Style Show Tryouts Held; 13 Chosen

Selections Not Yet Completed —Presentation Will Be Given April 28.

Senior class style show tryouts were held Tuesday after school in the large auditorium. Eighty-four senior girls tried out.

From these eighty-four girls, thirteen have been definitely selected, and twenty-two more were to be chosen Thursday afternoon. Twenty-six girls were eliminated Tuesday. A total of thirty-five girls will be used in the show.

A special girls' chapel will be held Wednesday, April 28, during the regular chapel period, in which the style show will be presented. All 12A girl's mothers are invited to attend and special seats will be reserved for them in the center section. All high school girls will be permitted to see it.

Three teachers from the home economics department served as judges. They said that they have never seen a more graceful group of girls and that it was a task to select them.

The following thirteen girls are the ones definitely selected and twenty-two more will be added to this number: Beverly Baer, Noreene Powers, Mildred Hellard, Virginia Ingram, Ruth Long, Helen Warwick, Ollie Mae Thompson, Beverly Fisher, Mary Eleanor Acuff, Martha Cavaleri, Louise Galloway, Mary Frierson, Louise Featherston.

U-T Annual High School Day, April 17

With many Knoxville high school organizations participating, the University of Tennessee annual high school day will be held Saturday, April 17. All high schools throughout the state are eligible to enter. Entries from several West Tennessee schools have already been received.

The K. H. S. groups which will probably be represented are: Open Forum, R. O. T. C., band, track team, and glee club.

A. L. Jobe's Group Pays Subscription

A. L. Jobe's group was first to pay for its Blue and White subscriptions 100 per cent. There were eighteen subscribers in the class.

The Blue and White urges that all groups try to pay up by the end of this month. Group teachers have the subscription cards.

KHS Debating Team Returns From Tour Through Kentucky

The K. H. S. debating team returned from Lexington, Kentucky, and the most extensive debating tour in the history of Knoxville high school, April 1.

The schedule included debates with twelve schools. Those who made the tour were Eula Pemberton, Marianna Allen, Kyle Shown, and Marvin Kreiger. Mrs. R. E. Pemberton and Charles Martin acted as chaperones.

The group spent their first night in Richmond, the second evening in Lexington where they debated Henry Clay and University high schools. The decisions were given on a percentage basis. In only two cases was there a difference of more than three percent. The only two teams to win a decisive victory over K. H. S. were Middlesboro and Winchester.

Upon adding up the percentage, K. H. S. emerged with 783 points to the opponents' 702 points.

'In no case did the K. H. S. team reflect anything but credit on their school. Almost everywhere we went our teams were highly commended for their sportsmanship," stated Charles Martin.

"We found several points of interest that will be remembered by all who made the tour," he said. "We visited Henry Clay's old home, Ashland. It still stands in much the same state of preservation as when Henry Clay was living there.

"The day we were in Lexington "Man O' War", the most famous horse that ever lived, celebrated his twentieth birthday. We wanted to see him but it was impossible because we were told that he goes to bed at four o'clock in the afternoon and cannot receive visitors from that time until the next morning at eight o'clock. We were amused to find horses keep such strict hours.

"Aside from running out of gasoline once, having one puncture, and a bit of sickness, we had a very pleasant trip," stated Mr. Martin.

KHS A Cappella Choir To Give First Concert

To Be Given At Central Methodist Church on April 15 at 7:30.

Presenting their first concert this year, the K. H. S. A Cappella Choir, directed by Ed Hamilton, will sing at the Central Methodist Church Thursday night, April 15, at 7:30.

This is the only high school A Cappella Choir in Tennessee and one of the few in the South. This is also the first whole concert that has been given since Mr. Hamilton has been director.

Miss Clara McCallie has spent much time in training the young people of the grammar and junior high grades for this type of singing and preparing them for the K. H. S. choir.

The program for Thursday night will be divided into six groups.

Group I.

Jesu Priceless Treasure.....Bach
Send Forth Thy Light ....Balakirew
Beautiful Savior,

K. H. S. Art Adviser Attends Convention

Miss Virginia Parker, head of the K. H. S. art department, left Wednesday morning to attend the Southeastern Art Convention meeting at Raleigh, North Carolina.

