"Her Old Sweethearts"

There was a girl popular, she had a host of beaux
But who her sweethearts were these verses will disclose.

There was an English Nobleman who liked her witching grace. (Earl)
There was a fool that burglars use to get into a place. (Jimmy)
And something that will lift your cars, once pledged devotion true. (Jack)
The style in which she wore her hair, that was a sweetheart, too. (Bob)
Out-spoken was another one, the lady to adore. (Frank)
A narrow pass, insert an "e" and there you have one more. (George)
Funeral coverings, think of that! was quite a springly beau. (Mat)
A German coin was fond of her and often told her so. (Mark)
A statement, too, of what she owed once held her very dear. (Bill)
And least but not least "leon" with yard minus "y",
was the most fond and true. (Leonard)

Yes, all of them at different times, avowed a true affection, and
So these old sweethearts of hers were quite a queer collection.

The Season of Lent

The word Lent comes from the Anglo-Saxon lencthen, meaning "spring." The season, which begins on Ash Wednesday, includes those forty days, other than Sundays, before Easter. The forty-day period has many symbolic origins: the time Moses spent on Mount Sinai, the forty years' wandering by the Israelites in the wilderness, Christ's forty days of temptation, and his forty hours in the tomb.

Gregory the Great, an early Pope, urged that Lent be a time of discipline. He said, "we, . . . through the past year have lived too much for ourselves, (and) should mortify ourselves to our creator in the tenth of the year through abstinence." In the early Church, Lent was a time of instructing those who were to be baptized. Then, as now, those who observed Lent expressed a feeling of remorse as they approached Easter Sunday. Today, many give up some pleasure during Lent as a preparation for Easter, remembering One who gave up the greatest pleasure man enjoys—that of living.

Holston Is "Tops" In T.V. Classroom Quiz

Judy Pinkston, Bob Murrian and Paul Wyatt have given people reason to "sit up and take notice" of Holston High School. For the past two weeks, they have won decisive victories over East High and Carter High in the T.V. Classroom Quiz. The team has a total of three wins. (Their first win was over Central.)

On Sunday, February the third, the team matched wits with East High School and won by a land slide of 400 to 180. Paul Wyatt, team captain, answered most of the questions with Bob and Judy backing him up. Judy answered the bonus questions.

The next Sunday, the Holston team met the team from Carter and again won, this time by a score of 300 to 100. Paul answered 20 ten-point questions, Bob, three ten-point questions and Judy answered 1 ten-point question and 2 bonus questions.

Judy's questions, which dealt mainly with art and music, included the composer of the music for "Show Boat", (Jerome Kern), and the date of this year's Dogwood Arts Festival (April 14-28).

Bob answered such questions as who was "the man without a country" (Phillip Nolan) and what kind of gun was used to kill Abraham Lincoln (a derringer).

Paul, who chalked-up the answers to twenty ten-point questions, answered questions on geography, history and science.

The team, having won three games, will now retire until the run-off. They may compete with other three-time winning schools to determine a final winner.

February Is American History Month

Did you know that February is American History Month? There are many notable historical events and birthdays in this month. In addition to our country's two greatest presidents, WASHINGTON and LINCOLN, the following famous Americans were also born in February: THOMAS EDISON, WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON, SUSAN B. ANTHONY, WILLIAM T. SHERMAN, "BABE" RUTH, CHARLES A. LINDBERG, DANIEL BOONE, and "BUFFALO BILL" CODY. Many memorable events also took place in February. The Mexican and Spanish-American Wars ended in this month and the states of OREGON, ARIZONA, MASSACHUSETTS, and FLORIDA were added to the Union. So the month of February is a most appropriate time to appreciate and take a renewed interest in the history of our country. Hats off to American History Month!

Nine Are In U. T. Honors Program

The University of Tennessee Honors Program in English enables gifted freshmen to receive credit for nine semester hours of work, while attending class only six. Nine students from the Class of 1962 qualified for this program. They are Sharon Amburn, Lynnelle Hammett, Sandra Hinsdale, Sharon Hodges, Carol Mays, Tom Nicholson, Mary Kyle Raulston, Mary Stonecipher, and Nancy Word.

From the ACT and other tests, U.T. officials selected these nine due to their high English ratings. They entered English 111h, made passing marks, and received a grade in 111h, plus an automatic B for the required English 111. They then entered English 112h under the same program.

All nine alumni have maintained high averages in their freshman courses.

