

K.H.S. Faculty Receives Three New Members

Mrs. Gresham To Teach Art —Mrs. Payne New Language Teacher.

BIBLE COURSE OPENS

Mrs. Clarice H. Groh To Teach Newly Introduced Curriculum.

To meet the needs of the school curriculum and to take the place of teachers transferred, three new members were added to the K. H. S. faculty this year.

Mrs. Clarice Hamilton Groh is in charge of a course in Bible, introduced for the first time into the curriculum. Mrs. Groh received her A. B. at Carson-Newman College and her B. M. T. from the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary. She had graduate work at the University of California and at Columbia.

Mrs. Groh said, "I intend to teach merely Bible facts and not my own beliefs."

One hundred and fifty students enrolled for this new course.

Mrs. Virginia Gresham, new art teacher, formerly was Director of Art at Central State Teachers' College in Oklahoma. She is a graduate of Carson-Newman and also studied at Columbia and New York Universities. Miss Gresham was for ten summers a pupil of John Sloane, well-known painter and etcher.

CHARLES HUDSON WINS RECTOR SCHOLARSHIP

Out of approximately 350 applications and recommendations, Charles Hudson, former high school student, won the Rector scholarship this summer offered by the Edward Rector College of De-Paw, Indiana.

"The committee chose Charles because of his splendid ability and recommendations," stated Henry Longihum, chairman of the committee of selection.

While attending high school, Charles won the medallion offered by the national honor society, of which he was president, for making the best grades.

Charles was also a class speaker last term, a member of the Blue and White staff, of the Masquers Club, and of the Student Council.

Music Department Has New Curriculum; 3 Credits Given

For the benefit of students who are interested in music and who, at the same time, wish to take subjects which will enable them to finish high school and enter college, a new course of study has been planned whereby "two birds may be killed with one stone."

The student wishing to take advantage of this new course may make three credits in music, all of which are acceptable for high school graduation and for college entrance. One credit is given for a year's study of "Theory and Harmony", one for a year of "History and Appreciation", and one for two years' participation in either orchestra, band, or glee club.

Another feature of this year's musical program is the formation

Demand for Books Swamp Exchange All Through Week

Mrs. Charles Armstrong Is In Charge of Work For Ninth Year.

Opening the K. H. S. book exchange early Monday morning, the members of the P. T. A. who are helping with this important phase of their work have been been rushed all week to answer the students' demands for second hand books.

Mrs. Charles Armstrong, manager of the work, has had charge of it for nine consecutive years. Some of the other helpers for the early part of the week are Mrs. Charles Neas, Mrs. L. A. Richardson, Mrs. Sam Venable, Miss Willa Steen Alexander, and Sam Venable. Others are slated to work the latter part of the week.

The Parent-Teachers' Association has developed a system of marking the books by the use of small stickers on which is written in ink the pupil's name, class teacher, the date, and a number to which only the class teacher knows the combination.

This system proved to be the means of returning several lost or carelessly borrowed books last year and is expected to do the same this year.

Pupils may take their old books to the K. H. S. bank (behind the Assembly Hall) where they will be checked in.

KHS Summer School Enrolls 117 Pupils

In spite of the much talked of "depression", the summer school enrollment this year was almost as large as in previous years. Some 117 students attended. Of this number, 11 were seniors who were unable to graduate with their class in June because of an insufficient number of credits. After making the required work up in the eight weeks of summer school, they were presented their diplomas.

"The quality of the work done in the 1933 summer school was of a very high order and was marked by an earnestness of purpose quite in keeping with the spirit of the times," declared A. L. Jobe, a member of the summer school faculty.

Mr. Jobe added that so far as he knew the other summer school teachers found this same intense interest prevalent in their classes.

Outstanding Pupils Enter High School

Sponsors, Editors, and Class Officers Included.

When the 8 o'clock bell rang Monday, prominent freshmen from Park, Rule, and Boyd junior high schools became members at K.H.S.

