Senior Play To Be Given May 31, June 1

Two Performances of "The Swan" To Be Presented in K. H. S. Auditorium.

ADMISSION 25 CENTS

Robert Sherrod, Elizabeth Kerr, Ray Watson, Frances Cour To Take Leads.

Presenting "The Swan", the 1934-B graduating class will give two performances of the senior class play. The first performance will be Thursday, May 31, and the second, Friday, June 1, at 8 o'clock in the K. H. S. auditorium. Admission will be twenty-five cents.

"The Swan", a play in three acts, deals with the attempts of an ambitious mother of an ex-royal European family to marry her daughter Alexandra, played by Elizabeth Kerr, to Prince Albert, portrayed by Ray Watson, who is heir-apparent. To accomplish her ends, Beatrice, the mother, played by Frances Cour, uses the tutor of her two young sons as her daughter's lover. The role of the tutor is taken by Robert Sherrod. The professor falls in love with the princess and there is much trouble. Paul Everly, as the benignant religious uncle, Hyacinth, straightens the troubles out.

Cartoon Exhibit Held In Library This Week

Have you seen the cartoons in the library this week?

This exhibit includes twenty of the original cartoons drawn by H. M. Talburt, prominent newspaper cartoonist. The Pulitzer winning cartoon for 1933, "The Light of Asia", is among the group.

The "Light" is a torch representing the League of Nations, held by a strong hand, "Asia", which represents Japan.

Knoxville high school was enabled to have this exhibit through the courtesy of the Knoxville News-Sentinel.

Stella Jo English 'Miss Commercial'

Stella Jo English, 12-A senior, is "Miss Commercial", receiving the highest number of votes from members of the commercial department. The election, which is an annual event, was held last Wednesday.

Miss English is president of the Commercial club, a member of the National Honor society, and head of the student banking organization. She has also been prominent in other activities of the commercial department.

The five girls in the primary were Virginia Powers, Grace McLin, Mildred Carmichael, Mary Fred Kirby, and Margaret Yeazel. The candidates were chosen by a committee of five commercial students and three teachers on the basis of scholarship, efficiency, cooperative attitude, punctuality, neatness, personal appearance, extra commercial work, initiative, conduct, dependability, disposition, tact, and personality.

Election was held by class teachers and ballots were cast by students classified as commercial.

'34-B Commencement Speakers

Blues, Whites Place Equally On Council

New Members To Elect Officers This Afternoon.

For the first time in a number of years, the Blue and White tickets placed the same number of candidates on the Student Council. The election, which was held in group rooms Monday morning, determined those who would compose next fall's Council.

Following is a complete list of the candidates elected:

- 12-A—R. L. Coward, James Wilson, Louisa Robbins, Sally Ann Blairfield
- 12-B—Billie Brooks, Sammie Durham
- 11-A—Fred Jenkins, Alex Simpson, Sam Wise, Ruth Bonham, Faye Poore, Capitola Shannon
- 11-B—Shirley Jones, Lawrence Nicholson, Eleanor Gallaher, Annette Moody
- 11-A—John Lea, Ruth Word
- 10-B—Howard Greer, Wanda Jenkins

A meeting of the new Council members will be held this afternoon to elect officers. According to the Student Council constitution, the president must be a senior boy with previous experience, and the vice-president must be a senior girl. These rulings make the former position lie between R. L. Coward and James Wilson and the latter between Wanda Jenkins and Elizabeth Snead.

Three To Receive Awards at Banquet

At the annual Blue and White publication banquet, to be held at the Farragut Hotel, Monday night, May 28, three prizes will be awarded.

R. H. Clagett, general manager of the Knoxville Journal, will give a ten dollar cash prize to the staff member who has contributed most to journalism this year. Ralph Wallace, business manager of the Blue and White, will receive the Herff-Jones Loving Cup, an annual award made to the person on the business staff who has sold the most ads.

James Allen Schultz will receive the Quill and Scroll Medallion, another annual award given to the most efficient journalist of the year.

Mims Thomason, Knoxville Journal city editor, will be the guest speaker of the evening. Other guests will be Benton J. Stong, editor of the News-Sentinel, R. H. Clagett, members of the Board of Education and Publication Council, Dr. and Mrs. Harry Clark, Professor and Mrs. W. E. Evans, and former editors and business managers of the Blue and White, and new staff members.

Roswell Freedman Chosen As Editor Of B-W Next Year

Robert Buffat To Be Business Manager — Alva Pease, Associate Editor.

Roswell Freedman, K. H. S. junior, has been selected by Miss Emma Becton, faculty adviser, to serve as editor of the Blue and White for the year of 1934-35. Alva Pease, former reporter, was chosen as associate editor. This is the first time in the history of the Blue and White that anyone has been named to the position without being on the staff, and the first time a girl has been named associate editor.

Another newcomer, Robert Buffat, has been chosen to succeed Ralph Wallace as business manager. Frances Letterman will serve as assistant manager, and Charles Maskall will act as advertising manager.

The news editor's position will be filled by Helen Simpson, also a former reporter. Those who will compose the reporting staff are: Julia Andrews, Helene Burnett, Evelyn Carty, Sara Hudson, Mary Ruth Robinson, and Elizabeth Snead.

Jo Whittlesey will serve in the newly created position of proof-reader.

Other appointments to the newly formed staff are: Paul Coker, sports editor; Harry Cook, associate sports editor; Pharos Patrick, girls' sports editor; Frances Cartwright, the humor and personal column; and Charles Ewing, feature writer.

Senior Banquet Will Be May 29

John Parker To Preside—Hours Are 6:30-9:00.

Members of the 12-A class will have the senior banquet at the Cherokee Country Club, Tuesday, May 29, from 6:30 to 9 o'clock. Borden Jones' orchestra will play.

John Parker, president of the senior class, will preside at the banquet. Guest of honor will be Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Evans; Dr. Harry Clark, superintendent of city schools; Dr. H. E. Christenberry, chairman of the board of education; and George Purley, faculty adviser of the class. The class directors will also have seats of honor. They are Lois Whitehead, vice-president; Wanda Armstrong, secretary; Benton Callison, treasurer; and Robert Sherrod, publicity chairman.

The entertainment will be drawn from the talent of the seniors. The class will, prophecy, and history will be read by their respective authors. Musical numbers will also be on the program.

The banquet is being planned by the program and arrangement committees. Chairman of the program committee is Maston Callison and the members are Bill Ellison, Weller Gleeson, Nancy Poore, and Robert Sherrod.

Press Group Holds First General Meet

Representatives from the school publications of Park Junior high school, Boyd Junior high school, Catholic high school, and Knoxville high gathered in the K. H. S. assembly hall, Tuesday, May 15, for the first general meeting of the Knoxville Scholastic Press association.

R. H. Clagett, general manager of the Knoxville Journal, spoke about journalism as a career.

"School publications aid one in learning to be a professional newspaperman," stated Mr. Clagett.

"A person who wishes to become a journalist should not necessarily specialize entirely in journalism, but should take Latin, some Greek, mathematics, and some science. The first requirement for a good paper is to print the news promptly. If possible, write up an event before it happens," he continued.

The officers of the Association are James Allen Schultz, K. H. S., president; Ann Mary Able, Park Junior, vice-president; Dorothy Seymour, Boyd Junior, secretary.

An executive board has been appointed. It is composed of three representatives from each school in the Association. There will be a general meeting of the Association once every six weeks.

Graduating Exercises Are To Be May 30

Senior Radio Program Monday Night—Class Day Will Be Wednesday.

THEATER PARTY FRIDAY

Baccalaureate Sermon Is May 27—Banquet To Be Tuesday, May 29.

Commencement exercises for the graduating class will be held Wednesday, May 30, at 8 o'clock in the U. T. Alumni Memorial Auditorium.

An informal style, different from that of previous years, will be used by the commencement speakers. Mary Currier will talk on "National Government Discovers the South"; Alvin Smith, on "Knoxville as a Typical Southern City"; Alvin Smith, on "Socializing Factors in the Developing of Tennessee Valley"; and Herbert Davis, on "Industrial Development in Tennessee Valley". The general topic of the program is "The Changing Civilization in the South".

Other speakers will be Principal W. E. Evans, Dr. Harry Clark, and Dr. H. E. Christenberry, chairman of the Board of Education.