Professor Josef Albers, of Black Mountain College, was to lecture on "Handling of Art and Industry Together". Professor Albers is a member of the Bauhans group which is an organization in Germany where workers are trained to handle work in the machine as well as art angle. Arthur Young, of Columbia University, is to speak, as is Mrs. Wanda Wheeler, superviser of art in Knoxville City Schools.

Miss Parker was planning to visit Duke University, and Chapel Hill, where she will see a performance by the Carolina Playmakers.

School Bank Joins In Sale Of Stamps

To help advertise the Great Smoky Mountains National Park, the school bank is cooperating with the Smoky Mountain Conservation Association in the sale of the park's publicity stamps.

The group of sixteen stamps depicting various phases of mountain scenery and life, together with a folder giving breifly the connection of the pictures on the stamps with the park, can be bought for fifteen cents. They are green, white, and black and are to be placed on the backs of envelopes going throughout the nation.

It has been estimated that the 1,000,000 stamps printed will be seen by approximately 17,000,000 people and thus will advertise the park.

The profits will be used for other publicity for the park.

W. Gillenwater Chosen President Of '38A Class

Felicia Parker Elected Vice-President—Helen Chamberlain to Act as Secretary.

BRYANT ADVISER

Pete Piper Will Preside as Treasurer — Mack Blackburn Publicity Head.

Voting by secret ballot, the directors of the 1938A class elected Wilfred Gillenwater president Wednesday afternoon. Felicia Parker was chosen vice-president; Helen Chamberlain, secretary; Pete Piper, treasurer; and Mack Blackburn, publicity director, complete the directorship of the class who will plan the senior activities of the present 12B class.

Elvin Bryant, senior history teacher, was chosen last week as class adviser. Mr. Bryant was very successful in his initial venture as adviser of the 37A class and will greatly aid the directors in planning the activities for next year.

Wilfred is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Gillenwater, 1371 North Broadway.

Felicia is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Parker, 3705 McCalla Avenue.

Helen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Chamberlain, 2602 East Fifth Avenue.

Pete is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Piper, 209 Immanuel Street.

Mack is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Blackburn, 2021 East Glenwood.

Play Tryouts To Be Tuesday

Tryouts for the senior class play will be held next Tuesday afternoon in the auditorium. All seniors are eligible to try out. The cast calls for six girls and eight boys.

"Bridal Chorus", by Roberta Winters, is the play that has been selected by O. E. Sams for the class to present. It concerns the plans and disruptions of the plans for the wedding of Martha Jane Perry. She is miserable the whole time before the event takes place and to cap the climax her two girl friends beat her to getting married.

Mr. Sams says of it, "'Bridal Chorus' is the most delightful comedy I've read. It will probably be one of the best comedies ever presented at K. H. S. It's just as enjoyable as it can be."

Four Clubs To Enter Intra-Mural Contest

K. H. S. Thespians will sponsor their annual intra-mural one-act play contest Wednesday, May 5, in the auditorium.

Five dollars will be offered to the club winning first place in this contest. The plays will be judged by the general presentation, which includes acting, selection, and direction.

Thus far, four clubs have entered the contest—the sophomore, junior, and senior Girl Reserves and the Home Ec. club, which will present the "Ghost of a Freshman".

Any club that is considered as an extra-curricular activity, other than the Masquer's club, can enter this contest by giving to O. E. Sams a written entry signed by the president and the adviser of the club.

There are only two regulations in regard to the plays selected by the clubs: they must be non-royalty plays, and they must not last longer than thirty minutes.

Competent judges will be selected by the Thespians.

More information may be obtained from Mr. Sams or any Thespian.

Students Discuss School Problems

Representing outstanding organizations of Knoxville high school, six students met with John A. Walker and Miss Edith Horton for luncheon Saturday. After lunch a round table discussion of school problems followed.

The students present and the groups represented were: Alvin Smith, R. O. T. C.; Arthur Peterson, National Honor Society; Ben St. Clair, Hi-Y; Eugenia Franklin, Student Council; Kyle Shown, Student Fellowship; and Wilfred Gillenwater, Blue and White.

Rachael Patterson and Edward Mitchell were unable to attend.

As planned now, the group will meet soon for further discussion and organization.

