B. & W. PLACES THIRD

Picture, Biography To Be Published in 'The School Press Review'.

Vernon Grizzard, associate editor of the Blue and White, has been named winner of the special publicity contest sponsored by the Columbia Scholastic Press Association in connection with its annual convention held March 9, 10, 11 at Columbia University, New York City.

Grizzard's story, adjudged the best of more than 1,000 stories submitted from high schools all over the United States, gave details of preparations for the convention. The story appeared in the February 3 issue of the Blue and White, and was then entered in the contest.

The winning story, together with a picture and biographical sketch (Continued on Page 4)

KHS Hi-Y Gives Best Girls' Night

Knoxville High school's Hi-Y club gave its first banquet of the present term last night at 6:30 at the Y. M. C. A., when best girls' night was observed.

Dr. Clifford E. Barbour, pastor of the Second Presbyterian church of Knoxville, was the speaker and delivered an interesting address to the students.

Every girl was required to tell why she came with the boy whom she accompanied, and some of the reasons given were unusually amusing to the banquet guests. Peter Ricardi, well known local accordionist, entertained with several selections, and Frances Cour, accompanied by Jimmie Hart, at the piano, sang a group of blues songs.

'Mikado' To Be Presented Here Tuesday At 2:30

Presentation To Be the Culminations of Six Weeks' Preparation.

"The Mikado," which will be presented next Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 in the K. H. S. auditorium by the Knoxville High and U-T glee clubs, will be the culmination of many weeks of effort by many departments of K. H. S. The glee clubs and orchestra have been assisted by the art, clothing, and woodworking departments.

The Gilbert and Sullivan opera, most comical of the works of the two composers, is expected to be unusually entertaining on account of the many amusing situations in which the Japanese characters find themselves.

The cast is: The Mikado of Japan, Tipton Masterson; Nanki-Pooh, his son and in love with Yum-Yum, Thomas Parham; Ko-Ko (Lord High Executioner of Titipu), Edward Howard; Pooh-Bah (Lord High Everything Else), James Allison; Pish-Tush (A Noble Lord), Everett Miller; Yum-Yum, Pitti-Sing, and Peep-Bo (sisters, and wards of Ko-Ko), Dorothy Armstrong, Virginia Wayland, and Juliet Wilkes; and Katisha (an elderly lady in love with Nanki-Pooh), Josephine McGehee. ### Orchestra To Play At Skating Party

Members of the 12-A class will sponsor a skating party at Sterchi Park tonight from 7:30 to 10:00 o'clock. Special attractions will be music by Adie Wallace's orchestra, dancing by Miss Myrtle Booth, and a magic performance by Jewell Watson.

Tickets may be obtained from members of the Senior class for 25 cents. Since only 150 pairs of skates are available, those planning to attend are advised to buy tickets immediately.

Incidentally, the proceeds from the program will be used as part payment for copies of the Senior class play, which have already been ordered.

'A Full House' Replaces Formerly Chosen Play

"A Full House," a three-act comedy-farce, has been selected to replace "The Family Upstairs" as this year's senior class production. The change was made because of the high royalty on "The Family Upstairs."

The play offers opportunities to seven boys and seven girls to show their dramatic ability. Tryouts are being held in the auditorium the latter part of next week.

Out of a total of 1800 votes cast 563 were cast for Mr. Akers and 501 were cast for Mr. Tharp. Cadet Lieutenant F. B. Kuhlman of "C" Company of the R. O. T. C. battalion, was a close third in the election with a vote from 472 students. This total was only 29 votes below second place.

C. Hudson, Open Forum Head, Appointed Manager 'Big Six'

Charles Hudson, president of the Open Forum, has been named student manager of the "Big Six" contest by W. T. Miller and C. S. Montgomery, faculty advisers of the contest.

Hudson was a member of the debate squad last year and took part in the "Big Five" contest, as it was then known, and several other debates. He had qualified for this year's debate team, but to relieve Mr. Miller and Mr. Montgomery of some of their work, he was advanced to the position of student manager.

"We feel that his absence will weaken the debate squad to some extent, but there are others who can be groomed to fill his place," said Mr. Miller. "He can render more assistance in taking care of some of the coaching of contestants and ironing out of details than he could by working on the team."

