K. H. S. Publication Wins Honors In Competition With 1,000 Papers.

SCHULTZ HONORED

Celebrities Address Delegates — Meet Closes With Convention Luncheon.

Upholding and advancing a well founded tradition, Knoxville high school received her share of the spoils from the tenth annual convention of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, which was held in New York City on Thursday, Friday, and Saturday of last week. The Blue and White, in competition with approximately 1,000 other outstanding high school publications of the United States and Territorial Possessions, was given a second place rating by the judges, a step of progress over last year's showing, when a third place was won.

James Allen Schultz, editor-in-chief of the paper, was honored with a position on the staff which was responsible for the publication of the Saturday morning issue of the Spectator, Columbia University's daily publication.

The Blue and White delegates also had the distinction of representing the most distantly located school at the convention.

Celebrities Speak

The convention officially opened Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock with an address on "The Value of" (Continued on Page 4)

Upper Group Leaders Discuss K.H.S. Problems

To discuss traffic and lunchroom problems, a meeting of the upper class group representatives council was held Tuesday, March 13, during chapel.

A round table discussion in which all the members of the council participated freely brought out many new ideas concerning the traffic regulations in school.

Several suggestions as to how the lunchroom might be made more attractive and kept cleaner were made by the presidents.

12-A Class Leads School With 23 On First Honors

With twenty-three first honors out of a total of fifty-six, and sixty-two second honors out of 237, the 12-A class leads the honor roll for the first six weeks.

Following is the complete list of those making first and second honors:

FIRST HONORS

12-A — Jack Archer, Margaret Beaman, Howard Cox, Sybil Cruze, Mary Currier, Josephine Dempster, Lois Fielden, Ruth Fincannon, Weller Gleeson, C. A. Henry, Harold Jones, Kathleen King, Ruth Long, Powers Mason, Grace McLin, Martha Newman, Georgene Powers, James Allen Schultz, Robert B. Sherrill, Mary Evelyn Smith, Mary Arthur Swan, Ralph Wallace, Aileen Woolsey.

12-B — K. P. Baum, Sally Ann Blaufield, Dorothy Hotchkiss, Marion Moore, Mildred Reagan, Roy Rochelle, Margaret Sanders, Elizabeth Stewart, Charlotte Torlay, James Wilson.

Hatmaker Chosen 'Chairman' Local Allied Youth Post

Olinger, Green, Walker, Adkins and Miss Broome Are Other Officers.

R. L. Hatmaker was chosen by the Knoxville post of the Allied Youth to serve as the chief local executive of the organization and was duly inaugurated with the title of "chairman". The four vice-chairmen are J. D. Olinger, William Green, J. A. Walker, and Ray Adkins. Martha Broome was elected secretary and treasurer.

These officers were elected at a special business meeting of the organization held at the First Baptist church Sunday, March 4. At the same gathering, a proposed constitution was adopted for the club's use, and the adult sponsors were approved.

"We desire that a large percentage of Knoxville high school students will join the post in the near future," stated J. D. Olinger, who is in charge of membership.

Any young person under the age of thirty may become a member of the Allied Youth by filling out the necessary application card for membership. Such a blank appears on page four of today's Blue and White. Anyone desiring to affiliate himself with the group may clip this duplicate, fill in the blanks, and turn it in to J. A. Walker, K. H. S. teacher, or leave it at the K. H. S. library.

The next meeting will be held Monday night, March 26, at the Y. M. C. A.

U. T. Teacher Sees Homemaking Value

"Homemaking is the biggest field in home economics, since ninety per cent of the girls who take this course at the University of Tennessee marry," said Miss Eura Crowe, to the Home Economics club last Tuesday.

Miss Crowe, who has charge of Practice Teaching and Home Management house at the Hill, also discussed the various fields for home economics graduates including related art, clothing, nutrition, child care, teaching, home demonstration, institution management and adult education.

11-A—Mabel Hood Houk, Alice Thomas.

11-B—Morton Brownfield, Clyde Fleming, Helen Hall, Robert Ruckman, Donald Smith.

10-A—Jack Bell, Mary Elizabeth Bomar, Mildred Carmon, David Clark, Agnes Connelly, Margaret Cox, Margaret Hoskins, Lawrence Nicholson, William Ogden, Tom Pressley, Katherine Roberts, Margaret Sisk.

