Hi-Y Act Is Most Popular At Joyland

Girl Reserves Win Judges' Decision and Tie for Second In Popularity.

At the annual Joyland of K. H. S. Wednesday, December 2, at 8 o'clock, the first prize of five dollars awarded as the popular prize for the best stunt was given to the Hi-Y, and the second prize of $2.50 was a tie between the Girls' Gym classes and the Girl Reserves. They will each receive a prize of $2.50. The first prize of $5 awarded as the judges' prize for the best stunt, was won by the Junior Girl Reserves.

Containing a cast of one hundred fifty persons, Joyland was attended for the price of twenty-five cents. The proceeds will be given to further the success of extra-curricular activities.

Clubs and the stunts that they presented are: Blue and White—"Stair Dance"; Jr. Girl Reserves—"The Fatal Quest"; Hi-Y—"Introduction to Culture"; Student Council—"Wild Nell, the Pet of the Plains" (burlesque); Commercial—"Why Some Students Can't Learn" (burlesque); Sketch club — "An Eski-Romance" (burlesque).

Besides the clubs' stunts, there was a character sketch, "Old Black Joe", given by the high school

Directors For Senior Class Of '36A

Miss Parker Wins In Design Contest

Miss Virginia Parker, head of the K. H. S. art department, has been awarded first prize for her excellent design which she made during her eight weeks course at the Traphagen School of Design in New York.

The design is an all over pattern on a white background with the English rose, Scotch thistle, Irish harp, and the Welsh three feathers. It is one-half inch large to be used on cotton for children under 12 years of age. The design was created in honor of the coronation of King Edward VIII.

During her eight weeks course in New York, Miss Parker also studied textiles and sketching.

Mrs. Rice Places Poem In Anthology

A sonnet written by Mrs. Emma Lee Rice, retired K. H. S. teacher, was included in a salutory anthology, "Golden Jubilee", published in connection with the fiftieth anniversary of the Statue of Liberty dedication.

Mrs. Rice, who has been satisfying a desire to write since her retirement from Knoxville high school two years ago, also wrote a poem entitled "Night", published recently in the magazine Blue Moon.

Another of her poems, "Nude Descending the Stair", which she wrote after seeing a painting by that name at the Knoxville Penwomen's meeting and won the club's prize for poetry, is included in a forthcoming book of art criticism.

The Statue of Liberty sonnet, "A Homing Bird", was one of the 50 on the theme selected for the volume from more than a thousand in an invited competition.

Mrs. Rice is the only Tennessean represented in the anthology.

Thespian Troup Will Begin School Tour

To Present 'Not Quite A Goose', and 'Marrying Belinda'.

Taking two one-act plays, the K. H. S. Thespian troup will begin a tour tonight of at least three county schools and institutions. Tonight they will journey to Ramsey school on Straw Plains pike; Saturday, to Ball Camp school; and on Monday night, the players will present the plays at the John Tarleton Institute. The latter will be a gratis performance.

The plays to be presented are "Not Quite Such a Goose" and "Marrying Belenda". Taking part in the first play are Vera Yon,

PTA Contest Won By Whaling's Group

Miss Elizabeth Whaling's group is the winner of the football contest sponsored by the Knoxville high school P. T. A. for the past two months. Her group won with a total of 26 members. Miss Mary Beard's group had the next highest percentage with a total of 26 members. Miss Beard's group is also the winner of the prize for Tuesday, having brought in eleven members in one day.

Although the two highest groups were "Reds", the "Blues" really won the contest. The Blues, the upper classmen, had a total of 197 members and the Reds, the lower classmen, 191, making a grand total of 388, which is twelve less than the P. T. A. expected.

Louise Michaels, Ruby Pitkin, Bailey Win Book-Week Contest

Jack Bailey, 11B, Louise Michaels, 11A, and Ruby Pitkin, 11B, were announced winners among the 125 who entered the Book Week contests held last week.

In the checker-moves contest to find short story writers and writers of sea stories, Jack won first place and was rewarded with a book.

Louise handed in the first correct solution to the picture contest, "How Many of These Books Do You Know?" but since Ruby later handed in another correct solution, each received a book.

Others who handed in solutions with few errors were Betty Sisk, Pollyanna Creekmore, Bernard Rubel, Margaret Sanders, Betty Ann Miller, and J. B. Wrinkle.

