

Dramatic Club To Present "Turn to the Right" Soon With Little Theatre Plan

Play Has Been Staged In Knoxville Twice by Stock Company and Chautauqua.

The Dramatic Club is planning to give a play soon, entitled, "Turn to the Right," by Winchell Smith and John E. Hazzard.

Rehearsals are now in progress under the direction of Mr. McCabe. The cast for the play is as follows:

- Joe Bascom—Albert Simpson.
- Muggs—Walter McCabe.
- Gilly—Rufus Agee.
- Deacon Tillinger—Tom Simpson.
- Sam Martin—Charles Houk.
- Lester Morgan—Henry Lutz-henheiser.
- Callahan, Isadore—Bob Ruwe.
- Mrs. Bascom—Rebecca Cole.
- Elsie Tillinger—Marion Whaley.
- Betty Bascom—Thelma Sams.
- Jessie Strong—Mary Wilkerson.
- Katie—Dorothy McGehee.

This is a well known play. Both the Peruchi Stock Company, and the Chatauqua have presented it in the city, and the production has met with approval.

The date for presenting this play has not been arranged. The proceeds will go to the upkeep of the stage. The Dramatic Club gave the present scenery to the school, and arranged the stage in the "Little Theatre Style."

BLUE AND WHITE SPECIAL TO CAMP

C. M. T. C. At Camp McClellan to Draw Many Boys From Knoxville High.

The special drive, which is on for enrollment for the C. M. T. C., has begun.

Major Stephenson has received word that he will be on duty with the Summer Training Camp at Camp McClellan, Alabama, again this year.

Arrangements have been made with the railroad company to run a special train from Knoxville direct into Camp McClellan.

This will be done if 150 boys will spend the month of July on a free Camping Trip at the expense of Uncle Sam. Now is the time to enroll.

Several of the track team stars have already made application. Several members of our Rifle Team will be expected to make good on the Corps Area Team and represent us in the National Matches at Camp Perry, Ohio.

Our baseball squad will be represented on the Camp team.

Our swimmers and our sheiks, our boxers and our musicians will give the C. M. T. C. a real treat.

TODAY WE HAVE WITH US THE ALUMNI EDITOR

Julia Hope Russett

This is the valuable "small package" which was the subject of the remarks by Mr. Hendrickson and Wm. DeSautelle, during a recent chapel. Julia Hope is another of those staff members who works so quietly that we scarcely know she is about, but her work always comes in and it comes in right. She is rated as Alumni Editor, but her work takes in all types of material from supplying fillers to handling important special work. She is one of our best writers on this year's staff.

The element that distinguishes her above all others is her modest dependability. She never fails. This never failing quality is indispensable to a member of the Blue and White Staff.

Julia Hope's work and her association will be missed when she leaves at the end of this school year.

PRECEDENT IS SET IN GRADUATION COSTUMES

Seniors Vote to Wear Cap and Gown at All Graduation Exercises.

The Class of '25 has introduced an innovation in the Commencement Week ceremonies. This year Seniors will wear gray caps and gowns at both the Baccalaureate Sermon and the Graduation Exercises. This was decided by a vote of the Seniors.

The Board of Education requires all Seniors to wear the cap and gown on commencement night. These are rented at a cost of two dollars each. For fifty cents extra these may be had for the whole week. This appealed to many because it will give an opportunity to have Graduation Pictures taken and will present a more striking appearance at the Baccalaureate Sermon where formerly all white costumes were worn by girls and suits of various colors by boys.

The vote was overwhelmingly for the caps and gowns to be kept a whole week, being 191 favoring and 67 opposing.

NO NEWS TODAY EXCEPT THAT--

The Girls Will Have a Football Team—The Piano Isn't Paid for Yet, Etc.

Occasionally, or in fact very frequently, we hear the inquiry "Any news?", and the answer is usually "No news today," the latter spoken in a very dry, every-day voice. But did you ever stop to think whether or not there is really no news? Before you go on record as knowing nothing uncommon, or extraordinary, how about thinking a minute to see if you know what news is? What is very old to you may be the most interesting news to the other fellow, so why not stop to see if you really know something, that is not a deep secret, which somebody else hasn't heard, before committing yourself to the old hackneyed phrase?

