Is Awarded Fountain Pen In Journalism Short Course Contest.

WITTY TALKS FEATURED

Battle of Wits Between Leaders Forms Convention Highlight.

For the second time representatives of the Blue and White have brought back prizes from the convention of the Southern Inter-scholastic Press Association held annually at Washington and Lee University, Lexington, Va.

Vernon Grizzard, associate editor of the Blue and White, was awarded first prize for the best story submitted in the journalism short course at the convention held November 18 and 19. T. D. Morris and Julian Chamberlain, former editors, returned with a first and a second prize, respectively, four years ago.

A battle of wits between William
L. Mapel, director of the Lee
School of Journalism, and Carl H.
Claudy, noted Washington, D. C., author, was a source of never-ending amusement to delegates during the convention.

Ten-Dollar Bills

The engagement started at the evening session Friday, November 18, following the Quill and Scroll banquet at which Mr. Claudy had spoken on the responsibilities of an editor. Mr. Mapel, in introducing Mr. Claudy, stated that Mr. Claudy was a wealthy man, and that he made a practice of passing out ten

3 H.S. Alumni Are U.T. Frosh Heads

Honor has again come to Knoxville High school from her graduates. At the recent election of the freshman class of the University of Tennessee, three of the four class officers chosen were members of the class of '32. Bob Rule was given the distinction of president, Raymond Worsham was chosen secretary, and Julian Harris was elected treasurer of the class.

Rule, while attending high school,
was chosen "Mr. K. H. S." by the student body. Worsham was president of the class of '32, and Harris was business manager of the Blue and White last year.

HOME ECONOMICS CLUB VISITS L-S CANDY CO.

"We study not for school, but for life" is the motto chosen by the Home Economics club of K. H. S. at their meeting Tuesday, November 22.

The club will soon make a tour
of Littlefield and Steere Candy company. Only the members who have paid their dues will be permitted to go.

A point system is being considered whereby each member will be given certain points for the different things she does which show her interest in the club.

At the end of the semester the girl having the highest number of points will be awarded a solid gold Home Economics club pin; the girls having the second and third highest number of points will be awarded a gold and a silver pin, respectively.

DIRECTORS OF '33B CLASS

These students, who have been chosen to lead the spring graduating class, are Nannette Manning, Jimmie Wise, Mildred Tarwater, and F. G. Denton.

Plans Are Launched For New Type Voice

Bids Received Enable Drastic
Slash In Costs.

Students especially interested in having an annual this year met with Principal W. E. Evans and several of the teachers Tuesday afternoon in Room 208.

A committee of students which had previously been appointed took bids for pictures and engraving fees from the various Knoxville firms.

The cost of the book and engraving fees for the different classes will be as follows: 9-A, 10-B, 10-A, $1.00 for book plus 10 cents for pictures and engraving; 11-B and 11-A, $1.00 for book plus 90 cents
for pictures and engraving; 12-B, 12-A, $1.00 for book plus $2.00 for pictures and engraving.

In former years the book alone
has been $1.50, the engraving fee for seniors $1.00, and the price for senior pictures $2.00, making a total of $4.50.

This year, by a general reduction of expenses, the total outlay
for a senior will be $3.00.

show of K.H.S., is to be presented next Friday night at 8 o'clock.
Approximately fourteen clubs and organizations in Knoxville High are to be represented by acts in the show.

The admission price to the only

among the most successful presentations that have been put on in K.H.S.

12-B Directors Chosen; Ruble New President

Nannette Manning Is Vice-Pres. With Mildred Tar-
water As Secretary.

STUDENT LEADERS

Jimmie Wise, Treasurer, and
F. G. Denton Are Other
New Class Leaders.

George Ruble, winner of the Morgan Medal for the best drilled cadet last year, was elected president of the 12-B class recently.
Nannette Manning was elected vice-president; Mildred Tarwater,
secretary; Jimmy Wise, treasurer;
and F. G. Denton, chairman of the program committee.