Work in all fields of the "Big Six" is steadily progressing. Most of the contestants have been definitely chosen. The debater, orator, and extemporaneous speaker are hard at work in the K. H. S. and Lawson McGhee Libraries. The humorous and dramatic readers and declaimers are hunting for outstanding selections or working on interpretations and delivery of some selections already chosen.

"There are more people interested in debating this year than ever before," said Mr. Montgomery. "It will be a problem to choose the best from so outstanding a group. I believe, though, that we will be able to use nearly all of them in some debate."

BLUE AND WHITE PLATFORM

- 1—Better understanding and more effective co-operation between the students and the administration.
- 2—A high standard of scholarship, sportsmanship, and school spirit.
- 3—A promotion of the appreciation and use of correct written and spoken English.
- 4—The improvement and promotion of such activities as DRAMATICS, ART, MUSIC, PUBLIC SPEAKING and JOURNALISTIC WORK.

'BARNEY' FORESTER

The entire Blue and White staff sincerely regrets the death of Barney Forester, who was killed in an airplane crash at McGhee-Tyson airport last Sunday afternoon.

Many of the staff members knew Barney personally, and when the Blue and White had the privilege of publishing the Journal, everyone noticed the quiet and efficient manner in which he did his work. He was always willing and anxious to perform favors and courtesies for anyone.

Barney loved aviation, with its hum of whirling propellers and mighty song of powerful motors, as he loved nothing else. It is paradoxical that aviation should have killed him, but he died as he would have lived, and we feel that on his last long hop he made a happy landing.

MISFORTUNE

"Sweet are the uses of adversity, which, like the toad, ugly and venomous, wears yet a precious jewel in his head."

William Shakespeare, probably the best beloved of all masters of the English language, wrote these memorable words some four hundred years ago. At the time of their creation, they were full of meaning and significance. They will continue to be remembered and respected as long as the English language and English civilization last.

But in times of economic difficulties and misfortune such as now exist, they bear doubled value and encouragement. Although conditions may seem "ugly and venomous", by experiencing them we can better appreciate times of prosperity when they finally come.—James Schultz.

BEHIND THE SCENES

The smooth running of every play is made possible not only by the participants in performance but also by the co-operation of the stage hands.

A crew of boys from the student body is responsible for the stage at all times when student presentations are given. Harmonious work with the dramatic and music departments of the school makes every play production, concert, or chapel program more enjoyable for the audience. These boys of the stage crew have become a necessary part of the activities that use the stage, but have not been recognized as such.

Without them what could inexperienced stage hands do toward making the stage ready for a performance that required any preparation at all? The present crew has been on the job long enough to know the "ropes". And it might be said that they remain at the job long enough to accomplish their purpose. On days preceding a dramatic presentation the stage crew is just as busy if not more busy, than are the members of the cast. At least their work is harder and just as necessary.

Remember, when you see something in K. H. S. that requires any attention to the stage, that a vital part of it is out of sight behind the curtains; that the boys that work with the settings and "props" are on the job cheerfully doing what is necessary for the show to "go on".

"The show must go on", and it could not without the aid of these fellows who receive no pay for their work except the experience and enjoyment gained from the work itself.

At The Theatres

By Alford Orr

BOOTH

Recounting a thrilling tale of the sea, and relating a chapter of the past in marine ethics and history, "Shanghaied Love," with Richard Cromwell and Sally Blane, opens today at the Booth Theatre. The plot of this saga of clipper days centers about an old sea-dog tavern of evil repute upon the San Francisco waterfront, The Tub O' Blood Tavern. Here, years ago, innocent seamen were drugged and shanghaied or forced against their will into service in underhand missions aboard "Golden Bough" by her notorious skipper, the Knitting Swede.

It is in an atmosphere such as this that we find pretty Sally Blane and her hero, Richard Cromwell, in this picture. The scenes are most carefully and faithfully reproduced and presented in strikingly original detail.

TENNESSEE

Today in a jubilee day at this Gay street theatre, the management has booked the famous tenor, Gene Austin, and his troupe to present a two and one-half hour all stage program. Songs, dances, a red-headed orchestra, comedians, and skits characterize the entertainment promised by "Broadway Rhapsody". Although the prices are a wee bit high, we think the high class performances by well known stage stars will compensate for the extra shekel or two.

Mae West, buxom Venus of Old Broadway, is starring in the three day bill opening tomorrow. As this does not promise much entertainment for the high school student, "She Done Him Wrong" may be dismissed as a picture appealing to old-school adults.

