S. B. Parker Is Attending Radio Meet

Delegates Will Meet in Washington For Three Day Discussion.

FAN-MAIL IN EXHIBIT

Conference On Educational Broadcasting is First of Kind To Be Held.

S. B. Parker, mathematics teacher, left Wednesday for the First National Conference on Educational Broadcasting, which is meeting in Washington, D. C., Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, December 10-12. Delegates will stay at the Mayflower Hotel.

Mr. Parker took several copies of the script used in former K. H. S. radio programs with him. Included in this collection are full copies of programs presented by the clubs of the school and the English, science, social science, home economics, and mathematics departments.

To the exhibit he also added some of the fan-mail which he has received from school officials, parents, radio employees, and former K. H. S. students.

A formal banquet will be held at the hotel on Friday evening at 7 o'clock. There will be an exhibit of all available printed material on educational broadcasting. Groups wishing to hold special committee meetings may secure private conference rooms at the hotel.

This conference is the first of its kind ever to be held. Although the broadcasters and educators alike agree that some promising efforts have been made toward radio development but that much remains to be done in this field, and these delegates are the ones who wil see what advancement is made.

Hi-Y Congress To Meet Here

After some campaigning by certain Knoxville high school Hi-Y members, it was announced last Saturday at the 1936 East Tennessee Older Boys' conference, held in Morristown, that the state Hi-Y Congress will come to Knoxville in March. The exact date of the gathering will be announced later.

The congress will probably be held over a week-end with the delegates being entertained by the members of the Hi-Y and the Girl Reserves. On the adult committee are James H. Pless, traveling secretary for the state Y. M. C. A., and B. Frank Vincent, boys' work secretary of the local Y.

This will be the first time a state congress has been held in Tennessee. The members responsible have been working since June when the First National Hi-Y Congress was held in Berea, Kentucky.

'Poll Of Opinion' In Blue & White

Streamer "Box Car" headlines and "rapid fire" radio commentators have brought us the long awaited news that King Edward has abdicated.

See what students and instructors of the Knoxville high school thought about the situation before the king rendered his decision by reading the "K. H. S. Poll Of Opinion", a new feature of this publication, on page 2 of today's Blue and White. Also read an editorial written on the crisis before the decision was made. It's entitled "Title or Love". It also appears on page 2.

Seniors Make Final Plans

Prophecies, Class Will, Testaments, Songs, Must Be in December 21.

Definite dates have been set for practically all the senior classes closing activities. All seniors writing prophecies, class will, testaments, and songs must turn them into senior class directors. Lorraine Gentry, Ruth Word, Dick Evans, John Lea, and Wesley Brown, who, with the assistance of Elvin Bryant, the senior class adviser, will make the selections.

Tuesday, the senior classes will start practicing the selected song in the small assembly hall during lower class chapel period.

The date set for the prophecy, class wills, testaments, and histories is Monday, December 21. All students must turn them in either before or on this date.

The senior style show tryouts were held yesterday. All senior girls were eligible.

"I think we are going to have perfect cooperation this year and I haven't definitely decided just what we will have but we might model clothes, other than those for evening wear. We might have social functions like teas, luncheons, etc., and show what to wear at each one," stated Ruth Word, who is in charge of this year's style show.

The senior class women teachers and Miss Guerrant Tatem and Miss Lucy Goddard served as judges for the tryouts.

Three Schools In Play Contest

Three junior high schools will compete in the one act play contest, tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Knoxville high school auditorium.

This contest will be the first of its kind ever to be presented and sponsored by the Thespians. If successful, this affair will probably be an annual contest.

All of the schools which are represented have entered into the contest with zeal and seem to be most interested.

The three judges will be Miss Georgia Johnson of K. H. S., Dr. McReynolds of the University of Tennessee, and Mr. Larson of the T. V. A.

O. E. Sams has selected a loving cup to be presented to the winners. This will tend to make the contestants work all the harder and give them much enthusiasm.

Blue And White To Play Santa Claus

Again the Blue and White staff will play Santa Claus to the second grade of Moses school. Since this has become an annual event, Miss Carrie Lou Early's class will be given the treats and toys.

Each member of the staff paid twenty-five cents, which was used to purchase dolls for the girls and toy dump-trucks for the boys. The dolls are being dressed by the girls on the staff and the newswriting class. The newswriting class also is contributing ten cents each for fruit and candy for the children.

This party will be given at 2:30 at Moses school. Santa Claus, impersonated by Harold Simpson, will distribute the gifts and treats.

After this party, Miss Emma Becton will entertain the members of the staff at her apartment.