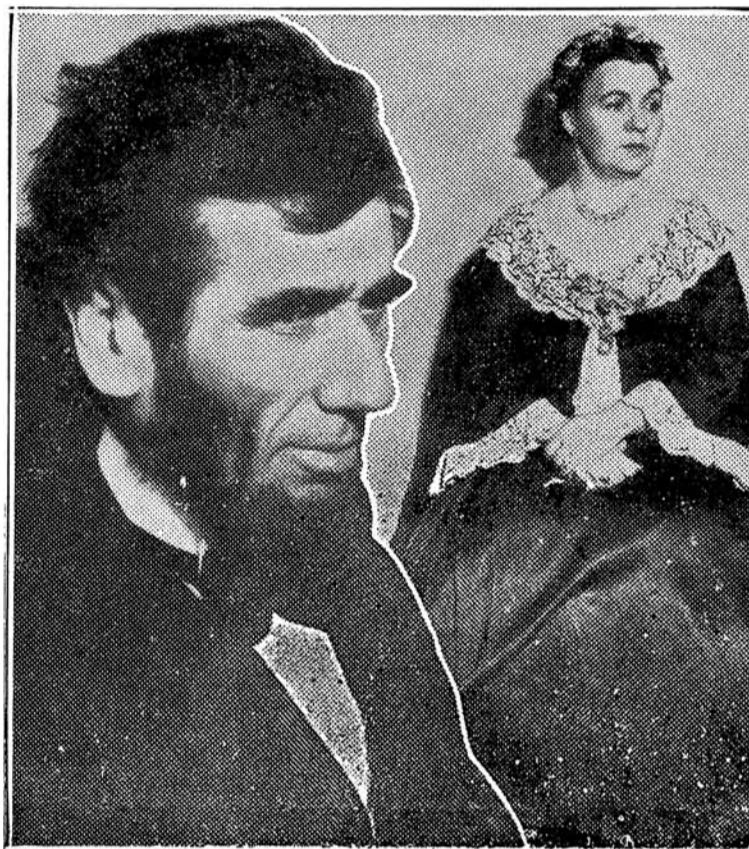

10-B—Louise Hickman, John Lea.

9-A—Nadine Brantley, Wanda Jenkins.

SECOND HONORS

Judge Bull To Impersonate Civil War President In 'Heart Of Lincoln' Thur.

To Give 'Heart Of Lincoln'

Judge Charles Edward Bull and Miss Louise Feeser, who will impersonate 'Abe' and Mary Todd Lincoln respectively.

Play Sponsored by K. H. S. Library Committee in Drive To Get More Books.

MISS FEESER SUPPORTS

Malcolm Miller, W. G. Smyth, and Several Other Local People In Cast.

By Helen Simpson

Dr. Charles Edward Bull of Hollywood, California, star of "The Iron Horse" and "The Heart of Maryland", will impersonate Abraham Lincoln in the play, "The Heart of Lincoln", sponsored by the K. H. S. library committee in the K. H. S. auditorium Thursday, March 22.

Louise Feeser, who starred with Judge Bull in "The Heart of Maryland", will play the role of Lincoln's wife, Mary Todd Lincoln.

"The Heart of Lincoln", a faithful picture of the great president and his home life, takes place in the White House on November 20, 1863, three days after Lincoln's Gettysburg address.

Malcolm Miller, director of the Little Theater, and W. G. Smyth, principal of Park junior high school, form a delegation which visits the President at the White House. Mrs. Charles Whaley, Mrs. Logan Reid, and Miss Feeser will furnish music for the prologue.

Dances for the play will be "The Minuet", furnished by a group of eight from the Lincoln Memorial University; "The Varsouvienne", by Jane Boyd and Mary Arthur Swan, pupils of Miss Annie McGhee's school of dancing; and "Heel and Toe Polka", supplied by pupils from Frank Ledgerwood's school of dancing.

Science Classes See Educational Movies

Through the courtesy of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Beardsley, a moving picture that showed the various stages of development in the manufacture of moving picture and kodak film at the Kodak Park company was shown to the science classes in the small assembly hall during three periods last Wednesday.