Among the noted ones strolling the halls from Park are Polly Jane Edmunds, sponsor of the Park Jr. band last year; Patsy Harrill, editor-in-chief of the Parkette school publication last year; George Childs, president of the senior class for the past year; Melvin Goldberger, advertising manager of the Parkette staff for the past two terms; and Jo Eleanor Gallagher, who served as secretary of the senior class and as president of the Girls' Glee club during the past term.

From Boyd Jr. comes Virginia Eisensmith, Boyd Band sponsor for the past year; Frances Edmunds, elected Carnival Queen of Boyd last spring; Emmet Howe, the red-coated drum major of the Boyd band; and Hazel Giles, who, as editor of the Red and White school publication, conducted it through a successful year.

Also getting acquainted with Knoxville high school are prominent freshmen from Rule Jr. Some of the most popular are Lloyd Jolley, president of the senior class last term; Paul Thornton, vice-president of the senior class last term; Fred Clayton, active member of the Civics Club of Rule Jr.; and Wilma Thornton, one of the most popular girls at Rule.

Last Year's Seniors Enjoy Varied Summer

Various activities were enjoyed by the seniors this summer. Nell Piper spent several months in Richmond, Virginia, and on Virginia Beach.

"I thoroughly enjoyed being on the beach," Miss Piper said.

Ben Dobson, Howard Simpson, L. C. Stair, Margaret Brown, and Dorothy Dick were among the seniors who visited the World's Fair in Chicago.

Quite a number of the seniors spent some time in the mountains.

MISS ASHCROFT MARRIES DURING VACATION TIME

Miss Estelle Ashcraft, who served as librarian for K. H. S. during the past six years, was married August 21, 1933 to Stuart E. Harrison of St. Louis.

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison are now living in Warren, Arkansas where Mr. Harrison is an officer in the Citizens Conservation Corps.

Donald Cooley, member of the 12A Class and a first honor student, was formally installed as president of the Student Council on Wednesday, September 6, at the home of Martha Ijams. The other new Council officers are Helen Wilson, vice-president; Hazel Rogers, secretary; and Robert Sherrill, treasurer.

The inauguration ceremonies were conducted by Mark Scarbrough, former president of the Council, as Robert Love, last year's Council head, could not attend. Several other former members and officers were present.

During the summer, the Student Council members met at Lincoln Memorial University for a three day council session. Such matters as Council training and initiation of the new members were included in the many activities.

Many of the Student Council committees are already at work. Among these are the Monitor Committee with Robert Sherrill as chairman, the Public Speaking Committee led by Helen Wilson, the Football Usher Squad under the direction of Earl Bradley, and the Lost and Found Department with James Wilson at its head.

The Council has also cooperated with K. H. S. Print Shop in the

R. O. T. C. ENROLLS 455; TO PICK OFFICERS SOON

Of the 475 cadets enrolled in the R. O. T. C., John Parker has the distinction of being the first to be accepted.

The cadet officers will not be appointed until the latter part of next week. On the drill days previous to that time, the various prospective officers will take charge of their respective companies, competing against each other for the commanding positions.

The battalion and company sponsors will be elected the third week of school.

K.H.S. Hour To Be Presented In WROL Studio At Fair

WROL, which will broadcast the Knoxville high school hour for the third consecutive year, will have a glass display studio in the Industrial building at the fair next week. This is the first year that the Stuart Broadcasting Corporation has used a public studio at the fair, and it is planned to produce the programs to the visible audience as well as to the radio audience.

Monday evening at 7 o'clock the first of this season's high school hours will be presented from this studio. Professor W. E. Evans will be the main speaker and the music will be under the direction of Edward Hamilton. James Schultz, editor of the Blue and White, will conduct the program as announcer.