BIJOU

A composite comedy-mystery picture is pleasing audiences at the Bijou today and will run through tomorrow. Its title is "The Crooked Circle", and it boasts an excellent comic and dramatic cast, including Zazu Pitts, Jimmy Gleason, and Ben Lyon.

Kathryn Ash and Theo Johnson can't seem to get together. Won't someone help them?

Kathleen Russell's affections have been monopolized for the last few months by a certain Charles H. Schwam from West Tennessee. Can't you keep your heart at home, Kathleen?

Raymond Lewis surely would like to meet Kathryn Mason.

SONNET

HENRY TO KATHERINE

By Lee Cullum

Dear Kate, if I might win thy hand in strife,
At leap-frog, or by bounding o'er a fence,
Then I should quickly leap into a wife.
But if you asked for graceful eloquence,
For dainty verse with many a gallant vow,
And cunning protestation, why Kate, there
I fear you have undid me. But if thou
Canst love a soldier plain, take me, my fair.
A straight back soon will stoop; a good leg, fall;
A curled pate grows bald, black beards turn gray.
But a good heart, like the sun, doth never part,
And never changes course from day to day.
If thou canst love a fellow of this make,
Then, fair one, thou canst me, a soldier, take.

BOTANY

There should be no monotony
In studying your botany;
It helps to train
And spur your brain
Unless you haven't got any.

It teaches you, does botany
To know the plants and spotany
And learn just why
They live or die
In case you plant or potany.

You learn from reading botany,
Of woody plants and cottony
That grow on earth
And what they're worth
And why some spots have notany!

You sketch the plants, in botany,
You learn to chart and plotany
Like corn, or oats.
You jot down notes
If you know how to jotany.

Your time, if you'll allotany,
Will teach you how and whatany
Old plant or tree
Can do or be,
And that's the use of botany!

THE VITAL QUESTION

By Martha Brown

I realize you don't smoke,
And I don't believe you swear;
You know just how to wear your clothes
And how to wear your hair.

You don't giggle at serious things,
Or laugh when things are sad,
You know some pretty good wise-
cracks;
As a dancer, you're not half bad.

You use the right fork at dinner,
And you don't spill soup in your lap,
And you don't wear a bright red
dress,
With a green or orange hat.

You never interrupt a speaker
But you speak when spoken to,
And you never allow a sap
To put anything over on you.

You can discuss the League of Nations,
Or the latest Parisian fad;
You understand Russia's tariff,
And the business handled by Dad.

But still there's just one question
I've thought of to no avail;
My dear, this vital question is:
"Do You Inhale?"

For those students who do not graduate this year, the Maskall Jewelry Company in the Bus Terminal Arcade, has ordered some sterling silver K. H. S. insignia rings. They come in two styles, boys' and girls'. "The rings are very attractive and can be worn at all times," said Mrs. Charles Maskall.

Class Cage Meet Starts Next Week

7 Quints Vie For Title of '33 Champs—Furious Battles Expected.

True to age-old tradition, a civil war in the form of a basketball tournament will be held between class teams this year. All battles will be waged on the battlefields of the K. H. S. gym.

Seven teams, representing all grades in K. H. S. (9-A through 12-A), will vie for the title of inter-class '33 champions. The present 12-A class won top honors last year, so that senior team is defending champion. The 12-A quint is a favorite to win the crown again this year.

Drawings made Wednesday, for the first round are:

- 9-A vs. 10-B.
- 10-A vs. 12-A.
- 12-B vs. 11-A.
- 11-B vs. bye.

First round battles will be played next Tuesday afternoon, with the second round slated for Thursday. Finals will be held the following Tuesday.

Following are the rules for the tourney:

1. All boys in K. H. S., except basketball lettermen, are eligible to play for the teams. Those wishing to play should see the following boys, who will have charge of their teams:

- 12-A—Jimmie Wise.
- 12-B—James Mynatt.
- 11-A—Harry Carter.
- 11-B—James Wilson.
- 10-A—Earnest Rodgers.
- 10-B—David Kesterson.

The 9-A's, while not fully organized, will have a team.

2. Each team will be allowed a squad of ten boys. Names of these ten boys must be brought to the Blue and White office not later than the fifth period Monday.

3. A meeting will be held this afternoon in the gym to talk over plans for the tournament. All boys who wish to play for their teams are urged to be present.