As an added attraction, an air view and a ground view of the World's Fair were shown.

At the Kodak Park company, three and one-half miles of film are produced daily, and 147,000 miles of moving picture film are produced annually.

MISS COLE ATTENDS ATLANTA CONVENTION

Miss Rebecca Cole, K. H. S. art teacher, left Wednesday, March 14, for Atlanta, Georgia to attend the Southeastern Art Association convention. The convention started Thursday and will continue through Saturday. Miss Wanda Wheeler, art supervisor, is also going to attend the convention.

Mrs. Bass, art teacher at the night school last year, will teach Miss Cole's classes while she is away.

Senior Class Heads Plan For Graduation

List of Necessary Graduating Expenses Made.

Plans for the graduation exercises of the 1934-B class are being formulated rapidly by the class directors and faculty adviser.

Contestants who are writing class songs must have in their entries by Tuesday, April 3, the first school day after the Easter holidays. Lois Whitehead, vice-president of the class, has charge of this contest. The entries will be judged by local musical authorities and the class will begin to learn the winning song immediately.

All students who wish to write either the class prophecy, last will and testament, or history should turn them in by May 1. Robert Sherrod has charge of the class prophecy; Maston Callison, the class will; and Wanda Armstrong, the history.

The directors, with George P. Turley faculty adviser, have made the following list of some of the necessary graduation expenses: cap and gown, $2.00; banquet, $1.00; cards, announcements, and pictures.

"It is up to the senior class to decide whether or not we shall have pictures in the Blue and White," (Continued on Page 4)

H. V. CHURCH TO SPEAK BEFORE HONOR SOCIETY

H. V. Church, national secretary of the National Honor Society, will speak before the K. H. S. National Honor society sometime in the near future.

Mr. Church, who is traveling south from Chicago, Illinois, wrote Principal W. E. Evans that he would like to visit the Knoxville high school chapter during his visit here.

The new members will probably have been elected by the time Mr. Church arrives.

P.T.A. To Discuss Magazine Articles

Using "P. T. A. in High School" and several articles from the March issue of the Child Welfare Magazine as the subjects for discussion, the K. H. S. Parent Teachers Association will meet in the auditorium Wednesday, March 21.

The titles of the various articles to be discussed are: "Good Manners for the Adolescent", "The Robinson Family", "Nancy Robinson Attends the Summer Round-Up", "The Parent Teachers Association in High School", "A Teacher Speaks for the High School Association", "Fathers, Just Fathers", "The High School Dean and the P. T. A.", "Why a P. T. A. in High School?", "What the Students Want from the High School", and "Facts about Motion Pictures".

Following a group of Easter selections to be sung by a trio of mothers, there will be a business meeting with Mrs. Urban Neas, president of K. H. S. Parent Teachers Association, presiding.

'HEART OF LINCOLN'

Next Thursday, March 22, the students of Knoxville high school will have the opportunity of seeing enacted a portion of the life of one of our greatest American presidents, Abraham Lincoln. The play, "The Heart of Lincoln", is being sponsored by the library committee as a means of raising more money for the K. H. S. library in the drive to procure more books, and thus keep Knoxville high school on the accredited list.

"The Heart of Lincoln" is not to be an amateur performance, but a finished professional production. The role of Lincoln is portrayed by Charles Edward Bull, well known motion picture actor, and that of his wife by Louise Feeser, also a well known star.

Abraham Lincoln is recognized as being one of the two or three greatest president the United States has ever had. His great love and devotion for his people and his country have been his best remembered characteristics down through the years. He will always be loved and revered for the sympathy and understanding that he exhibited in carrying this country through the great crisis of the Civil War.

So, should we not see this play for a two-fold purpose? First, to help the library and K. H. S. out of a very embarrassing predicament; and second, to see portrayed by an unusually talented man, who has all the physical and mental qualities attributed to Lincoln, "The Heart of Lincoln".

AN HONOR SYSTEM

Of the many interesting things seen by the Blue and White representatives on their recent trip to the New York convention of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association, one of the most impressive was the so called "honor system" which is being employed at present in Washington.