The studio will be located in the north end of the building, which is on the crest behind the open air show stage, and will use 5,000 pounds of glass to form two of the sides. While the studio will be sound-proof, speakers carrying the programs will be placed through and on top of the building. Thus visitors will be able to see the artists as well as hear them, and also to have the technical end of broadcasting explained in action. The most modern equipment will be used. The studio is to be equipped with condenser microphones and an individual control board.

As Friday will be school day at the fair, a concert program of the R. O. T. C. band has been tentatively scheduled for that evening.

HYE THERE, FRESHMAN

The coming of a new group of freshmen to K. H. S. each term causes a general commotion throughout the entire school. Various clubs and individuals celebrate this semi-annual arrival in divers ways. The Blue and White joins the other organizations in attempting to make the new students feel as welcome as possible.

Probably the most important thing that the new student must learn is self-reliance. He will continually be called upon to make decisions, which, if unwisely made, may prove a stumbling block throughout his life. For this reason he should learn to think every question through thoroughly and then abide by his conclusion.

One of the first choices that he must make for himself is in regard to his course of study. In the junior high schools the pupil's work was carefully mapped out for him by his teachers and supervisors. In the senior high school, however, this selection is left more nearly to the student's own discretion. Unless the matter is given careful thought, a serious mistake may result. First decide what subjects you really want to take and then stick to that list. If any question or doubt arises, consult some teacher immediately.

The entire student body bids each and every freshman a hearty welcome to K. H. S. and wishes for you the most happy and successful high school career possible.

HELP WANTED!

When asked why they never miss a game, many ardent sport fans reply, "The team must have backing in order to win." Not only is this true in the sports world; it's true in every other line of activity as well. The newspaper particularly must have the support of the people if it is to be a success.

No matter how good or how bad a paper may be, it cannot continue to operate without the 'backing' of a certain number of people. To build a substantial circulation, therefore, is the desire of every new paper; to hold its already acquired readers is the foremost endeavor of every established one. The Blue and White is no exception in this respect. The relation between the circulation and the financial success of the paper is worthy of the closest analysis. Not that a large circulation in itself is such a great monetary asset; in fact, the subscription rate is not high enough to even pay the cost of publication. It is the advertising which actually covers the expenses of the paper. But if the paper has little circulation, it can expect little advertising, or at least little pay for the advertising it is lucky enough to get, since the advertiser is constantly seeking new markets for his wares. Thus we see that each subscription helps the paper in more ways than one.

If the Blue and White is to be the best paper possible, it must have your support. The more subscribers it has, the bigger and better it can be. First subscribe yourself and then boost it to your friends. Remember that the subscription rate is only seventy-five cents a term, payable in three twenty-five cent installments. Help make the Blue and White the best school publication in the country by subscribing yourself and boosting it to others.

RAH! RAH!! RAH!!

"High School's ball is on her own 5-yard line, fourth down, eighteen to go, one minute to play, and the score 0 to 0. Sharpe gets the ball, fakes a pass to Baker, cuts through center, and he's gone!! Boy! oh, boy! Watch that kid go! He's passed the fifty yard line! forty! thirty! ten! And it's a touchdown!!! The score is now 6 to 0 in favor of high school! The whistle blows and it's another victory for those fighting Trojans."

What could do so much to make one forget that history test he flunked, or all of that Latin home work he has to make up, or that pretty little blond that so ruthlessly jilted him today as a real, honest-to-goodness football game, like this? And, on the other hand, what could be more encouraging to the team than a grandstand packed full of enthusiastic rooters ready to tear the roof off the stadium if they make a good play or to assure them that "that's all right," if they muddle things up a bit? Here, then, are two reasons why every student in Knoxville high school should attend the football games.

This year, as usual, the Trojans have an A-1 football schedule from the beginning to the end. Every game may not be a victory right at the last minute; but whether close or not, there will be enough thrills for the most ardent of football fans. The best way to make sure that you won't miss a game is to buy a season ticket. This saves you the trouble of buying a ticket for each individual game, and, at the same time, saves you money in the run of a season. You pay fifty cents for each game if you buy the tickets one at a time; you can see all nine games for $1.50 by buying a season ticket.