John Parker, 12-A president, will preside at the exercises.

B-W, Tennessee Theater Give Party For Seniors

When the last final test is over and all worries and cares are dismissed from the minds of the seniors, the graduated students will be given a theater party by the Blue and White staff and the Tennessee theater on Friday afternoon, May 25.

"Melody in Spring" will be the feature with Lanny Ross taking the lead.

All 12-A group teachers and the pupils of their groups will get to see the show free of charge. Each teacher will stand at the door and identify the students in his group.

KH Summer School Will Begin June 11

Knoxville high school's regular summer school session will begin June 11, and will continue for eight weeks during the summer vacation. Approximately one hundred students have already enrolled to make up their work in an effort to graduate with their classes.

Students are expected to take two subjects, but if for some special reason only one subject is needed they may take only the single subject. Tuition fees are fifteen dollars for two subjects and ten dollars for one summer school class.

The following subjects will be available:

English 10A, 11A, 12B, 12A; geometry 11A, 11B; algebra 10B, 10A; history 12A, 12B, 10A; economics; shorthand 11, 12; typewriting 11, 12; bookkeeping.

If anyone wishes to take a subject that is not listed above, it may be obtained if as many as ten summer school pupils will sign for it.

Any student who plans to attend this eight week's session is urged to register at once, if he has not already done so. Teachers for these various subjects have not been selected.

THE STRAW THAT BROKE . . .

Eight dollars for a class ring; a dollar and a half for cards; two dollars for invitations; a dollar for the senior banquet; a dollar for a senior picture in the Blue and White; twenty-five cents for admission to the senior class play—such is a partial list of the expenses which accompany a student in graduation from K. H. S.

Yet few, if any, seniors regret the above named expenditures. The eight dollar investment in a ring purchases a life-long treasure; the cards, which are interchanged among fellow seniors, keep alive memories of the good old days together; banquet expenses are readily compensated; the Blue and White pictures will prove a nestimable joy in later years; and, certainly, no one denies that an evening of enjoyment such as "The Swan" promises to provide is most reasonable. There is, however, one item of expense on which a number of thoughtful seniors look with misgivings: Is the cap and gown outfit, worn for a few hours on only two evenings, worth the required $2.50 fee?

Such an outfit, it has been found, costs ten dollars new. Considering the brief time which these tokens of a matured intellect are worn, it seems quite reasonable to presume that, subjected to a reasonable degree of care, they would last for a number of years. Yet, under the present system of distribution, four graduating classes pay for them completely!

Other institutions have found that the best all around method of providing caps and gowns at the minimum cost is to bestow the duties of holder and distributor on the school. Under such a regime, a large number of cap and gown outfits are soon completely paid for and can be used by coming senior classes at little or no charge. Had K. H. S. installed such a system a few years ago, the Voice need never have been discontinued, for the lump sums paid by the two graduating classes each year for this item would have readily defrayed publication expenses.

As a progressive high school, K. H. S. should carefully consider the practicability of adopting such a "home owned" system.

SUMMER SCHOOL

There are three classes of people who can profit by attending summer school: those who through sickness, laziness, or the like have gotten behind the rest of their class and wish to catch up; those who wish to get ahead of their class; and those who wish to take some particular subject which they have not had time to take during the regular school session. Certainly any and all of these students would be greatly helped by attending summer school.

That many of these students are becoming more and more willing to take advantage of this opportunity is ascertained by the increasing number of pupils enrolled each year in the summer school. Part of this popularity is undoubtedly due to the fact that eighteen weeks' work may be satisfactorily done in eight weeks. Yet whether this be the student's motive or not, the few hours spent each day in this way cannot help but be beneficial. The question is not, then, whether summer school is really worth while or not, but whether those who really need it will take advantage of it.

Are you behind your class by a subject or two? Would you like to graduate a semester earlier than you are now scheduled to finish? Would you like to study some subject that you have not as yet had a chance to take? Then don't fail to attend this year's summer school starting June 11. The enrollment fee is $10 for one subject or $15 for two. Don't waste a whole semester doing what you can do in eight weeks. Take advantage of the many opportunities that summer school affords and enroll at once for the coming session.

A FEW BOUQUETS

In looking back over another school year, the Blue and White finds that there are a number of persons to whom a vote of thanks is due for their cooperation in helping to put the paper over in a big way:

To Prof. W. E. Evans, Dr. Harry Clark, and members of the school board, all of whom have actively supported the Blue and White in every way possible, especially, in permitting the delegates to be sent to the various press conventions of the year.

To Mrs. Merida Post for allowing staff members to leave the study hall for Blue and White work.

To Miss Katherine Webb and the office staff for taking and delivering telephone messages to and from the Blue and White.

To the Blue and White group representatives for their excellent work in soliciting subscribers and collecting subscription money.

To each member of the student body who did his part in making the circulation of the Blue and White the largest of its existence.

To the Knoxville Journal and Knoxville News-Sentinel for valuable advice, pictures, news, and the like.

To the Keith Press for making the work of publication the most agreeable possible.

To such persons and groups belongs much of the credit for the Blue and White's record showing of the year.

Is My Face Red?

Once upon a time some intelligent man said that the first hundred years were the hardest—objection—I think it is the last two weeks. . . . We wonder Grace Coker is still making Kenneth Cox dodge Evelyn Fields. . . . Sara Frances Line seems not to be missing Hasson—guess it's that good-looking car of H. T. McClain's. . . . Well, we hear Red is going to U. T.—Betcha Jo Ijams made up his mind. . . . Emery Myers demands that we retract the statement that Virginia Overton was G. W. Trammel's girl—see G. W. . . . All girls take notice, Mascot Carr is a free man once again. . . . Mas, you didn't get "Bootie'd" out, did you? . . . "Power House" Darden can't generate enough energy to ask Clara Shannon for a date. . . . Sara Frances has the Brunette "lined" you up? . . . which reminds me that "Pot S" Goeller wants to take . . . to the banquet, but . . . Boys want Ann Galb. . . . between them but Harold . . . t consent. . . .

Virginia White adds her assent to others that Garrett Parker is the best looking boy in school of the blonde type? . . . Now do your stuff—A few senior dates are Festing on the Lowry and Eleanor Lane—Curtis Ayres and Jean Schubert—Mary "Specs" Currier and "Mustard" Callison—"Grapefruit" Whittle and James Hasson—not much longer girls—too many boys are tagging it. . . . By the way, are the senior dates being "ditched" this year? And I ask you, did Helen C. see "Pul" Thomas walking down the hall with Eula Wagner???? . . . Mr. K. H. S. and Miss K. H. S. make a perfect couple—if only?? . . . Well, so long—if this column has hurt anybody the past year, we sincerely apologize. Maybe somebody else will do better next year—Good-bye.

School Daze

By Grady Blazier

Well, the time has come "to say goodbye". This little blurb is not an apology for anything that has appeared this year. I've tried my best and that's all.

Don't you hate to leave, though. Of course you don't now, but wait until next fall. There is something about leaving K. H. S. that is sad. It is so sad, in fact, that it makes you feel bad to write it. But let's hope we'll all live over it.

The man who brags "I run things at my house" has given you the wrong impression. He probably means the lawn mower, the baby buggy—and so—what.

I don't think I'm old-fashioned or maybe I'm a hopeless sophisticate, but there is a feeling of resentment that rises up in me every time I see a girl smoking. Sure, I know it's done a lot and all that, but I think that girls cheapen themselves by smoking.

Ever since the days when knights were bold, women have been placed upon a pedestal. If the women wish to climb off this pedestal, they must expect the same consideration from men that men give each other.

To My School Books

It breaks my heart to leave; It brings tears and sighs of regrets;

But you're all so new and shiny 'Cause you ain't been used as yet.

So long—may every grab you make bring forth a valuable prize.

Open Forum Finishes Work With 'Big Six'

"All In All, Ours Is A Successful Year," Says W. T. Miller, Adviser.

Climaxing the spring literary season, the Knoxville high Open Forum club was represented in all phases of the Big Six contest, at U. T., late in April.

"Although we won no first places in the contest, I feel that in all, we could call ours a successful year," stated W. T. Miller, director.

George Trammell, using an original speech, "War—Legalized Murder", took third place in the declamation division.