Here and there are stands at which one may purchase newspapers, magazines, etc. by merely taking the article which he wants and leaving the specified sum on the counter. Evidently such a plan is working, else it would not be continued. At any rate, visitors to the city get the impression that the citizens are honest and trustworthy—a reputation of which any city could, and is, justly proud.

For a number of years, Knoxville high school has employed a similar honor system. A notable example of this is in regard to tests. Undoubtedly, there is always bountiful room for cheating. Students are allowed to keep their text books on their desks; the teacher's back is often turned; and, in some cases, the papers are graded by the pupils themselves. Is our honor system working?

Fortunately, the majority of students realize that in cheating they are hurting no one but themselves. True, they may succeed, or think they succeed, in deceiving the instructor at the time; but in the long run, such a deception is brought to light in the form of an inability to deliver the goods in one's work, for which his school training is supposed to prepare him. Who is the loser?

If many people were to take dishonest advantage of the honor system in Washington, it would necessarily have to be abolished. The same is true in regard to the trust which is placed by the faculty in K. H. S. students. Is it not much better to leave the pleasant impression that Knoxville high school is composed of honest and trustworthy individuals, rather than manifest to the world that the negative is true? The decision is yours. What will you do about it?

BOOKS FOR THE LIBRARY

"Books give to all who faithfully use them, the spiritual presence of the best and greatest of our race," wrote Channing.

It is generally conceded that good books do exercise a most powerful cultural influence and, also, that they are usually sources of great enjoyment. However, few homes are adequately supplied with good literature.

Because of this regrettable deficiency in the average American home, public libraries have been established in most cities of moderate size. In many cases, however, the library system has been limited to one building not easily accessible to all who need its service. Hence, the school libraries.

The K. H. S. library contained, at the beginning of the present campaign, 5,341 books. According to standards set by the Southern Association of College and Secondary Schools, the number should not be less than 10,970 (five books per pupil). The sum appropriated by the city of Knoxville for the purchase of new books is sadly inadequate and the library has had to seek aid from other sources. The K. H. S. Parent-Teachers Association gave $100 and several individuals contributed smaller amounts.

But the required number of volumes has not yet been reached. In an effort to increase the number, library officials have organized a Book Drive, which will continue throughout the month of March. Anyone who has usable copies of suitable books is asked to bring them to school as soon as is convenient. The books are taken in by students at the table in the front hall of K. H. S., where the donor's name will be taken and placed in each volume given. Any book listed in the pamphlet, "Books for Home Reading", will be acceptable.

It is to be hoped that every K. H. S. student will respond loyally to the library's appeal, and help his school retain its honored position among the accredited schools of the nation. —Charles Ewing.

The Spectator

John Henry said he thought Patsy Daly was the cutest girl. Don't we all?

Chappy, even you'd better watch your step with the girls now since Dan Mayo is here in K. H. S. and eligible to try his luck.

Is My Face Red?

The censor has come back—but, what of it? Last week Sara Nell Hasson's name got into the Spectator and Sara Francis Line had a tough day explaining. . . . C. A. Henry's long lost Hi-Y pin has come back, but all effort to find out who had it was in vain. . . . Something I would like to see—Beverly Harbison and J. D. Olinger get together. . . . "Goldielocks" Leach is singing or something—It's a pity that you and Marie couldn't take it. . . . "Freck" Creswell has been added to the long list of Fairy Leek's victims. . . . As Jimmy Durante would say, "Does that Buddy Mitchell crave popularity?"—I'll say and how. . . . While I "duck" when I say this, Steve Haynes, but somebody said that you were carrying on a "ducky" little affair with Mary Duck. . . . All members of the protective society for Frances Edmonds will please meet with Charlie Maskall to stop Bill Ellison from going out on Saturday afternoon. . . . A one word description of Ann Foster—"King-Kong". . . . While we are at it I might as well say that this week's nomination for Ladies' Man is "Complexion Jim" Burnett. The most comical event of the past few weeks was Marion Hennessee's hurried changing of boy friends. . . . Currier, don't feel hurt, you aren't by yourself. . . . What is it that those Maryville men have over Knoxville?—We lose half of our fair sex over the week-end. . . . A good way to be unpopular in high school is to be pushed at the Hill. . . . I wish that Ernie Dooley would say whether or not he is in love with the sponsor. . . . Al Gaines is losing his power—he called a girl five times before he could get a date. . . . Ralph Wallace is still raving about that N. Y. girl.—What have they got above the Mason-Dixon line that we haven't got in Knoxville,

It looks like Dick Conpster is back in the race for "Koky" since her out of town man, Tony, "done her wrong". Now, Dick, don't you treat her mean.