W. B. Bruce, K. H. S. commercial teacher, will referee all games.

With the completion of the tourney, an all-tournament team will be announced by the Blue and White.

Play Tenikoit Finals Today

Girls on the Winning Team To Receive Letters.

Semi-finals and finals of the girls' tenikoit tournament will be played Friday afternoon after school in the gymnasium. The pairings for the semi-finals are Ruth Stewart vs. Grace McLin and Bernice Jennings vs. Paulita Knight.

In the quarter-finals four hotly contested games were played Wednesday with most of the scores close. The winner of the games this afternoon will receive a white felt "T" enclosed in a white circle. A special reward of a blue background will be given to anyone who has won the second year.

The following is a list of the four captains and their teams who will be seen in action this afternoon: Capt. Ruth Stewart, Elise Simmons, Helen Goebel, Edith Loy, Alberta Conner, and Ruby Jones; Captain Paulita Knight, Mary Johnston, Mildred Herron, Dorothy Warwick, Albania White, and Mildred Peters; Captain Bernice Jennings, Faye Curtis, Hazel Cline, Bonnie Phipps, Anne L. Bolinger, and Esther Saylor; and Captain Grace McLin, Aileen Tipton, Lucille Hodsdon, Aileen Ward, Helen Maloney, and Mary Duck.

CLUBS MEET UNDER GYM TEACHERS' SPONSORSHIP

Clubs under the sponsorship of the girls' gym instructors are meeting now once a week. This, with the beginning of the tenikoit tournament, completes their program for a time.

The Hiking Club hiked last Tuesday to Harrill Hills. The next hike will be Thursday, March 23. Also the Tumbling and Rhythmic Dancing clubs will have their weekly meetings on Monday and Wednesday, respectively. Any student who takes gym may enter these clubs, and points are given toward the school emblem.

Fifty-five teams have entered the tenikoit tournament which makes a total of 330 girls. The first round was played off last Wednesday and Thursday during school. Part of the second round was decided yesterday and will be concluded this afternoon after school. The finals are expected to be reached by the end of next week.

Grid Captain Will Not Return

Trojan Warrior-Leader To Graduate In June.

Harold Harris, captain-elect of the 1933 football team, will not return to school next fall, and therefore will not be eligible for the team. Harris will graduate in the June class.

"The office officials urged me to go ahead and graduate this year, because of the crowded condition in K. H. S.," Harris declared Wednesday. "Naturally, I would like to play next year and be in school again, but it is hardly probable that I will be."

Harris has been on the Blue and White team for the past three years, playing tackle and center,

NOT TO RETURN

HAROLD HARRIS

and has been a mainstay in the line.

"Probably we will not elect another captain until next fall," Coach Collins said recently.

SPORT DOPE

Seven Classes Each Day Give Gridders Full Slate

By "Doug" Bean

Tough School Schedule!

Seven classes a day!

That's what the prospective football boys have had this past week. Mixed in with their "readin', 'ritin', and 'rithmetic" a seventh period football class for the candidates was held to show the squad the fundamentals of the game, such as the different blocks, tackles, etc.

When the group goes out on the field, now, it can get right down to work learning plays and formations and the more advanced aspects of football.

This style of spring training is the new system inaugurated here by Coach Wilson Collins.

"T. N. T." Moses

Fred Moses, former K. H. S. student and quarterback, and now a freshman at the Hill, is gaining quite a reputation as a high-powered backfield candidate for the Orange and White football team. It appears likely that Moses will be understudy to Deke Brackett, Tennessee's galloping regular quarter.

Local sports writers have dubbed the diminutive Moses "T. N. T." and from all advance indications, he is going to live up to his name.

Moses began his football career at Knoxville High, fans will remember, and needless to say, Wilson Collins, the Blue and White mentor, started him off on the right foot.

Future Stars?

In the recent R. O. T. C. basketball tournament, several players caught Coach Collins' eye by their outstanding play.

"Freck" Creswell, of the band team, was one of the main players that Coach Collins watched. Creswell, although rather small, displayed fine offensive strength and good floor work.

Bud Perrin, Company "C" guard, was another player that Coach Collins watched. Perrin showed form both on guarding his opponent and accuracy at the basket.

Creswell and Perrin both made the all-tournament team. Coach Collins also kept his eye on several other outstanding players, such as Williams and Lavender, "D" Company, Simpson, "B" Company, Cox, "A" Company, and Christenberry, of the Band.

