

P-T ESTABLISH STUDENTS LOAN FUND AT K. H. S.

To Aid Many Worthy Boys and Girls in Struggle For Education.

The Parent-Teachers' Association held their regular monthly meeting Wednesday afternoon in the small assembly hall, after the opening exercises and the minutes of the last meeting were read by Secretary Mrs. Harry Ijams.

Mrs. Reid urged all to subscribe for the Child's Welfare. This little magazine will be of great interest to the parents. Miss Lillian Rule is in charge of the new subscriptions; the book is only 25c per month, and without new subscriptions the staff will not be able to publish many more issues.

The program for the next meeting will be wholly in charge of the parents. This will make the assemblies more interesting because each member will have some responsibility.

A new department has been elected by the association, "The Students Loan Fund," Mrs. Ben Gaston being appointed chairman. Mrs. Gaston urged the hearty cooperation of the principal and the teachers. This plan will aid many worthy boys and girls in completing a high school course. Mrs. Gaston stated that it was emphatically not charity, but merely an assistance to deserving students. The fund consists of $111. $5 in memory of Miss Mary Plummer, $6 that Mrs. Gaston earned while serving in elections, and $100, a memorial to Miss Plummer given by the class of '24.

There were only 30 members present. Mrs. Reid explained the plans of the attendance contest. There are two groups, namely, the first and second groups; the first includes the first two years; the second, the third and fourth years.

LIGHT CONTEST NEARING CLOSE

$15,000 Home and Valuable Scholarships to Be Awarded.

Many students from Knoxville High School are entered in the home lighting contest fostered by the National Educational Committee for the purpose of creating better home lighting.

The rules and procedures are very simple for winning one of these national or local prizes. Go to the office of the Knoxville Power & Light Co., get a primer, read it over, study the lighting conditions of your home, write a six hundred word essay and win a prize. Of course someone in K. H. S. will win a prize, so get busy—it may be YOU. The prizes are a fifteen thousand dollar home and several scholarships amounting to twelve hundred dollars.

Mr. Sammons, head of this better home lighting movement, in speaking of the contest said, "I am sure Knoxville High School, one of the finest high schools in the country, should be represented in the final judgment in New York. The time is approaching for the closing of the contest, but there is still plenty of time to win a prize if you get busy. Anyone interested, call at our office, and I will be delighted to tell you all the details and help you win a prize."

MANY VALUABLES KEPT BY MISS McCLANAHAN

Anyone who has lost a locker key, or any other article, should see Miss McClanahan at once. She has a number of locker keys, fountain pens, and pencils. Also a number of other valuable articles which undoubtedly belong to someone who should claim them. Group teachers will please make a list of the lost keys in their group and turn them in to Miss McClanahan. Any keys which are turned in to her will be put in their boxes.

GEN. TYSON IN CHAPEL NOV. 11

Gives Vivid Description of Drive to Hindenburg Line By Tennessee Men

In celebration of Armistice Day, Nov. 11, Gen. L. D. Tyson, famous world war hero, was the principal speaker in upper chapel. As he entered the auditorium the entire student body rose and sang two verses of America.

Gen. Tyson made a stirring talk on the part America played in the war. "The war could not have been won without America," he said. "While America could not have won it alone, yet we struck the blow that had the most effect. Sending armies across the ocean to the battlefields of France was the most stupendous undertaking ever attempted by man, but America accomplished it with marked success."

Gen. Tyson gave a most vivid description of the breaking of the Hindenburg line, with its dangers and hardships.

"We must never forget France," remarked Gen. Tyson. "It was through France that we gained our independence. They have always helped us. It was our duty to go to their aid. They suffered more than any other country in the war for the battles were fought on their own soil. Even the France does not pay her war debt as quickly as she should, we should not think harshly of her."

Gen. Tyson stressed the fact that we should be proud to be American citizens. "American citizenship is the greatest privilege in the world."

Staff Members To Assemble At 7:30 For Large Evening

The members of the Blue and White staff will assemble promptly at 7:30 tonight at the High School building. The Blue and White Bus will be there to convey the guests to the home of Emily Simpson, hostess of the evening. The committees, with Emily Simpson in charge, have been working faithfully to make the affair a success. Esther Young, staff typist, has agreed to tell the fortunes of the members of the staff. This promises to be a unique feature of the program.

Other interesting features have been arranged by the Program Committee. A color scheme of blue and white will be carried out.