George Ruble is now a second lieutenant in Company "A" in command of the second platoon. Nannette Manning is secretary of the Student Council and will appear in a "Joyland" skit by that organization. She is also a member of the National Honor Society and other clubs. Mildred Tarwater is also a member of the Student council.

Jimmie Wise is a member of the Hi-Y club and was president of his sophomore class. He was also a member of the swimming team last year.

F. G. Denton, Hi-Y member, was president of junior class last year
and was on the track team.

"The class has done much to promote activities in K.H.S. and the new directors are competent leaders of this class," said Miss Jessie Neubert, adviser of the 12-B's.

Miss Neubert has been appointed chairman of class advisers of all the classes.

Tardiness Brings New Bell At 8:10

Because of the excessive number of tardies and absences lately a drive has been started to lessen the number.

An investigation has revealed that the pupils who are absent so often are, for the most part, the ones who are failing.

A new bell, ringing at 8:10 every morning, has been put into the schedule. This is called the late bell. The tardy bell rings at 8:15, and strict measures are being taken
with those that are tardy.

Boogaboo Stars As Rosepetal Stops Paddlefoot In Tight Game, 5000 To 2

Going back into my memory to the stories my mother used to tell me as I sat upon her knee, playing hop-scotch and skipping rope, I recall the famous basketball game between Rosepetal Seminary and Paddlefoot College in which my great uncle Boogaboo distinguished himself by running up 5,000 points
to win the game for Rosepetal.

That score was quite small, but it was a furious and close-contested game, and Uncle Boogaboo was at a disadvantage when he entered, having a sprained wrist and a fractured collar bone.

When the bell rang for the first round the Boog stood nothing and nothing. Boog was jumping center and leaped twenty feet in the air and smacked the ball through his opponents' goal. The ball hit so hard it bounced through the basket ten times before the Paddlefoot captain let the air out. He was immediately disqualified for carrying a knife. On the next kickoff Boog leaped too high and caught on an overhead beam. The game was held up half an hour till they got a ladder up to him. Then things began speeding up.

Boog dribbled the ball 250 yards down the court with fifteen members of the opposing team hanging onto him. When he got under the basket he saw it was his own, so he took the ball 300 yards to the other goal, running the score up to 2,000 for Rosepetal. In the next quarter, when he received the ball and started around left end for a center rush, the Paddlefoot team fell on him with everything but the concrete mixer and caved six of his ribs and broke his leg. He struggled from beneath them and,

snatching up a cane from the umpire, dashed down the field for a touchdown. The crowd went wild.
Boog had a mighty constitution,
and his leg knitted by the beginning of the next half, so he entered in his old position of wrong halfback. He received the ball on the kickoff and ran it 400 yards down
the field before he was stopped by a red light.

It was toward the end of the

TARDINESS

Preventing the unnecessary tardiness in K. H. S. could be very easy if everyone would apply himself to this purpose. Every member of the student body should cooperate to lower the amount of tardiness in this school since it is, and has been for a long time, entirely too large.

Best results from one's schooling are obtained when he and his teachers are working in complete unison. And this cannot be unless both are absolutely prompt in every respect.

One's best habit of promptness should be formed because a habit of this nature is at all times an asset and often the lack of it is inexcusable.

Let's be prompt in everything, everywhere, at all times. Benefit is derived by everyone concerned.

BASKETBALL

Basketball will soon take the place of football as the principal major sport of the high schools and colleges of America.

It is the sincere hope of the Blue and White that the decrease in interest in athletics which usually comes at the end of the football season will not occur this year, as it did last year, in K. H. S. Although the Trojans had a successful season, winning the fourteenth district championship and reaching the finals of the East Tennessee regional tournament, the attendance at home games was very poor during the entire season.