About a month ago we met a charming Junior in the hall, and after the usual greeting, we asked her for news, only to receive the disappointing answer, "No news at all." However, no whit abashed, we chatted with her fifteen or twenty minutes, and finally brought to light the fact that this little brunette had a date with the president of the Senior class, and also that she was wearing Sheeny White's football. And still she had said "No news!"

Later on in the day we assailed Mr. Lowery and Mr. Betts with the same question, and received the answer of "no news." But perhaps we shouldn't blame them, for it was babies, instead of news, that they had this time.

Then, to cap the climax, as we were wandering down the hall Monday in search of that elusive creature, News, we met Mr. Evans.

"Oh, now we will get an earful," ran through our brain as we made a center rush. But did we? All we got was "no news!" However, he kindly offered to accompany us to our class, which we were cutting, and during the conversation en route the fact leaked out that there would be no school Friday! Oh, boys, ain't it a grand and glorious feeling to hear some real news?

FIRESTONE ESSAY CONTEST NOW ON

Papers Must Be In By May 1st; Winner To Receive $4,000 Scholarship.

The award for the National Good Roads Essay Contest which is now being conducted, is the H. S. Firestone four years University Scholarship, providing tuition and all reasonable expenses at any College or University in the United States. This prize is valued at $4,000.

The subject for the essay is, "Economies resulting from Highway Improvement." All High School students are eligible to enter this contest, which is being conducted under the auspices of the Highway Education Board at Washington, D. C. The essay may not exceed 700 words, and must be submitted by May 1, 1925. Only three essays may be sent in from one High School.

Interest In Companies Rising To Fever Heat As Event Draws Nigh.

Next Wednesday the Board of Education will give the annual half holiday to enable the students to attend the R. O. T. C. track meet to be held at Caswell Park. This annual affair has become popular not only with the students but also with the outsiders.

This will mark the fifth year of the meets during which time there has been a number of records established which are more or less stable. By ruling of the Athletic Association however the student breaking a record will be given the regulation track letter and admitted to the "K" club.

Any one is eligible to compete but only those drilling will be awarded prizes which are donated by the local business men. The points won in this meet count on the competition for the American Legion Trophy.

Each year Mr. Julian Jones gives a medal to the person scoring the most points regardless of whether they are attached to some company or not. Of the two years that he has been giving this Frank Long has won it twice. Last year

CHAMPION TYPIST STARTLES PUPILS

Commercial Students Surprised By World Champion accuracy Typewriting.

Tuesday afternoon Miss Bessie Friedman, world's champion accuracy typist, demonstrated her skill to the students of the commercial department in a series of one-minute tests. She wrote 138 words per minute while adding up five columns of figures; eighty-four words per minute from oral dictation; 139 words per minute in regular typewriting contest material; and 227 words per minute in writing repeatedly a familiar sentence. Miss Friedman's speed should be an encouragement to all who would be proficient on the typewriter.

At the end of the contest, such comments were heard as: "I bet I can write that fast." "139! Why she can just write a hundred words a minute faster than I can." "I am disgusted with myself after seeing her," and many others.

JONES IS DONOR MEDAL FOR HIGH POINT MAN

Professor Julian Jones has announced that he will again offer to the high point man of the R. O. T. C. track meet a medal to be known as the Julian Jones medal. This medal in the past has been won by Frank Long in 1922 and in 1923 and by Ivan Andes in 1924.

At the first track meet held in the summer of 1922 all of the prizes were those donated by business men and friends of the school. Professor Jones offered a medal to the high point man of the meet to stimulate interest and to get the contestants to enter more than one or two events. This medal caused much interest to be manifested in the meet.

POSTERITIES HELP

It has been stated by one of the would-be philosophers of the age that posterity is a nuisance and that they mean nothing in our life as far as benefiting us is concerned, though he is broad minded enough to admit that we may be of some benefit to posterity since they will profit by what we know and do.

Posterity should be a great help to us in spite of this "would-be's" ideas if we are made of the right stuff. Posterity should be an incentive to work. Not necessarily labor as commonly thought of in connection with work but deeds of which the coming generation will look back on with pride.