Sophomore Earns Scholarship Pin

Mary Foster, an attractive sophomore who transferred here from East Ridge High School in Chattanooga, has received her pin for scholastic achievement. She was awarded this pin for maintaining a 3.6 average for two semesters. Since she transferred at the beginning of the second semester last year, she has just now completed the required two semesters. She is an active member of Eastminster Presbyterian Church where she sings in the choir, and serves on the communications committee at youth fellowship. She also belongs to Y-Teens.

By Mike Anderson
Miss Helen Hayes

"First Lady of the American Theatre"

Helen Hayes was born in Washington, D. C. and made her first appearance with the Columbia Stock Company at the age of five playing Prince Charles in "The Royal Family." She was appearing in a musical revue with a local dancing school when the famed comedian Lew Fields spotted her and offered her a part in "Old Dutch" of 1908.

Seven years ago, in a belated honor to the "First Lady of the American Theatre," and in observance of fifty years gloriously spent in its service, Broadway's Fulton Theatre was renamed the Helen Hayes.

In the past two decades, she has been seen in Eugene O'Neill's "Touch of the Poet." She appeared as Mrs. Howard V. Larue II in "Mrs. McThing," and her celebrated Princess-to-Royal-Dowager role in "Victoria Regina" which ran for almost three years on Broadway.

Miss Hayes was one of the first name stars of the stage to go into radio. She was also a pioneer in television and has played many starring roles in that medium, most memorable of which was "Mary, Queen of Scots."

Recently Miss Hayes appeared in the Knoxville Auditorium with Maurice Evans in "A Program for Two Players."

Bob Murrian Reports On D. C. Trip

During the week of January 27 to February 2, I was privileged to participate in the first United States Senate Youth Program (S. Y. P.). The idea behind the program is to give 102 young people from all over America a working knowledge of the United States Senate. The program is entirely financed by The William Randolph Hearst Foundation.

Two teenagers from each state and two from the District of Columbia were selected for the expense-paid trip.

The greatest thing about the trip was the noted speakers who took their valuable time to tell us about some phase of government. Among these speakers were: Sen. Hubert Humphrey, Sen. Tom Kuchel, Sen. Mike Mansfield, Speaker John McCormack, Sen. Estes Kefauver, Pierre Salinger, Sen. Claiborn Pell, and finally the President himself.

Our group was given "priority" treatment by the Senate. We even got a police escort from the Pentagon to the Senate during rush hour traffic. We were allowed to go onto the Senate and House floor (something very rarely done by visitors). We toured the Supreme Court, White House, Pentagon, and the Capital building.

On Tuesday I spent the day in Sen. Kefauver's office and got a fairly good idea of the workings of a Senator's office.

On Friday we were given a tour of Washington itself. We visited such places as Arlington National Cemetery, the Marine Memorial, The Smithsonian Institute, The National Art Gallery (we saw the Mona Lisa), and the National Archives.

Our visit in Washington enabled us to see the things that every American should try to see in his lifetime.

KINGS DAUGHTERS

The annual Charity Ball sponsored by the Alpha Junior Circle of the King's Daughters was a glamorous evening. The 17 candidates for Queen of Clubs were dressed in floor-length white formals. They were attended by pages, Miss Cindy Lou Copeland and Miss Patty Hancock. The 1963 Queen of Clubs, Miss Carol Biakely, representing the Central High Sub-Debs, was crowned by the 1962 Queen, Mrs. Thomas Tandy, the former Miss Rebecca Blanchard. First runner-up was Miss Cynthia Richardson, representing the Holston Key Club. Second runner-up was Miss Diane Simmons, representing the Young High Penguins.

The guests, dressed semiformal, danced to the music of the Epics. Ron Ashburn was the Master of Ceremonies. The Ball was held from 8 to 12 on Saturday, February 9 at the U.T. Alumni Auditorium.

Student Council Sponsors Basketball Queen Contest

Suzanne Wood, First runner-up
Rosalind Perrin, Basketball Queen

Rosalind Perrin is Holston's first Basketball Queen. This was announced in an assembly on January 31, after many days of strenuous campaigning. The queen is the official sweetheart of the basketball team. Suzanne Wood is the first runner-up. Basketball captains Jim Boswell and David Greene awarded the prizes to the girls. Each girl received a bouquet of red roses and a charm with her accomplishment inscribed on it. Rosalind was sponsored by the Senior Y-Teens, and Suzanne was sponsored by the Beta Club. A picture of the queen and her runner-up will appear in the school annual.

