CLASS DAY CHAPEL

Starting off the senior activities for the class of '67 will be Class Day on Thursday, May 25. The seniors will present a special chapel. Bill Richards will M.C. the program and Amelia Perkins will take the class roll. The class history will be read by Connie Wilhoit and Kathy England; the Last Will and Testament, by Donna Oglesby and Clara Trent. Wanda Lewis and Vicki Braun will recall senior activities in "Remember When" and presenting "Song Titles" will be Sharon Mellon and Sonya Lindsey.

Additional entertainment will include band numbers by a trio—Ken Wahle, Kerry Hodge, and Jack Hansard and "The Bushmen" with David Rutherford, Larry Mays, Bill Chanaberry and Joe Bryson. "Graduation Day" will be sung by Mariene Byrd and Charlotte Pollard, accompanied by Joe Peterson. Donnie Bryan and Mike Frye will present "How Do You Talk To A Girl." Joe Peterson and Barbara Perry will play piano solos, and then Barbara will accompany Paul Daniels on the French horn. Singing the "Lord's Prayer" will be Mike Frye. Appearing in a Caesar skit will be Donnie Bryan, Mike Frye, Phillip Akers, Mike Smith, Gelon Bowden, and Bill Chanaberry.

BANQUET

The Senior Banquet on May 26 will be held at 6:30 p.m. at the U.T. Student Center Ballroom.

PROM

On May 26, at 9:00 p.m. following the banquet, the Senior Prom will begin. The prom will also be held at the U.T. Student Center Ballroom and will last until midnight. Providing the music for the prom will be the "Loved Ones."

BACCALAUREATE

The Baccalaureate will be held at Magnolia Avenue Methodist Church, Sunday, May 28, at 7:30 p.m. The speaker will be Rev. Maynard S. Luttrell.

COMMENCEMENT

Commencement will be held at the U.T. Alumni Memorial Auditorium on Tuesday, May 30, at 8:00 p.m.

"Pomp and Circumstance" will be played by the East High Band under the direction of Mr. Charles Blake and Mr. Robert Lewis will lead the singing of "America."

Rev. Frank Gordon, pastor, Shiloh Presbyterian Church, will give the invocation.

The choir will sing "Let There Be Peace On Earth." The second selection of the band is "Two Moods Overture." Miss Mary K. Scarbrough will recognize seniors with awards and honors. Dr. Olin L. Adams, Jr., Superintendent, Knoxville City Schools, will present the Class of 1967 to Mr. John S. Humphreys, secretary of the Board of Education, who will award the diplomas. The recessional number "God Of Our Fathers" will be played by the band.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKERS

From the eight students who tried out with an excerpt from "The Crisis" by Thomas Paine, four were selected as commencement speakers on the basis of memorization, poise, delivery, and diction.

The theme for the commencement program is CHALLENGES OF MODERN YOUTH. Speaking first is Pat Kelly on the subject "Youth Takes His Place in Society." Wanda Lewis discusses "Youth Looks at His Religion." The third topic, given by Barilynn Howard, is "Youth Surveys His Opportunities in Education" and the last speaker, Alan Danziger speaks on "Youth Accepts His Responsibilities in World Understanding."

MERIT SCHOLARSHIP

Although she has been finishing her senior year at the University of Tennessee, Margaret Ellen Dunsmore will graduate with her class. She has accumulated sufficient credits to be ranked as a second quarter sophomore. She has forty-six hours of work with a 3.59 point average.

Her schedule includes both regular and honor courses; chemistry, calculus, English, German, western civilization history, and a computer math course, which is done on IBM 7040 machines.

Margaret is one of the few

Merit Scholarship winners in the Knoxville area. Next year she will continue attending U.T. on a chemistry co-op program. She has been assigned to Union Carbide, Oak Ridge, as a chemist laboratory assistant. This year she has been playing on the U.T. women's tennis team.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Dunsmore, Rt. 19, Kimberlin Heights Road. She will be eighteen years old on Dec. 1.

Kelly Retires After 46 Years

Climaxing a career of forty-six years, which included Boyd Junior High (1919-44), Besumont Elementary (1945-46), Knoxville High School (1946-50), and East High (1950-67), Mrs. Jessie Kelly is retiring from the Knoxville City Schools system.