The solutions for the contests were:

Checker-move contest: Short story writers—Hawthorne, Porter, Harris, Irving, Poe, Harte; Sea stories writers — Melville, Dana, Conrad, Stevenson, Kipling, and Cooper.

Picture contest, "How many of These Books Do You Know?":

Smoky — James; The Pilot—Cooper; Boots and Saddles—Custer; Green Mansions — Hudson; Shadow of the Sword—Daniel; Waterless Mountain—Armer; The Shuttle — Burnett; Firecracker Land—Ascough; Log Cabin Lady—Anonymous; Black Arrow—Stevenson; Seventeen — Tarkington; Drums — Boyd; Red Rock—Page; Merrylips — Dix; Ivanhoe—Scott; Nobody's Boy—Malot; Covered Wagon — Hough; Kentucky Cardinal—Allen; Bowlful of Stars—Means; Men Against the Sea—Nordhoff and Hall; Bridge of San Luis Rey—Wilder; A Lantern in Her Hand—Aldrich; Penrod—Tarkington; Parnassus on Wheels—Morley.

S. C. Election Is December 14

Lower Class Petitions Due in by December 8.

All students desiring to run for the election to the K. H. S. Student Council are urged by Miss Helen Galbreath, adviser, to get their petitions as soon as possible since the upper class petitions are due today, and those of the lower class must be turned in by Tuesday, December 8.

The primary will be held Monday, December 14.

To be eligible for election, a student must have at least a C plus average, one period vacant for council work, no after school employment, and have a petition signed by twenty-five members of the candidate's own class.

By recent amendments of the S. C. the president must be a 12A boy who has had former experience on a major committee as an 11A or 12B.

The boys eligible for president are C. F. Fielden, Arthur Peterson, Jack Saylor, and Kenneth Hatcher.

Play Rehearsals Start December 7

Regular senior class play rehearsals of "The Cuckoo's Nest", are to begin Monday, December 7, O. E. Sams has announced.

Work will be every Tuesday, Thursday, and Friday.

The play is to be given Monday and Tuesday nights, January 25 and 26.

All of the characters have been instructed to know the lines of the first act for the rehearsal Monday.

" 'The Cuckoo's Nest' is a good play and a great deal is to be expected from the cast," stated Mr. Sams.

Admission will be 35c.

Senior Plans Announced By Directors

Activities Include Banquet and Dance at Cherokee Club, January 22.

Class directors of the 36A class have decided the following definite dates for the graduation exercises:

Thursday, January 21, tests will be given during the even periods.

Friday, January 22, tests will be given during the odd periods, and Friday night the banquet and dance will be held at the Cherokee Country club.

Saturday, January 23, there will be a dress rehearsal for the senior play.

Sunday, January 24, the Baccalaureate sermon will be given.

On Monday and Tuesday nights, January 25 and 26, the senior play will be presented and on Wednesday, January 27, the final commencement exercises will be given.

Child Care Class To Repair Toys

As Christmas draws near, the child care class under the supervision of Miss Lucy Goddard, is beginning to gather up old or injured toys and are making preparations for mending them. Each year the home economics department gathers toys from students of Knoxville high and also from the News-Sentinel collection.

The toys are mended and painted and given to the underprivileged children of the various Knoxville nursery schools.

Students are urged to bring any old toys to their group teacher or to Room 119. These toys are the only Christmas that these children will have, and it takes so little time to bring the toys.

Miss Goddard asks that all students cooperate with the school in helping to give these children a real Christmas.

HS GRADUATE HONORED AT HIWASSEE COLLEGE

Alvin Joiner, a graduate of Knoxville high school, has been awarded a place in the Hiwassee College Hall of Fame.

This honor was given to him as a result of his outstanding activities since he entered the school.

He is president of Student Council, and an officer in several clubs. He captained the football team this season and has made quite a reputation for himself in other athletic organizatoins.

Excellent Joyland — Noisy Audience!

Before a rather loud, illmannered, and inconsiderate audience, a group of Knoxville high school clubs and students, under the direction of Charles Martin, presented one of the best Joyland programs ever presented in the event's history, Wednesday evening.

Time and time again the audible noises from persons in the audience interferred with the smooth progress of the production and prevented other members of the audience from hearing the lines spoken by the players.