The major requirements for the contestants were to be seniors and to be sponsored by a club with senior members. The Queen Contest was sponsored by the Student Council, whose members counted the ballots and work members counted the ballots and worked in every aspect of the contest.

Nancy Parker, Carson King, Mr. and Miss Freshman; Helen Murray, Eddie Treece, Mr. and Miss Sophomore; Jennifer Logan, Walter Fain, Mr. and Miss Junior.

GIFTS FROM CUPID

It would certainly have been Cupid's deed of the year if everyone had awakened Valentine's morn to find that Sonny Vandergriff had been struck by one of Cupid's arrows.

Cupid should give Alan Shirley a life-time membership at the Playboy Bunny Club.

A nice gift on Valentine day would be Jo Anne Shipe with all her beautiful clothes.

Cupid must have shot a broken arrow when he shot at Charlie Bowers and Susan Hoover.

Cupid is trying to help Diane Winn catch Bill Rhodes long enough to prick him good with an arrow. She seems to be doing a good job without Cupid's help, I guess that's because Bill doesn't mind being caught.

For some reason, Cupid tried to make his arrows do double work for Charlie McDaniels and Nancy Parker.

A gift for Toni Rongo would be a Mounty who she has been seen with lately. Cupid was told his name is Tom Atchley.

Cupid really knew what he was doing when Peggy Woody and Tommy Newman were struck with an arrow.

FADS and FASHIONS

Although the weather has been gloomy lately, the fashions at Holston have really brightened things up. For an example, look at Peggy Dickerson's yellow wrap-around skirt and matching white and yellow trimmed sweater.

Some Holston girls wear different types of shoes. Barbara Johnson, Evelyn Irwin, Barbara Cox, and Jane Collignon have various styles and shades.

Gloria Atkins looks especially good in her light blue skirt and sweater outfit.

Cathern Bell is seen wearing a tan jumper with a print blouse to go with it.

Our B-team cheerleaders look cute in their uniforms.

Xen Portwood has a very sharp white bulky sweater. Bill Rhodes, Freddie Hawk, Tommy Sherrod, Mark Medley, and Jimmy Wishart have good looking shirt collections.

Third WARRIOR Payments Starts February 25

HOLSTON TAKES SECOND PLACE IN AA RACE

Warriors Nip West

The upset-minded Rebels from West almost succeeded when they came to Holston. But the determined Warriors didn't take the hint and came back strong with a 56-53 victory.

West had a near-perfect scoring balance. Flash Powers scored 18 to lead all scorers. Teammates Russ Williams, Jerry Mackinnon, and Wayne Young added 10 each.

The Rebels jumped off to an 11-8 lead at the end of one quarter. Holston tied it up at 22-22 at halftime. West pulled out in front, 40-39, going into the last 8 minutes of play.

Johnny McMillan hit two free throws, then intercepted a pass, drew another foul and sank two baskets for the Holston victory.

Jim Boswell and Charlie Bower paced Holston with 14 each.

Bulldogs Slide By Warriors

Despite a magnificent comeback on the part of Holston, Bearden could not be stopped during the first three quarters and handed Holston a close 63-61 loss.

The great Wayne Tipton out-did himself as he scored 30 points. Steve Larson added 12.

The Bulldogs were on top at all rest stops. They led 13-8 at the end of the first quarter, 32-20 at halftime, and 50-35 going into the fourth frame.

The Holston comeback was headed by Jim Boswell (21), Charlie Bower (11), and Jim Hardin (12).

Young Stops Cold Holston

The powerful AA Division Champions used their tremendous offense and took advantage of the dead-cold Warriors to smack Holston with a 76-46 spanking on the Young floor.

Young was never threatened as they extended their lead in the first quarter, 12-10, to 34-23 at halftime and 52-30 at the end of three quarters.

Dave Courtney proved his excellence as he poured through 30 points. Al Franklin added 16, and Ed Woods pitched in 10 for the cause.