For seventeen years, Mrs. Kelly has been teaching the students of East their health classes and serving as assistant in the medical room.

From 1923 to 1924 she took a leave of absence to get her master's degree from Columbia University. She is also a graduate of Knoxville High School and University of Tennessee.

She is the wife of Judge John Kelly, a retired circuit court judge. She has one daughter, Mrs. Laura Faherty and four grandsons: Frank, Kevin, Miles and Brian, ranging from 16 to 10 years of age. This family lives in Fort Worth, Texas. Mrs. Kelly also spends a lot of time with her mother.

Mrs. Kelly is one of the best-dressed women teachers and is well-known for her "on & off" diets. She is well-liked by all the students and will always be remembered by many graduates of East High.

Leadership

(First place in District VI, third place in State; in Original Oratory for Boys. Excerpts from speech delivered by Thomas Ross, 10th grade.)

Leadership is one of the prime necessities of any nation, large or small, great or otherwise. That is why I have chosen leadership as my subject today.

Walter Lippman describes the real leader by saying: "The genius of a good leader is his ability to create a situation which common sense can deal with successfully. The final test of a leader is that he leave behind him in other men the conviction to carry on."

Who is this person who is willing to add to the so-called normal problems of every day life by accepting the additional burdens of the position of leadership.

The leader must have not only certain definite qualities, but must also have a decent respect for the position of those under him in correspondence to the respect given to him by his followers. He must consider the individuals of the unit and try to mold each of these people with their different ideas into a smooth-working team. Without this mutual respect the goal for which the team is working is lost.

It is inevitable that problems will arise which the leader alone must face. The way he handles certain problems might make him unpopular, but the use of tact will prevent the lack of effectiveness resulting from unpopularity.

He will have to make decisions, many of which will be right, but there is always that wrong decision that can damage the team mentally, morally and physically, or even destroy it completely. Although he tries to give the right commands at the right times, let the good leader rest assured that an unwise decision is better than none at all.

The leader can have disappointments; watching all he has worked for smashed under the feet of a person who later assumes this position, seeing an organization slowly deteriorate for want of subordinates who will take responsibilities, is heartbreaking.

Today our respect for individuality has largely been replaced by a passion for security. If the goal is to hide in a social group, why should we expect leadership? Whenever we sell individualism short, we lay the ax at the roots of democratic leadership, though we open the way for demagogues.

The classroom and the schools with their varied organizations provide a proving ground for leadership. The boy on the debating team, the girl directing a play, those, whether in the student council or on the athletic field, are learning cooperation and are giving opportunities for developing individuality.

We must teach our people to lead, for without leadership we have no future, and the civilization which has thus far so nobly advanced will crumble into nothingness.

We must go forth to establish new institutions which will teach the tactical and practical knowledge a leader must have in order to be effective in his position.

May God and all the wisdom of the ages help guide our generation into a world of peace and optimism that we may fulfill our highest potential for the benefit of all mankind.

What Would You Say If . . .

Mr. Bible asked you to get a haircut. "Do you really think I need one?"

The study hall teacher will not let you out. "I just remembered I have to go to talk to Coach Wynn."

Your girl friend suggests a steak dinner. "Would you believe $2.00 and the Blue Circle?"

Dorothy does not give you a large enough helping. "I'm still a growing boy and need plenty of vitamins."

Miss Naberhuis asked you for a story you do not have. "Sorry about that, Chief."

Mrs. Morgan asked you to explain a 100%. "One hundred per cent of what?"

Mrs. Hankins said three times around the track. "In what direction?"

Mrs. Bennett says you were kissing your girl in the hall. "I was not; I just bit her on the neck. Weren't you ever young once?"

The couples in the hall have changed partners. "We'd rather switch than fight."

The teacher asked you to put your shirt tail in. "It's the kind that is supposed to be worn out."

Miss Dowell doesn't give you a zero. "There's always tomorrow."

Miss Bird gives you an F. "You can't do that; I'm in Masquers."

You hit a telephone pole while driving your Dad's car. "There was this drunk telephone pole and it ran out in front of me."

The police run you off "Blueberry Hill." "Sir, we were just enjoying the view."

Your steady girl makes a date with your best friend. "Have fun!"

Becky Suffridge walks down the hall without Mike Daniels. "Where's your shadow?"