Throughout the Midwest basketball is the favorite sport of high schools and colleges. Huge crowds attend the games in company with the school bands. It is not uncommon for 10,000 people to witness college games of the Big Ten conference, and entire high school student bodies often attend prep contests. At the University of Kentucky, in our own Southland, there are more candidates for the basketball team than for the football squad.

There is no reason why Knoxville High should not support the Trojan basketball team this year. Basketball is the fastest sport in existence, with the exception of ice hockey, and may be as thrilling as football. It offers opportunity for a greater amount of intricacy than possibly any sport participated in anywhere in America.

K. H. S. has excellent prospects for a winning team this year. Let's all support High School's basketball team and help to make this a banner year for Trojan basketball!

The Spectator

It was quite a coincidence when Commodore Sharp and Eula Grooms first appeared in the library together, but now it has become a habit.

Bogart and little King have started anew.

Then there is Jackie Adcock and Chappy, another cute couple.

Maxwell Stork doesn't mind going to prayer meeting when he can go with Josephine McGehee.

This week's nomination for Prince Charming is Bud Perrin.

Apparently everything is still O. K. between Mary Bennett and Bill Ressler.

Vernon Grizzard gained much by attending the S. I. P. A. convention, for he hadn't been back but a week until he received a four-page letter from a girl attending the convention from Maryland.

Little Hatch took Benton to see "The Mask of Dr. Fu Manchu" so he could hold her hand when she became frightened.

Ben McPherson speaks up and announces that he is NOT in love.

Jim Leach, won't you give Evelyn White "Just One More Chance?"

Jimmy Ailshie and Margaret Love have a real case of love.

So Stan Warren has started a correspondence course with Milba Jones!

What's the matter with Frances Blair and "Bill" Baker?

Has Doris Booker lost her foothold on Ed Allen?

Announcing that Frances Hayes and George Trammell have called it quits.

And Sherman Woods still has the prettiest eyes of any boy in school. Sue Andrews is deeply in love, folks. Namely—Joe Galbreath.

That's a cute picture of you and Rella, Johnie. But you're breaking some girl's heart, you know.

Is Lois Whitehead still "nertz" over Wayne Paul, or is she yearning for a "lost love?"

This is getting to be a serious affair between Sarah Evans and Fred Sterchi. Be careful, Sarah!

Dick Dempster's silent love is Natalie Lovette. She IS a cute girl, Dick.

Stewart is still enjoying Ellen Taylor's company. Here's to you both.

Somebody tell Jane Roark she is barking up the wrong tree. That was a dirty dig—sorry.

Why doesn't Jo Adcock quit handing all the boys a line and settle down to one?

Margaret Wasson is quite charming when the name of Ed is mentioned and she blushes.

Bernice Watkins has "stumbled" for Joseph Henderson.

Vivian, is "Bud" your only reason for wanting to keep the box the last lunch period?

TENNESSEE

Let me pause and pay tribute to a show that now has passed away but one that was indeed entertaining and delightfully original, "The Big Broadcast".

Finishing a three day run today, that much talked of endeavor, "I Am A Fugitive", continues its flight and leaves Knoxville for points south. Being based upon a fugitive's real experiences and having that great star, Paul Muni, heading an otherwise weak cast, this story of hardship and suffering lives up to its reputation and furnishes excitement and thrills enough to keep you all on the edge of those comfortable Tennessee seats.

Now for some real news; tomorrow, that great team of comedienne, Marie Dressler and Polly Moran, comes to visit us until next Wednesday. These artists bring with them their fourth co-starring vehicle, "Prosperity", which promises even to surpass their other successes. This new picture presents those two veritable howls as high society matrons with money to burn and airs to flaunt.

The madcap escapades of Marie and Polly furnish their audience with many a hearty laugh during the course of "Prosperity".

BOOTH

"Doctor X", the "X" standing for Xanier, opens today and continues through tomorrow at the Booth. This is one of the recent chain of horror pictures started by the filming of "Dracula". "Doctor X" is unique in that it is filmed in impressive technicolor throughout, adding much to the weird and complicated setting of the movie. Taking principal parts are Lionel Atwill, Fay Wray, and a thoroughly enjoyable young man called Lee Tracy. I saw this picture twice and enjoyed it both times; therefore I am sure that it will pay you to see it at least once.