This year the Tennessee Inter-scholastic Literary League, sponsors of the Big Six, added a one act play tournament to the schedule. All contests were held in union with the annual athletic "Play Day" on April 14.

Early in the spring term, the Open Forum club officers and directors assisted R. H. Cardwell in the organization of a Junior Forum club. The purpose of this new Forum, as stated by Mr. Cardwell is "To prepare lower class students for the senior contests, so that we may make debating as popular in high school as football."

During the latter part of February, the National League of Nations examination for high school students was sponsored by many public high schools in the United States. Jack Archer entered the contest from K. H. S. The questions were based on "A Brief History of the League of Nations". In the Forum clubs the contest was supervised by Miss Mary K. Tittsworth, C. F. Montgomery, W. T. Miller, and R. H. Cardwell.

The officers for the past term were Maston Callison, president; and Jack Archer, secretary.

1934 Senior Class Play Leads

Dramatics Dept. Gives 18 Plays

K. H. S. Dramatics department under the direction of O. E. Sams will complete a full year's program with the final production of the Senior class play, "The Swan", Friday, June 1, at 8 o'clock.

During the year, the department has sponsored three long plays, nine short ones, and six radio plays. Two of the three act plays, "The Ghost Bird", and "The Swan", were presented as the class plays for the 1934 A and B classes. The third, "Dying To Live", was produced by the Masquers club.

Of the nine short plays that were produced three were originals, written by K. H. S. students. Charles Ewing wrote "What Will Mother Say?", Billy Lynch, "The Barefooted Husband", and Grady Blazier wrote the Library Play, which was given in chapel to interest pupils in the library contest. There was also a special play given for book week.

The K. H. S. Dramatic class organized in January with twenty-nine members, has presented three one-act plays, "The Proposal", "The Twilight Saint", and "My Lady's Rose", and three radio plays: "The Knave of Hearts", "The Weather Breeder", and "The Boor".

O. E. Sams, dramatics teacher, has directed all of the plays and "Joyland" the annual K. H. S. performance which is given by the combined extra-curricular clubs. The Masquers club presented a one-act play, "The Love Pirate" in Joyland.

BROWNING TO CONDUCT TRIP TO WORLD'S FAIR

Leaving on June 17 from Knoxville, C. A. Browning, K. H. S. teacher, will conduct a trip to the World's Fair. The whole trip, with all expenses, will cost $34 per person.

A special bus, which will hold 25 persons, is to be chartered. The thirty-four dollars will include transportation to and from Chicago and to and from the fair grounds, hotel bill at the first class Wellington Arms Hotel, breakfast, admission to the fair, and some extra attractions in the fair.

Number Of Activities Make Successful Year For B & W

Work Includes Publishing 31 Issues, Editing Journal, Sponsoring Contests.

Publishing thirty-one issues, editing the Knoxville Journal, sponsoring contests, attending conventions, and giving parties and banquets have all combined to make for the Blue and White one of its most successful years of existence.

Of the thirty-one issues published, five were special editions. In November, a special paper was issued in celebration of the thirteenth annual American Education Week. Following this were the regular six page Thanksgiving and Christmas issues, carrying special features, as well as the regular amount of school news. Two senior issues, one for the mid-year graduating class and one for the present one, have been published to take the place of the Voice. These have carried pictures of the seniors and special reviews of the year's work.

On January 21, members of the Blue and White staff and Quill and Scroll society united for the fourth consecutive year in the publication of the Knoxville Journal.

Two major contests have been sponsored by the Blue and White during the year. One was a puzzle contest and was won by Ray Ritter, who submitted thirty-two solutions. The other was the annual Miss and Mr. K. H. S. election, which was won by Juliet Hughes and Earl Bradley respectively.

A record in convention attending was set by the Blue and White during the year. In November, Harry McNabb and Paul Flinchum represented the paper at the ninth annual Southern Interscholastic Press Association, held at Washington and Lee University in Lexington, Virginia. At the Tri-State Press Convention, sponsored by the Southwestern University of Memphis, were Maria Lennon and Charlotte Willson. A few days later, James Allen Schultz, Ralph Wallace, and Miss Emma Becton left for a three day session of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association in New York City. Here, the paper took a second place in competition with almost 2,000 other high school publications from all over the United States and Territorial Possessions, and Schultz was honored with a position on the staff which was responsible for the publication of one of the regular issues of the Columbia Spectator.

Just before the Christmas holidays, the Blue and White staff gave a party for Miss Carrie Lou Early's first grade class at Moses school. A number of informal dinners have been held, climaxing in the annual publication banquet which will be held Monday week.

Last, but promising to be not least, of the Blue and White's activities was the initiative taken in the formation of a local scholastic press association with membership from junior and senior high school staffs of Knoxville and Knox county.

The showing of the paper is not the only basis on which the Journalistic accomplishments of the school for the year may be based. Individual honors have not been lacking. James Allen Schultz was appointed early in the year as official correspondent for Knoxville to the Scholastic magazine, and, in a recent journalism contest sponsored by the Quinn and Scroll, four Blue and White staff members won honorable mention.

Bible Club To End Year's Work Today

New Group Aims At Deeper Religious Feeling.

One of Knoxville high school's new clubs, the Student Fellowship club, will complete its first term of work this afternoon in a meeting which will be held at the close of school in the assembly hall.

This club, organized March 2 under the direction of the Bible department and Mrs. Clarice Groh, states in its constitution that the purpose of the club is to create a deeper religious feeling in the school and to spread Christian spirit among the students. It also strives to encourage and inspire members to carry on individual Christian work among their fellow students.

Officers who have served for this year are Ray Watson, president; Jean Smith, vice-president; Vondas Fleniken, secretary; and Julian Spitzer, program committee chairman. The program committee composed of the chairman, Willetta Jones, Margaret Saunders, and Tom Wyatt has secured for the club three guest speakers. The Rev. P. T. Sims addressed the club on the subject of "The Meaning of the Days of Passion Week", Dr. Harry Clark spoke on "The Bible—the World's Best Seller", and the Rev. Wm. McCorkle spoke Friday, May 18.

As another extra-curricular activity, the Bible department has sponsored the working out of an outline for the morning devotional readings which, in the course of the nine months school term, will cover the book from Genesis through Deuteronomy. It was drawn up by a committee of one student from each of the five Bible classes and three faculty members, Mrs. Clarice Groh, Miss Edith Horton, and Mrs. Merida Post.

Senior Class Poem

By Charles Brown
The class of '34 are we
With wit and knowledge flowing;
These lines comprise our sad farewell
For soon we must be going.

Dear K. H. S., you've fostered us
Through years of our beginning
To better face the fight of life
That now we must be winning.

So when we've shaped our destinies
And in happiness are living,
We'll think of thee and breathe our thanks
For the gift that keeps on giving.

From the looks of things Friday night,
Jane Harriss and Blondie Robinson are getting along O. K.

Best Girls' Banquet To Close Hi-Y Year

Officers Elected Last Thursday To Be Installed.

Best Girls' banquet next Thursday night will officially close the year's work for the Knoxville high school Hi-Y club. At that meeting, officers for next fall, who were elected last night, will be formally installed.

During the year, three meetings have been held jointly with other clubs of similar nature and purpose. One of these was with the Girl Reserves of K. H. S., one with the Christian Fellowship club of the University of Tennessee, and one with the Hi-Y club of Austin high school.

At Christmas time, the Hi-Y, as usual, contributed gifts for poor children of the city.

A week ago last Thursday night, the Hi-Y, in cooperation with the Y's Men's club, sponsored the annual vocational guidance meeting. Supper was served by the K. H. S. cafeteria in the lunch room, after which the boys of the senior classes

During the past term, forty-three students were elected to membership in the K. H. S. chapter of the National Honor Society. They are:

12-A—Helen Bennett, Henrietta Bishop, Anne Bolin, Ed Bowman, Earl Bradley, Stella Jo English, Lois Fielden, Elizabeth Kerr, Powers Mason, Wanda Pedigo, Ray Ritter, Alvin Smith, Margaret Smith, Mary Arthur Swan, Charlotte Willson, Frank Wilson, Harry Woods, Ailen Woolsey.

