Octet To Sing At TEA Concert

An octet from the KHS Choir has been chosen to sing for the Tennessee Education Association Festival Concert on March 15 and 16 in Nashville.

Members of the Choir who will make this trip next week are: Donna Anderson, Eleanor Riggins, Marilyn Clark, Norma Sawyer, Gilbert Oxendine, Walton Rawls, Jimmy Massengill, and Wesley

Richmond Trip

In Richmond, the week of April 16 the Choir will present a program with five other choirs from eleven southern states. Three programs will be given. The first is to be a sample adjudication concert criticized by the music adjudication committee and the audience. A repertoire program is to be presented including only numbers published during the past two years. The last program will be composed of the combined efforts of all choirs attending the meet.

Spring Concert The annual spring concert will be held at the University of Tennessee. Participating in it will be members of the KHS Glee Clubs and Choir with Choir alumni joining in for the singing of the Battle Hymn of the Republic. The date for this concert is April 5.

YWCA Holds Open House Sat. Nights for Teeners

Young Women's Christian Association is sponsoring an open house at the "Y" beginning Saturday night, March 10 and continuing every Saturday thereafter from 8:00 until 11:00 p. m. for all senior high students who like to dance and play games. The first two nights will be admission free; then the "Y" will sell membership cards to those interested in becoming members and in having a place to drop in on Saturday nights after a movie, or for an entire evening of games and firsts and one second place in the Junior Chamber of Commerce Americanism essay contest.

Students from KHS placed in all three divisions of the contestessay, oratory, and poster.

First place winner of the Oratory Contest was Walton Rawles. This is the second award Walton has won as a speaker during his senior year. He was winner of the Knoxville High section in the "I Speak For Democracy" Contest, also sponsored by the Jaycees. Walton is a member of the Choir, the Literary League, and the Thes-

Judges Named

Judges for the JC contest were Mr. Hal Clements, Judge D. C. Webb, Mr. William DeBlois, and Mr. Beverly Barbage.

Moore Places Second

Mary Moore placed second in the Essay division. Mary, a senior, is very interested in music. She plays the flute in the KHS Band. and won 1st chair flutist at the East Tennessee Band Clinic held at Elizabethton in February. She also plays in the U-T Concert

Collins Places First

First place in the poster contest was won by David Collins. In the fall David won the poster design contest for National Education Week, and his poster was displayed throughout the city.

He has also done some cartoon work for the Blue and White. David is Secretary and Treasurer of the National Art Honor Society. His other interests are sports.

17 New Members In Honor Society

Wednesday afternoon seventeen new members were elected into the National Honor Society.

Start the Day Off Right, Go To CSU

Hey! What do you do in the morning between 8 and 8:15? Stand around the halls or do ya' get caught going to your locker? How come you don't go to CSU?

Haven't you heard about Christian Student Union meetings in the A. H.? Here's a chance to really start the day right with a daily devotional.

Charlene Campbell is in charge of the programs. A well known speaker is invited to give a short talk each morning on subject of interest to everyone. Songs are led by Dwight McCawley and C. L. Huling. CSU has its own song books filled with everybody's favorite songs. Every meeting is closed with a prayer.

Interdenominational

The speakers represent every denomination in Knoxville-youth directors, ministers, teachers, business men, and students. Some mornings the whole time is spent in singing.

from around KHS Speakers have been Mary Kelly, Harold Prichard, Carolyn Rice, Judy Rorex, Jack Humphries, Dick Gamble, Bob Fry, Barbara Davis, and Bill Countiss. Mr. Sanders, Mr. Petree, and Mr. Turley have been recent faculty speakers.

"I think that CSU is a wonderfull way to begin the day," says Charlene Campbell. "I wish that it reached more KHS students."

Four years ago Edna Edmondson and Sammy De Bord organized CSU for KHS. Sammy is now studying for the ministry at Carson-Newman, and Edna is in nurses' training at Berea College, Kentucky.

Senior Mixer Is April 6

Due to conflicts with other programs, the date of the second Senior Mixer has been changed to April 6.

Trojan Material Ready for Press

By G.R.

The Trojan editors announce today that all material for the '51 Annual has been engraved and that printing will start soon. "This is quite an accomplishment," says their adviser, Mr. Montgom-"It has taken much effort and work on the part of the Staff to be this far toward the Trojan's publication." Special congratulations go to the business staff who have sent over half the ads already to the printers.