P. T. A. Will Discuss Student Problems

P. T. A. of Knoxville high school will meet Wednesday afternoon, December 16, in the small assembly hall at 3:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Frank Kerr will lead an open discussion on the "Problems of the High School Boys and Girls".

Mrs. Gordon Powers, president of the Knoxville high school P. T. A., gave a luncheon for the board at her home last Wednesday.

The P. T. A. more than gained its goal of 400 members last week. The Blue and White stated that it lacked 12 members, but all of the members had not been turned in.

The two winning groups, Miss Elizabeth Whaling's and Miss Mary Beard's, attended a theater party Wednesday afternoon at the expense of the P. T. A. as a prize for gaining the most members. The two groups went to the Tennessee where they saw John Boles and Rosalind Russell in "Craig's Wife".

LOVE OR TITLE?

At the time of the writing of this editorial, Edward VIII, king of England, has confined himself to his room to think over the crisis which confronts his nation concerning his proposed marriage to Mrs. Wally Simpson, twice married American.

Newspaper articles tell us that the king will have reached a definite decision as to whether he will marry Mrs. Simpson and abandon the throne, or place duty before love and stay on the throne, discontinuing plans to marry the divorcee within the next 48 hours. However, the writer seriously doubts if a definite decision will be reached at the time of the release of this editorial.

This affair seems to be proving most interesting to high school students throughout the nation and it is with great curiosity that they have awaited the outcome of a situation in which a king must choose between his love and his title. These students who so intently observe the situation will also observe that practically any way the king turns he will be criticised by people all over the world. If he chooses the woman, there will be thousands ready to say, "He couldn't resist love for his bounden duty and patriotism to his country", and if he chooses the crown, there will be those thousands ready to say, "He didn't have the backbone to stand by his love in preference to keeping a high position."

What a much more interesting situation the affair would have been, had Mrs. Simpson not have been a person previously married and divorced. The world would have then observed what royalty would have to say about one of its number marrying a commoner of normal standing. As the matter now stands, however, royalty may easily base its objections to the marriage on the fact that Mrs. Simpson has been divorced, and that divorce is not the custom of the English upperclass or of the Church of England.

It has been quite easy for royalty to evade the question as to whether a king or person of royal blood may enter into marriage with a person of common birth.

In a symposium interview made in Knoxville high school last Tuesday, and which appears today, a majority of the persons interviewed indicated that if the two are in love, they should be married at any cost.

However, it is believed that a situation much more important than the king's marriage actually lies behind the current topic. At the death of his father, Edward showed no particular desire to obtain the kingship and since his acceptance of the title has made greater steps to remove the position of king from that of a puppet than any king in many years. Time and time again Edward has made attempts to remove complete power from Parliament and the Prime Minister and accept a few responsibilities himself.

If the king should succeed in ignoring the desires of Parliament and Stanley Baldwin, by marrying Mrs. Simpson and at the same time refusing to advocate — a condition which might possibly occur—he will have made his first major step in bringing back some of the power a monarch of England formerly had. The people of England would probably approve of the act.

Then we high school students of today would witness one of the major steps which might lead England adrift toward the return of greater power for the king.

A true friend unbosoms freely, advises justly, assists readily, adventures boldly, takes all patiently, defends courageously, and continues a friend unchangeable.—William Penn.

Labor in this country is independent and proud. It has not to ask the patronage of capital, but capital solicits the aid of labor.—Daniel Webster.

The KHS Poll Of Opinion

(Compiled by the Editor)

In a symposium interview made by the editor of the Blue and White Tuesday, the following opinions were expressed by students and instructors of the Knoxville high school when asked, "What would you do regarding your affair with Mrs. Wally Simpson if you were in King Edward's place today?"

At the time the interview was made, radio reports indicated that the king was in solitary confinement thinking over the situation and attempting to arrive at a decision on this most vital question. Almost all the persons interviewed seemed to believe that if the two are really in love they should be married.

Here are the opinions:

Miss Jessie Neubert, head of the K. H. S. history department: If I had accepted the duties of king I would stick to it. A promise is a promise.

Julia Early, DeMolay Sweetheart and creator of "Spectator", a weekly feature in the Blue and White: If Mrs. Simpson loves the King and not the throne, I think they should be married, providing the King loves Mrs. Simpson.

Burke Russell: If I were the King, I'd call for a vote of the people and do what they desired. I believe they would vote for the King to marry Mrs. Simpson.

Elvin Bryant, K. H. S. social science instructor: First I'd go around singing "Polly Wally Doodle All Day", then if I loved the woman I would marry her.