11-A—William Brooks, Tate Carthy, Sammie Durham, Jerome Guiseffi, Susan Harrill, Mabel Houk, Jean Jenkins, Margaret Justice, John Kesterson, Ailen Lintz, Edgar Neas, Louise Lyle, Lapsley Ogden, Anatas Pace, Fred Stair, Alice H. V. Church, executive secretary of the National Honor society, addressed the K. H. S. chapter during lower class chapel period in April. He stated that there should be more to the N. H. S. than being an honorary organization and that the student members should endeavor to make it more than such.

The pupils elected to preside as officers throughout the past term were Maston Callison, president; Nancy Poore, vice-president; Robert Sherrill, secretary; Weller Gleeson, treasurer.

This year the graduating members of the N. H. S. will receive National Honor Society certificates and gold seals which will be placed on the diplomas.

The customary awards will be given to the graduating students who have made all "A's" during their high school careers.

who attended divided into groups and heard prominent speakers representing their respective interests.

As usual, faculty night was held at which a number of men teachers of K. H. S. were present.

Library Conducts Book Drive, Gives Lincoln Play

PTA Gives $100 — Various Organizations Assist With Skating Parties.

As a means of keeping K. H. S. on the Southern Association of College and Secondary School's list and getting more books for the Knoxville high school library, the K. H. S. library committee sponsored a 100 yard dash for books. The contest began the first of March and continued through the first week of April.

According to the enrollment of 2,194 the Knoxville high school library should contain 10,970 books, but at the beginning of the term the library contained only 5,341 books.

The book drive was held among the groups of the school. The contest allowed two inches for each book, thus making a total of 1,800 books necessary to win the dash. Approximately 2,235 books were received.

S. B. Parker's group won the first prize of a party at the Tennessee theater. Mr. Parker's group brought in a total of 339 books. R. H. Cardwell's and Miss Mary Tittsworth's groups took the second and third prizes, respectively, which were trips to the Booth theater. Robert Patterson won the individual prize for bringing in a total of sixty-one books.

Not only alumni, students, P. T. A. members and teachers contributed books, but also a former social science teacher, W. F. Rogers, professor of history at State Teachers' College, Johnson City, sent in a copy of "The Middle Period" by John W. Burgess.

As the books were brought in, a bookplate, especially designed by the K. H. S. art department and printed by the K. H. S. printing department, was pasted in the front of each book, telling who donated the book.

In order to raise money for the library, the library committee sponsored a play, "The Heart of Lincoln", on Thursday, March 22, in which Judge Charles Edward Bull and Miss Louise Feeser, two Hollywood movie stars, played the leading parts.

Various talented people in Knoxville played the other parts. Dancing for the play was furnished by a group from the Lincoln Memorial University and by Miss Annie McGhee's and Frank Ledgerwood's schools of dancing. Proceeds from the play amounted to approximately $80.

To help boost the school library toward the $1650 required each year by the Southern Association of College and Secondary Schools, the K. H. S. Parent-Teachers' Association presented the library with $100.

The lower class groups, English classes, and various clubs of the school have given skating parties and luncheons during the term to raise money for the library.

"The entire student body has been behind the library in every respect this year better than they ever have before, and we appreciate it very much," commented Miss Mary Bates, K. H. S. librarian.

A few weeks ago, the library took its yearly census of finding out how many pupils had access to Lawson McGhee library cards. It was found that approximately 1450 students have access to these cards and fifty-eight applications for new ones have been made.

"Many new books have been added to the library in the last few days. These books are for the students and we hope that they will take advantage of them and use them in every respect," concluded Miss Bates.

K H S Sketch Club Active During Year

Make Scenery for "Martha"—Visits Art Exhibit.

During the past year, the Sketch club, under the guidance of Miss Rebecca Cole, art instructor of K. H. S., has been quite active.

Louise Dobbins has had charge of the programs. The club had a party at the home of Katherine Glover, and also met at the homes of Sam Kasserman and Elizabeth Sneed, where they sketched. During the meetings they have done a number of figure sketches and work on the scenery for the opera, "Martha". While the art exhibit of etchings was held at the Andrew Johnson Hotel, the club visited there and studied the etchings.

There are approximately twenty members in the club. Sam Kasserman is president, Louise Dobbins, vice-president, and Edna Bentley, secretary and treasurer.

Latin Club Sees Play At Meeting

"Love 'Em and Leave 'Em" Presented by Members.

"Love 'Em and Leave 'Em", a tragedy by Clara Tate and Agnes Gabbard, two former high school students, was presented at the Latin club meeting on Wednesday, May 2.

The roles portrayed by club members were: Anneas, John Parker; Dido, Mary Arthur Swan; Ascanius, Earl Best; Achatas, C. A. Henry; Mercury, George Krisle; Jupiter, James Hasson; Venus, Virginia White; Juno, Kathleen King; Iris, Mary Currier; Anne, Susan Harrill; Attendant, Dorothy Briscoe; and the dancer, Martha Kennedy.

The play was a dramatization of Book IV of Virgil's Aeneid. Dido, who is in love with Aeneas, mourns for her husband, Sychaeus, to whom she made a vow never to marry again if he died before she. Anne, Dido's sister, thinks it is all right to break the vows. In the end, Dido kills herself.

Sychaeus's shrine, part of the scenery, was made by Donald Cooley, former president of the Student Council. Daniel Davis was chairman of the scenery committee. Ruth Fincannon and Jean Shubert

Fourth Successful Year On Radio Is Completed By KHS

Various Clubs and Organizations Assist in Making This a Banner Year.

For the fourth consecutive year, Knoxville high school has successfully conducted a series of radio programs, which will conclude May 28 with a program sponsored by the 12-A class, over station WROL.

The first program of the year was presented from the glass display studio of WROL at the Tennessee Valley Agricultural and Industrial Fair on Monday, September 17, with Principal W. E. Evans as the main speaker.

Thereafter, on successive Monday evenings were presented programs by the dramatics and music department, and the athletic department, featuring Coaches Collins and Jones and Bill Baker, captain of the football team, as speakers.

Tryouts were held October 14 to select the student announcer for the year. George Trammell, a member of the senior class and conductor of a radio program called "The Dreamer", was chosen from a group of thirteen boys trying for this position.

On October 23, a skit, with appropriate music, from the East Tennessee Historical Pageant and an address by Miss Guerrant Tatem were presented.

An audition was held Monday, October 27, to determine the best singers in K. H. S. Harriet Barber and D. M. Walker were winners of the contest, which is conducted similar to the Atwater Kent Audition. The contestants were introduced over the radio by a number, and the judges, three local musicians, did not know the names of the entrants. The singers were judged on tone, quality, diction, and interpretation.

Representing the Open Forum, Mary Currier, Alvin Smith, and Herbert Davis were presented on the radio Monday, November 6. Their talks dealt with the T.V.A., municipal power, and the work of the Open Forum.

During the spring semester varied programs have been presented, with different departments of the school in charge each week.

Dr. Harry Clark, superintendent of city schools, spoke on the alumni program, March 12.

The K. H. S. Orchestra was presented March 19, and the R. O. T. C. band April 2.

The Open Forum club assumed the responsibility of a program April 9, and the Masquers club, April 30.

Monday night, May 7, a one-act play was presented by an all girl cast from the dramatics class.

had charge of the costumes. Powers Mason was the announcer.

"What Four Years of Latin Has Meant to High School Seniors" was the topic of the opening speech made by Jack Archer.

New Airplane Club Proves Interesting

Boys Plan To Continue Meetings During Summer.

Having been formed only recently, Knoxville high school's model airplane club has proved interesting to a few high school boys during its short existence. Meetings have been held at school on Saturday mornings.

James Wilson was elected president and Dean Stout, secretary. Norman Peterson has served as faculty adviser for the club.

Members of the club entered an East Tennessee model airplane meet and carried off honors. Dean Stout and James Wilson won second and third places respectively and as rewards they were given one dollar and airplane rides over the town of Norris.

Meeting at homes of the members and at the airport, the club plans to carry on its activities during the summer.

K H S Latin Club Holds Six Meets

Hear Dr. Moser—12-A Virgil Class Gives Play.

During the past school year, Knoxville high school's Latin club has held six meetings. The programs have consisted chiefly of talks on Roman customs and contests in which the Latin language is used.

The meetings were presided over by the consuls and praetors, who are elected by the club for the entire year. The consuls were John Parker and Helen Wilson. The praetors were Lora Bond, Lois Henry, Herbert Davis, and John Kesterson. Miss Lucile Evans is faculty adviser of the club.