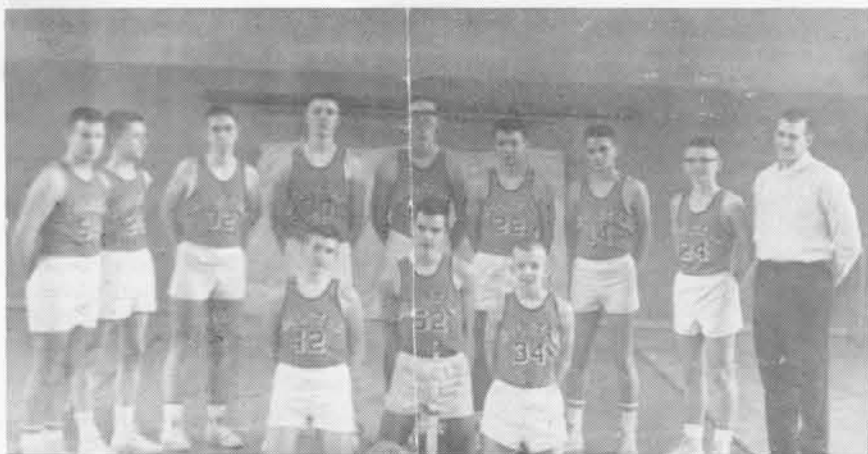

Best for Holston was Charlie Bower with 14.

Widby Leads Falcons By Warriors

With Ronnie Widby at the controls, Fulton drove past Holston, 57-46, on Holston's court. Widby scored 37 points to lead all scorers for the night. Steve Maple scored 12 for Fulton.

The first half was promising for Holston. They held a 15-11 margin at the end of one quarter, and 30-26 at halftime. In the third quarter the Falcons put on the coal and pulled ahead, 42-36, at the end of three quarters. Holston couldn't catch them from there.

Charlie Bower and Jim Boswell led Holston with 14 points each.

PROUD FRESHMAN TEAM—SECOND IN TOURNAMENT

FROSH MISS UNDEFEATED SEASON; FRESHMAN TITLE

The Holston High freshmen missed an undefeated season in the freshmen tournament when Alcoa slipped by the Warriors, 42-39. This was the first loss for coach Dwayne Carter's amazing freshmen.

The freshmen finished out the regular season with an 10-0 work slate. They entered the tourney as the top-seeded team, but fell before Alcoa in the finals.

In the opening round of the tourney, the Warriors notched an impressive victory over Powell. Pulling away to a 16-5 first quarter lead, the Warriors continued to roll on to their 62-40 win. Frank Hall and Dick Stansberry lead the scoring with 18 and 11 respectively.

In the quarter-finals the baby Warriors met a fired up team from Halls; upset victor over Bearden in the first round. The freshmen stormed back in the second half to take a 41-35 decision. Down by 3 at the half, 23-20, the Warriors took command in the third period and gained a lead, which they never relinquished. Once again Frank Hall lead the scoring with 16 while David Fain chipped in with 13.

In the finals the Warriors found their stiffest competition of the season. Alcoa, a Blount County power, invaded the Knox Tourney and advanced to the finals. The Warriors had their undefeated season and the frosh title at stake, and saw both fall in vain. Alcoa jumped off to a 21-20 halftime lead, but the Warriors pushed ahead 30-27 at the third rest stop. The Alcoa offense then went into full gear, and the Tornadoes out scored Holston 15-9 in final frame to post their 42-39 victory. Dick Stansberry fired through 14 while always outstanding Frank Hall was held at 11. Also Frank Hall was elected to the All-Tournament team.

Holston Frosh Finish Season at 10-0

The Holston freshmen team finished their regular season play with a 33-29 victory over the Young Yellow jackets. The frosh remained undefeated in season play and boasted the best record for a freshmen team in the history of Holston. Frank Hall lead the scoring with 13 points. The freshmen team should be congratulated and Coach Dwayne Carter for his outstanding coaching.

Holston Smashes Central

Holston used its fine offense and defense combination and the scoring of Jim Boswell (21) and John McMillan (10) to bump off Central, 67-45, on the Holston hardwood.

The Warriors took the lead in the first quarter, 16-7, and held on through the rest of the game. The score was 31-15 at half time, and 49-23 going into the last quarter.

Phil Parkey and Jim Castle led the Bobcats with 12 points each.

Hall Leads Frosh Win

The fantastic Frank Hall fired through 18 points and Larry Rhodes added 12 as the Holston freshmen pushed their record to 9-0 with an impressive win over Powell, 58-45. The dead-eye shooting and strong rebounding of Frank Hall pushed Holston to a 16-8 first-quarter lead which they never gave up.

'Warriorettes' Take Third

The sharp-shooting of Brenda Seritt and Jane Smartt led the Holston lassies past Farragut 50-41, giving them third place in the District 6 Tournament. Besides placing Eleanor Parrott and Jane Smartt on the All-Tournament team, Holston also received the Sportsmanship Trophy.