Help yourself, your team, and your school by buying a season football ticket and rooting for those fighting Trojans in every game that they play.

Why do they call Bill Waller "Oak Street Bridge"?

We hear that Helen Evans has fallen hard for Jim Leach. Watch your step, girls.

Frank Waters wants a cute blond 5.2 ft. What about it Martha Ijams?

The "Panther Woman" is back in K. H. S. So is Felix Massey. Keep your eyes open for all news.

Don McGrift was heard saying that he liked blondes. Wonder if he could possibly be referring to Helen Cash.

Well, well! If you ask my opinion, the blondes are rating very high this term at K. H. S. What have you to say about this, brunettes?

We ask you just how Frances Cartwright and Anna Jo Hawkins rate two certain boys at Johnson City?

Now! Now! Girls, this is getting serious. Helen Simpson and Jo Whittlesey are rating boys from Texas. Believe it or not.

Ruth Carr is back more beautiful than ever. Is it true that Ben isn't the "high-knockety-knock" any more, Ruth?

And is Anna Jo Hawkins good-looking—at least the male members of Mr. Montgomery's third period history class find rest and peace for their blinking optics by looking at her.

Some newcomers that will make K. H. S. male hearts flutter: Frances Kilgore; Ruth Gibson; Laura Mae West; Sarah Clark.

Harry McNabb is trying to get into the sixth period psychology class. We're wondering if Katharine Ellis is in it.

School Daze

By Grady Blazier

When the opening whistle blows this afternoon you are due to let out a whistle of surprise at the size of the K. H. S. line, for the Trojans this year have one of the largest forewalls in their history.

As you look over the line you will notice the gift that Santa Claus literally presented to Coaches Wilson and Jones. He is George Gaines, the 240 pound midget from New York. He towers 6 feet 5 inches in the air and has all the grace of a ballet dancer.

When school starts you can always find an upper classman chuckling over the antics of the fresh freshmen.

Eldon Brownfield, the old maestro, tells this one:

It seems, according to Eldon, that a freshman was lost and couldn't quite decide what to do. He stood nervously on one foot and then the other trying to decide whether or not to ask for or hunt the room. He must have decided to ask for he came toward Eldon and mumbled out the stereotyped question:

"Can you tell me where my group room is?"

Eldon asked him if he had any idea where it was.

"Well now, I just don't know. They must have exchanged my room for somebody else's."

Did you know that:

If all the beauties in high school would turn out for the football games, K. H. S. opponents would be too dazzled to play their hardest game.

SYMPATHY

The entire student body extends its deepest sympathy to the family of Edward Williams, member of the 12-B class, who succumbed to an operation last week. Ed was a good student, a good sport, and a regular all-around fellow.

Band To Sell Season Tickets

Proceeds Received To Defray Expenses of Band's Trips With Team.

That the K. H. S. band will attend all the football games, including those at Kingsport, Chattanooga and any other game not in Knoxville, is a near reality.

Coach Wilson Collins stated last Tuesday that if the band sells four adult season tickets per player, before October 20, they shall accompany the football team on all trips.

The band, of about seventy-five members, will easily defray the expenses of these trips. Each member, if he sells enough tickets, will have twelve dollars, which is six dollars per trip.

Not only the band, but the students also are to share Coach Collins' "new deal". If 1200 students have paid one dollar each on their season tickets by September 22 the third payment of fifty cents will be cancelled. In other words, season tickets are only one dollar provided 1200 tickets are two-thirds paid for by September 22.