You hit a sour note during a concert. "Who me?"

During a date one of your false eyelashes falls off. "Guess I winked too hard."

One night you purr "I love you, Joe." "Sorry about that, Bill."

In the middle of a test the teacher finds you with your book open. "The wind must have done that."

You send out invitations and forget to insert your name card. "Well, that ends all the loot I was going to collect."

You get caught. "But, but . . . B - U - T!"

Seniors Remember When . . .

Alan Danziger was Don Juan for Connie Wilhoit, Kathy England, and Vicki Braun.

Henry Carson had it bad over Charlotte.

Pat Atchley and Sharon Stiffel were still around.

Barry Lail got Vicki B. and Vickie I. mixed up.

Bill Chanaberry had his blue Chrysler "Batmobile."

Steve Gibbs broke the zero record in Miss Dowell's class; 16 in 6 weeks.

Sonya Lindsey was the quiet type.

Joe Bryson got "sick" at a party at Monday's cottage.

Bill Richards wasn't such a "hound."

Some people's pictures in the Beacon diminished in size as the year progressed.

Bessie Green wasn't Miss Dowell's assistant.

Howard Linder had his beard. Someone put akunk perfume in the health room.

Everyone was putt-putt crazy.

Kenny Wahle had short hair.

Cathy McAmis liked Tony Evans.

Dick Ailor walked to school.

We had a Mr. Mountaineer.

The swimming team lost all its meets.

Kerry Hodge blew his horn every morning in the boys' restroom.

When the 1966 senior class came to school in hobo's dress on Junior Class Day.

Mountain Ears

Dear Those Who Is Leavin': All them seniors is cryin' about graduating; some 'cause they will truly miss East, some 'cause they is bin so over-worked during the past four years, and some 'cause they can't miss Uncle Sam. So good luck to all and keep yer heads down.

I heerd ole Tony H. done treed a "Bobcat" and Connie W. is tryin' everything she can to shoot her out of the saddle, er tree.

Fountain Bowling Lanes is gettin' real good business around the midnite hour because Vicki Braun and Tony H., as soon as they ditch other people, is off for a night of ten pins, etc., but not together.

Sonya Lindsey wuz sure surprised when they started to throw her in the "room," but Gary McG. was even more surprised as he was waitin' fer her inside and she done never showed up.

Barry Lail's battin' average sure is goin' down in more ways than jest baseball. I heerd Joyce S. and Herbie done wrote notes to each other all night at the track meet last week. Freddie W. done went and tried to get a whistle out of Teresa S. but I think he got more than he bargained for.

Well, them Beacons is been put out, and all them tears done flowed, too bad Coach Polston didnt cry 'cause then the whole stage would have been full of water.

When you sends a Mack truck like Rupert Breedlove (235 pounds), down the hall and a little Volkswagon like Mary Johnson (under 100 pounds) comes out of a "side road" classroom door without making the appropriate stop, there is a head-on collision and the VW gets floored.

Spring fever or something has done hit Mrs. Bennett. She was last seen carrying her empty lunch tray up the steps which lead OUT of the lunch room. When this unusual action was called to her attention, she remarked, "Well, that's what happens when you get old."

Did ya hear about the couple who was hugging in the hall and Miss Million politely suggested to them, "Why don't you use your own living room?" To which the boy replied, "Can't, too many people around here."

Bill Richards makes a hole in his big toe every time he drags it on the asphalt during a track meet. He could crawl under the bar instead of trying to jump over it.

I shore wish Prent D. would find a better place to pass out than during a special program, and especially that one.

Them seniors what am lookin' forward to the 26th is hopin' that all of 'em makes the trek across the stage to git the little "Baa-baa" papers. We hears that some of them is headin' for Gatlinburg to celebrate their entrance into the big, wide world. The Beacon staff says they is goin' to Indian Rock Grill for their party.

Me and Clementine is really wishing all of them boys and girls the best of everything and success in their years ahead.

So long for another year.
Willie and Clementine

Secretary Of The Year

AMELIA ANN PERKINS

Amelia Ann Perkins was honored by being named Secretary of the Year. She was selected on the basis of her excellent service to individuals and organizations; including teachers, Beacon, senior class, students, and school office.