KADET KOLUMN

Monthly inspection of the R. O. T. C. battalion was won by "B" company last Tuesday with a percentage of 89.01.

Other companies ranked in the inspections as follow:

"D" company 87.50.

"C" company 86.01.

"A" company 84.01.

At the end of the term the company winning the greatest number of these inspections is awarded points toward getting "Prize Company" in the annual competitive drill.

MICKEY AND HIS MA

Mickey and His Ma have been held out of this issue of the Blue and White to determine if the student body is really interested in the publication of this human nature comic strip. If you like these comics and would like for them to be continued in the Blue and White, telephone Dr. Trotter, optometrist, at 3-9413, or, better still, when you are uptown drop into his office, balcony, Friedman's, and tell him what you think of them.

Editor's Note: Because you do enjoy seeing this comic strip, do not hesitate to phone or call at the office and let it be known.

Sorry, folks, if I caused you to bet on K. H. S. or Kentucky last week. I now fully realize that, as a predictor of sporting event results, I'd make a good street-cleaner.

Too bad old County rolled us on the sod, but that's just one of those little things; "it takes a little rain-droplet now and then to make us appreciate the sun when it comes out again", you know.

As for the awful licking those poor Wildcats took at Shields-Watkins field, we're only sorry that they didn't furnish more competition.

Harold Harris Is Named '33 Grid Captain

New Leader Joined Trojans In '29—Has Been Tackle and Center.

Harold Harris will lead the 1933 Trojans in football. Wednesday during the sixth period the football lettermen met at the gym and held the election.

Harris first joined the team in 1929 and served as a substitute tackle until 1931, when he was shifted to the center position. He made an excellent record, being outstanding in both ability and sportsmanship, according to various members of the squad.

Players who have earned varsity letters are as follows: Capt. Sharpe, Baker, Troutman, Badgett, Long, Cureton, Harris, Pease, Maney, Forrester, Graves, Headrick, Alexander, Howard, Beasley, Warren, Leach, Shetterly, Foster, Jones, and Manager Word.

B TEAM AWARDS

Sixteen letters were awarded to members of the K.H.S. "B" team, which has a record of three victories and one defeat; this team, coached by Coaches Jimmie Holland and Johnny Walker, defeated TSD, 25-0; Powells, 13-6; Everett, 12-0; and lost to Halls, 7-0. The "Little Trojans", led by Fenton White, scored fifty points on their opponents and the opponents crossed the "B" line to the tune of two touchdowns.

Receiving letters are: Capt. White, Christenberry, Anderson, D. Jones, Flannagan, Houchins, Disney, Hampton, Earl, Tipton, Ketter, Robinson, Hendricks, Henry, Reid, and Lawson, manager. The "B" team "K" is smaller than the varsity "K", being approximately three inches square.

Knoxville Is Scene Of 2 Cage Tournneys

District and Regional To Be Held In K. H. S. and U. T. Gyms.

Unless new plans are made, Knoxville will harbor two important basketball tournaments this season.

As the plans now stand, the district tournament will be held in the Knoxville High gym March 2, 3, 4, and 5, and the regional tournament will be held at the new U. T. gym March 8, 9, 10, and 11.

No state meet as yet has been scheduled due to lack of funds.

Last year a series of three tournaments were held. The two finalists of each district went to the regional tournaments. Finalists from the regional tournaments met in the state meet, which was held at Jefferson Hall. The regional meet for East Tennessee took place last year in Jefferson City.

The district meet, which is to be held here, will bring together high school teams from Knox and Blount counties. Approximately twenty-five teams will participate.