The service which the present generation is to render posterity and the service posterity may render us should form a cycle in which our pride and thoughtfulness should perform the service to them and in so doing benefit ourselves at the same time.

Posterity is a great advantage to us and it isn't philosophy either, it is just common sense.

THE AVERAGE MAN

The average man knows that if he is going to accomplish anything he will have to do much of it practically by main force. He's got to plow his row, so to speak, every foot of it. So he begins plowing, and if he has the stuff in him to keep at it, keep going a little harder and better all the time, he is bound to do some traveling in the course of years.

The average man is the one that has the educational advantages of perhaps a high school or a technical school. He studies hard but possessing no genius of a mind he does not head the class; but learns his lesson. He is by no means a "dumbbell" but he is not in the brilliant class. To the average class, most of us belong.

While the average man is traveling ahead, perhaps the brilliant one is sitting back, figuring how he can get there by some short cut; but there are few short cuts in the business world or any other life. The path is pretty straight.

The average man is glad to get help. He is more willing than the exceptionally brilliant man to admit that others are doing their part of the work, and that they deserve part of the credit. In that way when he becomes a leader he will usually get better co-operation. This, of course, means he will get better results, and results are the chickens that come to roost; they do all the "crowing" a man needs. He doesn't have to do any himself.

Don't get discouraged because you do not belong to the class of the brilliant. Work harder and better, keeping in mind that the odds favor the average man.

—Quentin Gore.

SEE TENNESSEE FIRST

Before going to New York, California, Florida nad various places why not see your own home state first.

New York is wonderful with its high skyscrapers, California is noted for its fine fruits and its wealth and Florida is great for its climate and seashore, while Tennessee is rich in mineral and has large hardwood forest, beautiful farm land, mountains that surpass any in this country for their beauty and highth east of the Rockies, it has numbers of camps, both for boys and girls, it has moderate temperature, therefore being pleasant the year round.

It is very nice to take trips to the large cities and to go to Europe, but take part of your vacation time this summer and take a trip up in the Smokies or to the farm lands of West Tennessee and you will be surprised at the beautiful sights and good times you've been missing.

See Tennessee first and then when you take in the others you boast on your own state "Tennessee the Volunteer State."

—Buck Paine.

Knoxville Has Good High School System

(Editor's Note). This is the first of a series of articles dealing with the school situation in Knoxville as compared to other cities. The second of these articles will appear in the Blue and White next week.

Principal W. E. Evans, presented in Wednesday's chapel, some facts from the recent survey of the city schools by experts. These facts were presented with a view to giving citizens a better understanding of the actual condition of affairs in the schools. It is his purpose to help answer for the public such questions as, "Why is such a small part of the proposed bond issue set aside for High Schools?" "What is the status of Junior High School work in Knoxville," etc.

On this particular occasion emphasis was placed upon the High School situation, the needs of the elementary schools and the requirements of the grammar grades. Some of the interesting facts shown by the expert survey are:

The increase in elementary school attendance is about equal to the arithmetic increase in population per year, or .2%. In the high school the increase is 17.1%. The increase in attendance in all white schools is 5.6%, or a fifth more than the increase in general population.

In the Junior high school grades the increase is a little over 6.4%, while in the senior high grades it reaches the high figure of 23.7%. This, in the words of the expert, "may be partly due to the fact that the adequate junior high school facilities are largely lacking, while good senior high facilities have long been provided.

Knoxville stands high among the cities in her class for the number of school population in actual attendance. It is above such cities as El Paso, Tex., Fort Wayne, Indiana, and Savannah, Ga. Knoxville is a "good high school town."

The Knoxville High School building is the only building in Knoxville at present with facilities adequate to the conduct of a city senior high school. It is, according to the report, large enough to care for the senior high pupils for some years, and at present can accommodate all senior high pupils, with a margin of several hundred which can be used to accommodate a portion of the junior high school pupils. (N. B. This is what is now being done).

The most striking fact brought out, is perhaps the statement that of the 11,901 pupils enrolled in grades 1-6, 6,383, or 54.1% are on part time.