From all appearances, Jane Harris has taken Helen Brannum's place in "Blondie" Robinson's life.

Perry Ward's pretty little brown-eyed girl that we always see him with is Dorothy Phillips. And can she smile at Perry!

The romance of Buddy Mitchell and Beverly Harbison, is great. Everyone is interested, Buddy.

Helen Nickles said she was in love. Eldred Mahaffey's name wasn't mentioned but, of course, we all understand.

This week's nomination for "Dream Girl" is Marion Hennessee.

Ardist Pease says he's a happy boy and especially when he's talking to Margaret Wilson.

Why do Roy Parker and Henry Anderson go for an airplane ride every Sunday? It must be a big attraction to cause all of this.

Dorothy Middleton rated the play last Friday night with either "Little Jimmie" or "Wild Boy".

Another he-man who has been known to break into a gal's heart and steal it is Dexter Christenberry.

Bob Shuey likes nothing better than for Jane Boyd to come and watch him "shine" in basketball.

Ralph? . . . Did McNabb hold Alva's hand at the play last Friday? . . . Herbert Davis, pipe down in the rear. You and your sponsor are O. K. . . . The Park City correspondent says that Camille Walker and Bob Trent are together again. . . . No offense, Judy, maybe they got the wrong Ray. . . . The Love-Beasley affair is going strong despite the best efforts of certain powerhouses to break it up. . . . Well, I'm gonna break it up right here.—SO LONG.

School Daze

By Grady Blazier

It happened in China. During the leisurely progress of a war in China one side had a general captured. The army which had lost the general volunteered to give four majors for him. The suggestion was declined. In a fit of desperation the negotiating officer said, "We'll exchange four majors and four captains for him." "No," replied the representative for the other side. "My instructions are to give you back your general for nothing less than 12 cans of condensed milk."

The late Ring Lardner was noted for his ready wit and this occasion shows it. Ring was invited to a banquet and couldn't go so he sent the following message: "Sorry I can't be with you tonight, but this is the children's night out and I have to stay home with the nurse."

Memories of a street car ride: "Please don't talk to the conductor." "Please have correct fare ready." "No smoking allowed on this car." "Company not responsible for accidents." "This part of the car for white people." "Keep heads out of the window when the conductor spits." Yes, this is a free country—especially when the motorman stops to eat his lunch when you are in a hurry to get to town.

I wonder: Why Mr. Northcutt feels his chin. Why Mr. Holland buttons and unbuttons his coat so much. Why Miss Becton like to say "little dears". Where Mr. Miller got his joke collection. How Miss James cultivated the art of boring holes through her pupils. Why Mr. Jobe likes stage shows. I'd better stop wondering or I'm liable to wonder into a little trouble.

The best way to keep your name out of the paper is not to do it. Take it from me, they'll never be able to prove that Nero burned Rome. It might have been one of these, stupendous, colossal, magnificent, settings staged by the producers of these lavish musical shows. Who knows?

Things I would like to see: Greta Garbo in "She Done Him Wrong". Mae West in "Rebecca of Sunnybrook Farm". Joan Crawford in "Little Lord Fauntleroy". Clark Gable in "Frankenstein". In the end, let me say that the last word of a telegram used to be "love", but since the depression it has changed to "please".

The Blue and White and K. H. S. students extend sympathy to Mrs. Clarice Groh, Bible teacher, whose sister Mrs. Euleta Longmire, died Tuesday, March 14.

Minor Sports Will Soon Hold Sway At K. H. S.

Organization of Golf, Tennis, and Swimming Are Being Planned.

TWO GOLFERS RETURN
Walter Lavender Is Only Tennis Letterman To Return This Season.

Minor sports at Knoxville high school are becoming more popular as the spring weather advances. Among these sports which hold the interest of many at K. H. S. are swimming, golf, and tennis.