The programs were made up, for the most part, of talks by the students. At one meeting, Dr. Arthur H. Moser of U. T., gave an illustrated lecture on Pompeii and Herculaneum. A play, "Love 'Em and Leave 'Em", was presented at the last meeting by members of the 12-A Vergil class.

One of the best liked features of the club meetings has been the serving of refreshments.

Cleopatra Featured In KHS Lost And Found Articles

(Apologies to Park Cummings)
By Charles Ewing

During this term the K. H. S. lost and found department has taken in over four hundred lost articles. - - - Rome is supposed to have been founded by two brothers, Romulus and Remus. - - - Of these articles, about half have been returned. - - - Cleopatra was a lady. - - - Several of the articles not yet returned are books and notebooks. - - - Nero was possibly a pyromaniac. - - - The lost and found department might be used as a post-office for undergraduate lovers wishing to carry on written correspondence. - - - The formula for getting the square of a binomial would not work in the manufacture of toothpaste. - - - There is a clothes-line of belts and scarfs in the Lost and Found lockers. - - - Josephine, the first wife of Napoleon Bonaparte, is said to have led an exceedingly interesting existence. - - - The L & F contains also a pair of glasses (optical). - - - Two parallel lines can never meet, even though continued infinitely. - - - Have you lost a bushel of gloves? - - - Christmas comes but once a year. - - - Hats, tams, berets, etc., fill a locker up in room 304. - - - Rabbits have never been proven the originators of the colored Easter eggs. - - - Plenty of purses, pocket-books, and pens are present in profusion at the L & F. - - - I love a maiden. - - - It may be that the books not claimed by their losers within one month shall be given to the library or book exchange. - - - Sodium bicarbonate is common baking soda. - - - Several bunches of keys never unclaimed by their losers. - - - Witch-burning was practiced in America in the seventeenth century. - - - Jewelry of every description may be found in the Department. (Don't fall for that 'every description' phrase; it won't stand up.) - - - Beyond the Alps lies Italy. - - - The L & F has a box full of 'compacts'. - - - Adolph Hitler is the chancellor of Germany. - - - The Lost and Found department is managed by different students every six weeks, I think. - - - Ananias was famous as a teacher of great and irrefutable truths. - - - If you need a pencil, just go to room 304 and describe one; the L & F will have one for any specifications. - - - I bruised my finger several weeks ago and the scar is there yet. - - - The officials of the Student Council have sought earnestly to get students to inquire concerning things which they have lost. - - - All is not Blitzed that glitters. - - - Lost articles were displayed in the front hall of K. H. S. for several days but were not claimed. - - - Take any number under ten that is divisible by both two and three, multiply it by nine, add forty-six, and note that the result will be one hundred. - - - If you lose an article of any sort, go to the Lost and Found department and fill out a card, which will be given you, describing the article and all you know about it. - - - Honesty is the best policy. - - - Some of the gloves are kid. - - - A bird in the pan is worth two on the pluck (joke). - - - Every article turned in to the Lost and Found department is carefully catalogued. - - - She has brown eyes. - - - I am going to the L & F and claim some old notebooks and turn them in to the Library to count for my group-room in the contest. (They should be acceptable as telephone directories!)

KHS Home Ec. Club Has Varied Year

Enjoying an invitation party, a skating party, talks on home-making and styles and participating in fashion shows and luncheons, the Home Economics club and department have been particularly successful this term.

With Mary Margaret Richardson as president and Iris Brumit and Edna Bentley as other officers, the club has obtained speakers from U. T., Knoxville department stores, and K. H. S. faculty.

Subjects for talks have varied from "One Hundred Million Guinea Pigs", to "The Value of Home-making".

Speakers have been Miss Eura Crowe, adviser in Practice Teaching and Home Management at U. T.; Miss Clara Jean Beaman, K. H. S. faculty adviser of the club; and other members of K. H. S. and U. T. faculty.

Student participants in the club programs have been Pauline Anderson and Edna Bentley.

The Home Economics luncheon, Saturday, May 5, at Sterchi club rooms, was the work of the department, in cooperation with the club. During the luncheon, girls of the Clothing III classes of Miss Clara Jean Beaman modeled dresses.

The Home Economics department cooperated in the senior style show, Tuesday, April 17, in the assembly hall.

Miss Clara Jean Beaman has been the faculty adviser of the club for the entire two term period.

Ever since Ralph Wallace came back from New York he has been raving about a girl. I wrote to the address he gave me and here is the reply:

Dear Mr. Blazier:

In reference to your enquiry as to Miss Juanita Perry—I wish to say that she was discharged from this prison three weeks ago. She was in for burglary.

Yours truly,

Warden of Blackwell Island. Probably stole Ralph's heart.

FRENCH CLUB LEARNS OF LIFE IN FRANCE

Members of Le Cercle Francais, K. H. S. French club, have learned much about France, French festivals, and customs at the club meetings this term.

At different meetings during the term, programs have been given about Mardi Gras, the French celebration of Christmas and New Year's Day, the Basque country, and many interesting French customs. At one meeting French plays were given by various members of the club.

Formerly the French club met only three times a term, but the number of meetings has been increased and the club met five times this term.

"The club will continue to meet twice each six weeks next term," informed Miss Wilomette Barksdale, faculty adviser.

The officers of the club for this term were: Phoebe Trenholm, president; Eleanor Alexander, vice-president; Mabel Houk, secretary; and Sally Ann Blaufield, treasurer.

Objective Tests Issued By Library

To see just how much knowledge has been derived from the lessons which have been taught on the use of the library, the K. H. S. library has issued objective tests to the pupils in the 12-B classes.

"If we find that the pupils still lack a great deal of knowledge about the use of various books and outstanding equipments, we shall try to make it up to the pupils in their senior classes," commented Miss Mary Bates, K.H.S. librarian. The new books which were received in the 100 yard dash contest, which was sponsored by the K. H. S. and P. T. A. library committees, will be on display in the front hall in the near future.

"One of the most popular books turned in is Nicholson's 'Report of the Missing Men'. We have more calls for this book than any other in this collection," continued Miss Bates.

Combined KHS, U-T Glee Clubs Give 'Martha' 3 Times

Radio Programs and Local Concerts Also Included on Term's Program.

Presenting an opera, radio programs, and local concerts constituted this term's work for the U. T. and K. H. S. Glee clubs, led by Edward H. Hamilton.

Three performances of the comic opera, "Martha", were given—one on May 1 in the K. H. S. auditorium, on May 3 at the U. T. Memorial Building, and again at K. H. S., in observance of Music Week.

"I am proud of everyone who took part in the opera 'Martha'," declared Mr. Hamilton. "The chorus was splendid and the principal characters surpassed my fondest hopes. The orchestral accompaniment was right up to par. I want to particularly commend Robert Faulkner who displayed a truly patriotic spirit. He said 'Mr. Hamilton, if I were being paid for this I wouldn't sing, for the sake of the show and what it means to high school and U. T., I'll do my best'. This was after the doctor told him he should not sing because of laryngitis. A doctor in constant attendance, helped him through the performance.

"The stagecrew was the best I have ever worked with and the school departmental instructors and students deserve utmost commendation for their untiring efforts to make the performances worth while."

Mr. Faulkner stated that he thinks all performances, except his role, which couldn't be helped, were very, very successful and that Miss Muriel Parette and the orchestra did wonderful work.

Miss Mary Ellen Baldock: "I enjoyed the work in the opera very much. I've heard comments from the outside that it is the best of its kind that has been given in Knoxville."

Walter Pernette: "I want to pay special mention to the boys in the male chorus and particularly commend the girls for their performance in the first act. Everyone showed the finest spirit of cooperation of any school I know in the interest of good music and I hope it never ceases. For my part, I was more than glad to help in the interest of good music."

Edward Howard: "With the aid of outside talent, I think the opera was made a great success. As for my part, there is nothing I enjoy more than working in a production of this kind."

Miss Muriel Parette: "I enjoyed working in the opera very much and I thought the cooperation was wonderful."

In addition to the opera, many concerts have been given this year, the first of which were two religious concerts given at the Central Methodist church and First Presbyterian early spring concerts were given in the upper and lower class chapels, South Knoxville Baptist church, Rotary club, Kiwanis club, and Civitan club.