After it was announced that the Blue and White had at last secured the services of an honest to goodness stenog, so many inquiries have reached us as to who she is, what she looks like and so on, that we have decided to publish an exact likeness of her for the information of all concerned. Here with you see Esther Young, the girl who abolished the Hunt and Peck System of typewriting in the Blue and White office.

CITIZENS WEEK NOV. 10 TO 15

Five Dollars in Gold to Be Awarded Best Essay On Pioneer Leaders.

Miss Mary Boyce Temple of the D. A. R., made an announcement in Upper Chapel yesterday concerning "Citizens Week" which will be observed from the tenth to the fifteenth of this month. Governor Peay has selected two prominent characters from the history of our state, whose lives are to be studied by everyone who is at all interested in the beginning of the State of Tennessee. These men are Andrew Johnson, a Pioneer leader from East Tennessee, and James Robertson, a middle Tennessean, who was one of the founders of the state, and who founded Nashville. Governor Peay thinks that these men should be set up as examples for us to follow.

To instill the "proper spirit" in the young people, a contest has been launched by the D. A. R. Talks were made in every school yesterday by representatives of this organization, who gave the details of the contest.

A $5.00 gold piece will be awarded the boy or girl in any grade above the seventh, who writes the best essay on the life of Andrew Johnson, and another for the best essay on James Robertson.

The essay must not have less than one thousand words, nor more than three thousand. In order to have plenty of time for research, the contest will extend through March 1925. All contributions must be handed in to Mrs. Charles Gordon.

Senior Directors Submit Names For Editor of Annual

The nominees for Editor-in-Chief of the Voice are Dorothy Longmire, Warren Kennerly, Elizabeth Lyon, Trula Brantley, Frank Venable, Charles Houk, Amelia Corkland. They were selected by the Senior Class Board of Directors. The final election will be held at the regular Senior class meeting today.

These candidates were chosen not only for their ability to write but also for their interest in student activities, industriousness, and the quality of leadership. The Board of Directors is to be complimented on their excellent selection. No matter which one is elected, the Class of '25 is assured of an unbeatable annual.

William DeSautelle was unanimously nominated Business Manager.

PRIZES OFFERED BEST DECORATED AUTOMOBILE FRI.

Blue and White Paper to Be Sold at School Wed.; To Drape Cars for Contest.

Every loyal high school student is planning to see the County game, either from the grandstand or the railroad track. They will welcome the chance to win either a cash prize or reserved seats to that game. Twenty-four dollars in prizes will be awarded for the cars most artistically decorated with the school colors.

Blue and White shakers, five cents each, like those used in the County game last year, and blue and white paper, five cents a roll, will be sold at school next Wednesday and Thursday. Buy a few rolls of this paper and decorate your car according to the best of your ability.

Bring your car to school Friday morning and have it registered with a committee of judges before 8:15. The judges will be out in front of the school, and will give each car a number as it is registered. The prizes will be announced according to the numbers.

The prizes for the best decorated cars will be:

- 1st—$10.00 in cash.
- 2nd—Four reserved seats, valued at $6.00.
- 3rd—Two reserved seats, valued at $3.00.
- 4th—Three general seats, valued at $3.00.
- 5th—Two general seats, valued at $2.00.

Announcement will be made next week as to where the cars will be parked around the school for inspection. Come on High School, and let's have the school surrounded with Blue and White cars next Friday. They will be a splendid advertisement for the game on Saturday.

READ IT AGAIN; MISS MATTHEWS

Alice in Wonderland Not a Fairy Tale; A Parody On Life Says Librarian.

As this week is being observed the world over as National Book Week, Miss Matthews, K. H. S. Librarian, made a short talk in Chapel on Thursday. She discussed the book "Alice in Wonderland" by Lewis Carrol.

"This book is not a fairy tale as you may have supposed when you were reading it several years ago" said Miss Matthews. "It is a non-sensical story, a parody on life. A parody is just like the real thing only different. This book shows life as it is only different. Alice is always wishing to be either larger or smaller. Most people are like that, never satisfied with their size.

The illustrator of "Alice in Wonderland" had a very hard time pleasing Lewis Carrol, who was somewhat of an artist himself. One chapter which Mr. Carrol had written was left out of the book entirely because the illustrator could not draw pictures to please him.

Miss Matthews stated that if High School students would read this book again, they would have a very different idea of it than they had when they read it during their Grammar School days.

ARE WE GOING TO THE BOW-WOWS?

Recently I read an article in a magazine in which the author was very much alarmed over the ultimate ending of the younger generation. In other magazines are similar writings bewailing the supposition that we are headed in the wrong direction; if they are right as they think they are, probably they can suggest to us something to do.