Many authorities believe that the coming season will mark a great increase in interest for this sport. Last year Knoxville high was represented at various meets in this section by a team composed of Walter Lavender, Robert Bogart, Douglas Bean, and Bill Ressler. Lavender, captain elect for the 1934 campaign, will be the only member of the team to return. However, many promising tennis players are expected to be candidates for the Trojan team.

Golf is another minor sport at Knoxville high school which holds special interest among the male athletes. M. C. James and Fred Post are the only lettermen to return.

Several boys at K. H. S. have earned a name as well known swimmers in Knoxville by participating in various aquatic events. Frank Waters, Weller Gleason, and Paul Flinchum were members of the Knoxville team which won recognition in the contests at Asheville, Charleston, Nashville, and other nearby cities.

2 Parts of Rifle Match Completed

Two positions have been completed in The Intercollegiate Rifle match, in which K. H. S. riflemen are competing. Gordon Wolfe, James Long, and James Wilson led for high score in the match. The prone stage was fired Monday and the sitting stage, Wednesday. Scores are as follows:

James Long	195
Gordon Wolfe	195
James Wilson	195
Lewis Miller	194
George Trammell	189
Sam Hill	189
Ray Ritter	188
Harry Goeller	188
E. L. Foster	186
Herbert Cox	186

The team scored was 1,907 points out of a possible 2,000 points.

Trojans Terminate Basketball Season In Regional Tournament

SPORT DOPE

By Johnny Moffett

Another basketball season at Knoxville high school comes to an end.

The Blue and White Trojans played their final game of the 1933-34 season last week in the Fourth Regional tournament, which was held at the University of Tennessee's alumni memorial gymnasium.

And what a team "old lady Miss Fortune" picked out for the K. H. S. hardwooders to battle. Although this delegation went by the courageous title of Washington college, the Trojans were ready to give them a stiff battle when they faced them at the U-T gym last week.

But when the two quintets pranced upon the shining hardwood, the Washingtonians loosened an attack with the old round pig-skin which the fighting Knoxville high school five could not stop. By a flip of the wrist, and while in the most unique pose, the Washington college basketkeeters swished the net from all angles of the floor to defeat Coach Wilson Collins' entrants in the tournament.

After winning in the first round by a rather large margin, the Washington college five proceeded to the finals. And it was in the finals that they were most impressive to the cage fans who attended the games. Although the courageous "Generals" had played three consecutive days, they trampled their rivals to win the title as Fourth Regional Champions by a one-sided score.

The K. H. S. basketball team displayed a fighting and determined spirit, but the overwhelming odds for their foes determined the outcome. They showed that old "Blue and White Spirit" from the sound of the initial toot, until the final whistle.

Knoxville high is conscious of the wonderful work of Coach Collins and the basketball team. They have kept the name of the school in the spotlight of sports in this section. While doing this, the members of the team have taken part in a clean sport which stresses cooperation, fast thinking, and physical fitness.

In the game against Washington college, seven Trojan cagesters played the final contest in their high school careers. They were Captain Jimmy "Goldie-Locks" Leach, George "King-Kong" Gaines, E. L. Foster, George Krisle, Gordon Brown, Clarence "Sonny" Beasley, and Howard Haynes. Top-notch cooperation has been seen among these athletes under the leadership of Captain Leach.

When basketball season rolls around next fall, Coach Collins will probably find a great task in replacing the vacancies of these boys. Only three letter men, Roy Chappelle, Jack Keyes, and Maurice Cottrell, will return next season.

LET'S GO, FLASHES!

Coach Sam "Gentleman" Jones, who relishes track season, is planning to show the candidates the Winona street track in the next few days.

Much work will have to be done on the cinder path, and the would-be track stars will no doubt muscularize their arms as well as their lower limbs.

Track is one of the most exciting sports of the day, although not so much interest is shown in it. Everyone admires the pole vaulters as they go zooming through the air. They feel a thrill as the hurdlers go gliding over the hand-caps. In fact, all the events of a track meet help the students to become more interested in K. H. S. athletics.

Marguerite Glover loves Charlie Clark so much she wears his pin all of the time. What do the other boys say about it, Marguerite? We know Billy House doesn't like it.