Paul Brakebill: I don't believe Mrs. Simpson really loves the King. If I were the King I'd find out if she did or not, and if she did love me I'd marry her in spite of "hang".

Ruth Long: I would marry her and give up the throne, if I loved her enough.

Stuart Maher: Baldwin doesn't have the authority to tell the King what to do, so I would tell Baldwin to "go jump in the lake", then I'd marry Mrs. Simpson and keep the throne too.

Betty Martin: I sure would marry Mrs. Simpson, if she wasn't just marrying me to get the title of "Queen".

Bob Walker: I'd marry her if I loved her.

Mile Of Coppers Continues To Grow

Have you given your penny yet? Have you added length to the mile? Have you, through your gift, helped fill the Christmas stocking of some child who would not have any Christmas if K. H. S. hadn't stepped in?

The mile is being sponsored by the home economics department, and the money will be used to repair toys and buy fruit and candy. The stockings and toys will go to boys and girls in various nursery schools, and only needy children will benefit from your gift.

When the penny line was started Thursday morning in the front hall case, it lengthened quickly and by the end of the first period over four hundred coins were lying side by side.

Several girls from the home economics department have volunteered to watch the case, and will give their service during vacant periods.

Lois Neal and Bessie Coppenger suggested the mile as a means of raising money. One condition has been changed since, however; the length is not a mile—it is INDEFINITE!

At The Theatres

Those of you who get a thrill from reading "Tarzan" in the funnies, will surely enjoy his latest picture, "Tarzan Escapes", at the Tennessee theater starting tomorrow and running through Tuesday. The picture stars Johnny Weismuller as Tarzan and the lovely Maureen O'Sullivan as his mate.

In contrast to this film, the Riviera shows Legion of Terror, with Bruce Cabot and Marguerite Churchill, Saturday.

Damon Runyon's wise-cracking romance "The Three Wise Guys", plays at the Riviera Monday and Tuesday. Robert Young and Betty Furness head the cast while Raymond Walburn, Thurston Hall, and Bruce Cabot are the trio of get-rich-quick racketeers, otherwise known as "The Three Wise Guys".

Comeback Gives Trojans Win Over Miami

Tony Carper Heads Winning Touchdown Drive—Standridge Is Brilliant.

BLOCKED PUNT

By Capt. Bill Luttrell Starts Winning March Late in Last Quarter.

Under a dazzling and blazing Florida sun, Knoxville high school's Trojans ended their 1936 slate with a nerve-tingling 13-7 victory over the surprisingly powerful Miami high Stingarees last Saturday afternoon. Close to five thousand fans witnessed the charity clash sponsored by the Miami Kiwanis club.

After a scoreless first half which saw the Trojans waste several scoring opportunities, the Men of Troy came back fighting and due to a blocked punt by Park Standridge, one of the outstanding linemen on the field, the Trojans were given another opportunity and made good this time. Johnny "Flash" Butler, ace backfield star, carried the ball down to the one yard line where Smiley Martin plunged over for the score. The try for the extra point was missed giving the Trojans a 6-0 lead.

On the first play of the final period, quarterback Frankie Rentz flipped a pass down the middle to Lefty Schemer, who raced eighty-six yards untouched for the lone Miami touchdown. "Steamboat" Bill McCall converted the extra point, giving the Stingarees a 7-6 lead.

Midway the final period Captain Bill Luttrell, closing his brilliant high school career, broke through and blocked a punt and recovered the oval on the Miami forty-one yard line. At this point the gallant and fleet-footed Tony Carper took up the charge and aided by "Battling" Bob Bell, carried the ball down to the two yard line where Carper slashed through for the winning tally. Yon converted the extra point. A few minutes later the whistle ended the thrill-packed gridiron classic between the two strong foes.

SPORT DOPE

Strong Sectional Foe Added To Victims; Seniors Bid Farewell

By Fred Owens

Striking with machine-like precision, Knoxville high school's ever determined Trojans ended their season in a blaze of glory last Saturday afternoon by defeating the highly rated Miami high Stingarees, 13-7. It was an inspired eleven that sent a last quarter touchdown across the double stripes and brought victory instead of defeat back home as a result of the longest trip a Knoxville high school team has ever taken.

Fred Owens

The victory gives the Trojans on of the finest records in years and closes a very successful season of eleven victories and only one defeat, suffered at the hands of the powerful Central high Bobcats. Among their victims are Kingsport, which incidentally is the only defeat of the year for the Indians; Asheville high, who holds victories over the strong Greensborough, North Carolina high and Tech high, of Atlanta; Waite high, of Toledo, Ohio, which represents one of the strongest sections in the country; Miami high of Miami, Florida, which is the only team to defeat Boys' high of Atlanta in four years; and Nashville Central and Chattanooga Central high.