A. U. Scholarship Offered KHS Grad

American University has offered a half-tuition scholarship for next year to a boy or girl in this year's graduating class at Knoxville High school. The scholarship is valued at $150 for the first year and $100 toward the second year's tuition if a satisfactory scholastic record is made during the fiscal year by the winner of the scholarship.

"A graduate of your high school, Edward Tate, is now a student in the College of Liberal Arts of American University, Washington, D. C.," said G. B. Woods, Dean of the college, in a letter to Principal W. E. Evans. "This boy has made a fine impression upon us, and we desire to continue our contact with your school."

This offer was made to give a student who might be interested in the opportunities offered by the American University a chance to take advantage of them.

The scholarship committee asked that the scholarship be awarded by the high school faculty on the basis of scholastic attainment, personal merit, and promise of being able to carry a college course with distinction.

SPORT DOPE

Basketeers Deserve More Support, Declares Scoop

By "Scoop" Harrington

Now that the football season is over, we have two other sports to fill places on our athletic menu, namely, basketball and track. Here's hoping that our basketball team will be backed this year. Last season a K. H. S. team made an excellent record, winning almost all the games during the season, and taking the district championship after a thrilling and close finish. Even with a winning team the number of people attending the regular scheduled games hardly, if ever, exceeded one hundred. As one who followed last year's team in every game, the writer will guarantee any person that if he will witness three basketball games he will learn to enjoy the sport as much as any other sport. Soon a definite schedule for basketball will be made; High School, let's not be a one sport school. Come on out and back the basketball team. Again we wager that one can learn to like basketball a great deal and that he will get many thrills from the game.

Speaking of backing a basketball team, it is a known fact that at the University of Kentucky more fans turn out for basketball games than for football games; also that more candidates turn out for the team. It is said the U. of K. scouts for basketball players in a bigger way than most schools scout for football players. Kentucky's case is only one of many. Most Eastern schools back their basketball teams.

It's a custom and has to be done; yea, you guessed it; we are about to pick an all-city high school football team. Your writer personally feels that all-American, all-conference, etc., teams are a lot of bunk. Many deserving players are left completely out and, as Bob Murphy said, many good men don't make the "all" teams because the teams are virtually selected before the football season starts; but, anyway, here are the Blue and White all-city teams.

First Team	Position	Second Team
Troutman (K)	Left End	Webster (C)
Graves (K)	Left Tackle	Badgett (K)
Strange (C)	Left Guard	Cureton (K)

Sidelights of C. H. S. - K. H. S. game . . . At last the sports editors of the two Knoxville papers have honored the two Knoxville schools, K. H. S. and C. H. S. They not only came to see the game but mentioned it in their columns. It was a difficult task for one to determine the winner of the game, for K. H. S. supporters carried on as joyously as the County supporters after the game. Both marched back and forth up the main drag in a hilarious manner . . . Individual gains, as they appeared to the spectators, gave the referee the most yardage with gains amounting to a hundred yards or more. His center plunges of fifteen and twenty-five yards were by far the most constant gains of the afternoon . . . The sidelines at Smithson were swarmed by "supposed to be" newspaper reporters. One who vowed that he was a representative of the Journal said that he meant the Atlanta Journal, after he had been introduced to Marvin Thompson, regular Knoxville Journal sports writer . . . Many football notables were present at the game. Major Bob Neyland and several of his men, Coach Harry Gamage and the entire Kentucky team, and others were there . . . Was it football spirit or need of kindling that caused the goal posts at the south end to be torn down?

A former K. H. S. football star seems destined to become an all-American football player. Howard Bailey, sophomore tackle on the U. T. team, is being mentioned not only by Knoxville sports writers, but by writers in other towns. Bailey was a member of K. H. S.'s 1930 team. Jim Claxton, former Trojan center, is seeing much service, too, even though he is only a sophomore. Four Trojans have played an important part in the 1932 Vol season. Deke Brackett, "Sheriff" Maples, "Pug" Vaughn, and Howard Bailey were first string men.

Trojans Now One of Ten Teams Composing Knox County League.