Trojan-Baylor Track Meet Planned At Chatt., April 7

Tenikoit Tourney Started By Girls

Thirty-Four Teams Remain in Girls' Contest.

First rounds of the girls' tenikoit tournament were played in classes Monday and Tuesday. Seventy teams entered the tournament.

Teams led by the following captains advanced to the second round: Jane Steffner, Jean Bourne, Helen Seivers, Ruby Smith, Bobbie Inman, Vola Mae Burnette, Bonnie Phipps, Ella Bee Woody, Bell O'Fallan, Thelma Woods, Pauline Wilkinson, Elizabeth Haley, Carolyn King, Viola Hockenjos, Agnes Manley, Helen Coleman, Charlsie Cook, Bobbie Hull, Ruth Long, Josephine Lea, Jane Harris, Mabel Houk, Hattie Johnson, Ruth Dennis, Lucy Tindell, Pauline Line, Virginia Hatmaker, Margaret Sisk, Helen Benton, Dorothy Wyatt, Ethel DeSautelle, Billie Marion, Faye Poore, Martha Ijams, Louisa Robbins, Ruth Stewart, and Margaret Post.

The thirty-three teams led by the following captains have been eliminated: Munsey Massingale, Mary Louise Black, Mary Ruth Asquith, Alberta Foust, Revalee Finch, Marilyn Lowry, Evelyn Wilkerson, Reba Nicely, Betty Clark, Dorothy Bigler, Helen Dunkin, Ruth Word, Sara Bishop, Geneva Colvin, Helen Saylor, Barbara Brown, Eleanor Grissom, Laverne Self, Evelyn Sesler, Edna Hixon, Helen Hatcher, Diana Meek, Ruth Dunn, Marian Jennings, Martha McMillan, Edith May, Naomi Spaulding, Louise Haney, Albania White, Capitola Shannon, Beatrice Dean, Ann Lynn Bolinger, and Mary Pellegrinelli.

Mary Currier says she really likes L. B. We don't blame either one of you, Mary, you make a darling couple.

Board of Controls Will Determine K. H. S. Meet With Prep Team.

ENTIRE SQUAD MAY GO Meet With U-T Freshmen Will Probably Be Changed To Another Date.

Although the Trojan tracksters were expected to meet the U. T. freshmen squad April 7, an unexpected event has occurred which may give the Trojans a trip to Chattanooga where Baylor Prep school is to hold an invitation track meet.

Better known as a relay meet, it will include quarter mile, half mile, and two mile relays, with the hundred yard dash. This meet will not have hurdles, high jump, broad jump or any event other than the relays and century dash.

The major factor prohibiting this trip of the Trojan squad to Chattanooga is the decision of the State Board of Controls. The board has passed a law of athletics permitting a high school to meet a prep school in a dual track meet but prohibiting a field or invitation meet between high and prep schools.

At some time in the near future this board may pass a law permitting field meets between the different class schools. Should they decide in favor of such contests, the K. H. S. squad will be favored with the trip provided finances of the K. H. S. athletic department are sufficient.

"We will take as many men as we can provide transportation for, regardless of whether they are relay, dash, or field men," stated coach Sam Jones.

It is expected that practically the entire squad will be taken.

With only two weeks training and this subject to the confines of the gym it is difficult and almost impossible to determine who the premier tracksters will be.

Efficiency Plaques Awarded In Chapel

11-A Upper Class Winner With 81.90 Rating.

Efficiency plaques for the first six weeks of this term have been awarded to the 10-B and 11-A classes in the upper and lower class chapels, respectively. The 10-B's average was 78.33%; that of the 11-A's was 81.90%.

Record in the lower class were:
9-A .....77.12%
10-B .....78.33%
10-A .....68.72%
11-B .....69.54%

Averages in the upper class were:
11-A .....81.90%
12-B .....80.36%
12-A .....80.52%

Miss Jessie Neubert's 12-A group had the highest percentage of any group in the school. The highest groups in each class are:

12-A—Neubert .....91.39%
12-B—Browning .....90.07%
11-A—Bewley .....87.87%
11-B—Nuchols .....87.87%
10-B—Ellis .....85.43%
9-A—Cole .....84.86%

J. A. Walker, chairman of the faculty plaque committee, presented the plaques to Ruth Word, a representative of the 10-B class in lower chapel, and to Betty Clark, president of the 11-A's in upper chapel.