Trojan Gridiron Prospects Point Toward Great Team

By John Moffett

LINE FEATURES TEAM

Success is predicted for the K. H. S. football team in its coming campaign. Here are some of the bright factors to support this prediction:

Eleven experienced letter-men return for their second and third year of Trojan football. They are: Captain "Barnacle" Bill Baker, Bill Badgett, Pat Cureton, Red Maney, Red Sharpe, Jimmy Leach, Clarence Beasley, Calvin Howard, Oliver Shetterly, Riley Headrick, and Bruce Long.

A heavy and powerful line that averages around 210 pounds per man is ready to greet Everett high today. This is one of the heaviest lines to ever represent Knoxville high school.

Several new Trojans have been added to the squad. One of the most promising is George Gaines, a husky 240 pound tackle. Fenton "Goo" White, flashy quarterback who led the "B" team last year, will likely see much service.

Last but not least, are the dependable and unsurpassable leadership of Coaches Wilson Collins and Sam Jones. These valuable assets will probably result in a great Blue and White team.

STUDENTS SET SWIM MARK

Knoxville's swimming team composed of Frank Waters, Weller Gleason, and Buddy Rogers, K. H. S. students, and Harry Crowther, graduate, have had a very busy summer.

These boys set the pace for contestants at various aquatic meets in Asheville, Charlotte, and Nashville.

In the Mid-Atlantic meet at Charlotte, they set a new 220-yard junior relay record.

Trojans Battle Everett Today To Open '33 Football Season

Two Tournaments On Girls' Program

Basketball and Kickball Are Main Features.

With a large enrollment that includes a large number of seniors, the girls physical education department, under Miss Mary House and Miss Margaret Carroll, begins a year expected to be filled with more and better tournaments and new ideas.

As usual, the classes will be divided into teams. Captains for these teams will be elected by the members, and then the real work will begin. Two big tournaments are planned for this fall with several other contests on the program between the classes. The two sports that head the list are basketball and kickball. The girls have to choose between the two as no one can participate in both.

Another sport being taken up by the girls is hiking. The club has not been reorganized as yet but announcements will be made soon. As last year, one hike a week is being planned with the gym instructors as sponsors.

As an added attraction during football season, a Pep Club is to be formed. They will blend their cheers with the rest at the football games.

By winning points in all the sports mentioned above and others that will be announced later, the girls will begin to add up to the points toward their school emblem which will be presented at the end of the school year. Each event entered in the gym work contributes points so everyone and especially the freshmen are advised to begin at once to work toward every girl's most longed for desire, the school emblem.

Caswell Park Is Scene of Year's First Local Gridiron Battle.

TROJANS FAVORED

Captain Baker Predicts Another Great Team Like That of '30.

Football fans will have a chance to witness the first local gridiron battle of the season today when the Knoxville high school Trojans play Everett high school from Blount County. The game starts promptly at 3 o'clock at Caswell Park.

This initial game will climax three weeks of practice beneath the sweltering summer sun for the Trojans. It will also test the ability of both elevens and display their strong and weak points.

"I hope to lead the Trojans through a successful season," declared Capt. "Barnacle Bill" Baker, "and we should have another great team like that of 1930, which won the Southern championship."

With the return of eleven veterans and a heavy and powerful line averaging around 210 pounds, the Trojans are favored over the Everett High team. Despite these handicaps, Everett is expected to put up a game fight for a victory over the Blue and White warriors.

The Trojan offensive play is expected to center around Sam 'Red' Sharpe, the line smashing fullback who captained the team last year.

The line-up for the game will be:
 K. H. S. Pos. Everett
 Headrick L. E. W. Dockery
 Gaines L. T. Porter
 Long L. G. Standridge
 Maney C. C. Widner
 Pease R. G. Dunn
 Badgett R. T. Garner

 White Q. B. J. Widner

Quite a number of changes in the building greeted the eyes of returning K. H. S. students on opening day, Monday, September 11. During the summer months the fireescapes, cornices, window frames, and other outside fixtures received new coats of paint.

As the interior of the building was painted last year, nothing was done to it. However, the floors received a thorough mopping and oiling.