It was quite noticeable that the uproar developed in the audience detracted the players and caused the acts to be not nearly so entertaining as they might have been.

The misconduct on the part of the audience was no fault of the players. The program began on time and was kept moving with one entertaining act after another.

O. E. Sams made an excellent job of announcing the acts, appearing each time in a different comical "get-up".

Undoubtedly, the most outstanding and funniest act on the entire program, was presented by the faculty, who gave a "take-off" on the old time school house.

LATE AGAIN?

To have people arrive promptly at parties, dances, dinners, etc., or to have people be punctual in keeping appointments or dates has become quite a problem with the younger set of this community, and in many cases among the older people.

So often we hear people repeat such phrases are, "The banquet is to be at 7:30 so tell him 7 o'clock so that he will be there on time", or "I'm not really going by until 8 o'clock,—I just told her 7:30, so that she would be ready on time for once!"

People seem to have lost all conception of the value of time and the value of punctuality.

Many a potentionally good event of entertainment or of educational value has been marred by a number of the persons attending the event being too careless about their punctuality and stringing into the theater, ballroom, or auditorium at all hours. Such a trick not only causes a delay in beginning the program and the tiring of many persons waiting for the majority of the crowd to arrive, but it is also most annoying to have a number of "late comers" disturbing the program with their incessant clamoring to their seats in the place of amusement.

Many people seem to consider it quite stylish to be always late for a date or appointment, and continually make a practice of what they consider such a fashionable fad. Such a practice, however, is quite the contrary from being stylish, fashionable or well mannered; in fact, such an act is very poor etiquette.

If being late is absolutely unavoidable the offending person should, at least, express his regrets to the offended.

There are those persons whose time is so limited that the delay of ten or fifteen minutes is quite serious to their schedule of business and recreation. Consideration for such a person should be made, and never should they be the victim of some childish fad of the "never on time" fanatic.

In a modern civilization in which things move with speed and punctuality, as does the present civilization, the realization of time and its value should be of vital importance to men, women, and children. After all "Time waits for no man".

SLY SUNDAY MOVIES

Knoxville theaters are presenting a series of Sunday movies. Each Sabbath one of the uptown theaters is offering a full program on the screen and escaping the penalty of Knoxville's law against Sunday movies by giving the proceeds to charity.

Are not the evils of a Sunday movie, if there are any evils to Sunday movies, just as great no matter what purpose the proceeds might be used towards?

FLOWERS FOR THE LOSERS

Football fans of the Knoxville high school are to be complimented in taking the bitter defeat from County high school in the commendable way in which they did.

The conduct of the fans as a whole was an improvement over the conduct experienced at previous gridiron contests between these two high-spirited and traditionally rival schools.

Trilly Says--

By Trilly the Trilobite

Of course, you've noticed the assortment of colors in the leaves this fall, and if you were at the last DeMolay dance, you must have noticed that there was just such an array of color found in the dresses of the girls on the floor. As I wandered aimlessly through the crowd, I saw a very lovely brunette by the name of KATE LYNN BARKLEY, in a rust colored satin dress. As the music started, I noticed two complete stag lines. Upon investigating, I saw that one led to MILDRED POLK, and the other to RUTH LONG. Both girls wore green taffeta that was just the shade of the evergreens at this time of year. As I turned around something very dazzling caught my eye. It was the very lovely gold brocaded satin dress of LaVERNE PIPER. I glanced across the dance floor toward the spotlight and saw another girl in gold. It was none other than the charming little JEANE BROTHER. When the music stopped again, I glanced down at my partner and who should I be dancing with but MICKEY SIMPSON in beautiful red chiffon. I looked across my shoulder and saw my best friend talking to TUBBY WORD who was in red satin. As my eyes traveled from face to face, I spied JANE ADAMS dressed in blue and wearing red flowers in her hair. She was talking very sweetly to a boy who was melting completely away!

Just before intermission, I hit upon the idea of taking note of all the girls who wore white. (Happens to be my favorite color for girls.) I first noticed MURIEL CLARK looking quite exotic in white satin; the only touch of color given to her dress was a green velvet belt. Second, I saw FAY GRIFFIN, clad in a very striking white dress cut in Grecian lines. Then MARGIE ELGIN, in a white dress with gold dots in it, rushed past me with two boys tagging at her heels.