SENIORS BRILLIANT

With the passing of every football season a group of distinguished boys known as seniors, hang up their football togs for the last time as high school players and write finis to their career. This year, led by Captain Bill Luttrell, thirteen seniors bid farewell to the Blue and White colors.

Among this splendid group are the names of Captain Bill Luttrell, Bob Broome, Jimmy Martin, Dick Evans, Joe Woodruff, Veo Yon, Dave Tipton, Bob Johnson, W. J. Bolin, I. C. Hewgley, John Coffey, Len Broughton, Jess Hendricks.

They represent one of the finest aggregations that ever wore the Blue and White and surely one that is unsurpassed in sportsmanship and scholarship.

TROJAN HIGHLIGHTS

Tony Carper's sensational running featured the final touchdown drive. . . . Johnny Butler was never more brilliant as he led the offensive attack and placed the ball on the one yard line from where Smiley Martin plunged over the the first touchdown. . . . Park Standridge played the greatest game of his career as he blocked two Miami punts, one which led to the first Trojan score. . . . Bob Broome closed his high school career with a wonderful punting exhibition. His average for the afternoon was forty-one yards. . . . David Tipton saved the game as he made a sensational tackle of a pass receiver after he had taken a desperate last minute pass. . . . Veo Yon made good his final try for extra point as the ball sailed squarely between the uprights. . . . Smiley Martin played a fine game, both defensively and offensively, as he closed out his career. . . . Bill Luttrell was never more dangerous as he inspired his teammates to greater heights. His block of a Miami punt turned defeat into victory.

Spirit Of Miami With HS Team

Hero Plays Tarzan—Gets Official Escort—Players Enjoy Miami Moon.

By Wilfred Gillenwater

Knoxville high school's Trojans went to Miami, Florida to play football but that wasn't all. After doing a very thorough job of taking the Blue and Gold into camp, the K. H. S. boys kissed football goodbye for the year and went out to have some of the enjoyment that spectators have been getting all year.

Quite a few incidents happened to keep both players and coaches amused. From quite reliable sources (if you consider Bob Johnson and Veo Yon sources), it was brought to the attention of the writer that one of the party tried to play Tarzan and took to the cocoanut trees in the park. Gleefully throwing cocoanuts here and yon, he was having the time of his life, until the cops arrived. When they beckoned, our brave hero came meekly down and was escorted with a guard of honor to the police station. He got off though with the admonition to be a good little boy hereafter.

Another Knoxvillian had a run-in with the police. Not monkey shines this time, but speeding.

Since all the players were almost completely surrounded by admiring students, it was quite difficult to reach them. Those who were reached, however, all had a word of praise for the beautiful city.

Jess Hendricks: Of all the things we saw, I think I enjoyed Millionaire Boulevard most. It was the first time I had ever seen the ocean.

Earl Long: The moon over Miami and the ocean was all I could ask for.

Tony Randles: I hardly know what I enjoyed most, but I guess it was that moon coming through the palm trees at 1 a. m. My luck didn't hold out though, there wasn't a girl in sight.

Park Standridge: The weather and the ocean gave me the most enjoyment.

Willis Tucker: The most attractive part of the whole trip was probably Millionaire's Boulevard. But I enjoyed going through the planes of the Pan-American Airways.

Larry Partredge: The beautiful homes at Miami made we want to stay.

Bob Alley: The beach, the climate, and the wealth of the city impressed me.

John Coffey: There were so many things of interest that it is hard to say what I enjoyed most, but the newly built race track was surely something to remember.

Veo Yon: For one thing, it was all twice as good as reading about it. Everything was different; it was a grand trip.

Bob Johnson: My biggest laugh was Tip's little difficulty. The weather was fine and the city was beautiful. I think Veo and I will go back there to school.

Jimmy Cross To Captain 1937 Eleven

Popular Junior Red-Head Is Elected by Lettermen On Return From Florida.

BUTLER ALTERNATE

Backfield Star Is Runner-up to Cross; Both Players and Students Satisfied.

Happy-go-lucky and good-natured James "Lop-pa-lee" Cross, better known to his many friends and classmates as "Red", will lead the 1937 Trojan football eleven. The popular and smiling athlete was elected by the 1936 lettermen on their return trip from the Miami high clash in Florida last week-end.