I do not know where we are headed, neither do they; however, it is very amusing to read writings of that kind, how serious, the very seriousness is amusing. You can picture the writer with hands uplifted in alarm. What I cannot understand is why they spend so much time howling about what we do and do not look out for little Johnny. Maybe it isn't their fault, your great-great-grandfather did as they and you will fall in line with the rest when you are old; psychology of the human mind is the same.

From the arguments thrown forth upon the "steep and thorny trail", it seems as if the older generation is the apex of the world (from monkeys, to them, to us, to the dogs). Scientists are looking for the missing link, probably that is it at their back. Maybe they are right. I do not know.

WHICH ARE YOU?

In the world there are divers individual characteristics. A high school is not lacking in these, it is a small world with its own characteristics. Some students come to high school for study, others for a good time and there are still others, each student with his individual traits. Do you want to live a fast life, spending your time on everything but what you should, and being, so far as others are concerned useless; do you want to be quiet and studious, studying all the time in the effort to make more "A's"; or do you want to be an all round student, a combination of the first two? No student who has any consideration for himself would want to be either of the first two. Surely the last one is a consummation devoutly to be wished.

—Ed Hunt.

GOING UP

The second report of the average of groups in scholastic standing at K. H. S. show a very marked and gratifying increase over the average last month which was considered a good per cent for a high school.

Whether the pupils, who are speedily becoming students, have suddenly been overwhelmed by an uncontrollable desire for knowledge, whether the words of the man who said, "Study should be entered into as an adventure" have been in some mysterious way transmitted to the soon to be christened, Students, or whether they have recently and without warning become imbued with a spirit to put their class and High School on the map of the Intellectual World is yet a puzzle to the higher-ups to whom this news came as quite a surprise. But however they did it and why, it's done, and our hats are off to 'em.

Bedtime Story

By Walt Gibbs

Reading one day the old motto "Go west young man"—our two young friends decided that "east is not west" and that the only way to find out the truth is to hunt for it. West they went.

We were disappointed as the old train rolled across the Mississippi River—Jesse James was not at the end of the bridge as we expected. West began to look like just any old place. Jim began to cry and I was in favor of going back home, but we could not stop the train, no robbers held us up, so we had to keep on and now we are here.

All of the cowboys must have sold their horses, for they ride in Fords and wear overalls and not leather pants. The cows all sleep in a barn and not on the sage beds. The bull runs around out here like everywhere else.

One morning we got up and what did we see but a big black cloud,—all of the people were running for cellars—so Jim and I did too. After about an hour everything was normal but the houses down the street, they were no more. The wind blew them away.

Last night a man told us the only Indians that were alive around here lived on a preserve. I don't see how he gets by on so little. Jim and I are going to the

THIRD CHATTANOOGA TEAM IS DISPOSED OF BY 17-7 SCORE

Julian Is Shining Light in Game Replete With Thrills While Meyers and McKeehan Star for Visitors From Lookout City.

In the seventh contest of the season the Fighting Blue and White emerged victors for the seventh time. In winning, however, they had the sacred territory behind their goal polluted by an enemy foot. This is the second time this year that an opposing team has been fortunate enough to cross the final chalk mark for a score, the other was T. M. I.

The last year that Chattanooga High School came to Knoxville to try their luck, the state championship team sent them home with the 7 point end of a 17 to 7 score. History was repeated last Tuesday as the same score was handed the visitors.

In Meyers, the Lookout City crew had a real star. Though small in size, he was always with the ball where there was no one else. Once with the ball on his own ten yard line he ran half the distance of the field before he was downed. In the later stages of the game he also proved to be quite adept at passing.

The locals sprung a surprise by using the overhead route frequently for good gains. With Sheeny White doing the passing and Foust, Horne, and Julian doing the receiving, the locals were able to advance the ball in striking distance of the goal. Sheeny White was the one to start the scoring when he kicked a goal from the thirty-five yard line late in the second quarter. In the third quarter a thirty yard pass, White to Foust placed the ball on the five yard line where Long went over for the touchdown.

The scoring of K. H. S. however, seemed to put new life in the visiting warriors for they immediately started a parade down the field for their score. With practically all of the subs in the game Lobby Julian carried the ball over for the second touchdown.

The Blue and White had as stars, Long, Julian and White in the backfield, while Capt. Scott and Sharpe performed extra well in the line.

The Maroon and White brought a band and about 200 rooters along to help their team. Between halves the band of each institution paraded around the field.