"At this time, there will be a short intermission," sang out the band leader. Oh goodness! just my luck—

I stood outside watching the girls go out with their dates. I just had to catch my breath when I saw one of the most charming girls I ever laid eyes on. It was INEZ CLAYTON, in a very pale blue dress embroidered in gold. And following closely was CATHERINE DAUGHERTY looking serenely lovely in blue satin. Then I saw two pretty little blondes wearing wine colored crepe and velvet — DOROTHY MONTGOMERY and BETTY MARTIN. I started to leave but then a whole splash of color caught my eye and BARBARA BROWN appeared in a chiffon dress of many shades.

After intermission, I was looking around and had stooped down to tie my shoe. As I started to get up, I spied a black dress with bright colored stripes around the hem. My eyes traveled upwards and who should be the owner of this gypsy affair but NOREENE POWERS! While the fifth no-break was in progress I stood by the orchestra watching the people glide past. BETTY HILANDS and tiny MARGARET PORTWOOD looked very charming in black satin as they looked dreamily into the faces of the boys they were dancing with.

I waited 'til after the rush and happened to see a very lovely girl in black velvet. I didn't even have to see her face to know that it was MARGARET MOORE. Her beautiful flaxen hair was set in a row of gardenias arranged in a halo effect across the top of her head. —Yes, it was a wonderful dance.

Bobcats Swamp City Eleven For 21-6 Win

Selby and Griffith Lead Offensive Attack—West and Graves Defensive.

LUTTRELL SHINES

Trojan Captain Gives Great Exhibition Against Bobcats—Butler Scores.

Before a record crowd of 15,000 frenzied fans, Central high school's powerful undefeated and untied football machine rolled over a light Knoxville high eleven 21-6, last Saturday afternoon on Shield-Watkins field to capture the city championship for two straight years.

A break, which enabled Central to score her first touchdown in the opening minutes of play when Stallings seized Johnny Butler's fumble in mid air and raced forty-four yards for the tally, led the rout that was ended by the whistle at the half and resumed in the third and fourth quarters.

It was the ever-dangerous Charlie Selby, quarterback, and "Jumping" Jay Griffith, sensational fullback, that led the offensive threats for the Bobcats, and the entire Central line led by Whaley, West, and Graves that completely bottled up the fleet Trojan backs with their terrific blocking and tackling, that gave the Bobcats a rightful claim to the city championship for two years in succession.

"Flash" Butler scored the Trojan marker on a smash through the center of the Bobcat forward wall from the four yard line. Captain Bill Luttrell, although out of his head for a part of the game, led the Trojan linemen in their unsuccessful attack against the Bobcats.

The lineup was:

Central	Pos.	Knoxville
Whaley	L.E.	Alley
West	L.T.	Luttrell (C)
Suffridge (C)	L.G.	Tipton
Wilhite	C.	Johnson
Graves	R.G.	Yon
Stallings	R.T.	Hendricks
Mathis	R.E.	Partredge
Selby	Q.B.	Broome
Bailes	L.H.	Butler
Payne	R.H.	Martin
Griffith	F.B.	Randles

Girls Present Skit In Annual Joyland

The girls' physical education folk dance classes presented a very clever skit, entitled "Rhythm on the Farm", in K .H. S. Joyland Wednesday night.

The skit consisted of character dances as follows: Uncle Ezra, Cleo Brakebill; School Days, Louise Chesney and Bonnie Ford; Scarecrow dance, Ruth Dobbs and Beulah Barker; Ole Dobbin, Teresa Brichetto and Sara Colvin; and the Hill-Billy chorus composed of B. Newman, M. McDermott, C. Vaughn, A. Hodges, T. Stallings, B. K. Fielden, A. Jordan, A. Brehm, B. J. Felix, J. Neiman, M. R. Bibb accompanied the girls on the piano.

SPORT DOPE

Cats Win Traditional Battle; Losers Face Miami In Finale

By Fred Owens

Central high school's amazingly powerful Bobcats smashed the inspirational hopes of Knoxville high's Trojans of an undefeated season last Saturday afternoon on Shield-Watkins field. With this hope goes the state, southern, and national claims of the Trojans, who had established themselves as outstanding contenders for these honors.