Ideas?

Literary editor Burney Parrott would like to have some good ideas for the Will and Testament from the seniors. "I think the Will and Testament should be the thoughts of our graduating class as a whole," says Burney. "If anyone has a clause that is fitting and proper for this Will, please give it to Burney soon," says adviser Montgomery.

Have You?

"There are still some subscribers who have not paid in full," says Bookkeeper Melba Canant. "We've seen these people personally, but not much response has been given. Just remember not to expect an Annual if you have not paid your $2.50."

Easter vacation will find Gordon and Carolyn working at Archer & Smith's Printing Company. "The job is practically endless," agree both, "but we're really trying to put out the best Trojan ever.'

"See ya in the Trojan."

Fracas Furnishes Exciting Moments

Age-Old Rivalry Is Ended After Fifty Years

By Harvey Sproul

In the excitement of the Knoxville-Central fracas last Friday night, most people probably didn't think about the far reaching or what might be better called the dramatic moment that the last plays of that game represented.

Onlookers were probably only conscious of one idea-"We've just got to win this game tonight. If we don't, we won't get to play in the Regional Tournament; these Bobcats have beaten us twice this season-three times would be a catastrophe!"
This "dramatic" moment? This is it—the final whistle of this game ended an athletic relationship between two schools that had worked itself up into a rivalry that has lasted longer than that between any other two high schools in the South and maybe even the United States. Were you conscious of this when that whistle sounded?

KHS Emerges Winner

And after the game when KHS had emerged victorious, winning out in the game that really counted, there was no sadness over the termination of the ancient "feudin'" contest—there was only happiness and jubilation. We had won . . . we had licked the Bobcat jinx -we were still in the tournament - we apparently had a good chance to win the State Champion-ship. All were thinking of the (Continued on Page 4)

DE'rs, DE's, Inc. Win Top Honors

Knoxville High School's four delegates seemed to play very active parts in the annual East Tennessee Distributive Education Convention held in Greenville on March 5 when two of the three newly elected District officers were KHS Patsy Smith of the DE'ers club who was chosen East Tennessee Convention Secretary, and Mollie Ingram of the DE'ers who holds the position of Convention Reporter.

"One of the greatest honors to be conferred upon a DE student is to be chosen by his State to be a delegate to the National Convention which meets annually," said Mrs. Della Freeman, Knox High Distributive Education instructor. Six such delegates are elected each year. Mary Harris, who is president of DE's, Inc., was elected to represent East Tennessee at the 1951 National Convention, to be held in Tulsa, Oklahoma, in April.

Scrapbooks Win

This year DE students from Knoxville High entered only the Scrapbook Contest at the Conven-Both clubs placed high. Second place was awarded to the DE'rs and fourth place was won by the DE's, Inc. This is the second year that KHS clubs have come out in the top brackets of this event. Last year the DE'rs scrapbook won highest in the nation at the National Convention.

As Robert McGoldrick, President of the DE'rs, was chairman of the Parliamentary Contest the Knox High clubs did not choose to enter the competition.

The day's business meetings were wound up with a dinner and dance in the American Legion

Easter Parade and Easter Eggs Are Fun, But Think About True Meaning of Easter

By Nancy Crossley

The paper had fallen to the floor and as I leaned from my chair to pick it up I saw a breath-taking ad with the caption: "On Easter Morning, Fifth Avenue will set the styles for '51. The Easter Parade will feature a variety from straws to sailor hats."

Then I turned the pages and saw a gigantic story on an egg hunt to be held at Hyde Park. "The Children's faces will light up when they see the beautiful array of Easter Eggs and candy," the paper

Do Easter parades and Easter eggs represent the true meaning of Easter? We're only human and Maybe it's good for us to shed our drab winter apearances and take on the breathless feeling of Spring with the coming of Easter, but why not think of the true meaning of Easter while we're at it. Were the people modeling when Christ hung upon a tree; were the children's faces shining with laughter when He died of a broken heart? If you had been there on that dark day at Calvary, would you have been worrying about your clothes?

Go to Church

I turned another page in my newspaper and felt a quiet satisfaction when I read, "Go to Church this Sunday," for there I knew I would find the reason for having Easter. There I'd see fine clothes and happy faces, but there would be Easter in the heart as well as in appearance of these people.