Three concerts by the entire chorus and one by the girls' glee club have been presented over WROL this year and two acts of "Martha", which received comment from towns throughout East Tennessee. The chorus also sang the opening program on the air for the East Tennessee Fair.

A chorus of sixty-five, the largest group from any other school represented, gave a concert for the East Tennessee Educational Association.

The Glee club's contribution to "Joyland" was a minstrel featuring James Allison, Ed Howard,

ACCOMPANIST

MISS WANDA ARMSTRONG who has served for the past year as piano accompanist for both the orchestra and glee club.

Orchestra Enjoys Successful Year

Gives 7 Concerts — Appears Before Civic Clubs.

"I feel that the orchestra has enjoyed one of its most successful years," Professor Fred DeRobertis stated in summing up the work done by the orchestra this year. "We have given seven concerts, three of which have been out-of-town, and have appeared on the programs of the Rotary, Kiwanis, Shrine, and Grotto clubs. Also we have participated in many of the school affairs."

One of the outstanding events of the year was the honor of being invited to give a concert in Chattanooga at the convention of the State Federation of Music Clubs, where the orchestra was most enthusiastically received. All the concerts were well attended by appreciative audiences.

"I wish to take this opportunity to thank each and every member of the orchestra, their parents, Principal W. E. Evans, and the faculty for their loyal support and splendid cooperation through which we have been able to attain our present success," Professor DeRobertis continued.

"We appreciate the encouragement and enthusiastic interest shown us by the Board of Education, Superintendent Harry Clark, and Principal Evans. We also wish to express our thanks to the P.T.A. and their untiring president, Mrs. Urban Neas, the Blue and White, the Knoxville Journal, the Knoxville News-Sentinel, WNOX and WROL.

"To our graduates I am sorry to say goodbye. May you, as I, cherish the hours we have worked together. Wherever you may go, remember that music is the sunshine of life and may yours be one perfect harmony," concluded Mr. DeRobertis.

The time for term papers is here. Ah, how some of the seniors long for Martha Brown. They always do at parallel report time.

Plans Of Leaders Observed By Club

Working crossword puzzles, enjoying talks on Spain and South America, and viewing pictures and souvenirs from Spanish America, the K. H. S. Spanish club has carried out the plans of the student leaders and the faculty adviser.

Martha Newman, president; R. L. Coward, vice-president; and Sam Wise, secretary and treasurer, were the officers for the spring term.

Attaining new interest by the varied programs, the club leaders greatly increased the membership. Miss Mary Flenniken, faculty adviser, has co-operated throughout the term in the club activities.

Mrs. Wallace McClure, who attended the Pan-American Conference and toured South America, spoke to the club February 13, showing illustrations and souvenirs with her discussion.

Students who took active part in the club programs during the year were Harold Simpson, Bob Patterson, Mildred Coward, K. P. Baum, and Alex Simpson. R. L. Coward was chairman of the program committee.

Club pins were ordered by a large number of members.

This week's nomination for "Dream Girl" is Jackie Adcock.

Names of Anna Grace Needham's victims are still coming in. The one for this week is Bob Salyer.

So Maxine Bailey and Bill Brakebill aren't no more?

Frances Cour, D. M. Walker, Helen Lobetti, Clara Catherine Jones, and Sam Scarbrough.

"The Music department has furnished solo and ensemble numbers for a great many club and church programs and I feel that it has been a very successful year," concluded Mr. Hamilton.

Council Sets Service Record For Past Year

Work Includes Activities of Monitor, Point, Charter Group Systems, L. & F.

Completing a term of work under the direction of Robert Sherrill, president, and Miss Helen Galbreath, faculty adviser, the K. H. S. Student Council has established an enviable record of service to the school.

The activities of the Council have been extended into several fields. The monitor system, Lost and Found department, point system, and the Charter Group committee are the most prominent of these activities.

The monitor system, under the supervision of Tommy Stevens and Nelson Venable, has received the commendation of the Council president for the efficiency with which it has functioned this term.

Margaret Thompson and Lucy Tindell have had the supervision of the Lost and Found department, which has taken and returned several hundred lost articles. About four hundred of these returned articles were text-books.

The Charter Group committee, headed by Bob Osborne, has chartered sixty-five of the sixty-nine groups. Groups which failed in the first inspection were reinspected later.

Marion Potter Hennessee as chairman of the Public Welfare committee, has sent several letters of congratulation to high school organizations which have done especially commendable work of some sort. Among the organizations which received praise are the Blue and White staff, for publishing a newspaper which took second place among those entered at the Columbia Scholastic Press Association convention, to O. E. Sams and the K. H. S. Masquers club, for their production of "Dying To Live", and Ed. H. Hamilton for the splendid presentation of the opera, "Martha".

The Usher Squad, whose head is R. L. Coward, has served at several performances during the year. Among these were the Masquers club play, "Dying To Live", and the opera, "Martha".

To stimulate interest in achievements on the Council, an annual "Honor Member Contest" is held.

COUNCIL PRESIDENT

ROBERT SHERRILL, whom student council members chose to be their leader for the past term.

The winner for this term is Jean Smith. This contest is based upon work, attitude, efficiency, and scholarship.

Besides the Honor Member contest, there is the council term honor roll. Those making first honors are: Jean Smith, Billy Brownlow, and Dorothy Jean Bock; second honors: Marion Potter Hennessee, Lucy Tindell, and Martha Ijams.

Donald Cooley, former president of the Council, received recognition for his work in constructing a K. H. S. directory, showing the rooms, groups, teachers, room numbers, and approximate locker numbers of the entire high school building. The former president was also commended for his work on the Council book, a record of the group's activities.

This term Miss Allie Vaught, English instructor at K. H. S., was appointed to the supervision of the Point System committee.

Commenting upon the prospects of the coming year, during which there are to be twenty Council members in place of the former membership of eighteen:

"Although it will be difficult to excel the record made by the present Council under the leadership of Robert Sherrill, there is good material in the newly elected group. The addition of two new members and an assistant adviser will not only enlarge the scope of the Council work, but should add greatly to its efficiency," declared Miss Galbreath.

Girl Reserves Club Discusses Various Subjects This Year

"What Every Girl Should Know" is General Topic of Senior Club.

Using "What Every Girl Should Know" as a general topic, the Girl Reserves, with Mrs. Robert Watson and Mrs. W. E. Evans as leaders, have discussed such subjects as smoking, necking, refusing a drink without being a "prig", passing college board examinations in chemistry, French and Latin, meeting strangers pleasantly, successfully handling personal expenses, playing golf and tennis, dancing well, reading certain books intelligently, ordering food for simple meals, keeping clothes in good condition, leaving kitchen in order after using it, being agreeable to family friends and relatives, driving and caring for a car, swimming, and keeping some of the day to one's self.

Because of the large number of freshmen who joined at the beginning of the year, a Junior club was formed to accommodate the new members. From the new club, the Blue Triangle club, the members are voted into the senior club.

A scavenger party honoring the freshmen was given at the Y. W. C. A. February 17. The semi-annual tea given for the new members was held this year at the home of Mary Daniels. A progressive supper was also given by the club this year.

To raise funds for the Girl Reserve dance, which was held April 27, at the Hotel Andrew Johnson, a bridge party was sponsored at the Sterchi club rooms. The money made at the dance was given to the K. H. S. library and to the game room at the Y. W. C. A.

The game room was the former cafeteria and was given to the Girl Reserves to fix up by Mrs. Doty.

Both the Senior and Junior clubs were honored by having Mrs. Jannette Serrec speak to them on "Charm".

All senior-A members of the Blue Triangle club will be invited to the banquet given for the graduates by the Senior club. This is an annual event.

Science Club Visits Knox. Gas Works

Members Given Chance to See Plant in Operation.

During the past term, the Science club, with J. C. Lowry as faculty adviser, visited the Knoxville Gas company plant, where the members of the club had the opportunity to observe the plant in operation.

"This visit was especially interesting because at the time we were studying gas in our classes," stated Daniel Hamilton, president of the club.

In the various meetings many experiments have been performed and reports on different achievements in the field of science given.

"I hope next fall that the students of the different science classes of the school will again form a club and that they will enjoy the club and profit by it as we have the past term," declared the president.