Fred Owens

It was the unusually powerful Central eleven led by Charlie Selby and Jay Griffith in the backfield and Cy Whaley and West in the line that sent the Red and Black colors to the top and stopped passing and running threats of the Trojans time after time.

Never before has Central given such an outstanding exhibition of football ability. The blocking and tackling was on par with that of a college eleven, making possible the huge holes in the Trojan forward wall and giving the backfield stars only one problem—that of eluding the secondary after once being in the open.

MIAMI TOUGH

With a record of ten victories and only one defeat, Knoxville's still determined Trojans bid farewell to the 1936 season after tomorrow's tilt with the strong Miami high eleven in the Florida city.

Miami boasts of an outstanding grid eleven, and has captured the city championship in Miami for the last fifteen years. They have been idle since Thanksgiving Day, when with a desperate final quarter rally, pulled the game from a scoreless tie into a 7-0 victory over Boys' high of Atlanta, for years one of the strongest high school teams in the South.

TROJAN HIGHLIGHTS

"Smiley" Martin's long unsuccessful dash to catch the flying "Bee" Stallings after he had taken a Trojan fumble in mid-air, sent the Trojan backers to their feet with plenty of yells for the popular athlete.

Captain Bill Luttrell's tackle of "Red" Bailes, fleet Bobcat back, which incidentally knocked both players sky high, was the hardest of the game.

Tony Carper's determined efforts to put the Trojans back into the game cannot easily be overlooked. He was playing one of the finest games of his career, considering the blocking he was given during the running plays.

Dave Tipton, although outweighed considerably by his opponent across the line, played one of the finest games of his career.

Tony Randles played his heart out in an effort to give the Trojans a victory. Thanks a million, Tony.

Well, here's best of luck against Miami tomorrow.

Money To Be Raised For Municipal Pool

Under the direction of Knoxville Exchange club, a campaign has been started to raise $17,000 and the remaining $42,000 will be supplied by the government for the building of a municipal swimming pool.

K. H. S.'s part is to be raised by the sale of tickets, which have been issued to all P. T. A. groups. Tickets, good for a free swim in the pool after its completion in the summer of 1937, will sell for twenty-five cents.

The P. T. A. will receive 10% of the money. The boy and girl from each school who sells the most tickets will receive a season ticket. Ira Stineman is sponsoring the sale of tickets in K. H. S.

ALL SCHOOL TEAMS CHOSEN BY COACHES

After a poll of the coaches of the five intramural football teams of Knoxville high school, the following first and second all school teams were chosen:

1st Team	Pos.	2nd Team
Bevins, A	L.E.	Adams, A
Brown, A	L.T.	Workman, N
Jones, B	L.G.	Hinderlight, C
Taux, D	C.	Monday, A
Stover, N	R.G.	Sheckles, N
McConnell, C	R.T.	Stair, B
Phippes, D	R.E.	Smith, J., B
Fritts, N	Q.B.	Emory, D
Reagan, A	H.B.	Crisp, N
Clendennen, C.	H.B.	Walker, A
Kidwell, B	F.B.	Hamilton, C

NOTICE

Girls in K. H. S. who are unable to attend the meetings of the swimming club on Wednesday afternoons, but want to pass one of the three tests—beginners, intermediate, or advanced — please see Miss Beatrice Mathers at the Y. W. C. A. and make arrangements to pass them.

Company Team Defeats Halls

Gillenwater Leads High School Champs in Win Over Hall's High.

After defeating Non-Company 6-0 to win the Knoxville high school championship, Company A defeated Hall's high school Wednesday, November 18, on the Hall's field.

A Company scored early in the first quarter when Gillenwater went off tackle for 20 yards and a touchdown. Ragain converted. The military gridders tallied again a few minutes later when Gillenwater intercepted a pass and marked up six more points.

The final A Company score came in the last minute of the first quarter when Gillenwater again intercepted a Hall's pass and followed behind perfect interference for another touchdown.

Hall's only score came in the second quarter on a completed pass to Wagner, who ran thirty yards for a touchdown.

Outstanding in the A Company line was Captain Bevins, Brown, and Monday, who was hurt in the third quarter.

Coach Mullendore, who directed the championship team, was pleased with the year's work.

Betty Chambers was at the Booth with Doug Lovejoy last Friday night. Is it serious, Betty?