Here's Our Honor Team!

A high school all-tournament team without a K. H. S. Trojan on it! Doesn't sound right, but that's what happened.

In the recent Regional Meet, the Trojans bowed to Kingsport in the first round, and of course, with so many outstanding players to choose from, no K. H. S. player had a real chance of making the all-Tournament team. Still, we think that Knoxville High should be represented on the all-regional team, so we put Gene Johnson, all-around star player, on the first team at forward. The other team selections do not matter, but we just had to put Gene on the first team for his great work in the Kingsport game.

The official all-tournament team, picked by the referee and other officials, placed Gene on the second team at guard, but the Blue and White selection gives him a first team berth at forward.

Seniors, freshies, sophs, and juniors will all mix next week in the annual inter-class basketball meet. All classes are reported to have strong teams, so the tournament is a wide open affair. Battles will be fought on Tuesday and Thursday of next week and the finals the following Tuesday.

So listen! Everyone be on hand to yell for your team! Come out and let the crowd know who you're for and what class you're in!

Candidates Turn Out 120 Strong

Coaches Greet Prospective Gridsters In Classroom Session Monday.

RED SHARPE RETURNS

Jones and Troutman, However, Are Among Missing Lettermen.

In the first classroom session, held Monday, 120 football candidates greeted Coaches Wilson Collins, Johnny Walker, and J. W. Holland.

"We were very pleased with the big turnout and interest shown by the boys and we are expecting more all along," Head Coach Collins said.

"Fundamentals in blocking and tackling were taught this week, and every boy has shown marked improvement in learning how to handle himself," he continued.

Another week will probably see the candidates in uniforms, if the weather permits.

Coach Collins will have a difficult job finding an end to fill the shoes left vacant by John Troutman, who for three years was outstanding at that position.

Bill Jones, flashy halfback, will also be missing.

With the news that "Red" Sharpe, without doubt one of the greatest football players to be turned out at K. H. S., will return next year, Trojan supporters have heartened at the prospect of winning from their most dangerous rival, Central, in their traditional game on Thanksgiving.

HS Minor Spring Sports Retained

Tennis, Golf, and Swimming Teams Run As Usual.

With spring and the fair, balmy days just around the corner, the minds of sport lovers turn to thoughts of tennis, golf, baseball, swimming, and other activities on the spring menu.

Knoxville High will be represented in at least two of these athletics—tennis and golf—and probably in three, with swimming probably completing the trio of K. H. S. minor sports. Baseball hopes have been abandoned since no suitable playing field is available.

As soon as warmer weather comes, a golf and tennis tournament will be held. Any Knoxville High boy may enter either meet and the four semi-finalists with one other player, will represent K. H. S. in these sports.

While the outlook is not so good for the golf team, prospects are bright for winning tennis and swimming teams.

Bogart, Neal, and Grizzard are tennis lettermen returning. Others are expected to make serious bids for the two open berths.

Wise, Fletcher, Chaffin, Crowther, Gleeson, Chamberlain, Keys, and Waters are expected to form the swimming team.

Alumna Gives Specimens To Science Department

A valuable herbarium has been given to the science department by Mrs. Roy Robinson, an alumna of K. H. S.

This collection was made while Mrs. Robinson was a student at U-T, and consists of over five hundred valuable specimens.

Mr. Varnell tells that this collection was made during a spring very similar to the one we are having and says it will prove a valuable asset to the science department.

club and a member of the basketball squad. All the boys were nominated in the primary election by popular vote.

Robert Akers is associate sports editor of the Blue and White, an officer of the Hi-Y club, and has been an active member of that club for the past two years.

C. L. Northcutt, chairman of the publications council, who helped check the votes, declared Wednesday afternoon, "This is the closest election with which I have been connected in High School."

Upon recommendation of Mr. Northcutt and Miss Emma Becton, faculty adviser of the Blue and White, ballots for the two candidates receiving the highest number were counted and checked a second time. After this final count Mr. Akers was declared the winner.

"There seemed to be very little stuffing of the ballot box," said Miss Becton, also a member of the Publication Council.

The ballot box was opened and the votes counted by the members of the Publication Council and representatives of the B. & W. immediately after school Wednesday.

Every candidate of the election is a member of the Hi-Y club and figures in the activities of the school.