APRIL SHOWERS

When the "spring rains" begin, our thoughts often turn to the future. As the rains continue, plant life begins to grow, the leaves have a glow they have not had since the last "spring rains", the birds sing sweeter, everyone is happier, and the world is brighter and more radiant.

As it is with nature in the Spring, so it is at Knoxville high in the Spring. The freshmen begin to feel a little more important, the juniors dream about the same season a year later, and the SENIORS, think of the first week in June.

In this issue the senior play is announced. Directors are meeting regularly to make plans for bigger and better commencement exercises. Speakers are writing speeches that will inspire not only every member of the '37B class to do things with great volumes of meaning, but speeches that will encourage fathers and mothers to look farther ahead than they already have.

Young men, who until now have been mere boys under the protection of their parents, will go forth into the great world to take their place in business.

Some of the girls will become wives, others will become important cogs in the wheels of industry; perhaps a few will make marks for themselves in some kind of profession, but no matter whether housewife, stenographer, singer, or queen each life is important!

Although "spring rains" may bring raincoats, golashes, and umbrellas, they are wee trifles compared to the courage, ambition, and FAITH it brings to humanity.

IN DEFENSE OF OUR NATIONAL DEFENSE

A certain growing national organization is sponsoring a movement to end all war. The principal "means to the end" of this league is to stop the race among the world powers for military supremacy.

This is a worthy cause; we, as a peace loving nation, should support the movement. But when an extremely nearsighted proposal—such as the abolition of nearly every military unit which the United States possesses—is made by such a league, it is high time that we as lovers of democracy come to the aid of our leaders.

If we allow ourselves to be influenced by such a radical move, there lies somewhere in the near future great danger of invasion by hostile enemy troops. Try to picture the terror that would reign here in Knoxville if our police system were suddenly abolished. Citizens who are greedy, but who refrain from any drastic action under the present law enforcement system, would run riot. They would rob and plunder their fellow citizens. It would simply mean "to the victor goes the spoils".

Now, if we should decrease our National Defense program for the sake of bringing peace to the world, the greater nations of Europe would all attempt to dash in and take us for their own: and in doing so, they would quarrel over us and eventually clash, causing another even more horrible world war.

Our nation's leaders, thank heaven, have foreseen the danger of invasion by foreign troops and have kept the sentiment, for the most part, in favor of defensive armament. Secretary of State Hull, in a recent speech in New York, brought out the potential "explosive power" of a nation that will allow itself to become a "happy Hooligan", who is one that trusts anyone and everyone. At the same time it is very clear to all the world that the United States intends to remain apart from all international trouble—until she is attacked. It certainly is a smart move on our part to be prepared for the worst.

Some parents may object to our R. O. T. C. unit which, incidentally, is one of the "roots" of our National Defense.

Somehow, these people have received the impression that the training received by their boy tends to inflict a warlike spirit in him. On top of the knowledge received by a cadet while in training, there is a sharpness of mind developed in him. He is taught the principles of good citizenship; he is presented with a keen sense of the importance of obedience, cooperation, and loyalty. These three traits rank high in the character moulding of a man

How right Thomas Jefferson was when he said: "An association of men who will not quarrel with one another is a thing which never existed, from the greatest confederacy of nations down to a town meeting or vestry".

And the world will never be rid of conflict, so why not prepare against it?

The Top Hat club gave a dance last Saturday night and boy, was there a crowd! After parking about a mile from the house I trodded my way and after making my entrance, started dancing among the graceful couples. I noticed several very attractive girls just "truckin' up a storm", among those were: MARY RUTH BIBB, HELEN CHAMBERLAIN, RUTH LONG, and MARY ELEANOR ACUFF.

The Blue and White gave a banquet Monday night at the Fifth Avenue Tea Room, among the guests were: THELMA McGHEE, GERTRUDE MEYER, EILEEN LEAKE, DOT DUGGAN, and BARBARA RULE. Among the boys who attended were: ALLEN BELL, GAINES STUART, SAM FINCANNON, and WILFRED GILLENWATER.

Be sure to attend the dances (or rather one of the dances) tonight. The DeMolay at Whittle's and the Junior Prom at the U. T. Alumni Memorial building.

Elena played the modern piano composition, "Reflections in the Water", by Debussy and "Whims", by Schumann.