She was elected secretary of the senior class and has fulfilled the responsibilities of this heavy work load. In previous years this position was done with the assistance of two typists. Other positions held include secretary of both FSA and her homeroom, library assistant, and membership in Latin Club, Pep Club, Masquers, Y-Teens, and Anchor Club.

Her shorthand speed is 120 wpm and her typing averages over 70 words per minute.

Amelia hopes to take the two-year secretarial course at U.T. Her ambition is to become an executive secretary.

Outstanding FSA Member

MARY ANN McNAB

The members of the Future Secretaries Association elected Mary Ann McNab the outstanding member of the year. She was elected vice-president, but in the fall assumed the responsibilities of the president when it became necessary. Her leadership carried her through the Valentine corages project and the secretarial institute at U.T.

Her interests and club activities have included Latin Club, Pep Club, Anchor Club, National Honor Society, office assistant, homeroom offices, and varsity cheerleader.

She led the class in her shorthand ability and received the second-year medal. Her transcription speeds have been almost 140 wpm.

Mary Ann plans to attend U.T. after she graduates from East.

If anybody can do it, let him. You can do something more difficult.

Track Team Retains KIL And District 5 Championships

For the second year, East's track team is the best in the city. Paced by nine lettermen, the Mounties have rolled up an impressive record, including the defeat of Oak Ridge for the first time in 13 years. East proved its superiority in the K.I.L. by winning with 38 points over Fulton with 32. Six points is a large margin in a meet of this size.

The 440 and 880 relay teams have both set new school records. The 440 team is the fastest in District 3, and holds the school record of 44.9 seconds. The 880 unit, possibly the best in the state, holds the new mark of 1:32.9. Eddie Johnson, Witt Hodson, Paul Daniels, and Dobie Johnson make up both units.

Ed Thomas is the top contender for District 3 honors in both the mile and 880 run. Ed is capable of a 2 minute half-mile and will probably approach it in the District.

In the mile relay unit, Rocky Davis, Paul Daniels, Dobie Johnson and Ray Humphries will be the best bet to win the District and go on to the Regional at Chattanooga, May 13. The two-mile relay (Buford McKinney, Ira Scott, Wayne McKinney, Lewis Bryant) also has an excellent chance to advance to the Regionals; all the members being above average half-milers.

Rocky Davis (53.0) and Bethel Hendricks (56.0) run the quarter mile. Eddie Johnson has tied the school record in the 220 several times with 22.4. Ray Humphries holds the K.I.L. meet record in the low hurdles with 19.8.

In the field events, Rupert Breedlove holds the record for the shot put and discus. Bill Richards high jumped 5' 11", his best mark. Albert Robinson has been prevented from pole vaulting because of an injured knee.

Share your happy moments and your hours will be long with joy.

Mounties On Top In "A" Division

Under the direction of Coach Polston, this year's baseball team shows a successful record of 19-6. All of the losses have been to freshmen college teams with the exceptions of South (2-1) in 8 innings and Central (3-2).

At this point the team is on top in the A division; two games ahead of both West and Catholic. They have defeated West twice, 6-3 and 2-1; and Catholic, 2-1. The remaining league games are with Catholic and Austin.

The outstanding performance of the season was a "perfect" game, which means no man reached first base safely, pitched by Albert Alexander. He whiffed nine Rule batters as East won 6-0. This brilliant performance has not been matched in KIL history.

Playing West at East, the Mounties had to score two runs in the last inning to gain the victory. Gary Painter doubled Gary McGhee home, who got on bases on an error and then Painter stole third. Mike Daniels squeezed him home, which provided the winning run for a 2-1 victory.

Top hitters Gary McGhee, Gary Painter and Tom Jones are all batting over .300; McGhee, around .450. Stanley Pippin has guarded the plate well all season. Pitching duties have also been handled by Skip Jackson, James Carpenter, Curtis Hill, Mike Daniels and Freddie Jackson. A strong infield, consisting of Tom Jones, Jackie Booher, Gary McGhee, and Barry Lail, have provided a good defense for the pitchers. The outfield has been Gary Painter, John Beaufort, Tony Henson, and utility outfielder Joe Dooley.

Girls Participate in Tourney

NHS Service Inducts Junior Members

Juniors Sherrye Cosby, Harvey Linder, Patricia Scandrick, Larry Tate, Richard Burnett, Carl Hurst, and Linda Crawford were inducted into the National Honor Society. Their selection was based on their all-around achievements and scholastic ability.