EASTER MEANS CHRIST—NOT CLOTHES

To me the most sacred holiday next to Christmas is Easter. Easter represents the honor given to the fact that our Savior arose on that day as he had promised he would do.

If all Easter means to you is new clothes—stop and think. The reason for celebrating this day is more important to you than all the clothes in the world could ever be.

Easter should be a time of feeling very close to God and more friendly toward man. If you have never especially thought of Easter, on this March 25, see how much better you will feel if you think of the reason for Easter; and not just the word which comes from an Anglo Saxon word "Eastre" meaning goddess of spring, but the spirit of the day. -J. G.

SPRING AND THE FUTURE—FOR SENIORS

Well, with March here at last it seems that Spring is just around the corner. After that what happens, Seniors? You will be leaving three of the "most fun-filled", glorious and happiest years of your life behind you. For some of you that diploma will mean the end of your career in school. For others it will mean you are ready to step into those grand and glorious halls of higher learning, a university or college.

Now that you will soon receive that coveted diploma, why don't you begin to think of the future and see what it holds for you?

No doubt, many of you to some extent have plans for the future after high school. If you haven't, get on the ball and start it rolling toward a future that won't be all sugar and spice but will have its bumps. The number of bumps depends on you; so, why not give your future a little thought, and rid the coming days of many hardships through well made and carefully executed plans.

ARE YOU A GOLD STAR?

Well, May 1st is almost here; are you ready for the big event that is coming at that time. If you aren't here is some solemn advice for you.

To be a gold star you must have a medical examination either by our school doctor or by your family physician. You must also have a dental examination by the dentist in school or your own dentist.

Those nice sparkling teeth and that healthy body will go a long way toward your future comfort. Without these you may suffer great pain. You may have a good standing in society or be popular with people, but if you fail to maintain good health and sound teeth you won't be "standing" very long. You'll find yourself six feet underground in a little while, and no one wants that to happen. It gives me the chills just to write or to think about it.

Good teeth mean a lot to you. If you have bad teeth you are subject to body illnesses. Bad teeth will often cause your body to be weak and to be unable to fight off germs; whereas ,if you have good teeth you are more likely to have a strong body.

If you are walking down the hall and you see a cute boy (or girl) and as you draw near you turn on all your charm and then that "one" smiles and you say to yourself, "Oh, those teeth;" or, "Oh, how pale he looks."

No one wants an opinion like that started about him. So let's all be good sports and become good healthy boys and girls. Since this is the last year for KHS, let's everyone be a Gold Star and make this the big year for Gold Stars in KHS.

Ankle Anglers Top 'The Bunion'

By Shields Remine

The following "ankle anglers" braved the sultry (it really was, no kidding) blasts of winter to step on Charley's Bunion Saturday: Bill Arnold, Patti Batchelor, Gwenlyn Brooks, Kitty Culpepper, Lela Cross, John d'Armand, Evelyn Epperson, Eugene Fair, John Fine, Robert Harper, Charles Harrell, Eugene Hocult, Paul Jackson, Rhonda Lewis, Tommy Nelson, Bill Parker, Tim Prater, Shields Re-mine, Nancy Tillett, Doyle Whaley, Alice Wiersema, Knox Williams, Virginia Bird, Bobby Hutchens, Beverly Fiege, Phyllis Rutherford, Bill Parker, Gary Coffey, and of course, "Jessica" Dempster.

No end of strange things happened Saturday. Rhonda Lewis, front leader, wound up rear leader. She twisted up the wrong trail and had to hike two extra miles to get back with the club.

This may sound amazing, considering the rain and cloudiness which have prevailed this week, but we could see better Saturday than we have the rest of the year. Douglas Lake was a green serpent slithering half-way to the horizon. It seemed as though we could see practically every inch of ground in East Tennessee. In the far distance the Cumberland Plateau could be seen rising out of the earth. Closer home, English Mountain, Clingman's Dome, Mt. LeConte, Mt. Guyot pierced the sky.

There were the usual remarks. At Newfound Gap a car bearing an Illinois (Ill.) license stopped. Evelyn Epperson, upon seeing the ILL. on the license, remarked that "that car must be sick, it says ill on the side."

On the other hand, have you found something—was it an umbrella you tripped over in the hall or was it a book that hit you on the head?

Well, most naturally, the question comes to this, "What to do with articles lost or found?

Have you ever heard of the L. and F. window? Well, then, there is one at Knox High. Where? In room 304. Articles may be returned or turned in there. What kind of articles? Clothing, books, writing equipment, pocketbooks, etc. and locker keys.