Principal W. E. Evans talked on alcoholic beverages. He stated that a well known Knoxville physician recently said, "Ninety-nine per cent of the unhappiness that I have seen in homes has been caused by liquor".

'HASTE MAKES WASTE'

"Haste makes waste" is an old proverb, but how true it is. Students, think about this before you start to save a few seconds by rushing madly through the corridors.

It is possible and quite probable that you may run into someone and injure them severely. Not only will you do this, but in the confusion, you lose more time than if you had been more thoughtful and walked at reasonable pace to your destination.

PLEASE BE MORE CAREFUL.

Well! Spring has sprung—Everyone should be going about through the halls with heads high and fresh clear looks on their faces—with light hearts and light steps (hard for some 11½'s but done at any rate); but is everyseniors, at any rate, for tomorrow may come breath-taking news telling one doing this? I should say not! What's the trouble?

Now is the time to be gay, whether you are truly a senior or not—" 'Tis the time when a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love" they say. At any rate, teachers hope that is what has happened, for their "young men's" thoughts are anywhere but with the class. I ask again, what's the trouble? Ahhh! We know, I'm sure. Bad Weather Delays Spring Football Drills

Center of Line Will Afford Coach Wilson Collins Plenty of Headaches.

April showers, bringing cold weather, has delayed the spring football plans of Coach Wilson Collins for the Knoxville high school Trojans. The practice field at Winona street has been flooded for the past week forcing the candidates and would-be letter-men inside for blackboard drills.

Due to the very impressive showing of the basketball team, the time of spring practice was planned to have been for about two weeks with baseball practice to follow immediately.

The question mark of this year's team will center around the middle of the line. Players will be needed to fill the vacancies left by Veo Yon and Dave Tipton at the guard positions and Captain Bill Luttrell at the left tackle slot. Captain elect, James "Red Cross" is expected to fill the position of Bob Johnson at center, and Larry Partridge and Earl Long are leading other candidates for the end positions.

In the backfield new faces are needed to replace Bob Broome at quarterback and James "Smiley" Martin and Bob Bell who alternated at fullback last year. Another replacement will be needed for reliable Tony Randles of last year's eleven who has played the required four years of high school football. Johnny Butler and Tony Carper, fleet backfield stars, will be returning along with substitutes J. T. Manning and Elwood Powers. Powers is expected to fill the vacancy at fullback while Manning, if in the best of condition, will be in the thick of the fight for the quarterback post.

M. R. Bibb Wins Kickball Finals

Girls' Tennis Tourney to be Held This Month for School Championship.

Finals in the kickball tournament were played Monday in the gym between Mary Ruth Bibb's and Frances Koontz's teams.

After an exciting game the close score of 8-6 made Mary Ruth's team victor. Members of this team will receive felt K. B. letters. They are: H. Blakely, S. Buchanan, M. Edwards, B. Ford, L. Hall, A. L. Hensly, A. Hodges, L. McClure, J. McCuiston, M. McBimpsey, B. Ohle, N. Rollins, E. Thorton, C. Vaughn, M. Watkins, F. West, E. Whittlesey.

Any girls planning to enter singles or doubles in the tennis tournament must register with Miss Mary House or Miss Elizabeth Whaling today or the first part of the week.

Second rounds in the tenikoit tournament have been played with the following captains winning: T. Suttin, M. Davis, R. Snapp, R. Brown, R. Kent, J. Ward, C. Cullum, H. Darst, M. George, E. Gibbs, F. Odgen, A. Barbour, V. Creech, T. Ailor, D. Young, N. Adams, M. Vaughan, I. Brogden, R. Dobbs, B. Miller, H. Otto, C. Pedigo, and J. Vineyard. Finals will be played Monday afternoon in the gym.

SPORT DOPE

Captain Bert Hodge Placed On All-State Tournament Five

By Fred Owens

To the victor goes the spoils—to Captain Bert "Puss" Hodge of the Trojans goes the glory. Hodge was selected as all-state material in the tournament held at Milan, Tennessee, two weeks ago—the highest honor that can be awarded a high school basketball player in the State of Tennessee. This award makes him a strong choice for the finest player that has ever performed on the hardwood court for the Knoxville high Trojans. His coolness under fire, his ability in making points when needed, his determination along with his natural ability, make him an outstanding basketball prospect for any college that is lucky enough to secure his services.