The induction was preceded by an address by Dr. Herman Spivey, vice-president for academic affairs at U.T. President Joe Bryson explained the importance of NHS. Pat Kelly, Connie Wilhoit, Wanda Lewis, and Dottie Jo White spoke on the four ideals: scholarship, character, leadership, and service. Connie stated that scholarship is the love of learning and the search for truth. Pat emphasized the importance of good character.

Wanda stated that the peace and prosperity of the world and the salvation of mankind from itself are in the leaders' hands. Dottie Jo challenged every member to use his ability for the services of others while traveling down the pathway toward our goal of peace.

Like rare perfume, flattery should be smelled, not swallowed.

Dempster, Kelly Homerooms Win Division Games

This year's Boys' Intramural Homeroom Basketball Tournament has two champions. The upper division champs, Miss Dempster's homeroom, won their title by defeating Mrs. Barringer's homeroom. To get to the finals they had to defeat the homerooms of Mrs. Harvey, Miss Bird, and Mr. Lewis.

The lower division winners, Mrs. Kelly's homeroom, earned the division title by defeating Mr. Kraushaar's homeroom for the championship. To get to the finals they had to defeat the homerooms of Mrs. Washington and Mrs. Murray.

The members of Miss Dempster's team were Mark Franklin, Kenneth Foster, Roy Elder, Percy Conley and the most outstanding player of the upper division, Buddy England. The members of Mrs. Kelly's homeroom were Larry Goodman, Benny Goodman, Jay Harris, Buddy Johnson, Willie Howard, and the most outstanding player of the lower division, Calvin Harris. They were coached by Bethel Hendricks.

The upper division all-tournament team, besides Buddy England, consisted of Reggie Armstrong, Jack Manning, Larry Johnson, Bennie Tate, Roy Elder, Prent Dixon, Carlos Graves, Albert Castle, and James Wynn. The lower division all-tournament team, besides Calvin Harris, consisted of Ricky Jordon, Larry Goodman, David Holbert, Brian Harvey, James Knuckles, Gary Nelson, Tyrone Moore, and Benny Goodman.

Coach Wynn deserves credit for the fine job he did in conducting the tournament.

Creative Marketing Project Wins First In Competition

For the sixth consecutive year, the Distributive Education class has placed first in city and county high school competition in the Creative Marketing Project, sponsored by the Knoxville Sales and Marketing Executives - International. In 1965, their project on motels won first place in National DECA competition.

The project's subject this year was "A Survey To Determine The Restaurant Patronage During The Lunch Hour By Knoxville Busi-

Ross Places Third In Original Oratory

After placing first in the District 6 competition, Thomas Ross won third place in Boys' Original Oratory on the subject of leadership in the Tennessee High School Speech and Drama League.

"Pierre Patelin," a one-act play with which East won the state competition ten years ago, was presented by this year's group and won the district. In this competition, awards were given to the selected all-star cast which included from East the "Best Actor," Mike Frye; and "Best Actress," Sandy Snyder.

The play was presented in the auditorium during the sixth period for the students and faculty. The play "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay" is now in production with the cast including Jack Dyer, Mike Frye, Joe Bryson, Phillip Akers, Jack Hensley, Jim Ogle, Joe Peterson, Pat Hatfield, Sandy Snyder, Linda Powell, Nancy Mellon, and Patty Wright.

Choir Receives "A" Ratings

The choir, competing in the East Tennessee Vocal Association's Choral Festival, was rated "A" in performance and sight-reading in the B division.

The choir was graded on their stage performance, voice intonation and blend and articulation. In the sight-reading clinic, they were handed new music to sing.

During the Spring Concert, May 11, the choir included in the sacred numbers: Brahms' "Let Nothing Ever Grieve Thee;" and "Song of Praise." The glee club sang "Johnny Has Gone For a Soldier," and Beethoven's "Devotion." The last part of the program included "Love Is A Many Splendored Thing," "Gossip, Gossip," and "The Thing."

The choir has been singing at several community churches. The congregations have shown their gratitude by contributing to the choral departments' expenses. The students' conduct has exemplified respectful young men and women; participation has been appreciated.