Johnny "Flash" Butler, backfield whirlwind and runner-up in the election, will serve as alternate captain. The election moved Cross to the highest athletic honor one can hold at Knoxville high school and came as one of the most popular selections in years with both players and students alike agreeing that Cross, who has played both in the line and backfield this season besides lending his undivided moral support to the team, will make one of the finest leaders that has ever captained the Blue and White eleven.

Cross, when asked of the election, said, "Boys, I hope I can accomplish half as much as Captain Bill Luttrell has this season. I will be out there fighting next year and give everything I have in an effort to uphold the rank and record of Knoxville high school.

Those voting in the election and who will receive letters are: Retiring Bill Luttrell, Captain-elect James Cross, Johnny Butler, Bob Broome, Jess Hendricks, Dave Tipton, Veo Yon, Larry Partredge, Park Standridge, Bob Johnson, J. Bolin, Tony Randles, Earl Long, Billy King, I. C. Hewgley, Dick Evans, John Coffey, Bill Broome, George Coile, Bob Alley, Bob Bell, Smiley Martin, Willis Tucker, Len Broughton, Tony Carper, Joe Woodruff, and Manager Ronald "Kayo" Robeson.

Society and Clubs

By MARGARET PORTWOOD

TO aid the incoming freshmen in getting acquainted with the building and in making friends among their classmates, a "Big Sister Society" has been organized at K. H. S. This is the first time that such an organization has been formed at this school.

The first meeting was held during chapel period Tuesday morning, with Miss Edith Horton, K. H. S. English teacher and adviser to the club, presiding. She told the newly elected members the purpose of the club and discussed future plans.

Officers were elected after a short discussion. The following were elected to hold positions: Rachael Patterson, president; Esther Alexander, vice-president; Mary Eleanor Acuff, secretary, and Margaret Portwood, treasurer.

Later on, every member of the club will be a "big sister" to certain freshmen, selected by Miss Horton, and the older girls will be continued to be organized yearly, if the work proves to be successful.

"I think this plan can be carried out, and something on this order is needed in a school as large as K. H. S. I believe all the girls will cooperate and be willing to help in any way possible," Miss Horton stated.

The members, which consist only of 12B's, are: Ann Abel, Jane Adams, Marianna Allen, Beverly Baer, Katherine Briscoe, Ann Bingham, Mary Evelyn Cooley, Martha Cavaleri, Julia Freels, Louise Featherston, Margaret Betty Gillespie, Louise Galloway, Catherine Jackson, Ruth Long, Gertrude Meyer, Eloise Owen, Martha Jean Osbourne, Noreene Powers, Barbara Rule, Janice Smith, and Helen Warwick.

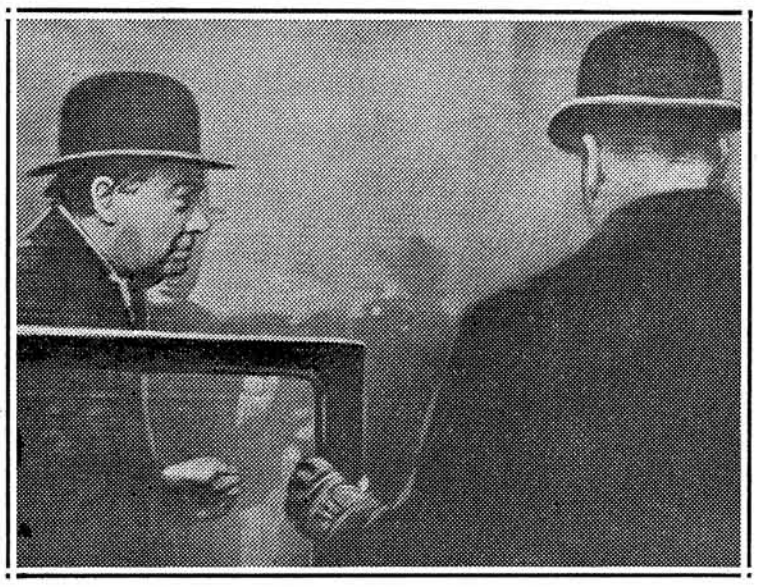
BALDWIN STEPS OUT—SO DOES THE KING!



Here is a radio photo direct from London, England. It shows Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin stepping from his car to attend a special session of parliament where a decision was to be made concerning King Edward's affair with Mrs. Wally Simpson.

Shortly after this session the king announced he would step from his throne for his love.

A group of K. H. S. students' and instructors' opinions, expressed on the King Edward and Wally Simpson affair, before the king's decision was rendered will be found in the "K. H. S. Poll of Opinion" on page 2.