Fred Owens

Although the Trojans were defeated in the first round of the State tournament by little Sardis high of West Tennessee, they came back strong in the consolation bracket to bring to Knoxville a large trophy and to be crowned consolation champions of the state. A sensational scoring spree gave the consolation champs a 54-40 victory over Whitehaven in the semi-finals and a determined but steady offensive drive trounced Rives in the consolation finals, 39-27.

SPORT SLANTS

Forrest Jensen, outfielder for the Pittsburgh Pirates, is probably the most under estimated player in the National League. He is rated very highly by Manager Tranor. . . . Jimmy 'Ripper' Collins is sorry to leave the St. Louis Cardinals due to the fact that it breaks up the finest juggling act in baseball, that between Pepper Martin and himself. . . . Buddy Petty, Sardis high center who lead the scoring against the Trojans, was selected by tournament officials as the outstanding player of the tournament and as captain of the all-state aggregation. . . . Congratulations to Jimmy 'Red' Cross on his selection as all-state manager in the tournament at Milan, Tennessee. . . . If all information is true, Notre Dame will have one of the lightest backfields in the history of the school next year. Meaning the team will depend upon speed and deception to carry them through their suicide schedule which includes Navy, Minnesota, Pittsburgh, Army, Northwestern and Southern California on successive Saturdays. . . . . Carl Hubbell, Giants' pitching star, hopes to win thirty games this season and join the 200 or more triumphs group of the National League.

BEST BETS

The St. Louis Cardinals to win the National league championship if "Dizzy" Dean, brother Paul, and Lon Warneke show their expected form. . . . The New York Yankees, Detroit Tigers, and the Cleveland Indians to fight it out for the American loop crown with the team getting the breaks to win. . . . Joe Louis to dethrone Jimmy Braddock as heavyweight boxing champion of the world, if and when they fight. Braddock is not in the best of condition and cannot hope to round into shape in three short months. Although the odds are against him, Jimmy has one consolation, the entire sporting world, with the exception of a few will be pulling for him when he steps into the squared arena against the Brown Bomber.

Baseball Nine Due To Start Practice Soon

Replacements Needed for Fox, Gillenwater, and Robert Broome—Outfield Back.

Practice will start soon for the championship Knoxville high school baseball team of last year. The team lost only one game during the 1936 season and with all but three returning, is expected to have an even greater team this season. An important schedule will be arranged and work will begin immediately following spring football practice.

Substitutes will be needed to replace Carden Gillenwater, outstanding catcher of last year's nine, and Bob Broome, third baseman who is now at the training camp of the Knoxville Smokies at Cordele, Georgia Gillenwater is also playing professional baseball in the form system of the St. Louis Cardinals of the National league. A first baseman will also be needed to fill the vacancy left by belting Bob Fox.

Johnny Butler, Bert Hodge, the other infield men will be returning. In the outer garden Bill Luttrell, Tony Carper, and Bob Alley, all return which may prove to be dangerous for competing teams. Albert Bounds, mound star of last year, will also return and is expected to have his greatest year.

Baseball is expected to make a strong comeback at Knoxville high this season. With the many would-be candidates to fill the vacancies in the infield, the Trojans, if all indications are true, will prove stronger than the championship club of last year.

'SKIN, JACK OF MANY TRADES'

The skin and skin modifications, if properly cared for, perform many functions necessary to good health and beauty.

1. Protection: The skin, mucus, hair, and nails, if clean and healthy, perform innumerable physical defenses. The eye brow detours sweat around the eye. Hair in arm pits and other cryptic areas prevents friction abrasions. The skin generally protects us against outside stimuli. Nails are used as protective agents, but unless kept properly trimmed and cleaned, may cause sores and infections.

2. Sterilizing Agent: The skin has such great power of sterilizing itself that it may kill bacteria even thirty minutes after death. Boils caused by strepticocci germs alite on the skin and are killed unless rubbed in. If they are allowed to penetrate, a wall of defense sets up and must not be broken by squeezing the boil, nor should the strepticocci be scattered by pricking. The sterilizing power is much retarded by excess cosmetics and prespiration minerals as bacteria thrive in an alkali medium. Skin between the toes and other criyptic areas must be thoroughly dried after bathing to prevent friction abrasion. Corns and bunions are piled up skin tissues caused by tight or improperly fitted shoes.