It is the hope of the Superintendent and the Board that the time will soon come when there will be a seat for every child in every school, every day, for the entire school day.

Jerome Lawhon (in office getting tardy excuse): "Er—good morning, sir."

Mr. Evans (removing hat and coat): "Late again?"

J. L.: "So am I."

—K—

Marie A.: "The idea of you studying seven hours a day. I would not think of such a thing."

Bonnie W.: "Neither would I. It was the school board that thought of it."

—K—

Early: "What makes you think they're engaged?"

Jake: "She has a ring and he's broke."

—K—

Obart Beasley: "What fruit grows on telegraph poles?"

Harcourt Morgan: "Electric currents, of course."

Love in the Print Shop

"May I print a kiss on your lips," I said.

And she nodded her sweet permission.

So we went to press and rather guess

We printed a full edition.

"One edition is hardly enough," She said with a charming pout.

So again on the press the form we placed

And we got some extras out.

The Spectator

Oh La Gonda, how could you be so cruel as to vamp little Walter Bales? We heard the noise when he fell clear up town.

—K—

We understand that Jimmie Cook simply adores bright green dresses; and oh, don't amber beads look pretty around La Gonda's neck?

—K—

Lobby, we wonder if one of the occupants of locker 1132 had anything to do with the disappearance of two comps for the Newport game. What about it, Mary?

—K—

Has anybody noticed how cheap cider is since those little red William Tell ties became so popular?

—K—

Mr. Northcutt suggests the plan of diving off a chair into an ink well if you would like to commit suicide by drowning.

—K—

Mary, Ruth would like to know just what kind of a pair of presents you want for your birthday. Could you tell her in room 103?

—K—

Our baseball team wants to thank the students for their support of the game Saturday. Fine school spirit, and mud, any everything.

—K—

Oh, Mary Trigg, isn't it fine that you will get to go to the banquet with Jce Webb? Be sure to powder your nose and look pretty. It's done nowadays.

—K—

Oh yes, so somebody else has a new crush this week. Evelyn Bennett, how about Ernest A.?

—K—

Well, the most popular boy in High School has at last been discovered. His name is Henry, and he says that he could—well, anyway, the girls like him a lot.

—K—

Raymond Webb said when he went to buy his tie, they told him

they didn't have any red ones, but they'd let him have that one until the red ones came in. Well, maybe! But it isn't just exactly reminiscent of St. Patrick's day to us.

—K—

It is rumored that a certain popular staff member had an eleven o'clock date Saturday night. We shouldn't be surprised, considering the usual lateness of his hours. For instance, the long-forgotten night of the staff party.

—K—

Jack Wayland wants it distinctly understood that he likes the dark Spanish type, such as La Gonda, you know. Isn't it all so romantic?

—K—

Speaking of pink handkerchiefs, Jack McDonald says he knows the cutest girl up here who has one. He won't tell her name but her initials are LaGonda C.

—K—

Yes, Mildred, we think Mrs. Cooley should look after Flem, because he acts more like a two year old, than a twelve year old child as you said.

—K—

Chas.: "What became of that little girl I saw you making love to in the hammock?"

Bo McCabe: "Oh, we fell out."

SPORT BRIEFS

By HENRY TITTSWORTH

Watch out for the Cadets tomorrow, they are coming with blood in their eyes resolved on getting revenge.

Tittsworth

Andes was above himself last Friday in the broad jump, going on one occasion 22 feet 2 inches which is far better than the average college jumper.

Out of four baseball games played there has been scarcely $10.00 emptied into the coffers of the Athletic Association. If that record is not passed baseball will either have to be dropped or drain the treasury.

Until Friday Pritchett's best record in the pole vault was 9 feet 3 inches. In competition he was forced to ten feet to carry off first honors. Tripp was 9 feet 9 inches, which was one foot and three inches better than he had ever done in practice.

Aside from hogging all the fielding honors, Sheeny has also started in to monopolize all the hitting.

Bill Ferrell had a good day on the mound Saturday against Newport, going the entire route without allowing a single earned run.