Strong Miami Eleven Seeks Important Win

Hold Victory Over Boys' High of Atlanta — Will Have Weight Advantage.

TROJANS PREPARED

Captain Luttrell To Lead Team in Final Clash of the Season.

Knoxville high school's Trojans, smarting under their first defeat of the year, clash with the Miami high Stingarees in the final game of the season tomorrow afternoon in the Florida city.

The Trojans, twenty-six strong, boarded the train early Thursday morning for Miami, where they will practice this afternoon in their final preparation for the game. The squad is in fine physical condition with the exception of Larry Partredge and Len Broughton. Both have shoulder injuries which may keep them out of the game.

Miami boasts of an eleven that is capable of defeating any major high school team in the South. They have been idle since Thanksgiving Day when they defeated a strong Boys' high eleven from Atlanta, 7-0. Boys' high had started the battle heavy favorites with a record of thirty-seven consecutive victories.

Probable line-ups:

Knoxville	Pos.	Miami
Alley	L.E.	Clark
Luttrell (C)	L.T.	Peckerson
Tipton	L.G.	De Fresse
Johnson	C.	Webb
Yon	R.G.	Huck
Standridge	R.T.	McCanley
Long	R.E.	Bond
Broome	Q.B.	Miller
Butler	L.H.	Greer
Martin	R.H.	Crouch
Randles	F.B.	Goree

Society and Clubs

By MARGARET PORTWOOD

QUILL and Scroll had a banquet for the new members Wednesday night, November 25, at the Fifth Avenue tea room. Everyone joined in on "The Martins and the Coys" and a general conversation with everyone for his own joke was prevalent.

Otis Caldwell, associate editor of the Blue and White, told of his recent visit to the Southern Interscholastic Press Association at Lexington, Virginia.

"Among the speakers," he said, "was Raymond Clapper, the distinguished Washington political columnist for Scripps-Howard Newspaper Alliance; Edward S. Stauley, the executive assistant of the Associated Press, New York; Dr. Francis P. Garvies, President of the Washington and Lee University, and A. A. Lubersky, vice-president and an expert on year books."

"We visited Natural Bridge and there was also a nice banquet and after it a reception and dance. The trip was well worth the time," stated Otis.

The new members are Helen Bales, Mary Ruth Bibb, Henrietta Bowman, Sam Fincannon, Martha King, Thelma McGhee, Ed Mitchell, Christine Monday, Edwine Powers, and Barbara Rule. As each new member was presented Jeane Bourne read a verse about him, composed by Betty Dafferner.

After the banquet those present saw "Three Married Men" as guests of the Riviera theatre.

Carlos Campbell Speaks In Chapel

During lower class chapel Tuesday, Carlos Campbell of the conservation corporation of the Great Smoky Mountains spoke to the students on their need for knowing the great Smoky Mountains better.

"The next three or four months is a most opportune time to visit the mountains. You can see things you couldn't ordinarily see because of the leaves on the trees," Mr. Campbell said.

Mr. Campbell challenged each student to match his strength against that of the mountains and the elements, and invited them to visit the mountains that are so near.

Mr. Campbell stated that it was due to the leadership and sacrifices of Colonel David C. Chapman, a Knoxville man, that these mountains were turned into a national park.

The Federal government has made roads, trails and camps to enable tourists to see the mountains with more ease.

Mr. Campbell read Hamlin Garland's poem, "Do You Fear?" and Blanche Howlett's "Nature's Church" that fitted his subject.

The last impression given by Mr. Campbell was that Knoxville should be awake to the fact that it is the "Gateway to the Great Smoky Mountains National Park".

Ruth Word, senior, and Joe Marks, 12B student, played a piano duet entitled Greig's Concerto.

McHarge Leads Chattanooga Band

When the military band of Chattanooga City high heads a parade and struts for the honor of the school, a former K. H. S. boy is leading the band and tossing the baton. The much admired drum major is James McHarge, who attended Knoxville high until this term.

James moved to the rival city this summer, and though he made it plain that he "hated to go", he has made quite a name for himself among his new school mates. When he first joined the band, he was appointed first sergeant and given a squad of girl bandsters to drill, and that, James would tell his Knoxville friends, "is something new to me!" A few weeks later he was appointed drum major.

James is also the new president of the C. H. S. Senior Hi-Y. During fall football practice, he was given a position on the second string though he decided later not to play.