There are but two more games on the local schedule, one next Saturday with County for state honors and another Dec. 6 with Stivers High School of Dayton, Ohio. The Stivers game will probably be for national honors. Neither of these teams have lost a game to date, but the locals have also failed to suffer defeat. These games will be the hardest that a local team has faced in several seasons. If the spirit is as good as it has been at some of the games, there is no doubt as to the score.

COUNTY IS NEXT FOE OF BLUE AND WHITE

To Meet Saturday Before Thanksgiving at Shields-Watkins Field.

County and City will again clash next Saturday at Shields-Watkins field. This will be the 18th game in 19 years that the two teams have played. In 1920 no game was played because of some misunderstanding between the two schools.

During all of the games there has been only one tie game that was in 1906, the first year that the two teams have played. The two teams are so evenly matched however, that a tie is all that the critics are looking for this year. To date neither team has lost a game. County has one more to play before they meet the locals for the state championship. Middlesboro High School, the champions of Kentucky, will try their luck in stopping their march.

The Fighting Blue and White has made 174 points off of their Fountain City rivals, while County has run up a grand total of 95 points over K. H. S. The locals have won 11 of the games while County has only been able to take the large end of the score in 5. City has also made the largest number of points in any one game in 1908 when they won by a 38 to 0 score. Aside from the U. T. Freshmen, this is the largest score that any team has been able to run against County.

The following is the result of the games of former years:

CITY-COUNTY GRID DOPE MIXED

Both Teams Have Clean Slate; Memphis High Only Other In State.

Among all Class A football teams in the state from prep schools only three have not been beaten. They are Memphis High, Central High of Knoxville, and Knoxville High School. Of these three probably City High of Knoxville has the most impressive record. Of course both of the other teams have exceptionally fine records, but they have played more or less weaker teams than K. H. S. K. H. S. has played perhaps, every school in East Tennessee that had any right to claim the State Championship except County, and they lock horns with them the Saturday before Thanksgiving.

County has played and won six games. They won from Bradley 7 to 0, while K. H. S. won from them 33 to 0. K. H. S. won from T. M. I. 10 to 7, while County won from them 33 to 7. Besides these two County has played weaker teams with the exception of City High of Chattanooga whom they beat 20 to 0, while K. H. S. won from them Armistice Day 17 to 7. County does not play Baylor whom K. H. S. won from 6 to 0. Baylor is considered one of the best teams in the State. McCallie also a team conquered by K. H. S., is not on County's schedule. Memphis has played schools in West Tennessee, so cannot be compared with these two schools, but it is not considered as strong a contender for the State title as the Knoxville teams.

County's record:

"D" COMPANY LEADING IN CAGE TOURNAMENT

Intra-mural sports have at last taken a definite stand in the activities of K. H. S. The gymnasium is an important place now since the company basketball teams have been organized. Every Monday and Wednesday immediately after school 4 teams representing different companies, meet to decide the supremacy of the court.

These games are always hard fought and there is usually some doubt as to the winner until the last whistle. The tournament as a whole is close with "D" Co. having the edge over the others with four wins to its credit and not a single loss. "A" Co. is running a close second, having won three

A CO. CADETS ARE RUN DOWN

Motorcycle Crashes Into Company Monday Morning; Sustain Slight Injuries.

A motorcycle ran into the third platoon of A company Monday morning on Fifth Avenue in front of the school. The machine struck the last two squads knocking about 6 boys down, but none were hurt. The company had just come to a halt when a loud clatter of rifles was heard upon the pavement and the roaring of a motor.

A small crowd gathered and Mr. Evans came out to see if any one had been hurt. The driver was accidentally struck on the head by one of the rifles. He had lost control of the machine and was unable to stop.

Capt. Johnston moved the company on quickly when he found no one was hurt and left Mr. Evans to talk it out.

This is the second thing of its kind in A company. Last term they were marching down Fifth avenue when a fire engine running at a high speed came up the street, and the boys not knowing on what side of the street it was going scattered right and left, narrowly escaping an accident.

LOPE DE VEGAS ELECT OFFICERS FOR YEAR

The Lope de Vegas club met in room 214 Thursday. This was the first meeting of the year and the election of officers was held. Eugene Gooch was elected president, Louise Whittle vice-president, Dorothy Shanton treasurer, Blanche Robinson secretary. Three committees were elected; one committee on by-laws and constitution, one on entertainment, and a committee to choose the rings. There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

Sarah Wallace, reporter.