The Lost and Found Department has done an excellent job this year, so let's take advantage of the Lost and Found Window and use it and let it serve us.

Around The Halls

By Jean Brooks

I'm going to start this column out with something new this week-yes, you guessed it, dedica-"I'll Always Love You", for Jewel Mays and Joe Patterson; for Patsy Baldwin and Dean Roberts, "Long Ago and Far Away"; for Marilyn Binkley and A. W. Royal, "If", to J. D. Ammonds from Jean Sutton, "My Heart Cries for You" and also to Ima Lee Stooksbury and Harvey Hankins.

It seems that this spring-like weather has affected everyone. Miss McLaurin is having a hard time keeping Tommy Ayres and Charlene Campbell quiet in Spanish class. Is it love or is Charlene just helping him? And these were turned in to me: "The only thing Richard Ray and Suzie Zion have learned in English is to pitch woo (?). The fact that there's a new wolf in sixth period French class seems to cause a lot of sighs among the girls. His name is

Some couples seen strolling down the halls with that dreamy look in their eyes are: Vernon Hamilton, Suzie Robinson; Betty Wil-

I wonder if James is the cause for the little feuds (?) in Spanish class between June Martin and Vera Coffey.

The Soddy Daisy's basketball team has already left but Nancy Tillett is still swooning over a certain player on the team.

March 25 (Easter) might be the big day for Barbara Carter and Ray Kitts. Is this right, Barbara?

Something old - Marion Byrd and Jack Stairrett. Something new-Jo Ann Buckner and Jimmy Smith. Something borrowed-Otis Kirby by Helen Collins. Something blue—Betty Jo Knott. Tommy Rule may be the reason

Proudly wearing a new diamond is Janie Leah. The lucky fellow is Gene Goodman.

So long for now; I'll be seein' ya around the halls.

WHO'S WHO

By Nancy Crossley

JACK HUMPHREYS

You'll remember Jack Humphreys as the boy who used to do cart-wheels down the hall, yelling, "Rip-Rah". That was during the football season; now he strolls with Carolyn again!

5' 11½" tall, sporting a 145 pound frame, this first "Looie" of Company A has brown hair and brown eyes. He's happiest when his mind (?) is on "Thinking of You"; on Carolyn, on cherry pie; on Carolyn; on baby blue; on Carolyn. Guess what - his favorite pastime is - Carolyn! His pet peeve is "girls that you know that know you that won't talk to you".

Now that you've figured that out-among Jack's honors are National Honor Society, and 1950 football cheerleader. Jack's reaction about the latter-"I was excited."

Mr. Hmphrey's ambition is to be Military Engineer, U-T being the probable location for his training unless Uncle Sam takes it upon himself to train Jack. He hopes to get married in about three years (Carolyn?) and "plans on one girl and one boy". (Ed. Note-This could be a debatable question.)

RITA GREEN

A young lady with very pretty brown hair atop her noggin is Miss Rita Green. Her blue green eyes sparkle with fun (her friends say she's so logical that it's funny).

Among her favorites are: food, mashed potatoes; type of clothes, dressy; song, "If",; pastime, drawing. Her pet peeve is "people who don't do things on time" (quote, Myra Corkland).

It is understandable that Rita often looks as though she just stepped out of a picture because her whole (?) being is based on art. It is her favorite subject right now and she plans to go to the University of Florida after her senior year at West High because "they have a good art course." Her ambition is to do something in art - probably illustrate children's books some day. She holds the distinction of being the president of National Art Honor Society while she's only a junior.

Rita wants to get married and would like to have two children.

She deserves the very best in everything-here's hoping she gets the best.

Sharps and Flats

By Shields Remine This afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, in the auditorium, the Knoxville Symphony Orchestra will present an Educational Concert for Negro children of Knoxville. Although the Symphony has presented several educational concerts for the white city and county students. this is the first one presented here at KHS and the first for Negro students.

The program: Overture to the Marriage of Figaro, by Mozart; Polivitzian Dances from Prince Igor, by Borodin; Pop Goes the Weazel, and, the Cassion Song. The instruments of the orchestra will be demonstrated also. Three KHS students are members of the orchestra: Mil Benedict, cello; Harold Goldston and Shields Remine, French horns.