The officers of the club are: Daniel Hamilton, president; Mary Kelly, vice-president; Marion Bye, secretary and treasurer.

Drill Yesterday Ends Notable Year For ROTC

Change of Commanding Officer from Major to Lt. Colonel Featured.

Competitive drill yesterday ended for the R. O. T. C. department a notable year in its existence.

One of the big jolts of the season was the changing of the commanding officer of the battalion from a Cadet Major to a Cadet Lieutenant Colonel. Ralph Wallace was the first Knoxville high school cadet to have this title bestowed upon him.

Inspections, both weekly and monthly, have played an important part. Company "C" made the highest average in the monthly inspections and thus gained twenty points to its credit.

The following cadets, having won three or more first places at weekly inspections, have made the R. O. T. C. Honor Roll for the term:

Company "A"—Charles Bowers, with six firsts, three seconds, and no thirds; and E. L. Foster, with three firsts, five seconds, and two thirds.

Company "B"—D. C. Key, with nine firsts, four seconds, and one third; and Lloyd Line, with six firsts, two seconds, and two thirds.

Company "C"—Maurice Weisner, with seven firsts, four seconds, and three thirds.

Company "D"—Don Broome, with four firsts, six seconds, and one third; and Charles D. Johnston, with three firsts, two seconds, and two thirds.

Band—Kenneth Gibbs, with nine firsts, one second, and no thirds; K. P. Baum, with seven firsts, one second, and no thirds; and Fred Thornton, with three firsts, no seconds, and no thirds.

Goodwill Day Will Be Celebrated On May 18

Celebration of World Goodwill Day, May 18, will be marked this year by messages of mutual goodwill broadcast by radio from young people all over the world.

For the thirteenth time, the boys and girls of Wales will broadcast a message stressing the fact that they and their fellows in all lands have a common heritage and a common cause for pride and friendship in the beautiful and courageous things of the world and asking every young person to help make the world a family of nations. Replies by mail to the Welsh broadcast are steadily increasing. Last year school children in sixty countries responded.

In the United States the World Federation of Education Associations will go on the air with a thirty-minute international broadcast at two-thirty, eastern standard time, on Goodwill Day. The best messages submitted in a contest which the Committee on World Friendship among Children has been conducting will also be broadcast to other nations during the day.

Another annual feature of Goodwill Day observance will be the publication, by an international committee, of a paper, "Youth and World Peace", in French, German, Dutch, Welsh, Japanese, Polish, and the Scandinavian languages. In England part of the same material appears in the "Children's Newspaper".

Goodwill Day is the only day planned primarily for international observance. At the suggestion of a German woman, Frau Selenka, it was first observed in 1899 in honor of the Hague Peace Conference and its celebration has increased steadily.

The world-wide exchange of Goodwill day messages illustrates the way in which modern methods of communication and travel, developed during the last hundred years, have reduced the span of the earth, in hours of travel, from the size of an orange to the size of a pea. Railroads, steamships, airplanes, the telephone, telegraph, cable and radio have brought all nations close together and made them interdependent.

This year, especially, expressions of goodwill and understanding from the individuals in one land to those of another are needed. The governments now in conference seeking to scale down and limit armaments will succeed and help save the world from another and more terrible war than ever before only if they see that the peoples themselves had rather build friendships than battleships.

Advisers Award School Letters In Chapel Tues.

"K's" Given Students Competing in Contests With Other Schools.

To give "honor where honor is due" faculty advisers awarded high school letters to students who have represented K. H. S. in some sort of competition with other high schools. The presentations were made during lower class chapel Tuesday. Students who received the letters were:

Big Six contestants: Fes Lowry, Alvin Smith, Jack Archer, Earl Weaver, Elizabeth Kerr, Grace McLin, Jean Converse, George Trammell, and Woodrow Human.

Musicians: Margaret Farmer, Maston Callison, Edgar Neas, Margaret Beaman, and Billy Jacobs.

Journalists: James Allen Schultz, Ralph Wallace, Charles Ewing, Johnny Moffett, Charlotte Willson, and Grady Blazier.

Members of the rifle team: James Long, Lewis Miller, Herbert Cox, and Harry Goeller.

Members of the swimming team: Frank Waters, Jack Keys, Freddie Elmore, Weller Gleason, and Buddy Rogers.

Tennis team members: Walter Lavender, George Krisle, Maston Callison, James Hasson, Shirley Jones, Charles Johnson, and Bill House.

Ralph Wallace was given a letter for his winning essay on the "Tenth Man".

Net Team Travels To State Contest

Assuming an important place in sports at Knoxville high this spring, tennis was surpassed only by track on the sport calendar of K. H. S.

Today the K. H. S. tennis players are guests of the Morristown Country club where the Tennessee Golf and Tennis Tournament is in progress. The team may be somewhat weakened by the absence of Captain Lavender who rates the number one position on the team. The golf team of K. H. S. is also entered in the tournament.

In the near future a match is planned with Baylor and later a contest with Central high of Chattanooga. Two matches are also to be played with the Central high Bobcat racketeers. One match will be played at Fountain City and the other on the U. T. varsity courts.

With a victory over the Netters of Morristown high in straight sets, the Blue and White players made their debut for the current season. On April 14, the Trojan players featured in the University Day matches at U. T. This was an elimination affair and was won in the singles by Lavender, the Trojan Ace.

On April 26, another set of matches with Morristown were played on the U. T. courts. The Blue and White clan won this meet in straight sets.

Last Tuesday, May 15, Coach Wilson Collins awarded letters to the seven players of the tennis team in lower class chapel. The lettermen are Lavender, Krisle, Jones, Hasson, Johnson, House, and Callison.

Frank Waters, we are ashamed of you. To think that you would let Marion Hennessee walk home all by her lonesome.

This week's nomination for "Dream Boy" is Mr. K. H. S.

Meet The Victorious Trojan State Champions

Coach Sam Jones and the above delegation captured the State laurels for the second consecutive year at the meet held at Nashville last Saturday. First row, left to right—Fred Stair, Charles Foust, Maurice Cottrell, Jack Sherrod, and Charles Brown. Second row, left to right—E. L. "Hank" Foster, C. A. Henry, Bill Anderson, Jimmy Leach, Captain DeWitt Roberts, Robert Hunt, and Perry Ward. Back row, left to right—Clyde Robert, manager, Pat Cureton, George Creswell, Steve Maglio, Howard Haynes, Jimmy Wilson, Dean Stout, Coach Jones.

Trojans Win State Track Laurels At Nashville Meet

K. H. S. Team Retains Title As State Champs.

In the state track meet held at Nashville last Saturday, the Knoxville high school tracksters retained their title as State Champions of the second consecutive year.

Placing in almost every event, the Blue and White Trojans, under the coaching of Coach Sam "Gentleman" Jones, tallied 31 points to lead over their closest rivals, Morristown and Johnson City. The first three places of the meet were awarded to these three East Tennessee teams.

Perry Ward, Trojan star and next year's captain, broke the tape in the mile run with the time of 4:47.6. He also placed second in the half-mile run. With one of the longest shot-puts to ever be made in Dudley stadium, the scene of the contests, Pat Cureton, K. H. S., won the medal in that event.

Other Trojans who contributed toward winning the state laurels were C. A. Henry, Jimmy Leach, Robert Hunt, Maurice Cottrell, Bill Anderson, and the K. H. S. relay team.

This meet climaxed the season for Coach Jones and his boys, and has been lauded as one of the most successful in history. In all meets in which the Blue and White clan has participated, it has carried away first place. These include the University Day contests, the East Tennessee meet held at Kingsport, Tri-State meet held at Lincoln Memorial University at Harrogate, Tennessee, and the contests between various other schools.

Tracksters who received letters for the 1934 season were C. A. Henry, Jimmy Leach, Captain DeWitt Roberts, Bill Anderson, Perry Ward, Pat Cureton, Bill Badgett, Dean Stout, E. L. Foster, Maurice Cottrell, James Wilson, Howard Haynes, Charles Brown, Jack Sherrod, Charles Foust, Robert Hunt, and George Creswell. Clyde Roberts won an emblem as manager.

Congratulations to Paul Coker, new sports editor, and the new staff.—Johnny Moffett.