"The averages for this time were lower than usual because many groups have not yet received their charters," Mr. Walker stated.

School Newspaper Work" by Louis Wiley, business manager of The New York Times. Following this, and lasting until 4:30, were two sets of sectional meetings at which men and women prominent in the fields of writing, publishing, and journalism spoke. The remainder of the afternoon was spent with a motion picture of the Chrysler building and its construction.

Mrs. William Brown Meloney, editor of The New York Herald Tribune Magazine, started the ball rolling Friday morning with an address at the general session at the McMillin theater. A convention picture was then taken, after which a special luncheon for the faculty advisers was held.

Ripley Featured

Marlan Pew, editor of the Editor and Publisher, was the guest speaker at the afternoon general session. The remainder of the day was occupied with sectional meetings at which such notaries as Howard Blakeslee, science editor of the Associated Press, D. T. Palmer, national advertising manager of The New York Times, Nellie B. Sergeant, author of Younger Poets, John E. Allen, editor of The Linotype News, and William Brown Meloney, editor of The Pawling Chronicle, were featured. A fitting climax for the day's program was furnished by Robert L. Ripley, creator of "Believe It or Not".

Saturday morning's program witnessed the presence of Smith Reavis, foreign news editor of The Associated Press, John Kieran, sports writer of The New York Times, and Lou Little, head football coach of Columbia University. A special feature was provided in the way of round table discussions led by student editors and staff members of well known publications.

Closes With Luncheon

A luncheon at the Hotel Commodore officially closed the three day session. Sir Willmott Lewis, Washington Correspondent of The London Times, and Dr. Vilhjalmur Stefansson, author and Arctic explorer, delivered the principal addresses, and Joseph M. Murphy, director of the C. S. P. A., presided. Announcement of winners of Gold Key Awards, Bronze Quill Awards, and of journalistic contests sponsored by the Writers Club and Sigma Delta Chi concluded the program.

WHAT WAS WASN'T

Science Club Holds Topsy-Turvy Meeting With a Merry Time For All.

They made ozone but it smelled like hydrogen sulphide. They conducted an experiment in electrolysis of water but all they got out of it was some hot air, water, and sick salt. Somebody spilled some mercury and others washed dimes and quarters in it.

You're right! It was the K. H. S. Science club.

Well, anyhow, they met Monday after school and six new members were taken in. The gentlemen were Jack Archer, Earl Best, R. L. Coward, Virgil Gentry, Charles Householder, and John Pelton.

George P. Turley was there and a good time was had by all.

stated John A. Parker, president of the class.

He added that if the students wish to have their pictures published as a class, the fifty cents engraving fee for each student's picture must be paid to the Blue and White immediately.

Comer's Studio will take and print one picture suitable for publication in the Blue and White for fifty cents.

Miller's will give four pictures, one for publication, and three well finished 5x7 pictures with folders, for $1.95.

Rings may still be purchased for $8.00 at Maskall's Jewelry store.

MORE ABOUT

'HEART OF LINCOLN'

fon, Hamilton Burnett, and Leon Jourolman.

The Los Angeles Express states that Judge Bull is Lincoln to life, same eyes, nose, whiskers, height, and shape. He seems the mighty, merciful president of the "60's" come back in the prime of his years.

From the Cincinnati Post comes the statement that in Charles Edward Bull is seen an amazing example of a man absorbing the characteristics of another. It is as if the man were a photographic plate which, being exposed to all that the man had read of Lincoln and all the pictures he had seen of him, had come at length to present a perfect likeness. In the face and figure of Charles Bull is the living image of all the picture one has seen and of all the descriptions one has read of the gentle martyr. Each meeting with him reveals new flashes of Lincoln. Far more than mimic, Charles Bull is an awe-inspiring figure.

The play will be presented twice. The matinee performances will begin at 2 o'clock and all who have tickets will be excused from the sixth period class. Tickets for this presentation will be twenty-five cents. The evening performance, which will be at 8 o'clock, will be thirty-five cents. Reserved seats may be secured for fifty cents.