Roy Horne has become an expert in working the "hidden ball" trick as he catches some napping off first in nearly every game.

With three first places for a total of fifteen points, Andes was easily high point man Friday.

A week from tomorrow the fleet-footed warriors will journey to T. M. I. to try to emphasize the local athletic supremacy.

Not to be outdone by the students the pros pulled a track meet of their own last Friday during the Madisonville affair. The high jump went to R. H. Jones at 2 feet 7 inches, while Julian Jones with a tremendous leap of 3 feet 2-1/2 inches won the broad jump.

The crew from T. M. I. is noted for their slugging ability and excellent fielding. This will keep the pitchers busy and give the rest of the team a real job trying to get a hit across.

K. H. S. probably has the best balanced baseball team in the state as they are capable of hitting when necessary, the pitching and fielding is good and last but not least, there is cooperation.

By traveling the mile in 4:44 Dexter Green broke his own record of 4:52 for the distance.

The mile relay team came within 4 seconds of breaking the Southern record for the distance. This points to a new record before the end of the season.

Next Wednesday the annual R. O. T. C. track meet will be held at Caswell Park. This annual event furnishes material for the track team and also gives points to the winning company toward the competitive drill.

Burl Foust is traveling at top form this year. On third base his fielding is flawless and his hitting is above the average.

T. M. I. SEEKING REVENGE FRIDAY

Orange and Blue Cadets Here To Play Part in Grudge Battle Tomorrow

Tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock Caswell Park will be the scene of the baseball battle between the Orange and Blue of T. M. I. and the Blue and White of K. H. S. The two met in the Fall on the gridiron, the locals emerging the victors by only a 10 to 7 count.

T. M. I. always considers the annual set-to with K. H. S. their biggest and best battle of the season. Tomorrow will be no exception as the Cadets have been training all season with just one object in view, to beat K. H. S. in baseball to avenge the football incident.

The Seetwater team is said to have a team composed of sluggers who can paste the old pill from any angle. Their pitchers are also well above the average with their fielding record stacking up with any in this section of the state.

However, the local nine has been progressing nicely under the tutelage of Coach McCollum and will offer about the stiffest opposition to the visiting team that may be expected anywhere in the state. With Charlie Brummitt and Bill Ferrell handling the heaving, the pitching will go on as good or better than any in the country. Country Cockrum and Bill Bean are receiving extra well and the rest of the team is hitting and fielding above the average.

It will take in the neighborhood of $100 to bring the visitors to Caswell. There has been only a few dollars taken in at each game. Everyone try to see the Cadets in action and in doing so contribute to their expenses.

TRULA BRANTLEY IS BEST TYPIST

Trula Brantley, exchange editor of the Blue and White, won the monogrammed gold Eversharp pencil offered by the Remington Typewriting Co. She won this prize in a speed and accuracy test conducted by Mr. Jones, representative of the Remington Typewriting Co. The test was held in Miss Champe's sixth period typewriting class, the winner to be the person writing the highest number of net words per minute.

Jim L.: "Are you the young lady who took my order?"
Waitress: "Yes, sir."
Jim L.: "You're still looking well; how are your grandchildren?"

TIE IS RESULT MUDDY GAME

K. H. S. Scalp Still Intact Tho' Lack of Support Is Evident.

In a naval battle on a sea of mud the local baseball team met the Newport clan last Saturday to emerge in a 2 all tie. On account of the mud starrng was impossible in the field. During practically all of the game rain fell and on this account it was halted in the fifth.

The Newport aggregation sent in a port side hurler who was the first the local crew faced this year. Bill Ferrell tossed them over for the home team, giving a good account of himself through-second.

As usual, Sheeny was the individual luminary, registering two hits and a perfect day in the field. Bill Jackson was playing in hard luck, however, as he failed to collect his usual homer and his miffing a ball caused the visitors to tie the score.

Including spectators, players, coaches, managers, etc., there were less than a hundred people inside the fence. Still the team has about as good or maybe better chance of any team in the country for annexing the Southern crown.

Mrs. Darnall: "Can you spell correctly?"

Mary L. S.: "Yes, mam. I wish all other words were as easy as that."