COUNTY TILT POSTPONED

Date Indefinite—20 Games Scheduled Between League Teams.

Swinging into action for the first time this season, the Knoxville High basketeers, led by Captain Billy Tharp, will meet the Tennessee School for Deaf quintet next Tuesday night in the K.H.S. gym. The game will start at 8 o'clock.

The Trojan sphere pushers, now in the Knox County league, were scheduled to meet the Central High Bobcats tonight, but the County team asked that the game be postponed to a later date.

Coach Wilson Collins represented K.H.S. last Monday at a meeting of the high school basketball coaches of the county. The meeting was held at Young's High and Knoxville High was officially taken into the county league, which now includes the teams of Young's, Farragut, Karns, Halls, Carters, Powells, Gibbs, Tennessee School for Deaf, Central, and Knoxville.

Each team plays each of the other nine quintets twice during the season, making a total of twenty games to be played by each organization. Seven games will be played before the Christmas holidays, with the remainder scheduled for the new year. The teams play every Tuesday and Friday night.

The past week has seen the Trojans undergoing strenuous preparations for Tuesday's battle. Stiff practices have been held every afternoon with a fast scrimmage to end each session.

The lineup that will probably face the T. S. D. team will be as follows:

G. Johnson—Forward.
L. Foster—Forward.
C. Johnson—Center.
Tharp—Guard.
Masterson—Guard.

INTRAMURAL SCHEDULE TO BE ANNOUNCED SOON

Within the next two weeks a schedule for intramural sports activities will be announced by Physical Director Sam Jones.

The plans, according to Jones, call for a tumbling team, wrestling team, and class basketball teams.

Likely the tumbling and wrestling teams will perform during intermission at the basketball games, as they did last year. The wrestling team possibly will meet teams from other schools.

The names of Dennis Graves and Carl Forrester were inadvertently left off the list of Trojan football players who graduate. Graves, regular tackle, leaves an excellent record which was climaxed by his winning of a tackle berth on both the Journal and Sentinel all-city teams; Forrester, a reserve lineman, has served well in that capacity.

R. Cross Roll Call Nets $60

Money Is To Provide Milk Fund For Pickle and Perkins Schools.

Letters from Pickle and Perkins schools, expressing their appreciations for the aid Knoxville High school has given them, have been received. They were read to the Junior Red Cross representatives at their regular meeting Monday afternoon.

The total receipts from Junior Red Cross Roll Call were sixty-five dollars. The groups which went 100 per cent in the Red Cross Roll Call were Miss Galbreath's, Miss Weigel's, and Miss Joyner's. A milk fund of fifteen dollars will be given to both Pickle and Perkins schools.

Miss Emily McLaurin has explained to the Junior Red Cross representatives about the rag dolls, which are to be made by the high school pupils, to be given to the Pickle school children for Christmas. As is the custom, there will be a prize awarded for the best dressed doll. Pupils who do not have patterns may get them from Room 308. There are 77 dolls to be dressed. Miss Rebecca Cole's applied design class is making 32 of them.

The first aid room, sponsored by the Junior Red Cross, will be opened Monday. Girl Reserves will be on duty each period of the day.

Commercial Club Plans To Visit N-S

Other Examples of Industry
To Be Seen During Year.

To familiarize themselves with the order of procedure of various concerns, the Commercial club, under the leadership of Miss Kathleen Brand, faculty adviser, and Caunita Francis, president, is planning several field trips for the year.

The club will visit the News-Sentinel plant Thursday, December 1, as the members are especially interested in the telegraph typewriters and the presses and other equipment of the paper.

Some of the meetings will be taken up by club discussions of social and business etiquette, while others will be purely social events.

In the interests of the membership drive which is now being conducted, a club letter has been issued, inviting all students who take even one commercial subject to join the club.

When this drive is completed they hope to have an active and interested membership. The committee carrying on the drive is composed of Herman Myers, chairman; Pauline Vander, and Corena Vinson. Entertainment and publicity committees have also been appointed.