Orchestra Plays

Wednesday noon, the KHS Orchestra played for the Northside Kiwanis Club at Whittle Springs Hotel. This is the first of a series of performances which the Orchestra will play before its annual concert, tentatively scheduled for Monday, May 28. The Orchestra plans to play in all the Junior Highs, at several of the Civic Clubs, even travelling to Johnson City to play for East Tennessee State College, the Veterans' Home.

KHS Blues Win District Crown

Regional Tourney Starts; Trojans Hope For Finals

The Trojans made their first appearance in the Region II Tournament on Thursday night against a strong Clinton five as Regional Tournaments started all over the state of

If they succeeded in overpowering Clinton, they moved into the semi-finals with the winner of the Alcoa-Oakdale game. Clinton High's basketball team placed second in its district, losing to LaFollete in the finals.

The victor of the battle between Alcoa and Oakdale may prove a tough foe for the Blues. Both have top records in their respective districts

If the Trojans reach the finals, they may meet Catholic again or powerful Oneida. Oneida "harn't" lost a game this season, including tourney play, indicating a smooth working team.

Blues Have Good Chance

Judging by the way the Trojans played in the District Tourney, they have a good chance of reaching the finals. Young High, twice victim of the Blues' fast break, rolled over Clinton twice in regular season play.

The tournaments are being held in the University of Tennessee Alumni Gymnasium. The semifinals are Friday night, and the finals will be Saturday night at 8:00 o'clock.

Both of the teams in the finals will journey to the State Tourna-naments in Nashville, where they will meet the top teams from all over Tennessee .

McKinnon, Hall, Byington Chosen For All-Tourney

By Gary Adams Barry McKinnon, the Trojans' tiny powerhouse of basketball prowess, because of his outstanding play for the Big Blues, was awarded a position on the first All-Tournament Team of the District Six Tourney.

McKinnon sparked the Trojan play throughout the tourney, scoring twelve points in each of the appearances by the Trojans. He lost out in the battle for Outstanding Player of the Tourney to Lovelace of Central by one point.

Central High placed two on the first team, Billy Mac Lovelace, coaches' and officials' choice as Outstanding Player, and Lynn John, their classy guard. Leo Cooper, who led Powell to a near win over Catholic High, landed a first team slot. The other position went to Dodo Mabry, Catholic High's hard-playing guard.

Besides Byington and Hall on the second team were Tom Lockett, who paced Young when they gave Central a run for their money and lost by two points; Pete Campbell, another Powell High star; and Catholic's stocky center, Jim

KHS Players Restricted Next Season

The Tennessee Secondary Schools Athletic Association has taken steps to prevent students with athletic records at KHS from becoming free agents because of the closing of the school.

The City Board of Education has divided the city into zones, and these students will be able to participate in athletics only in their zone. The reason for the rules was the scramble for KHS athletes who still have a year of high school participation in athletics remaining.

Transfer rules for those enrolled at Stair Tech, Rule and South Knoxville will not change.

New Rules

A committee headed by Coach Sharp approved changes for the Track Meet. The recommendations were:

(1) A trophy and points for 2 mile relay. (2) A trophy for spirit medley relay. (3) Qualify only first and second relay teams. (4) Only teams placing first, second or third are eligible for State meet. (5) Limit contestant to three running events. (6) Special coaches meeting before meet. (7) Hold discus, javeline, pole vault, and high jump Saturday. (8) New procedure for conducting relays. (9) Allow 18c per mile to team with more than 10 men.

Final Totals Are Revealed

As previously announced Captain Bill Hall led all KHS scorers for the 1950-1951 season with a total output of 306 points. His average was a high 13.3 points per game.

sproul on the prowl

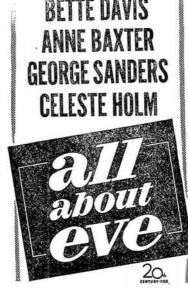

The Trojans had fair support in the tournament but not as much as they should have had. On Friday night the gym was jam-packed with people from Powell and I mean really jam-packed. They outnumbered both Knoxville and Central-at least it sounded like it. KHS really came through, and such boys as Byington, Hall, Mc-Kinnon, Testerman, and the rest deserve our best support. If the team goes to the state meet in Nashville, few of us can go. So, everybody go over to the U-T gym tonight and tomorrow night, and yell while you can.