SUPT. MILLER IS CLASS SPEAKER

Professor Miller taught Mrs. Moore's seventh period English class Monday about conjunctions. He said that everyone did not seem to think much of conjunctions but they were a very important part of speech. He also stated that everyone taking Latin would be trained in their use, and that he sometimes read Cicero for his own enjoyment.

Professor Miller quoted Senator Beveridge in bringing out three important facts when making a speech. They were, first: to have something to speak about; second, to use such flowery language; and third, to know when to quit.

"Your hair wants cutting badly, sir," remarked the barber.
"No, it doesn't," replied Ray F.
"It wants cutting nicely. You cut it badly last time."

RECORDS FALL IN K. H. S. VICTORY

Madisonville Offers Little Opposition As Andes and Green Break Records

Last Friday the Flying Squadron completely swamped the visiting track team from Madisonville by a 79 to 24 score, allowing them but one first place. As this was the first time the team has been in competition this year this is the first line-up on the team. The prospects look brighter than ever before.

Andes was the individual star of the meet, winning three first places making him high point man for the meet. He scored in the 100, 220 and broad jump. Frank Long, Oscar Beaver and Dexter Green each won one first and one out.

The only new records set were in the mile and broad jump. Dexter Green ran his favorite distance in 4:44 against his old record of 4:52. Authorities are predicting a mile between 4:30 and 4:35 before the close of the season. Andes in the broad jump stepped out 20 feet 8 inches, breaking the record of 20 feet 4 inches made by Davis several years ago. In one leap he was measured 22 feet 2 inches. This however, was a foul by a fraction of an inch. He promises to alter this record slightly along with the time on the dashes.

BELL RINGERS PAY WELL BUT

The concert given by the Swiss Bell Ringers in the High School auditorium Thursday afternoon and night was very successful considering that it had no advertisement. The Parent-Teachers' Association cleared $132.00 on both performances, this did not, as hoped, pay for the last payment on the grand piano donated to High School by the Association. The ladies have paid almost $300 on the piano this year.

Girls Sport Briefs

Attention, Girls! Tommy Richards has decided that we are not to be outdone by the boys next year for we will have a football team of our own. All those wishing to try out see Tommy.

There will also be a basket-ball team. There is much good material as we have Worth Mabry, Bernadine Moose, Sarah Frances Lavin, Katherine Freymond, Katherine Kinnane and Tommy Richards. Besides others who still have their laurels to win.

Meanwhile let us turn our thoughts to tennis and dust off our rackets. Everyone must be signed up by April 9th. Practice will begin next week for the tennis tournament. There should be many budding young players from this large group of girls. Wonder who they will be?

Gather close now girls, there is one girl at least who has learned the magic formula for attaining slimness. Mattie Stewart won the Red Cross Medal offered to the Girl Scout or Girl Reserve improving the most during two months. For details see Mattie.

We shall have a most interesting tennis tournament because in our midst we have Edith Wishman who was the winner of the Girls' Tournament at Caswell Park last summer.

Mae Freeman is also with us. Mae is a letter lady, having won her letter in tennis year before last.

The indoor baseball teams are practicing hard and are showing some real work. Miss Frisbie has planned several meets with Boyd and Park City Lowery for these classes.

All girls who wish to be in the tennis tournament must be signed up by Thursday afternoon of next week, April 16th. Sign up in gym office for singles or doubles. Tournament will begin the week after Easter.

All up-to-date florists are now advertising: "Say it with moonshine." They know the flowers will come later.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR TRACK MEET

FORMER HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS ON U. T. TEAM

As usual, the alumni of our school are making a name for themselves. Frank Darnall and Robert Kennerly, graduates in the Class of '24, are members of the University of Tennessee Freshman Debating Team. The third member of the team is Irvin Shapiro. Furthermore, Frank Darnall is captain of the team.

This combination upheld the negative side of the question, "Resolved, that the United States should grant immediate and complete independence to the Philippine Islands," in a debate against Maryville College Freshmen at Maryville last Monday night. The vote of the judges was two to one in favor of U. T. The same night Tennessee's affirmative team defeated Maryville's negative team here.