RALPH WALLACE WINS PRIZE IN AD CONTEST

Ralph Wallace, advertising manager of the Blue and White, has been awarded the $2.50 prize offered by the Blue and White to the person selling the largest number of column inches of advertising for the four last issues of the Blue and White.

Wallace secured 81 inches of advertising, the largest amount obtained by anyone with the exception of Sidney Licht, who was not eligible for the contest.

dollar bills with as much nonchalance as John D. Rockefeller gives away bright, shining dimes. He said that all delegates were to line up at the conclusion of the session to receive a crisp, new, ten dollar bill each from Mr. Claudy.

Mr. Claudy said that he had made no previous preparation for his address, entitled "Double-Barrelled Romance". At the conclusion of Mr. Claudy's talk, which was cut short in order that delegates might make a trip to see the night illumination of famous Natural Bridge, Mr. Mapel said, "Those of you who wish to have a complete copy of Mr. Claudy's address may obtain one by sending a request for bulletin fourteen, 'Double-Barrelled Romance', by Carl H. Claudy, to the American Boy magazine in Detroit, Michigan."

"Whoever believed that ten-dollar bill story may believe this one, also", countered Mr. Claudy.

A complete difference of opinion between Lee A. White, member of the editorial staff of the Detroit News, and Mr. Mapel on almost every question of newspaper practice was an addition to the Mapel-Claudy clash of wits.

"Look At You!"

During a heated discussion Saturday morning concerning the publishing of cigarette advertising in high school papers, Mr. Mapel said, "I've been smoking since I was a sophomore in high school."

"And look at you!" was Mr. White's laughing reply.

The Mapel-Claudy feud was climaxed Saturday night at the final banquet at which O. W. Riegel, also of the Lee School of Journalism, presented the various awards. Mr. Mapel asked Mr. Claudy to stand and then said to the delegates, "I just wanted you to see what a pompous 'stuffed shirt' Mr. Claudy is in a tuxedo."

"I dreamed," replied Mr. Claudy, "that you died from pneumonia at the age of ninety-six and left only an accident insurance policy. The insurance company refused payment, contending that death in any form to such a newspaper man as you was not an accident, but a visitation of God!"

At the various sessions problems which confront scholastic newspapers were discussed, the stories entered in the journalism short course were criticized by Mr. Riegel, and faults in all newspapers entered in the contest were pointed out by Mr. Mapel.

MORE ABOUT BOOGABOO STARS

game that Boog made that famous run and shot that won for him the name of the "bouncing bean of Rosepetal". Boog had taken the ball under his own goal and was dribbling down the court, stiff-arming opponents right and left and black-jacking those he couldn't stiff-arm. When he reached the center of the court he'd laid out forty men and only ten of his opponents remained. The coach grew desperate and rushed in 400 subs, who piled on top of each other to form a wall thirty feet high across the court in front of their goal. When Bugaboo saw this formidable obstacle he dropped back twenty yards, clutched the ball to his breast and sprinted toward the goal. When fifteen feet from the wall of bodies he leaped high into the air, landed on the ball and bounced over the substitutes onto the goal behind. The ball fell through the basket, leaving Boog on top like an impending disaster on a cold morning. Just then the whistle blew and the game was over.

For his work Uncle Boogaboo was awarded a petrified potato with his name engraved on the back.

adult adviser of district sixteen. Problems which confront Hi-Y clubs of today were discussed by these conference groups.

Supper was served in the K. H. S. cafeteria at 5:30, and Jewell Watson, Knoxville High's amateur magician, entertained the delegates with several sleight-of-hand tricks. Dr. J. Kelly Giffin, president of Knoxville college, delivered an inspiring address to the conference in the auditorium immediately after supper.

Binks (phoning down from his room): "Night clerk."

Snippy clerk: "Well, what's biting you?"

Binks: "That's what I want to know."
