basketball team at a basketball clinic in North Carolina. Where else have you been, Waldo?

Mark and John Medley have really had a blast mowing yards. Just how many yards did you have to mow? It seems like we saw you everywhere.

Other interesting vacations taken this summer include Susan Love, Elaine Irick, Angie Holmes, Mary Foster, JoAnne Alsbaugh, (Florida), Laura Moore (the West), Sara Anderson (Canada), and Amanda Byden (Texas).

BOYS STATE

Boys State was a study of Tennessee Government. We had a book from which we studied government. Each day we had lectures and a study period. We also had a period in which boys participated in sports. We were divided into imaginary cities and each city competed against each other. We competed in sports, scholastic achievement, and marching and drilling. At the end of the week, we had a physical fitness test and a test on government. During the week we had city, county, and state officials elected to officiate in Boy's State, the 51st State. Elected governor of Boy's State was Mike "Dizzy" Dzvonic from Chattanooga.

Mrs. Martha Springer

Another addition has been made to Holston's History department this year, Mrs. Martha Springer. Mrs. Springer was born and raised in Tuscaloosa, Alabama where she also attended high school. During high school, Mrs. Springer was an active member of the Tri-Hi-Y and the Student Council. She was also Valedictorian of her class. Mrs. Springer attended Blue Mountain College for Girls in Mississippi where she majored in social studies and English. She is now married and has two children, a girl and a boy. She enjoys playing tennis and planning programs.

HOLSTON SWEEPS SUMMER LEAGUE

The Warriors basketball team compiled a perfect eight wins and no losses record this summer in the Recreation Bureau sponsored summer league basketball program.

They were never seriously pressed in defeating such teams as Central, Clinton, and Powell. The leading scorers were John McMillan, and Walter Fain, backed up by starters John Justice, Kenny Adams, Bruce Cliff and Jim Bird.

The perfect record gives Holston its first championship of the summer league and its best pre-season record ever. If this is an indication, we can look forward to a great basketball season this year.

HOLSTON DROPS OPENER

In the first football game of the season, the "Warriors" lost a heart-breaker to the Young High Yellow Jackets. In a game that could have gone either way, a pass intercepted in the final three minutes was the deciding factor in the Young victory. The Warriors surprised all the fans with their fine play and good spirit. After coming from behind 13 to 0, the Warriors made the score 13 to 6 early in the third quarter. Then, in the fourth quarter, Holston scored for the last time in the game. The scoreboard read 13 to 12 in favor of Young until the last few minutes when a pass interception was run for a touchdown by Young. This was a tough break, for the Warriors were posing a scoring threat near the Young 20 Yard Line. But as it has been said often, "Football is a game that can go as many ways as the ball will bounce."

Congratulations to the whole team. They are a great bunch of players and everyone could see they really were trying to win. Mickey Bowers did a terrific job of directing the Holston attack, and his passing was a big factor in the scoring for Holston. The line play was good also, and the lineman did a good job of protecting the passer. We wish the whole team a successful season.

Football Camp

On August 11, forty-two boys from Holston High journeyed to Sevier County High School for a week of hard work. They slept in the school gym and ate in the school lunch room.

For dinner they usually had soup and sandwiches, and for supper they really ate big! Two nights they had rib steak, two nights cube steak, two nights ham, and one night chicken.

The boys would begin practice at 5:30 a.m. till about 7:00, then they would have breakfast and rest a while and begin practice again at 9:30. They practiced till about 11:30 and then they stopped for lunch and a rest. Afternoon practice began at 3:45 and lasted till about 5:30. They practiced most on defense and offense, and they played Sevier High and tied them 12-12 on Friday before leaving.

The week was full of hard work, aches, and pain, but it was well worth it. In the following games we shall see the result of their week of hard work at football camp.

Mr. G. D. Whaley

Another addition to the Holston High faculty is the new shop teacher, Mr. G. D. Whaley. He is a native Tennessean, born and reared in Harriman. He graduated from Tennessee Tech. in the school of industrial technology. His leisure time is spent with his wife and two children: Jane, 5, and Steve, 3. He also likes the outdoors as is demonstrated by his interest in hunting and fishing. Previously he taught at Leesburg, Florida. He encourages all boys to take shop but says you must have self-discipline, initiative, and pride in everything you do.

Holston, Central, Young Take Wins in Jamboree

Friday night, August 23, area football teams in the AAA-AA Division played one quarter each against opposing teams. The game was held at Evans-Collins Field and approximately 7,500 fans were present.

Central overthrew Karns for their victory and Young won over Powell. Powell's quarterback Jim Courtney, with his passing all through the game, kept Young's Yellowjackets from relaxing. Holston overthrew Rule for their victory. Senior quarterback Mickey Bowers connected four out of eight passes in leading the Warriors past Rule. He threw three yards to senior end Lendon Warwick for the touchdown after passing earlier for thirteen yards to senior halfback Jim Scates. Sophomore quarterback David Fair's jump pass to senior end Don Mauldin made the extra point.

Mr. Don Wilson

Another new face has come into the Holston music department—Mr. Wilson, our new band director. His experience includes two years at Tennessee Polytechnic Institute and two years at the University of Tennessee, where he received his B.S. He first became interested in music in high school and has played bass, trombone, and baritone in bands ever since.

Spirit Brightened

Thursday night, September 5, a bonfire was held in front of Holston. Many students attended and a tremendous display of school spirit for our football team was prevalent. The next day, a school pep rally was held at 2 o'clock outside and the cheerleaders were formally introduced to the Freshmen and new students.

Mr. David E. Ward

Along with many other new faculty members Holston has acquired this year, Mr. Ward, a math teacher. Mr. Ward was born in Norfolk, Virginia, but moved to Mississippi at an early age where he spent most of his youth. He was a member of his high school band at Wyona, Mississippi. Mr. Ward was graduated from the University of Tennessee where he majored in Math, Science and Education. He is now married and has two children. He is especially interested in amateur radio and football. This is Mr. Ward's first year as a teacher and enjoys Holston very much. He will sponsor the Jets Club this year.