I was just wondering, our KHS nickname is "Trojans", but what will the new high schools probably use. East High School could use "Crackers" in case another firecracker epidemic breaks out. Or it could be Fulton High "Bronco", after Coach "Bronco" Sharp. West High could adopt Mae West and let her select a good nickname. Any suggestions appreciated.

Teamwork Gives KHS Title In 58-36 Win Over Irish

Byington and McKinnon Lead Biblemen; Knoxville Meets Clinton in First Game

By Gary Adams

Blasting their opposition into submission with a dazzling display of fast-break artistry and precision team play, the Big Blue of KHS battled their way to the District Six Championship by trampling the Shamrocks of Catholic, 58-36.

Behind the terrific backboard play of J. D. Byington, the precision shooting of Barry McKinnon, and the unconquerable spirit of Bill Hall and the entire team, the Biblemen floored the Irish with comparative ease.

McKinnon Accurate

McKinnon was deadly accurate from the floor, hitting continuously, and slowly driving the Irish wild; he finally fouled out early in the second half. Barry scored 12 points in the first half. He was constantly scrapping for the ball thus breaking up many Catholic plays.

Captain Bill Hall seemed to give added zest as he set up scoring plays. Kyle Testerman contributed 8 points to the Trojans' cause. Buddy Cruze, using his height to full advantage, flipped in 6 points during his short tour of duty. Dewey Thomas and Bob Fry added 3 points each, and Pat Scruggs 1.

The Shamrocks just didn't have enough stuff to overcome the combination of the unbeatable spirit and co-ordinated team play of the Trojans.

The game began as if it would be another close contest, but Knoxville broke loose in the second period. They led by only one point after the first period, but had increased it to 30-12. Because their usual style of play seemed ineffective, Catholic, after half time, experimented with the fast break. But at the end of the third period KHS led 47-25.

Cooking, Sewing Town Deserted

By Susan Savoy

Vivian Byrd, who came from Oklahoma a few years ago, is a junior in Mr. Browning's group. She plans on becoming an Airline Hostess. Vivian likes to cookcookies best of all! She is not planning to make a career of her cooking abilities but she agrees that it will be helpful when "the little ones" of her future family come along. One of her favorite pastimes is rollerskating.

Nancy Davis, a senior who will turn 18 just before graduation, seems to excel in both cooking and sewing. Upon asking what she likes best to cook, I received the quaint answer, "Food." Nancy plans on majoring in Home Ec at the University and later on becoming a Home Ec teacher. This influence is probably due to the able supervision of Miss Tatem and Miss Chesnut and perhaps a splattering of talent on Nancy's part. She is now making a white satin evening coat.

June Cottrell is the cooking partner of Nancy Davis. She likes to cook very much and she also sews. She has her best success with pies and cakes. At the University she plans on majoring in Home Ec; after that either marriage or a career as a dietician in hospital will proably be her Pat Underwood is another senior interested in sewing. She has been sewing since the seventh grade and likes it very much. In the tenth grade she was under the guidance of Miss Jett. Pat is making a pink suit for Easter. She will enter either the Business College or the Home Ec Department at the University.

Pat McCrary is a senior who puts a new twist on Home Ec. She likes to sew and makes most of her clothes but she despises to cook. Pat is a wee mite of a girl, no taller than 5 feet 2 inches. She plans on majoring in Home Ec at the Hill and now is making a suit for Easter.

Visitin'

Ann Smith is going to spend her vacation in Kentucky where she goes with her family to visit an aunt.

Verna Haile is going to have a big time in a little town. She will stay with her grandmother in Union, South Carolina, for about a week.

Mary Lee Rule says she just "Can't wait!" 'till she's in Kingsport, Tennessee. Mary Lee will be visiting her aunt.

Joyce Groseclose will spend a week full of fun in Atlanta, Ga., with Loretta Kay, a former student of KHS.

Home Folks

Most of the KHS students are just staying home. After all, it isn't so bad. Fishing trips and camping parties seem to be the most popular with the boys; and the girls-well, you know.

Then and Now

By Jo Ann Crawford

In trying to dig up some old facts for this column (against my will, believe me) I found in the 1933-34 Blue & White things which could be used all over again this year. For instance, in the column "The Spectator," I read "Edington, haven't you gotten over him yet?"-this could apply to Betty Lebow; also, "Lost: One picture of Jimmy. Highly valued by its owner,"-sounds just like Melba

A cute poem was found which we dedicate to the boys of KHS. Here it is,