Jones-Collins Begin 8th Year

Coach Wilson Collins and Coach Sam Jones have been re-elected to serve as heads of the athletic department at Knoxville high school for another term. This was announced, unanimously, at the regular meeting Monday evening.

This will mark the beginning of the eighth year for Coach Collins, and he has continuously turned out winning football, basketball, and other sporting teams at K. H. S. Coach Jones tutored the Blue and White track team through a successful season this year. His delegation captured the State championship at Nashville, the East Tennessee cup, and various other meets. In every event they emerged with a victory over the other schools.

Jones and Collins is an unequalled coaching combination for a high school. The past year will well be remembered as the year the Trojan football team, under these two able sportsmen, gained national laurels by laying their claims to the National championship.

Winning teams will no doubt continue to be produced as long as the Jones-Collins regime is anchored at Knoxville high school. Much credit must be given to the assistant and "B" team coaches, Johnny Walker and Jimmy Holland. These two football tutors were also retained by the Board of Education.

Elsie Schumaker is "nuts" about Earl Goforth.

Club Studies Influence of Motion Pictures.

During the past term the Knoxville high school Torch club has engaged in many varied activities.

Two parties have been given this semester. The club has made a special study of the influence (good and bad) of the motion pictures. Other activities included charitable work and assistance to benevolent organizations such as the Y.M.C.A.

George Childs has served as president of the group since the January election. R. O. Biggs, instructor in the social science department of K. H. S., is faculty adviser of the organization.

Strong Slate Faces Trojan Gridiron Team

Many Strong Elevens Will Play Collins' Team During 1934 Campaign.

LOSE BACKFIELD STARS

Blue and White Game, Played Last Wednesday, Ends In 6-6 Tie.

Under the leadership of Captain Bill Badgett, the Knoxville high school football clan faces a difficult slate when it returns to school in September. With such strong elevens on their schedule as Newport, Kentucky, Louisville Male high, Asheville, N. C., Morristown, and Coach Quinn Decker's Central Bobcats, the Trojan gridders realize that they must hit their stride early to survive the season undefeated.

Last season Coaches Wilson Collins and Sam "Gentleman" Jones, the football squad, and Knoxville high school gained nation-wide recognition as National Champions. Next season the Blue and White team will endeavor to retain this honorable title. They are not only planning to achieve this but hope to go through another campaign undefeated.

In the annual Blue and White game, which was played last Wednesday, the game ended in a 6-6 deadlock. A very heated battle was played throughout the game.

SPORT DOPE

Trojan's Thrilling 9-6 Win Over Central 'Cats Recalled

By Johnny Moffett

Do you remember last November 25, a very memorable day in the eyes of the 1933 football team?—Do you recall what was at stake for the Trojan gridders in this game against the Central Bobcats?—Was that colorful game going to end in a 6-6 deadlock and shatter the Trojan's remarkable record?

No one knew the answer to these questions until Mr. Fenton "Goo" White, the mite quarterback, kicked that much gossiped about field goal to defeat our ancient grid rivals, the Bobcats.

To me, like many others, this was the greatest thrill of the entire year of athletics, including all sports.

From rumors and well based reports, Central high is expecting a greater team this year and is "out to beat the Trojans". We admire this spirit. But we are still hoping that the K. H. S. gridders take County "like Grant took Richmond".

TWO GREATEST SPORTS!

If you don't already know them—may I have the pleasure of introducing them?

Coach Collins—One of the greatest coaches in the country and a builder of character as well as athletes. Since his reign at Knoxville high, winning teams have been consistently produced. It seems that a certain relation exists between him and the boys which is essential to develop teams like the 1933 National Champions and all other great combinations in his eight years at K. H. S. Mr. Collins has tutored many football stars who are now the highlights of that sport in this section. He is always overjoyed to help anyone, either to better his character or to add to his comfort.

Coach Jones—The smartest line-coach in any high school of the nation. Not only does he excel in football, but has always coached the Blue and White track team through a successful season. Like Collins, he delights in helping others and aims toward building the boys of today for better men of tomorrow. When appearing in chapel, the students are sure to hear a new joke. This jolly and humorous air is always with him.

Trojan Aquatic Team May Compete With CHS Soon

With its first defeat of the season in the meet with McCallie, the Trojan aquatic team is prepared for a victory over the Knoxville Central swimmers, provided arrangements for a meet are successful.

Negotiations for a meet have not been completed but will be terminated soon. If the meet is arranged, all swimmers for the K. H. S. squad will probably be entered in the contest.

In the McCallie—K. H. S. meet, the score was 38-29. A summary of the meet follows:

- 50 yard freestyle—Rimmer (M) first, Rogers (K) second.
- 100 yard freestyle—Rimmer (M) first, Waters (K) second.
- 200 yard free style—Waters (K) first, Shepard (M) second.
- 100 yard freestyle relay—McCallie, first; K. H. S., second.

150 yard medley relay—McCallie, first; K. H. S., second.

100 yard breaststroke—Gleeson (K) first, Peek (M) second.

Diving—Gar (M) first, Elmore (K) second.

50 yard breaststroke—Ackerman (M) first, Keys (K) second.

Course In Retail Selling Installed

Aim To Help Students Interested In That Work.

To provide students who are interested in selling more training of that type, and to prepare them for positions that they are interested in, a new course in cooperative retail selling is being started next fall and applications are being taken now for the course. The course is a phrase of the Vocational educational program of the city.

This course is open to eleventh year students. It will last for two years, and during the second year, the students will be placed in stores for three hours a day and on Saturdays for practical experience.

The course is the only cooperative retail selling course in the state. A. S. Zoerb, state supervisor of trade and industrial education, has just been in Knoxville and approved of the final plans of the course.

Miss Lucile Lortscher, a graduate of Simmon's college, Boston, and Prince school for store service education, will teach the course.

GRADUATES — We Congratulate You!

Today, as never before, the entire world is on the verge of a tremendous era of development along many lines. Out of the rapidly passing depression have come new ideas and ideals which are destined to play a dominant role in the creation of a super-civilization based upon fundamental principles of liberty and justice for all. This goal will not be attained, however, without a struggle. The results of this struggle will in a large measure depend upon the high school students of today who will be the citizens of tomorrow. Some will be leaders—others will be followers, but all will, in some measure, be capable of influencing the trend of events. The high school seniors of the present are to be congratulated upon the opportunities for service which awaits them in the future. Wealth and power are difficult to acquire, but the development of a spirit of high-minded social idealism and the attainment of an attitude of civic responsibility is a matter which is within the power of every individual. Let each of you, then, strive to do your best for the ultimate good of society as a whole and through it for the good of the individual citizen.

We, the Citizens of Today, Offer Our Congratulations to You, the Citizens of Tomorrow.

Course In Retail Selling Installed

Aim To Help Students Interested In That Work.

To provide students who are interested in selling more training of that type, and to prepare them for positions that they are interested in, a new course in cooperative retail selling is being started next fall and applications are being taken now for the course. The course is a phrase of the Vocational educational program of the city.

This course is open to eleventh year students. It will last for two years, and during the second year, the students will be placed in stores for three hours a day and on Saturdays for practical experience.

The course is the only cooperative retail selling course in the state. A. S. Zoerb, state supervisor of trade and industrial education, has just been in Knoxville and approved of the final plans of the course.

Miss Lucile Lortscher, a graduate of Simmon's college, Boston, and Prince school for store service education, will teach the course.

GRADUATES — We Congratulate You!

Today, as never before, the entire world is on the verge of a tremendous era of development along many lines. Out of the rapidly passing depression have come new ideas and ideals which are destined to play a dominant role in the creation of a super-civilization based upon fundamental principles of liberty and justice for all. This goal will not be attained, however, without a struggle. The results of this struggle will in a large measure depend upon the high school students of today who will be the citizens of tomorrow. Some will be leaders—others will be followers, but all will, in some measure, be capable of influencing the trend of events. The high school seniors of the present are to be congratulated upon the opportunities for service which awaits them in the future. Wealth and power are difficult to acquire, but the development of a spirit of high-minded social idealism and the attainment of an attitude of civic responsibility is a matter which is within the power of every individual. Let each of you, then, strive to do your best for the ultimate good of society as a whole and through it for the good of the individual citizen.

We, the Citizens of Today, Offer Our Congratulations to You, the Citizens of Tomorrow.