3. Temperature Regulator. About twelve grams of water is excreted per hour and increases as demanded to keep the body temperature constant by evaporation. This function is as efficient as our systematic exercise.

4. Manufacturing Organ. Skin in the presence of sunshine manufactures Vitamin D so essential to bone structure. More surface exposure to the sun will aid greatly in this important function.

KHS Graduate Is Successful

Finished U. T. — Worked for T.V.A.—Now With University of Illinois.

Joe Bergantz, of the 1930 class, is one of the successful graduates of Knoxville high school.

After graduating from K. H. S. six years ago, he took an engineering course at the University of Tennessee, where he was an outstanding student. After finishing at the University of Tennessee, he was employed by the T. V. A. in the chemical engineering laboratory at Muscle Shoals.

In August he received a teaching fellowship in the University of Illinois. He left the T.V.A. in September to go to his new position where he proved to be very successful. He made all A's on his work for his masters.

A few days ago the Massachusetts Institute of Technology appointed Joe as a Fellow. In September, he will become an instructor at Cambridge, and begin work on his Ph. D.

"Joe was a bright boy that always did more than you assigned him. When he said he would do a thing, he would do it or die," said C. A. Browning, one of Joe's K. H. S. instructors.

J. B. Wrinkle, Jr., has been announced the winner of the library's "Treasure Hunt" which closed last Friday. He was awarded a prize of $1.00 which he took in preference to the book offered.

Although several students applied for applications to enter the contest, only a few returned the questionaires completely finished.

American Paintings Will Be On Exhibit

Miss Virginia Parker's art classes will present an art exhibit in her room for the next two weeks. The exhibit is a Survey of American Painting.

The pictures are lent by Raymond and Raymond, Inc., and circulated by the American Federation of Arts, a national organization for the cultivation of the arts with headquarters in Washington, D. C.

Paintings by the artists, Copley, Earl, Bingham, Eakins, Ryder, Prendergast, Sloan, Marin, Sheeler, Dickinson, and Buchfield will be shown.

Test To Be Given Students Today

Students entering the contest being sponsored by the League of Nation's Council will be given a written examination this morning by Elvin Bryant, K. H. S. history teacher. The questions are all based on the League's history.

Mr. Bryant, who is in charge of the contest at K.H.S., states, "Several social science students are planning to take this examination which I am sure will prove an asset to them. It should help greatly in the understanding of modern history and the world war."

Carlos Campbell Addresses News Class Tuesday

Tells Story of 'Tsali' and Plans Made to Erect Monument in His Honor.

Carlos Campbell, member of the Smoky Mountain Hiking club and authority on the Great Smoky Mountains National Park, spoke to the newswriting class Tuesday, April 6.

Mr. Campbell based his address on the story of "Tsali, The Land Of The Cherokee" by Herbert R. Sass which recently appeared in Colliers and News-Sentinel.

"His is one of the greatest sacrifices ever made in American history," said Mr. Campbell as he related the story of how Tsali was willing to give up his life so that his people might remain in the mountains instead of being driven to the West.

He spoke of the drive held by the News-Sentinel in the various schools to erect a monument as recognition of Tsali's sacrifice and of how the plans were being made to place the marker on Clingman's Dome.

Although Mr. Campbell believes that a monument should be erected to Tsali, he thinks that a more fitting place for it would be, not in the park, but on the border near the present Cherokee reservation in North Carolina where Tsali really lived. He stated that he doubted very much if Tsali had ever been on Clingman's Dome.

The speaker also emphasized the fact that the Great Smoky Mountains National Park is a natural museum where one goes to see the beauties that God created, not to read inscriptions on monuments.

In closing, Mr. Campbell begged his audience to use its influence in keeping the park in its natural state. He brought out the fact that if one marker is ever erected in the park it will be an incentive to others.

Mr. Campbell's address was one in a series of several interesting speeches that the newswriting class has been privileged to hear. Others have been J. A. Walker, whose topic was Hi-Y; Miss Becky Becton, who spoke on Friendship; and Principal W. E. Evans, with Alcoholic Beverages as his subject.