SIGHTS SEEN ON THE SPECIAL TRAIN

1. The Band boys perched on top of the seats, straining the muscles of their throats trying to make their wind instruments "do their duty".
2. Henry Tittsworth wildly searching for his (misplaced?) Blue and White staff pin.
3. Mary McWilson, Charlotte Ball, John Archer and Ed Bennett playing Bridge.
4. Mary Fox, Julia Hope Russell, Maisie Griffith and Kitty Lee Trainum passing around four boxes of candy to all boys who happened to spy the aforementioned boxes.
5. Barney Ogle entertaining an interested group of listeners with stories about how he hunted lions in the African jungles.
6. Chas. Houk as "Mama's darling" dressed up in rouge, powder, a red hat, rings, etcetra.

BRILLIANT TABLEAUX OF ROMAN MYTHOLOGY

To Be Produced by Latin Classes Taught By Miss Galbreath

Miss Helen E. Galbreath's Latin Classes are again proving that they are the most brilliant students in K. H. S. At the monthly meeting of the Latin Club, next Tuesday afternoon, they are producing a Tableaux, taken from Roman mythology. The following scenes will be portrayed:

1. Pandora.
2. Orpheus and Eurydice.
3. Nicbe.
4. Hero and Lysander.
5. The Three Fates.
6. The Vestal Virgin.
7. Atlanta's Race.
8. The Parting of Hector and Andromache.

9. Aeneas at the Court of Dido. In the tableaux there will appear students from all of Miss Galbreath's classes except her 8th period 1-A class. The following students will appear:

Mary Phipps 1B, Rose Nius 2B, Helen Tipton 2B, Charles Smith 2A, Thomas Brown, Jr. 2A, Mims Thomason 2A, May Williamson 2A, Benjamin Gaston, Jr. 2A, Catherine Lloyd 2A, George Tharp Jr. 2A, Helene Hudson 2A, Verna Sparks 2A, Annette Thomas 2A, Margaret Burkle 2A, John Hightower 2A, Virginia Carter 2A, Louise Rothermel 2A, Ethel Ray Chastain 2A.

COMMERCE CLUB

Enjoy Talks and Entertainment at Second Meet of Year.

The commercial club held their second meeting of the term last Thursday. One of the most enjoyable and beneficial programs ever presented at a club meeting was arranged for the meeting. Mrs. Wolfe sang a delightful solo entitled, "When My Ship Came Sailing In."

Several short talks were given by Edna Peacock and Pauline Miller on "Shorthand" and "Typewriting." Ruby Stapleton played two selections, "Sweet Lavender" and "Puritan Days" composed by McDowell. Upon a vote of the club it was decided to hold a membership campaign.

Incident on a Football Field
'Twas the very day that Knoxville High,
Played football with T. M. I.
Old Knoxville was about to yield
When out on the field
Stepped "Sheeny" with his educated toe
To help us against our foe.
Suddenly he kicked the goal
That made the score roll,
'Then we could hear old T. M. I. sigh,
For it was victory for Knoxville High.

By Alda Richards.

The French Club

The new officers of the French Club conducted the meeting which was held in room 214, last Thursday afternoon.

The program committee had arranged an interesting program for the meeting. The members are looking forward to many other entertainments during the coming year.

Delicious refreshments were served.

Phil K.: "I am going to marry a girl who can take a joke."
Mr. Hackney: "Don't worry,—that's the only kind of a girl you'll get."

INTERESTING PROGRAM IN MRS. YOUNG'S GROUP

Tuesday, Nov. 11, our group started Armistice Day with a Bible reading by our president, Kathleen Whitaker. We sang one verse of "America" and then saluted the flag.

Roscoe Word made an interesting talk on fire arms from the time of the Civil War until the World War. He illustrated his talk by showing us a large gun, weighing nine pounds. The bullets for this gun will go through fifty-four men unless it hits a bone.

Eleanor Williams gave us a splendid talk on prominent men of the World War. Among them were General Pershing, Sergeant Alvin York and President Wilson.

George Wolfe gave the causes of the war, namely: declaring of war by America and the sinking of the U. S. ships.

Reva M. Zachary, reporter.

We think that the busiest man in the world is a one armed paper hanger with the itch.

A little moonlight now and then, Marries off the best of men.

Lives of writers oft remind us Honest toil doesn't stand a chance;

More we work we leave behind us Bigger patches on our pants.

In our pants once new and glossy Now are shades of different hue, All because subscribers linger And won't pay us what is due.