Patricia Whitmore who attended K. H. S. last year and wrote "Society and Clubs" for the Blue and White, is also a C. H. S. student. She is writing a similar column for the Chattanooga high paper.

Miami Rated High In South

By Wlfred Gillenwater

Although defeated three times this year, the Blue and Gold of Miami high school is rated as one of the strongest teams in the South as a result of their 7-0 victory over the highly touted Boys' high of Atlanta. The game will start at 3 p. m. in the beautiful Miami stadium.

Several replacements have been made in the Miami lineup which have proved valuable to the cause of the Blue and Gold. At right end will be Watkins replacing Shrader. Tim played a magnificent defensive game against the Atlanta team. At the other end is the all Florida state end, Lefty Schemer, who is a standout in all departments. The bulwarks of the line all season have been Pat Patterson, center, and Phil Rothar, tackle.

The sensation of the year is 139 pound Frankie Rentz who replaced Stebbins at left half. The backfield ace runs with surprising ease and adds to this threat by constantly hurling accurate passes on the run. Leading interference for Rentz will be McCall at full, who replaces Reid.

Students Express Thanks At Chapel

During a special Thanksgiving chapel of the juniors and seniors last Wednesday, nine students, representatives of the student body, expressed their thanks for various phrases of American life. Taking part were Ed Mitchell, Dick Evans, James Martin, Joe Woodruff, John Lea, Bob Clagett, Sara McSpadden, Julia Freels, and Catherine Daugherty.

Miss Evangeline Walker, teacher at Boyd Jr. high, played on a harp. A short talk was given by Coach Wilson Collins, preceded by cheers led by the yell leaders.

Ed Hamilton led the group in the school songs.

Thespians Sponsor Junior High Contest

Thespians are sponsoring the first Knoxville one-act junior high school play contest which is to be given in the high school auditorium Saturday, December 12, at 2 o'clock.

The two main rules of this contest call for non-royalty plays, and states that the presentation must not be over half hour in length.

The three schools entered are Rule Jr., Christenberry, and Boyd Jr.

Competent judges are to judge the plays. There will be a small admission fee of 10c which will pay for the use of the building.

And isn't Ed Daugherty the grandest dancer?

Civics Class Gives Today's Radio Program

Theme of Broadcast Will Be How The Tax Dollar Is Spent.

K. H. S. radio programs for this week were conducted by O. E. Sams of the English department, Miss Rebecca Winters of the Home Economics department, and Bill Smyth, of the social science department.

The Masquers club, under the direction of O. E. Sams, gave a dramatization of Longfellow's "Courtship of Miles Standish" on Monday's broadcast. The part of Priscilla was played by Eve Williams. Miles Standish was played by Ellis Mayes and John Lea took the part of John Alden. Llewellen Queener played the messenger. Incidental music during the play was furnished by violinist Mack Blackburn accompanied by Alice Bounds at the piano. These musicians gave two special numbers during the program.

Opal Scott, announcer for the home economics broadcast Wednesday, is one of the four girls who wrote the play given on their program. It consisted of two skits, the first, an old fashioned kitchen; the second, a modern kitchen. Helen Evans, Eileen Leake, Opal Scott, and Bernice Bright took part in the play. Anne Moore recited a poem and Alice Bounds added to the entertainment by playing the piano.

Bill Smyth's 9A civics classes have charge of today's program. The theme of the broadcast will be how the tax dollar is spent. Those taking part are: George Hines, Billy Hodges; Margaret Carmon, Margaret Sanders, Eugenia Duff, Ruth Morris, Paul McCammon, Eleanor Reigal, and Joe Phillips. George Hendricks entertained by singing a solo.

"Shakespeare" will be the topic of the radio program for Monday, December 7, conducted by the English department under the supervision of Miss Emma Becton.

Those taking part are: Marianna Allen and Lois Ann Inman who will sing "Who Is Sylvia", "Golden Slumbers", and "I Know a Bank".

David Trotter will give Shakespeare's life, C. F. Fielden will give his six tragedies, and Margaret Portwood will give some "Modern Expressions in Shakespeare". Norene Powers will tell about "The Folger Library", and Anne Able will give some of the sonnets.

Joe Marks is to play, "Quartet from Rigeletto" by Listz.
